CERTAIN TERMS AND CONVENTIONS

Conventions Which Apply to this Annual Report

Unless the context otherwise requires, references in this annual report to:

- “CNPC” or “CNPC group” are to our parent, China National Petroleum Corporation and its affiliates and subsidiaries, excluding PetroChina, its subsidiaries and its interests in long-term investments, and where the context refers to any time prior to the establishment of CNPC, those entities and businesses which were contributed to CNPC upon its establishment.
- “PetroChina”, “we”, “our”, “our company” and “us” are to:
 - PetroChina Company Limited, a joint stock company incorporated in the People’s Republic of China with limited liability and its subsidiaries and branch companies, or
 - the CNPC group’s domestic crude oil and natural gas exploration and production, refining and marketing, chemicals and natural gas businesses that were transferred to us in the restructuring of the CNPC group in 1999.
- “PRC” or “China” are to the People’s Republic of China, but do not apply to Hong Kong, Macau or Taiwan for purposes of this annual report.

We publish our consolidated financial statements in Renminbi. The audited consolidated financial statements included in this annual report have been prepared as if the operations and businesses transferred to us from CNPC were transferred as of the earliest period presented or from the date of establishment of the relevant unit, whichever is later, and conducted by us throughout the period. In this annual report, IFRS refers to International Financial Reporting Standards.

Conversion Table

1 barrel-of-oil equivalent	= 1 barrel of crude oil	= 6,000 cubic feet of natural gas
1 cubic meter	= 35.315 cubic feet
1 ton of crude oil	= 1 metric ton of crude oil	= 7.389 barrels of crude oil (assuming an API gravity of 34 degrees)

Certain Oil and Gas Terms

Unless the context indicates otherwise, the following terms have the meanings shown below:

“acreage”	The total area, expressed in acres, over which an entity has interests in exploration or production. Net acreage is the entity’s interest, expressed in acres, in the relevant exploration or production area.
“API gravity”	An indication of the density of crude oil or other liquid hydrocarbons as measured by a system recommended by the American Petroleum Institute (API), measured in degrees. The lower the API gravity, the heavier the compound.
“condensate”	Light hydrocarbon substances produced with natural gas that condense into liquid at normal temperatures and pressures associated with surface production equipment.
“crude oil”	Crude oil, including condensate and natural gas liquids.

“development cost”	For a given period, costs incurred to obtain access to proved reserves and to provide facilities for extracting, treating, gathering and storing the oil and gas.
“finding cost”	For a given period, costs incurred in identifying areas that may warrant examination and in examining specific areas that are considered to have prospects of containing oil and gas reserves, including costs of drilling exploratory wells and exploratory-type stratigraphic test wells. Finding cost is also known as exploration cost.
“lifting cost”	For a given period, costs incurred to operate and maintain wells and related equipment and facilities, including applicable operating costs of support equipment and facilities and other costs of operating and maintaining those wells and related equipment and facilities. Lifting cost is also known as production cost.
“natural gas liquids”	Hydrocarbons that can be extracted in liquid form together with natural gas production. Ethane and pentanes are the predominant components, with other heavier hydrocarbons also present in limited quantities.
“offshore”	Areas under water with a depth of five meters or greater.
“onshore”	Areas of land and areas under water with a depth of less than five meters.
“primary distillation capacity” . .	At a given point in time, the maximum volume of crude oil a refinery is able to process in its basic distilling units.
“proved developed reserves” . .	Reserves that can be expected to be recovered through existing wells with existing equipment and operating methods. Additional oil and gas expected to be obtained through the application of fluid injection or other improved recovery techniques for supplementing the natural forces and mechanisms of primary recovery are included as “proved developed reserves” only after testing by a pilot project or after the operation of an installed program has confirmed through production response that increased recovery will be achieved.
“proved reserves”	Estimated quantities of crude oil and natural gas which geological and engineering data demonstrate with reasonable certainty to be recoverable in future years from known reservoirs under existing economic and operating conditions, i.e., prices and costs as of the date the estimate is made. Prices include consideration of changes in existing prices provided only by contractual arrangements, but not of escalations based upon future conditions.
“proved undeveloped reserves”	Reserves that are expected to be recovered from new wells on undrilled acreage, or from existing wells where a relatively major expenditure is required for recompletion. Reserves on undrilled acreage shall be limited to those drilling units offsetting productive units that are reasonably certain of production when drilled. Proved reserves for other undrilled units can be claimed only where it can be demonstrated with certainty that there is continuity of production from the existing productive formation. Under no circumstances should estimates for proved undeveloped reserves be attributable to any acreage for which an application of fluid injection or other improved recovery technique is contemplated, unless such techniques have been proved effective by actual tests in the area and in the same reservoir.

- “reserve-to-production ratio” . . . For any given well, field or country, the ratio of proved reserves to annual production of crude oil or, with respect to natural gas, to wellhead production excluding flared gas.
- “sales gas” Marketable production of gas on an “as sold” basis, excluding flared gas, injected gas and gas consumed in operations.
- “water cut” For a given oil region, the percentage that water constitutes of all fluids extracted from all wells in that region.

References to:

- BOE is to barrels-of-oil equivalent,
- Mcf is to thousand cubic feet, and
- Bcf is to billion cubic feet.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This annual report contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements are, by their nature, subject to significant risks and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements relating to:

- the amounts and nature of future exploration, development and other capital expenditures;
- future prices and demand for crude oil, natural gas, refined products and chemical products;
- development projects;
- exploration prospects;
- reserves potential;
- production of oil and gas and refined and chemical products;
- development and drilling potential;
- expansion and other development trends of the oil and gas industry;
- the planned development of our natural gas operations;
- the planned expansion of our refined product marketing network;
- the planned expansion of our natural gas infrastructure;
- the anticipated benefit from the acquisition of certain overseas assets from CNPC, our parent company;
- the plan to continue to pursue attractive business opportunities outside China;
- our future overall business development and economic performance;
- our anticipated financial and operating information regarding, and the future development and economic performance of, our business;
- our anticipated market risk exposure arising from future changes in interest rates, foreign exchange rates and commodity prices; and
- other prospects of our business and operations.

The words “anticipate”, “believe”, “could”, “estimate”, “expect”, “intend”, “may”, “plan”, “seek”, “will” and “would” and similar expressions, as they related to us, are intended to identify a number of these forward-looking statements.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future and are beyond our control. The forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are not a guarantee of future performance. Actual results may differ materially from information contained in the forward-looking statements as a result of a number of factors, including, without limitation, the risk factors set forth in this annual report and the following:

- fluctuations in crude oil and natural gas prices;
- failure to achieve continued exploration success;
- failures or delays in achieving production from development projects;
- continued availability of capital and financing;
- acquisitions and other business opportunities that we may pursue;

- general economic, market and business conditions, including volatility in interest rates, changes in foreign exchange rates and volatility in commodity markets;
- liability for remedial actions under environmental regulations;
- impact of the PRC's entry into the World Trade Organization;
- the actions of competitors;
- wars and acts of terrorism or sabotage;
- changes in policies, laws or regulations of the PRC, including changes in applicable tax rates;
- the other changes in global economic and political conditions affecting the production, supply and demand and pricing of crude oil, refined products, petrochemical products and natural gas; and
- the other risk factors discussed in this annual report, and other factors beyond our control.

You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement.

Notes:

- (1) Certain financial data for these periods and as of these dates are derived from our audited consolidated financial statements, not included in this annual report, and were retroactively restated. In 2005, we retroactively restated our prior years' consolidated financial statements to reflect the effect as if the refinery and petrochemical operations of Ningxia Dayuan Refinery and Petrochemical Company Limited, or Dayuan, Qingyang Refinery and Petrochemical Company Limited, or Qingyang, both of which we acquired from CNPC, and the operations of CNPC Exploration and Development Company Limited, or CNPC E&D, of which we acquired a 50% interest from China National Oil and Gas Exploration and Development Corporation, or CNODC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CNPC, had always been combined since inception.
- (2) The basic and diluted income per share for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2003 and 2004 has been calculated by dividing the net profit by the number of 175,824 million shares issued and outstanding for the corresponding years. The basic and diluted income per share for the year ended December 31, 2005 was calculated by dividing the net profit by the weighted average number of 176,770 million shares issued and outstanding for the year presented. The basic and diluted income per share for the year ended December 31, 2006 was calculated by dividing the net profit by the number of 179,021 million shares issued and outstanding for the year presented.
- (3) The basic and diluted income per ADS for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2003 and 2004 has been calculated by dividing the net profit by the number of 175,824 million shares issued and outstanding for the corresponding years, each ADS representing 100 H shares. The basic and diluted income per ADS for the year ended December 31, 2005 has been calculated by dividing the net profit by the weighted average number of 176,770 million shares issued and outstanding for the year presented, each ADS representing 100 H shares. The basic and diluted income per ADS for the year ended December 31, 2006 has been calculated by dividing the net profit by the number of 179,021 million shares issued and outstanding for the year presented, each ADS representing 100 H shares.

Risk Factors

Our business is subject to various changing competitive, economic and social conditions in the PRC. Such changing conditions entail certain risks, which are described below.

