

Global Compact and Us

The Global Compact is a global framework initiated and advocated by the United Nations aiming at the promotion of sustainable development and the collective improvement of social well-being through responsible and innovative business practices. As a member of the UN Global Compact, we are committed to observing and supporting the Ten Principles advocated by the Global Compact in the fields of human rights, labor rights, environment protection and anti-corruption, using the Ten Principles to guide our practices in fulfilling social responsibilities. And we will continue to disclose our progress in keeping with the Ten Principles in the Global Compact in our annual report.

	Ten Principles in the Global Compact	Corresponding sections herein
Human Rights	1. Businesses should support and respect the protection of Internationally proclaimed human rights;	4.1 Employees' Rights
	2. make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.	4.1 Employees' Rights
Labour Rights	3. Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;	4.1 Employees' Rights
	4. the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;	4.1 Employees' Rights
	5. the effective abolition of child labour;	4.1 Employees' Rights
	6. the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.	4.1 Employees' Rights

Environment Protection	7. Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;	2.5 Response to Climate Change
	8. undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and	Interview with the President 2.2 Enhancing Operational Safety 2.3 Promoting Energy Saving and Emission Reduction 2.4 Ecological Protection 2.5 Response to Climate Change
	9. encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.	2.5 Response to Climate Change
Anti-Corruption	10. Businesses should work against corruption of all kinds, including extortion and bribery.	Message from the Chairman About PetroChina Corporate Governance