- Our operations are affected by the volatility of prices for crude oil and refined products. We and China Petroleum and Chemical Corporation, or Sinopec, set our crude oil median prices monthly based on the Singapore trading prices for crude oil. In 2006, the PRC government, under its macro economic controls, introduced a new mechanism for determining the prices of refined products. Historically, international prices for crude oil and refined products have fluctuated widely in response to changes in many factors, such as global and regional economic and political developments and global and regional supply and demand for crude oil and refined products. We do not have, and will not have, control over the factors affecting international prices for crude oil and refined products. A decline in crude oil prices will reduce our crude oil revenues derived from external customers. If crude oil prices remain at a low level for a prolonged period, our company has to determine and estimate whether our oil and gas assets may suffer impairment losses and, if so, the amount of the impairment losses. An increase in crude oil prices may, however, increase the production costs of refined products. In addition, a decline in refined products prices will reduce our revenue derived from refining operations. An increase in the refined products prices, however, will increase the production costs of chemical products which use refined products as raw materials.
- The crude oil and natural gas reserve data in this annual report are only estimates. The reliability of reserve estimates depend on a number of factors, assumptions and variables, such as the quality and quantity of our technical and economic data and the prevailing oil and gas prices applicable to our production, many of which are beyond our control and may prove to be incorrect over time. Results of drilling, testing and production after the date of the estimates may require substantial upward or downward revisions in our reserve data. Our actual production, revenues and expenditures with respect to our reserves may differ materially from these estimates because of these revisions.
- Our proved crude oil reserves decreased gradually and modestly from 2001 to 2003 because the decrease in the crude oil reserves in our Daqing and Liaohe oil regions could not be offset by the increase in the crude oil reserves in our oil regions in northwestern China, such as the Xinjiang oil region, the Changqing oil and gas region and the Tarim oil region. Although our proved crude oil reserves increased slightly in 2004, 2005 and 2006 compared to prior years, we cannot assure you that we will be able to increase or maintain our crude oil reserves in the future by our exploration activities in China. We are actively pursuing business opportunities outside China to supplement our domestic resources. For instance, in 2005 and 2006, we acquired certain overseas crude oil and natural gas assets from CNPC. We cannot assure you, however, that we can successfully locate sufficient alternative sources of crude oil supply or at all due to the complexity of the international political, economic and other conditions. If we fail to obtain sufficient alternative sources of crude oil supply, our results of operations and financial condition may be materially and adversely affected.
- The United States Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC, as required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, adopted rules requiring every public company in the United States to include a management report on such company's internal control over financial reporting in its annual report, which contains management's assessment of the effectiveness of the company's internal control over financial reporting. In addition, an independent registered public accounting firm must attest to and report on management's assessment of the effectiveness of the company's internal control over financial reporting. Although our management concluded that our internal control over our financial reporting for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 was effective, we may discover other deficiencies in the course of our future evaluation of our internal control over our financial reporting and may be unable to remediate such deficiencies in a timely manner. Moreover, in future years, even if our management concludes that our internal control over financial reporting is effective, our independent registered public accounting firm may still be unable to attest to our management's assessment or may issue a report that concludes that our internal control over financial reporting is not effective. If we fail to maintain the adequacy of our internal control over financial reporting, we may not be able to conclude that we have effective internal control over financial reporting on an ongoing basis, in accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Moreover, effective internal control is necessary for us to produce reliable financial reports and is important to prevent fraud. As a result, our failure to achieve and maintain effective internal control over financial reporting could result in the loss of investor confidence in the reliability of our financial statements, which in turn could harm our business and negatively impact the trading prices of our ADSs or H shares.

- Exploring for, producing and transporting crude oil and natural gas and producing and transporting refined products and chemical products involve many hazards. These hazards may result in:
 - fires;
 - explosions;
 - spills;
 - blow-outs; and
 - other unexpected or dangerous conditions causing personal injuries or death, property damage, environmental damage and interruption of operations.

Some of our oil and natural gas fields are surrounded by residential areas or located in areas where natural disasters, such as earthquakes, floods and sandstorms, tend to occur more frequently than in other areas. As with many other companies around the world that conduct similar businesses, we have experienced accidents that have caused property damage and personal injuries and death.

Significant operating hazards and natural disasters may cause partial interruptions to our operations and property and environmental damage that could have an adverse impact on our financial condition. On November 13, 2005, an explosion occurred at one of our branch companies in Jilin Province. The incident caused serious personal injuries and deaths, loss of property and water pollution of the Songhuajing River. The Chinese government completed its investigation of this accident in December 2006. As a result, our company paid a fine of RMB 1 million in settlement of all liabilities arising from the accident.

Except for limited insurance coverage for vehicles and certain assets that we consider to be subject to significant operating risks, we do not carry any other insurance for our property, facilities or equipment in respect of our business operations. We do not currently carry any third party liability insurance against claims relating to personal injury or death, property or environmental damage arising from accidents on our property or relating to our operations. We also do not currently carry any business interruption insurance. The limited insurance coverage of our assets exposes us to substantial risks and will not cover most losses.

- CNPC owns approximately 88.21% of our share capital. This ownership percentage enables CNPC to elect our entire board of directors without the concurrence of any of our other shareholders. Accordingly, CNPC is in a position to:
 - control our policies, management and affairs;
 - subject to applicable PRC laws and regulations and provisions of our articles of association, determine the timing and amount of dividend payments and adopt amendments to certain of the provisions of our articles of association; and

- otherwise determine the outcome of most corporate actions and, subject to the requirements of the Listing Rules of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, cause our company to effect corporate transactions without the approval of minority shareholders.

CNPC's interests may sometimes conflict with those of some or all of our minority shareholders. We cannot assure you that CNPC, as controlling shareholder, will always vote its shares in a way that benefits our minority shareholders.

- In addition to its relationship with us as our controlling shareholder, CNPC by itself or through its affiliates also provides us with certain services and products necessary for our business activities, such as construction and technical services, production services and supply of material services. The interests of CNPC and its affiliates as providers of these services and products to us may conflict with our interests. Although we have entered into a Comprehensive Products and Services Agreement with CNPC and our transactions with CNPC over the past three years have been conducted on open, fair and competitive commercial terms, we have only limited leverage in negotiating with CNPC and its affiliates over the specific terms of the agreements for the future provision of these services and products.
- The eastern and southern regions of China have a higher demand for refined products and chemical products than the western and northern regions. Most of our refineries and chemical plants are located in the western and northern regions of China. We incur relatively higher transportation costs for delivery of our refined products and chemical products to certain areas of the eastern and southern regions from our refineries and chemical plants in western and northern China. While we continue to expand the sales of these products in the eastern and southern regions of China, we face strong competition from Sinopec and China National Offshore Oil Corp, or CNOOC. As a result, we expect that we will continue to encounter difficulty in increasing our sales of refined products and chemical products in these regions.
- We are currently expanding some of our refinery and petrochemical facilities and constructing several natural gas pipelines. In addition, we may commence offshore crude oil and natural gas exploration and production activities, which could require substantial capital expenditures and investments. We cannot assure you that the cash generated by our operations will be sufficient to fund these development plans or that our actual future capital expenditures and investments will not significantly exceed our current planned amounts. If either of these conditions arises, we may have to seek external financing to satisfy our capital needs. Under such circumstance, our inability to obtain sufficient funding for our development plans could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.
- We are also subject to a number of risks relating to the PRC and the PRC oil and gas industry. These risks are described as follows:
 - Our operations, like those of other PRC oil and gas companies, are subject to extensive regulations and control by the PRC government. These regulations and control affect many material aspects of our operations, such as exploration and production licensing, industry-specific and product-specific taxes and fees and environmental and safety standards. As a result, we may face significant constraints on our ability to implement our business strategies, to develop or expand our business operations or to maximize our profitability. Our business may also be adversely affected by future changes in certain policies of the PRC government with respect to the oil and gas industry. For example, since March 26, 2006, we have been subject to a crude oil special gain levy imposed by the PRC government. As a result, we recorded an aggregate of RMB 28,914.0 million as such levy to the PRC government in relation to our domestic sales of crude oil in 2006.
 - Currently, the PRC government must approve the construction and major renovation of significant refining and petrochemical facilities as well as the construction of significant natural gas and refined product pipelines and storage facilities. We presently have several significant projects pending approval from the relevant government authorities and will need approvals from the relevant government authorities in connection with several other significant projects. We do not have control over the timing and outcome of the final project approvals.

- We receive most of our revenues in Renminbi. A portion of our Renminbi revenues must be converted into other currencies to meet our foreign currency obligations. The existing foreign exchange limitations under the PRC laws and regulations could affect our ability to obtain foreign exchange through debt financing, or to obtain foreign exchange for capital expenditures.
- Prior to 2005, our company performed capping or plugging on wellheads and surface facilities that could be salvaged for alternative use. For safety reasons, our company also performed capping or plugging on certain wells that were considered to be in areas with extensive human use at the time of the abandonment. Our company, however, did not perform capping or plugging on wells that were neither considered to be in areas with extensive human use nor could be salvaged for alternative use. Consequently, such wellheads and surface facilities were left at their original sites after the wells were retired.

The Environmental Protection Regulation for Oil and Gas Exploration and Production Activities in Heilongjiang Province and The Environmental Protection Regulation for Oil and Gas Exploration and Production Activities in Gansu Province were issued in mid and late 2005. Based on our reading of the new provincial regulations and in consultation with the environmental administrative authorities in Heilongjiang and Gansu provinces, we believe that such regulations only apply to the oil and gas properties retired after these regulations were issued in 2005. Accordingly, our company established standard abandonment procedures, requesting that all of its branch and subsidiary companies recognize asset retirement provisions for their currently used oil and gas properties.

Our company believes it had no obligation to adopt such abandonment procedures prior to the issuance of the new regulations in 2005. For the oil and gas properties that were retired prior to the issuance of such regulations, the activities required to retire these assets, at a level that would be in compliance with the regulations and our internal policy, have not been performed. The costs associated with these activities have not been included in the asset retirement obligations accrued during 2005. However, Heilongjiang Province and Gansu Province could enact new regulations, amend the current regulations or retroactively apply the relevant requirements. If any of these regulations is determined to be applicable to assets other than those that were retired subsequent to the dates that these regulations were issued in 2005, we could be required to incur substantial costs associated with such asset retirement obligations. In addition, we cannot assure you that the provincial governments other than Heilongjiang Province and Gansu Province will not enact new regulations which will require our company to perform additional asset retirement activities related to the assets retired before the establishment of our company's internal policy and areas in which these assets were or continue to be located.

- Because PRC laws, regulations and legal requirements dealing with economic matters are relatively new and continue to evolve, and because of the limited volume of published judicial interpretations and the non-binding nature of prior court decisions, the interpretation and enforcement of these laws, regulations and legal requirements involve some uncertainty. We have included the Mandatory Provisions and certain additional requirements that are imposed by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Listing Rules in our Articles of Association for the purpose of reducing the scope of difference between the Hong Kong Company Law and the PRC Company Law. However, because the PRC Company Law is different in certain important aspects from company laws in the United States, Hong Kong and other common law jurisdictions and because the PRC securities laws and regulations are still at an early stage of development, you may not enjoy shareholders' protections that you may be entitled to in other jurisdictions.

- In addition to the adverse effect on our revenues, margins and profitability from any future fall in oil and natural gas prices, a prolonged period of low prices or other indicators would lead to a review for impairment of our oil and natural gas properties. This review would reflect management's view of long-term oil and natural gas prices. Such a review could result in a charge for impairment which could have a significant effect on our results of operations in the period in which it occurs.

ITEM 4 — INFORMATION ON THE COMPANY

Introduction

History and Development of the Company

Overview of Our Operations

We are one of the largest companies in China in terms of sales. We are engaged in a broad range of petroleum and natural gas related activities, including:

- the exploration, development, production and sale of crude oil and natural gas;
- the refining, transportation, storage and marketing of crude oil and petroleum products;
- the production and marketing of basic petrochemical products, derivative chemical products and other chemical products; and
- the transmission and storage of crude oil, refined products and natural gas as well as the sale of natural gas.

We are China's largest producer of crude oil and natural gas. Currently, substantially all of our crude oil and natural gas reserves and production-related assets are located in China. In the year ended December 31, 2006, we had total revenue of RMB 688,978 million and net income of RMB 142,224 million.

Our exploration, development and production activities commenced in the early 1950s, when we conducted exploration activities in the Yumen oil region in northwestern China. The discovery of crude oil in 1959 in northeastern China's Daqing oil region, one of the world's largest oil regions in terms of proved crude oil reserves, marked the beginning of our large-scale upstream activities. Over the past four decades, we have conducted crude oil and natural gas exploration activities in many regions of China. As of December 31, 2006, we had estimated proved reserves of approximately 11,618.0 million barrels of crude oil and approximately 53,469.2 billion cubic feet of natural gas. We believe that we hold production licenses for a majority of China's proved crude oil reserves and proved natural gas reserves. In the year ended December 31, 2006, we produced 830.7 million barrels of crude oil and 1,371.9 billion cubic feet of natural gas for sale, representing an average production of 2.28 million barrels of crude oil and 3.76 billion cubic feet of natural gas for sale per day. In 2006, we sold 832.8 million barrels of crude oil and 1,357 billion cubic feet of natural gas. Approximately 83% of the crude oil we sold in the year ended December 31, 2006 was supplied to our refineries.

We commenced limited refining activities in the mid-1950s, when we began producing gasoline and diesel at refineries in the Yumen oil region. We now operate 26 refineries located in eight provinces, four autonomous regions and one municipality. In 2006, our refineries processed approximately 785 million barrels of crude oil or an average of 2.2 million barrels per day. In the year ended December 31, 2006, we produced approximately 68.3 million tons of gasoline, diesel and kerosene and sold approximately 74.90 million tons of these products. In the year ended December 31, 2006, approximately 82% of the crude oil processed in our refineries was provided by our exploration and production segment and approximately 16% of the crude oil processed in our refineries was imported. As of December 31, 2006, our retail distribution network consisted of 16,624 service stations that we own and operate, 282 service stations wholly owned by CNPC or jointly owned by CNPC and third parties to which we provide supervisory support and 1,301 franchise service stations.

Our chemicals operations commenced in the early 1950s, when we began producing urea at our first petrochemical plant in Lanzhou in northwestern China. In the early 1960s, we began producing ethylene. We currently produce and sell a wide range of basic and derivative petrochemical products and other chemical products through 12 chemical plants and four chemical products sales companies located in seven provinces and three autonomous regions in China. Our other segments supply substantially all of the hydrocarbon feedstock requirements of our chemicals operations.

We are China's largest natural gas transporter and seller in terms of sales volume. Our natural gas transmission and marketing activities commenced in Sichuan in southwestern China in the 1950s. In 2006, our sales of natural gas totaled 1,357 billion cubic feet, of which 1,200.5 billion cubic feet was sold through our natural gas and pipeline segment. As of December 31, 2006, we owned and operated regional natural gas pipeline networks consisting of 20,590 kilometers of pipelines, of which 19,662 kilometers were operated by our natural gas and pipeline segment. As of December 31, 2006, we owned and operated a crude oil pipeline network consisting of 9,620 kilometers of pipelines with an average daily throughput of approximately 2.49 million barrels of crude oil. As of December 31, 2006, we also had a refined product pipeline network consisting of 2,413 kilometers of pipelines with an average daily throughput of approximately 37,300 tons of refined products.

We have increased our efforts to pursue attractive business opportunities outside China as part of our business growth strategy to utilize both domestic and international resources to strengthen our competitiveness. In June 2005, we entered into a capital contribution agreement with CNODC, Central Asia Petroleum Company Limited and CNPC E&D, pursuant to which, in December 2005, we acquired a 50% interest in CNPC E&D, a subsidiary of CNODC, for a consideration of RMB 20,741 million, which was paid to CNPC E&D as a part of our capital contribution. Under this agreement, CNODC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CNPC, transferred certain of its overseas oil and natural gas assets to CNPC E&D in November 2005. Following the completion of the transactions contemplated by this agreement, each of CNODC and us obtained a 50% interest in CNPC E&D and CNODC subsequently transferred its 50% interest in CNPC E&D to CNPC, which resulted in CNPC holding the 50% interest in CNPC E&D directly. We have the right to appoint four of the seven directors of CNPC E&D, which enables us to maintain effective control over CNPC E&D. We also entered into a transfer agreement with CNPC E&D in December 2005 to transfer all of our interest in PTRI, the operating entity of our oil and natural gas assets in Indonesia, as the remaining part of our capital contribution to CNPC E&D for a consideration of RMB 579 million.

Following the completion of the acquisition of CNPC E&D through capital contribution, we obtained a 50% interest in the oil and natural gas assets held by CNPC E&D in twelve countries, including, among others, Kazakhstan, Venezuela and Peru. The consummation of the transactions described above has significantly expanded our overseas operations, effectively increased our oil and gas reserves and production volumes, and streamlined our existing overseas business in Indonesia with the acquired businesses.

In August 2006, CNPC E&D entered into an acquisition agreement to acquire a 67% equity interest in PetroKazakhstan Inc., or PKZ, from CNPC for a consideration of US$2,735 million. This acquisition was consummated in December 2006. This acquisition has streamlined our existing exploration and development operations in Kazakhstan and increased our oil and gas assets.

In 2006, we acquired a 100% interest in an exploration block in Chad through CNPC E&D. This Chad Block covers an area of 220,000 square kilometers and a trap resource of more than 1,000 million barrels of crude oil and is currently one of our most important overseas exploration blocks. The term "trap resource" means the geological reserve estimated on a non-filled-trap basis. It is equal to the trap area multiplied by the unit reserve factor and then multiplied by the filling percentage of the trap. The term "unit reserve factor" means the geological serve within one unit area and one unit depth.

In addition, we are currently assessing the feasibility of making further investments in international oil and gas markets.

In the year ended December 31, 2006, we imported approximately 228.8 million barrels of crude oil, as compared to 184.9 million and 175.1 million barrels of crude oil in the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Acquisitions

Pursuant to our board resolutions dated October 26, 2005, we made an offer to the holders of the A Shares of Jinzhou Petrochemical Co., Ltd. or Jinzhou Petrochemical, to acquire at the purchase price of RMB 4.25 per share 150 million outstanding Jinzhou Petrochemical A Shares. As of December 31, 2006, we acquired 141,497,463 Jinzhou Petrochemical A Shares, representing 17.97% of the total share capital of Jinzhou Petrochemical, for a total cash consideration of approximately RMB 602 million. After the acquisition, we owned 98.92% of the total share capital of Jinzhou Petrochemical. Jinzhou Petrochemical was delisted from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on January 4, 2006 upon approval from the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Pursuant to our board resolutions dated October 26, 2005, we made separate offers to the holders of the A Shares of Jilin Chemical Industrial Company Limited, or Jilin Chemical, and the holders of the H Shares of Jilin Chemical to acquire at the purchase price of RMB 5.25 per share 200 million outstanding A Shares, and at the purchase price of HK$2.80 per Share 964.778 million outstanding H Shares (including Jilin Chemical ADSs). As of December 31, 2006, we paid an aggregate of RMB 3,799 million and acquired 189,357,726 A Shares and 961,495,999 H Shares (including ADSs) of Jilin Chemical, representing 32.32% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Jilin Chemical. Following the completion of this acquisition, we owned 99.61% of the total share capital of Jilin Chemical. Jilin Chemical H Shares, A Shares, and ADSs were delisted from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Shenzhen Stock Exchange, and the New York Stock Exchange on January 23, February 20 and February 15, 2006, respectively.

Pursuant to our board resolutions dated October 26, 2005, we made an offer to the holders of A Shares of Liaohe Jinma Oilfield Co., Ltd. or Liaohe Jinma, to acquire at the purchase price of RMB 8.80 per share 200 million issued and outstanding Liaohe Jinma A Shares. As of December 31, 2006, we acquired 194,360,943 Liaohe Jinma A Shares, representing 17.67% of the total share capital of Liaohe Jinma for a total consideration of approximately RMB 1,713 million. Following the completion of this acquisition, we owned 99.49% of the total share capital of Liaohe Jinma. Upon the approval by China Securities Regulatory Commission, Liaohe Jinma was delisted from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on January 4, 2006.

On December 6, 2005, we entered into two separate purchase agreements with two wholly-owned subsidiaries of CNPC, Liaohe Petroleum Exploration Bureau and China Petroleum Pipeline Bureau, to acquire from the two companies a 15.56% equity interest and a 20.17% equity interest, respectively, in PetroChina Fuel Oil Company, or the Fuel Oil Company, a 55.43% subsidiary of our company, with a total cash consideration of RMB 559 million. The Fuel Oil Company principally engages in investing in and developing of fuel oil in the upstream and downstream areas outside the PRC. Upon completion of the above acquisitions, we increased our interest in the Fuel Oil Company to 91.16%.

Disposal

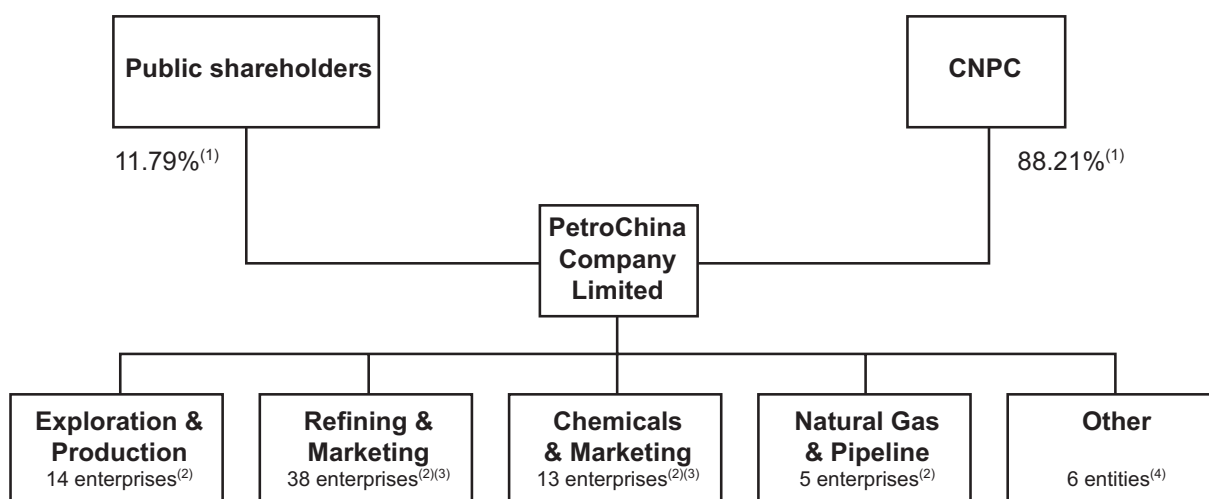

We have gradually been transferring our import and export businesses of crude oil and refined oil to PetroChina International, our wholly-owned subsidiary. Accordingly, we entered into an equity transfer agreement with CNPC on March 17, 2007 to dispose of our entire equity interest in China National United Oil Corporation, or China United Oil, representing 70% of the registered capital of China United Oil, for a cash consideration of approximately RMB 1.01 billion. China United Oil, over which we have no unilateral control, engages in the import, export and sale of crude oil, refined oil and other petrochemical products. The completion of the disposal is subject to certain pre-conditions, including approvals from our independent shareholders, CNPC and the relevant regulatory authorities. Following the disposal, we will cease to hold any equity interest in China United Oil and most of our import, export and related international trade businesses will be conducted through PetroChina International.

Our Corporate Organization and Shareholding Structure

PetroChina was established as a joint stock company with limited liability under the Company Law of the PRC on November 5, 1999 as part of a restructuring in which CNPC transferred to us most of the assets and liabilities of CNPC relating to its exploration and production, refining and marketing, chemicals and natural gas businesses. CNPC retained the assets and liabilities relating to its remaining businesses and operations, including assets and liabilities relating to international exploration and production and refining and pipeline operations. CNPC is our primary provider of a wide range of services and products. On April 7, 2000, PetroChina completed a global offering of H shares and ADSs. In September 2005, PetroChina completed a follow-on offering of over 3 billion H Shares at the price of HK$6.00 per share. Currently, CNPC owns an approximate 88.21% interest in PetroChina.

General Information

Our legal name is “中国石油天然气股份有限公司”, and its English translation is PetroChina Company Limited. Our headquarters are located at 16 Andelu, Dongcheng District, Beijing, China, 100011, and our telephone number at this address is (86-10) 8488-6270. Our website address is www.petrochina.com.cn. The information on our website is not part of this annual report.

Launch of New Logo

Effective December 26, 2004, we began using a new logo “” that is jointly owned by us and CNPC. We have applied for trademark registration of the new logo with the State Trademark Bureau of the PRC. This application is currently pending with the State Trademark Bureau of the PRC. To date, we have registered our new logo as a trademark in Hong Kong and Burma. We are also in the process of registering the new logo in a number of other countries.

OUR EXPLORATION AND PRODUCTION SEGMENT

Exploration and Production

We are engaged in crude oil and natural gas exploration, development and production. Substantially all of our total estimated proved crude oil and natural gas reserves are located in China, principally in northeastern, northern, southwestern and northwestern China. The Songliao basin, located in Heilongjiang and Jilin provinces in northeastern China, including the Daqing and Jilin oil regions, accounted for 42.8% of our proved crude oil reserves as of December 31, 2006 and 43.9% of our crude oil production in 2006. We also have significant crude oil reserves and operations in the area around the Bohai Bay. The Bohai Bay basin includes the Liaohe, Dagang, Huabei and Jidong oil regions and accounted for 19.2% of our proved crude oil reserves as of December 31, 2006 and 20.8% of our crude oil production in 2006. Our proved natural gas reserves and production are generally concentrated in northwestern and southwestern China, specifically in the Erdos, Tarim and Sichuan basins. Our overseas proved crude oil reserves and proved natural gas reserves accounted for 5.5% of our proved crude oil reserves and 1.5% of our proved natural gas reserves as of December 31, 2006 and our overseas oil production and natural gas production accounted for 6.0% of our crude oil production and 3.0% of our natural gas production in 2006.

We currently hold exploration licenses covering a total area of approximately 446.4 million acres and production licenses covering a total area of approximately 16.4 million acres. In 2006, our exploration and production segment had income from operations of RMB 219,860 million.

To further develop our crude oil and natural gas businesses, we have applied to the Ministry of Land and Resources for oil and gas exploration and production licenses covering the southern part of the South China Sea to commence offshore crude oil and natural gas exploration and production. We cannot assure you that we will ultimately obtain these licenses or that we will have sufficient capital to fund these activities.

Reserves

Our estimated proved reserves as of December 31, 2006 totaled approximately 11,618.0 million barrels of crude oil and approximately 53,469.2 billion cubic feet of natural gas. As of December 31, 2006, proved developed reserves accounted for 79.1% and 42.2% of our total proved crude oil and natural gas reserves, respectively. Total proved hydrocarbon reserves on a barrels-of-oil equivalent basis increased by 5.0% from approximately 19,556.7 million barrels-of-oil equivalent as of the end of 2005 to approximately 20,529.4 million barrels-of-oil equivalent as of the end of 2006, taking account of our overseas crude oil reserves of 642.5 million barrels and overseas natural gas reserves of 795.6 billion cubic feet, totaling 775.1 barrels-of-oil equivalent. Natural gas as a percentage of total proved hydrocarbon reserves increased from 41.0% as of December 31, 2005 to 43.4% as of December 31, 2006.

The following table sets forth our estimated proved reserves (including proved developed reserves and proved undeveloped reserves) and proved developed reserves of crude oil and natural gas as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006. We prepared our reserve estimates as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, on the basis of reports prepared by DeGolyer & MacNaughton and Gaffney, Cline & Associates, independent engineering consultants, in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 69, or SFAS No. 69. Our reserve estimates include only crude oil and natural gas which we believe can be reasonably produced within the current terms of our production licenses. See “Regulatory Matters — Exploration Licenses and Production Licenses” for a discussion of our production licenses. Also see “Item 3 — Key Information — Risk Factors” for a discussion of the uncertainty inherent in the estimation of proved reserves.

Exploration and Development

We are currently conducting exploration and development efforts in 11 provinces, two municipalities under the direct administration of the central government and three autonomous regions in China. We believe that we have more extensive experience in the exploration and development of crude oil and natural gas than any of our principal competitors in China. Since early 1950s, we have been working on developing exploration and recovery technologies and methods tailored to the specific geological conditions in China.

The following table sets forth the number of wells we drilled, or in which we participated, and the results thereof, for the periods indicated.

⁽¹⁾ Includes all wells and acreage in which we have an interest. No third parties own any interests in any of our wells or acreage.

Approximately 69.1% of our proved crude oil reserves are concentrated in the Daqing, Liaohe and Xinjiang oil regions and the Changqing oil and gas region, and approximately 88.1% of our proved natural gas reserves are concentrated in the Changqing oil and gas region, the Tarim oil region, the Sichuan gas region and the Qinghai oil region. We believe that the Erdos, Junggar, and Songliao basins and Bohai Bay have the highest potential for increasing our crude oil reserve base through future exploration and development, and that the Erdos, Sichuan and Qaidam basins have the highest potential for increasing our natural gas reserve base through future exploration and development.

In 2006, we supplied approximately 83.2% of our total crude oil sales to our refineries, 7.9% to Sinopec's refineries, 6.4% to companies or entities outside China, and the remaining 2.5% to regional refineries or other entities. We entered into a crude oil mutual supply framework agreement with Sinopec on January 29, 2007 for the supply of crude oil to each other's refineries in 2007. Under this agreement, we agreed in principle to supply 52.46 million barrels of crude oil to Sinopec, and Sinopec agreed in principle to supply to us approximately 8.27 million barrels of crude oil in 2007 at negotiated prices based on the Singapore market FOB prices for crude oil. See "Item 5 — Operating and Financial Review and Prospects — General — Factors Affecting Results of Operations — Crude Oil Prices" for a detailed discussion of the crude oil premium and discount calculation agreement and its supplemental agreement. For the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, the average lifting costs of our crude oil and natural production were US$4.60 per barrel-of-oil equivalent, US$5.28 per barrel-of-oil equivalent and US$6.74 per barrel-of-oil equivalent, respectively.

Principal Oil and Gas Regions

Daqing Oil Region

The Daqing oil region, our largest oil and gas producing property, is located in the Songliao basin and covers an area of approximately one million acres. The successful discovery and development of the oil fields in the Daqing oil region marked a critical breakthrough in the history of both our company and the PRC oil and gas industry. In terms of proved hydrocarbon reserves and annual production, the Daqing oil region is the largest oil region in China and one of the most prolific oil and gas properties in the world. We commenced exploration activities in the Daqing oil region in 1955 and discovered oil in the region in 1959. Annual crude oil production volume in the Daqing oil region reached one million barrels per day in 1976 and remained relatively stable until 2002. In 2004, 2005 and 2006, our crude oil production volume in the Daqing oil region was 942.0 thousand barrels per day, 915.1 thousand barrels per day and 883.1 thousand barrels per day, respectively. As of December 31, 2006, we produced crude oil from 20 fields in the Daqing oil region.

As of December 31, 2006, our proved crude oil reserves in the Daqing oil region were 4,200.3 million barrels, representing 36.2% of our total proved crude oil reserves. The proved crude oil reserves in our Daqing oil region have gradually decreased since 1996 because the crude oil production exceeded the crude oil reserve additions in our Daqing oil region in each year since 1996. As of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, the proved crude oil reserves in our Daqing oil region were 4,615.0 million barrels, 4,396.9 million barrels and 4,200.3 million barrels, respectively. As a result, we decreased the crude oil production in our Daqing oil region over past years, and plan to continue to decrease the crude oil production in our Daqing oil region each year in the next few years. In 2006, our oil fields in the Daqing oil region produced an average of 883.1 thousand barrels of crude oil per day, representing approximately 38.8% of our total daily crude oil production. The crude oil production in our Daqing oil region decreased by 3.5% from 334.0 million barrels in 2005 to 322.3 million barrels in 2006. In 2006, the crude oil reserve-to-production ratio of the Daqing oil region was 13.0 years, compared to 13.2 years in 2005.

The crude oil we produce in the Daqing oil region has an average API gravity of 35.7 degrees. In 2006, the crude oil we produced in the Daqing oil region had an average water cut of 90.44%, increased from the average water cut of 89.78% in 2005.

The crude oil in the Daqing oil region is primarily located in large reservoirs with relatively moderate depths of approximately 900 meters to 1,500 meters and with relatively simple geological structures and most of the crude oil produced at Daqing is medium viscosity oil. Crude oil produced using enhanced recovery techniques accounted for 25.7%, 26.9% and 27.0% of our crude oil production from the Daqing oil region in 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

Because our oil fields in the Daqing oil region are relatively mature, the difficulty of extracting crude oil from these fields has increased in recent years and is likely to continue to increase gradually in the future. As a result, our lifting costs at these fields increased by 33.5% from US$5.14 per barrel for the year ended December 31, 2005 to US$6.86 per barrel for the year ended December 31, 2006. However, we have adopted a number of measures to contain the increase in our lifting costs at these fields. Those measures include:

- terminating unprofitable or marginally profitable exploration and production activities;
- reducing expenditures on ancillary ground facilities in the outer areas of the Daqing oil region;
- increasing preventive maintenance to prolong the useful life of our production facilities; and
- applying new technologies to reduce energy consumption.

Although we plan to continue to carry out these measures to contain the increase in our lifting costs, we expect our lifting costs at these fields will continue to increase gradually in the future.

We have an extensive transportation infrastructure network to transport crude oil produced in the Daqing oil region to internal and external customers in northeastern China and beyond. Crude oil pipelines link our oil fields in the Daqing oil region to the port of Dalian and the port of Qinhuangdao in Bohai Bay, providing efficient transportation for selling Daqing crude oil. These crude oil pipelines have an aggregate length of 2,590 kilometers and an aggregate throughput capacity of approximately 911 thousand barrels per day.

Daqing's crude oil has a low sulfur and high paraffin content. As many refineries in China, particularly those in northeastern China, are configured to refine Daqing crude oil, we have a stable market for the crude oil we produce in the Daqing oil region. In 2006, we refined approximately 80.3% of Daqing crude oil in our own refineries, exported approximately 1.2% and sold the remaining portion to Sinopec or local refineries.

Liaohe Oil Region

The Liaohe oil region is one of our three largest crude oil producing properties and is located in the northern part of the Bohai Bay basin. We began commercial production in the Liaohe oil region in 1971. The Liaohe oil region covers a total area of approximately 580,000 acres.

As of December 31, 2006, proved crude oil reserves in the Liaohe oil region were 1,067.5 million barrels, representing 9.2% of our total proved oil reserves. In 2006, our oil fields in the Liaohe oil region produced an average of 230.4 thousand barrels of crude oil per day, representing approximately 10.1% of our total daily crude oil production. In 2006, the crude oil reserve-to-production ratio in the Liaohe oil region was 12.7 years. In 2006, the crude oil we produced in the Liaohe oil region had an average API gravity of 26 degrees and an average water cut of 77.71%. We have proved crude oil reserves in 37 fields in the Liaohe oil region, all of which are currently in production. We produce several varieties of crude oil in the Liaohe oil region, ranging from light crude oil to heavy crude oil and high pour point crude oil.

We have easy access to crude oil pipelines for Liaohe crude oil. The pipelines linking Daqing to Dalian port and Qinhuangdao port pass through the Liaohe oil region. In 2006, we sold about approximately 89.7% of the crude oil we produced at the Liaohe oil region to our own refineries.

Xinjiang Oil Region

The Xinjiang oil region is one of our three largest crude oil producing properties and is located in the Junggar basin in northwestern China. We commenced our operations in the Xinjiang oil region in 1951. The Xinjiang oil region covers a total area of approximately 900 thousand acres.

As of December 31, 2006, our proved crude oil reserves in the Xinjiang oil region were 1,306.6 million barrels, representing 11.2% of our total proved crude oil reserves. In 2006, our oil fields in the Xinjiang oil region produced an average of 244.2 thousand barrels of crude oil per day, representing approximately 10.7% of our total crude oil production. In 2006, the crude oil reserve-to-production ratio at the Xinjiang oil region was 14.7 years. In 2006, the crude oil we produced in the Xinjiang oil region had an average API gravity of 36.8 degrees and an average water cut of 72.6%.

Sichuan Gas Region

The Sichuan gas region is the largest natural gas region in China in terms of annual natural gas production. We began natural gas exploration and production in Sichuan in the 1950s. The Sichuan gas region covers a total area of approximately 2.3 million acres. The natural gas reserve-to-production ratio in the Sichuan gas region was approximately 23.0 years in 2006. As of December 31, 2006, we had 90 natural gas fields under development in the Sichuan gas region.

As of December 31, 2006, our proved natural gas reserves in the Sichuan gas region were 10,362.8 billion cubic feet, representing 19.4% of our total proved natural gas reserves and an increase of 12.5% from 9,211.2 billion cubic feet as of December 31, 2005. In 2006, our natural gas production for sale in the Sichuan gas region reached 450.4 billion cubic feet, representing 32.8% of our total natural gas production for sale and an increase of 11.4% from 404.4 billion cubic feet in 2005.

In 2002, we discovered and proved significant natural gas reserves in Luojiashai gas field in the Sichuan gas region. As of December 31, 2006, Luojiashai gas field had a total proved natural gas reserve of 1,655.5 billion cubic feet. Currently, Luojiashai gas field is the largest gas field in the Sichuan basin. We have developed a broad range of technologies relating to natural gas exploration, production, pipeline systems and marketing activities tailored to local conditions in Sichuan.

In November 2002, we obtained approval from the State Development Planning Commission, the predecessor of the National Development and Reform Commission, to construct pipelines to transmit natural gas produced in the Sichuan gas region to major cities in central China. This is known as the Zhong County to Wuhan City natural gas pipeline project. By the end of 2004, we completed the construction and commenced the commercial operation of the main line of the Zhong County to Wuhan City natural gas pipeline and its Xiangfan branch pipeline and Huangshi branch pipeline. In addition, we completed the construction of the Xiangtan branch pipeline and commenced the commercial operation of this branch pipeline in July 2005. As of March 31, 2007, we had entered into take-or-pay contracts with 27 customers in Hubei Province and Hunan Province, including municipal governments and enterprises, to supply them with natural gas through the main line and branch lines of the Zhong County to Wuhan City natural gas pipeline. See “— Natural Gas and Pipeline — Expansion of Our Natural Gas Transmission and Marketing Business” for a discussion of the Zhong County to Wuhan City natural gas pipeline project.

Changqing Oil and Gas Region

The Changqing oil and gas region covers parts of Shaanxi Province and Gansu Province and the Ningxia and Inner Mongolia Autonomous Regions. We commenced operations in the Changqing oil and gas region in 1970. In 2006, we produced 78.7 million barrels of crude oil in the Changqing oil and gas region.

In the early 1990s, we discovered the Changqing gas field, which had total estimated proved natural gas reserves of 17,846.1 billion cubic feet as of December 31, 2006, representing 33.4% of our total proved natural gas reserves. In January 2001, we discovered the Sulige gas field with total proved natural gas reserves of 4,290.0 billion cubic feet. In 2006 we produced 237.4 billion cubic feet of natural gas for sale in the Changqing oil and gas region, representing an increase of 1.5% from 233.9 billion cubic feet in 2005. The establishment of a natural gas pipeline from Shaanxi to Beijing in 1997 has significantly expanded the range of target markets for natural gas produced in the Changqing oil and gas region over the years. In July 2005, we completed the construction and commenced commercial operation of the second Shaanxi to Beijing natural gas pipeline, with a designed annual throughput capacity of 423.8 billion cubic feet of natural gas. In 2006, we transmitted 66.2 billion cubic feet of natural gas through the second Shaanxi to Beijing natural gas pipeline. See “— Natural Gas and Pipeline — Expansion of Our Natural Gas Transmission and Marketing Business” for a discussion of this additional Shaanxi to Beijing natural gas pipeline project.

Tarim Oil and Gas Region

The Tarim oil and gas region is located in the Tarim basin in northwestern China with a total area of approximately 590 thousand acres. As of December 31, 2006, our proved crude oil reserves in the Tarim oil region were 523.9 million barrels. The Kela 2 natural gas field, which we discovered in 1998 in the Tarim oil and gas region, had estimated proved natural gas reserves of approximately 6,973.7 billion cubic feet as of December 31, 2006. As of December 31, 2006, the proved natural gas reserves in the Tarim oil and gas region reached 14,443.6 billion cubic feet, representing 27.0% of our total proved natural gas reserves. Currently, the Kela 2 natural gas field is the largest natural gas field in China in terms of proved natural gas reserves.

In 2006, we produced 370.7 billion cubic feet of natural gas for sale in the Tarim oil and gas region. We have completed the construction of the pipelines to deliver natural gas in the Tarim oil and gas region to the central and eastern regions of China where there is strong demand for natural gas transmitted through our West to East natural gas pipeline project. See “— Natural Gas and Pipeline — Expansion of Our Natural Gas Transmission and Marketing Business” for a discussion of our West to East natural gas pipeline project. The commencement of the operation of this West to East natural gas pipeline significantly increased our natural gas production in the Tarim oil and gas region.

OUR REFINING AND MARKETING SEGMENT

Refining and Marketing

We engage in refining and marketing operations in China through 26 refineries, 22 regional sales and distribution branch companies and one lubricants branch company. These operations include the refining, transportation, storage and marketing of crude oil, and the wholesale, retail and export of refined products, including gasoline, diesel, kerosene and lubricant.

In 2006, our refining and marketing segment had loss from operations of RMB 29,164 million.

The following sets forth the highlights of our refining and marketing segment in 2006:

- as of December 31, 2006, our refineries' annual primary distillation capacity totaled 935.8 million barrels of crude oil per year, or 2,563.9 thousand barrels per day;
- we processed 785 million barrels of crude oil, or 2.20 million barrels per day;
- we produced approximately 68.30 million tons of gasoline, diesel and kerosene and sold approximately 74.9 million tons of these products;
- as of December 31, 2006, our retail distribution network consisted of:
 - 16,624 service stations owned and operated by us,
 - 282 service stations either wholly owned by CNPC or jointly owned by CNPC and third parties and to which we provide supervisory support, representing a significant decrease from last year, as a result of our taking ownership of or operating certain service stations previously owned by CNPC or jointly owned by CNPC and third parties, and
 - 1,301 franchise service stations owned and operated by third parties with which we have long-term refined product supply agreements, representing a significant decrease from last year, as a result of our termination of cooperation arrangements with certain franchise service stations that had demonstrated deficiencies in image, service or oil quality; and
- in 2006, our service stations, which are located throughout China, sold approximately 47.0 million tons of gasoline and diesel, representing 64.5% of the total of these products sold through our marketing operations.

Refining

Our refineries are located in eight provinces, four autonomous regions and one municipality in the northeastern, northwestern and northern regions of China.

Refined Products

We produce a wide range of refined products at our refineries. Some of the refined products are for our internal consumption and used as raw materials in our petrochemical operation. The table below sets forth production volume for our principal refined products for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

Product	Year ended December 31,
	2004	2005	2006
	(in thousands of tons)
Diesel	38,941.8	43,000.7	44,226.5
Gasoline	20,606.1	21,414.6	22,027.2
Fuel oil	4,290.2	3,816.3	3,491.4
Naphtha	4,942.8	4,872.8	6,317.9
Asphalt	1,946.8	1,484.7	1,605.7
Kerosene	1,961.8	1,970.3	2,063.7
Lubricants	1,467.8	1,528.6	1,488.4
Paraffin	1,140.0	1,139.3	1,051.8
Total	75,297.3	79,227.3	82,272.6

We generally adjust our product mix to reflect market demand and to focus on the production of high margin products. This has resulted in an overall modest increase in the production of lighter refined products which generally are higher margin products, such as gasoline. In 2004 and 2005, we increased our production volume of lubricants to 1,467.8 thousand tons and 1,528.6 thousand tons, respectively, to meet the growing market demands for lubricants. In 2006, we produced 1,488.4 thousand tons of lubricants. This decrease is primarily due to increases in the production of packaged lubricants and high-end lubricants, as a result of our effort to adjust product mix. We have decreased the production of low margin products, such as fuel oil.

In recent years, we have made significant capital investments in facility expansions and upgrades to improve product quality to meet evolving market demand and environmental requirements in China. In each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, our capital expenditures for our refining and marketing segment were RMB 17,684 million, RMB 16,454 million, and RMB 19,206 million, respectively. These capital expenditures were incurred primarily in connection with the expansion and upgrades of our refining facilities and expansion of our refined product retail marketing network and storage infrastructure for the purpose of maintaining and increasing our market share. We built or renovated 10 of our refining facilities in 2005, including, among others, the regular pressure reducing unit at Dalian Petrochemical with a designed annual capacity of 10 million tons, the delayed coking unit at Lanzhou Petrochemical with an annual capacity of 1,000 thousand tons and the catalytic reforming unit at Jinzhou Petrochemical with an annual capacity of 600 thousand tons. In 2006, we built a coking unit at Daqing Petrochemical with an annual capacity of 1.2 million tons and upgraded the heavy oil catalytic cracking unit at Jinxi Petrochemical to increase its annual capacity to 1.8 million tons. In 2006, we operated an aggregate of 18,207 service stations. In addition, we have also focused on enhancing our processing technologies and methods. These efforts have enabled us to improve the quality of refined products at our refineries, particularly that of gasoline and diesel. We believe that our refined products generally meet product specification and environmental protection requirements as set by the PRC government, including the specification limiting the olefin and sulfur content in gasoline.

Our Refineries

Most of our refineries are strategically located close to our crude oil storage facilities, along our crude oil and refined product transmission pipelines and/or railways. These systems provide our refineries with secure supplies of crude oil and facilitate our distribution of refined products to the domestic markets. In each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, our exploration and production operations supplied approximately 84%, 89% and 82%, respectively, of the crude oil processed in our refineries.

The table below sets forth certain operating statistics regarding our refineries as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

- (3) Includes a 1.08% minority interest held by unrelated third parties in Jinzhou Petrochemical Company Limited in the relevant periods.
- (4) Includes Jilin Chemical Industrial Company Limited, in which we held a 99.61% equity interest in the relevant periods. Data regarding the primary distillation capacity, refining throughput and conversion equivalent of Jilin Petrochemical includes a 0.39% minority interest held by unrelated third parties in Jilin Chemical Industrial Company Limited in the relevant periods.
- (5) Stated in fluid catalytic cracking, delayed coking and hydrocracking equivalent/ topping (percentage by weight), based on 100% of balanced distillation capacity.

In each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, the average utilization rate of the primary distillation capacity at our refineries was 93.2%, 95.5% and 95.9%, respectively. The average yield for our four principal refined products (gasoline, kerosene, diesel and lubricants) at our refineries was 65.6%, 66.7% and 65.7, respectively, in the same periods. "Yield" represents the number of tons of a refined product expressed as a percentage of the number of tons of crude oil from which that product is processed. In each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, the yield for all refined products at our refineries was 91.5%, 92.3% and 92.2%, respectively.

Dalian Petrochemical, Fushun Petrochemical and Lanzhou Petrochemical were our leading refineries in terms of both primary distillation capacity and throughput in 2006. They are all located close to our major oil fields in the northeast and northwest regions of China and produce a wide range of refined products. Lanzhou Petrochemical has a strategic position in our plan to expand our markets in refined product sales in the southwestern and central regions of China. It is located in the northwestern part of China, providing easy access to markets in the southwestern and central regions in China. As of December 31, 2006, these three refineries had an aggregate primary distillation capacity of 297.0 million barrels per year, or 813.8 thousand barrels per day, representing approximately 31.7% of the total primary distillation capacity of all our refineries as of the same date. In 2006, these three refineries processed an aggregate of 230.9 million barrels of crude oil, or 632.5 thousand barrels per day, representing approximately 29.4% of our total throughput in the same period.

Marketing

We market a wide range of refined products, including gasoline, diesel, kerosene and lubricants, through an extensive network of sales personnel and independent distributors and a broad wholesale and retail distribution system across China. As of December 31, 2006, our marketing network consisted of:

- approximately 1,073 regional wholesale distribution outlets nationwide. Substantially all of these outlets are located in high demand areas such as economic centers across China, particularly in the coastal areas, along major railways and along the Yangtze River; and
- 16,624 service stations owned and operated by us, 282 service stations wholly owned by CNPC or jointly owned by CNPC and third parties that exclusively sell refined products produced or supplied by us and to which we provide supervisory support under contractual arrangement, and 1,301 franchise service stations owned and operated by third parties.

In 2006, we sold approximately 72.9 million tons of gasoline and diesel. The PRC government and other institutional customers, including railway, transportation and fishery operators, are our long-term purchasers of the gasoline and diesel that we produce. We sell gasoline and diesel to these customers at the ex-works median prices published by the PRC government with an 8% floating range. See “— Regulatory Matters — Pricing — Refined Products” for a discussion of refined product pricing. In 2006, sales of gasoline and diesel to these customers accounted for approximately 3.3% and 14.4% of our total sales of gasoline and diesel, respectively. The following table sets forth our refined product sales volumes by principal product category for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

Wholesale Marketing

We sell refined products both directly and through independent distributors into various wholesale markets, as well as to utility, commercial, petrochemical, aviation, agricultural, fishery and transportation companies in China. Our gasoline and diesel sales also include the amount we transferred to our retail operations. We made wholesale sales of approximately 0.6 million tons of gasoline and diesel to Sinopec in 2006, representing approximately 0.8% of our total sales of these products in the same period. In 2006, we sold approximately 16.4 million tons of our other principal refined products.

As part of the restructuring of the CNPC group in 1999, we completed the implementation of a plan to consolidate our wholesale operations and reduce distribution layers and the number of wholesale outlets. In 2001, we completed a series of initiatives to change the business scope, adjust the business functions or shut down operations in respect of 558 county level outlets. In addition, we merged 18 municipal level outlets in 2001. In 2002, we continued these initiatives by integrating our markets in Shandong Province and Anhui Province, enhancing our logistics system and shutting down a number of inefficient oil storage facilities. In 2003, we further consolidated our wholesale operations. In 2004, we consolidated our sales operations in the southern and central regions of China, respectively, by establishing a branch company in each area which is fully engaged in sales and marketing.

Retail Marketing

In 2006, we sold approximately 47.0 million tons of gasoline and diesel through our service station network, accounting for 64.5% of the total of these products sold through our marketing operations in the same period. Although sales volumes vary significantly by geographic region, the weighted average sales volume of gasoline and diesel per business day at our service station network in 2004, 2005 and 2006 was 5.5 tons, 6.7 tons and 7.8 tons per service station, respectively.

We sell our refined products to service stations owned and operated by CNPC. These service stations sell exclusively refined products produced or supplied by us in accordance with contractual arrangements between CNPC and us. Under these contractual arrangements, we also provide supervisory support to these service stations.

We currently operate a majority of our service stations under the trade name of “”. We intend to gradually adopt our new logo “” for all our service stations in the next few years.

Most of the service stations in our service station network are concentrated in the northern, northeastern and northwestern regions of China where we have a dominant wholesale market position. However, the eastern and southern regions of China have a higher demand for gasoline and diesel. We have made significant efforts in recent years to expand our sales and market share in those regions through expanding the number of our service stations and storage facilities in those regions. As part of our expansion initiatives, on May 14, 2004, we entered into the Joint Venture Contract and the Articles of Association with BP Global Investments Limited, a subsidiary of BP Amoco p.l.c., to form BP PetroChina Petroleum Company Limited in Guangdong Province. We and BP Global Investments Limited hold 51% and 49% equity interests in BP PetroChina Petroleum Company Limited, respectively. We expect that BP PetroChina Petroleum Company Limited will build, acquire and manage approximately 500 service stations in Guangdong Province within three years from its establishment. As of December 31, 2006, BP PetroChina Petroleum Company Limited owned and operated 445 service stations in the Pearl River Delta of Guangdong Province.

We invested a total of RMB 4,923 million in expanding our service station network in 2006, of which 76.4% was invested in the eastern and southern regions of China. In 2006, we sold approximately 21,480 thousand tons of gasoline and diesel through our owned and franchised service stations in these regions, as compared to approximately 13,130 thousand tons and approximately 17,490 thousand tons we sold in 2004 and 2005, respectively.

In 2006, we acquired or constructed an aggregate of 902 service stations that are owned and operated by us, of which 583 are in the eastern and southern regions of China. We plan to further increase our retail market share and improve the efficiency of our retail operations, with a continued focus on the eastern and southern regions of China. We plan to invest approximately RMB 8,000 million in 2007 to expand our service station network and storage infrastructure by adding approximately 800 new service stations.

The following table sets forth the number of the service stations in our marketing network as of December 31, 2006:

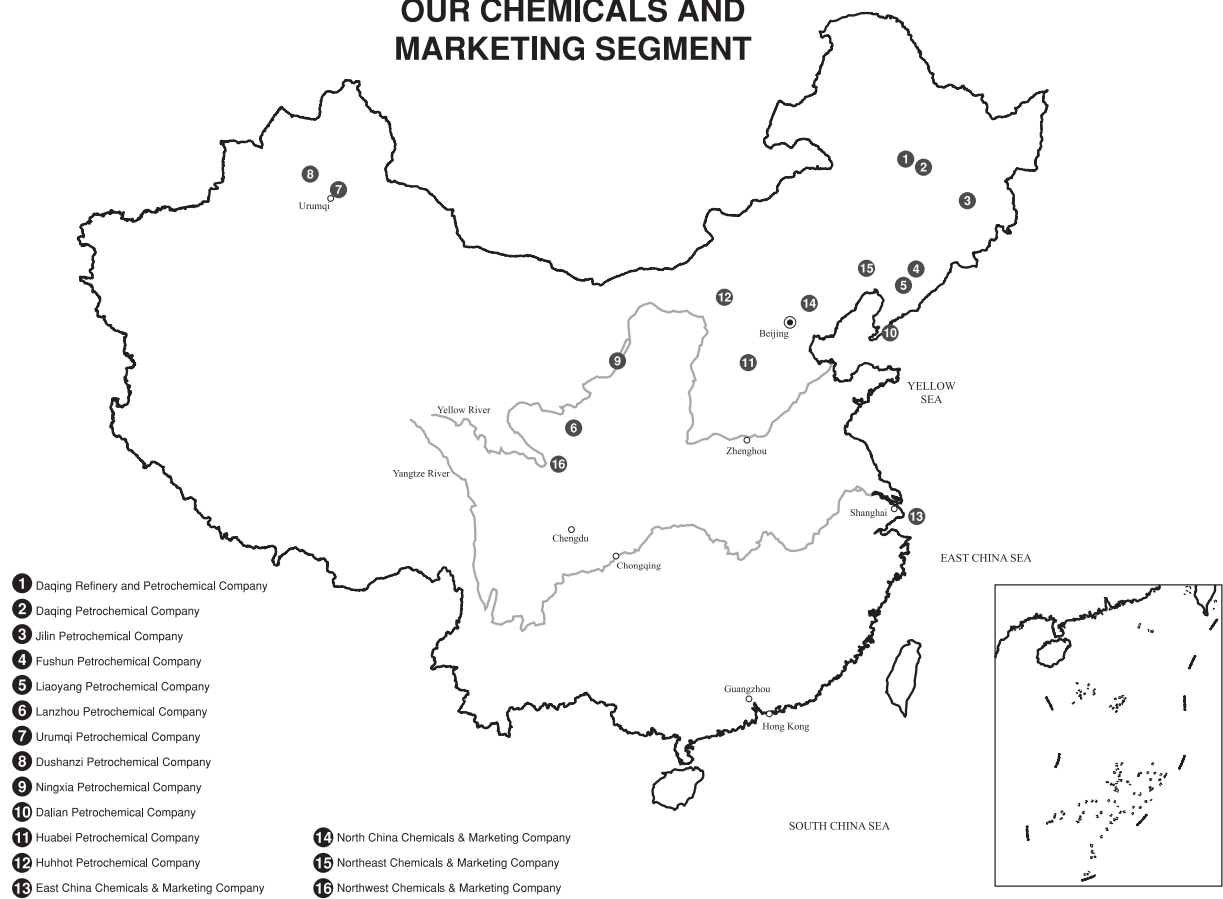

Owned and operated by us ⁽¹⁾	16,624
Wholly owned by CNPC or jointly owned by CNPC and third parties ⁽²⁾	282
Franchised	1,301

In order to improve the efficiency and profitability of our existing service station network, we standardize the interior and exterior of our service stations, our service procedures, staff uniforms and the product quality of all our service stations. We are in the process of promoting the use of pre-paid gasoline/diesel filling cards at our service stations. We have equipped 4,813 service stations located in 18 municipalities with facilities that allow customers to purchase gasoline or diesel with their pre-paid filling cards. In addition to selling gasoline and diesel, we have planned to gradually increase the sale of lubricants and other non-fuel products at our service stations.

Chemicals and Marketing

Through 12 chemical plants and four chemical products sales companies, we produce and market basic petrochemical products, derivative petrochemical products, and other chemical products. As of December 31, 2006, our chemicals and marketing segment had income from operations of RMB 5,058 million.

Our chemical plants and sales companies are located in seven provinces and three autonomous regions in China. Most of our chemical plants are co-located with our refineries and are also connected with the refineries by pipelines, providing additional production flexibility and opportunities for cost competitiveness. Our exploration and production, refining and marketing, and natural gas and pipeline operations supply substantially all of the hydrocarbon feedstock requirements for our chemicals operations. We believe that the proximity of our refineries to our chemical plants promotes efficiency in production, secures feedstock supply and minimizes the risk of production interruption. Our production capacity and our market share in China for chemical products allow us to solidify our dominant position in the northern and western regions of China. In addition, our stable customer base in the eastern and southern regions of China provides us with the opportunity to expand our market share in these regions.

Our Chemical Products

The table below sets forth the production volumes of our principal chemical products for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

We are one of the major producers of ethylene in China. We use the bulk of the ethylene we produce as a principal feedstock for the production of many chemical products, such as polyethylene. In 2001, we implemented a five-year plan to invest RMB 10,000 million to upgrade our ethylene production facilities at Daqing Petrochemical, Jilin Petrochemical, Liaoyang Petrochemical, Dushanzi Petrochemical and Lanzhou Petrochemical. As of December 31, 2006, we had completed the upgrades of all ethylene projects included in such five-year plan. In 2006, we also completed a new capacity-expansion project at Jilin Petrochemical. As of December 31, 2006, our annual ethylene production capacity was 2,630 thousand tons, an increase of 780 thousand tons from the year ended December 31, 2005. Our production volume of ethylene increased by 9.5% from 1,887.9 thousand tons in 2005 to 2,067.9 thousand tons in 2006. We expect to complete the further upgrading of the ethylene facilities at Liaoyang Petrochemical prior to the end of 2007 and the upgrading of the ethylene production facilities at Dushanzi Petrochemical by 2009. The petrochemical ethylene projects at Fushun Petrochemical and Sichuan Petrochemical have been approved by the National Development and Reform Commission and we are currently in the process of implementing these projects.

In 2006, the monthly average capacity utilization rate at our ethylene production facilities was 95.1%. The cost of ethylene production is an important component of our overall chemical production costs. Reduction of energy consumption and raw material loss is a key factor in reducing ethylene production costs. We have implemented a series of measures to reduce energy consumption. The average energy consumption of our ethylene production facilities was 734.3, 751.5 and 748.4 kilograms of standard oil per ton in 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively. This is significantly higher than the world average of 500 to 690 kilograms of standard oil per ton. We plan to continue to implement measures to reduce our energy consumption.

In addition, high ethylene percentage loss has also contributed to the relatively high cost of our ethylene production. In order to reduce high ethylene percentage loss in our ethylene production, we have implemented a series of measures at our chemical plants in the past several years, such as improving our process management of key units for ethylene production, reducing unplanned temporary interruptions of our chemical facilities and enhancing pyrolysis material composition and production plans. As a result, the average ethylene percentage loss at our chemical plants decreased from 0.57% in 2003 to 0.54% in 2004. The average ethylene percentage loss rate went up to 0.61% in 2005, due to the significant losses resulting from the trial of an upgraded ethylene production facility. In 2006, our average ethylene percentage loss decreased to 0.55%. We believe that our measures will enable us to further reduce the cost of our ethylene production without incurring significant capital expenditures.

We produce a number of synthetic resin products, including polyethylene, polypropylene and ABS. As of December 31, 2006, our production capacities for polyethylene, polypropylene and ABS were 2,212 thousand tons, 1,874 thousand tons and 220 thousand tons, respectively. In 2006, we produced 1,531 thousand tons and 1,291 thousand tons of polyethylene and polypropylene, respectively, which respectively increased by 12.9% and 13.0% as compared with 2005. In 2006, we produced 223.0 thousand tons of ABS that is consistent with our ABS production volume in 2005. Currently, China imports significant volumes of these products to meet the domestic demand due to an inadequate supply of high-quality domestically produced polyethylene and polypropylene. We intend to increase the production, and improve the quality, of these products. We have built new production facilities with new technology for the production of these products in Daqing Petrochemical, Daqing Refining and Chemical, Jilin Petrochemical, Lanzhou Petrochemical, Dalian Petrochemical and other branch companies to meet this target.

Sales and Marketing

Our chemical products are distributed to a number of industries that manufacture components used in a wide range of applications, including automotive, construction, electronics, medical manufacturing, printing, electrical appliances, household products, insulation, packaging, paper, textile, paint, footwear, agriculture and furniture industries.

The following table sets forth the sales volumes of our chemical products by principal product category for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

Natural Gas and Pipeline

We are China's largest natural gas transporter and seller in terms of sales volume, with revenues of RMB 38,917 million and total sales volume of 1,357.0 billion cubic feet in 2006, of which 1,200.5 billion cubic feet was sold by our natural gas and pipeline segment. In 2006, our natural gas and pipeline segment generated income from operations of RMB 8,986 million. We sell natural gas primarily to fertilizer and chemical companies, commercial users and municipal utilities owned by local governments.

The following table sets forth the length of our natural gas pipelines as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 and the volume of natural gas sold by us in each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

	As of December 31 or year ended December 31,
	2004	2005	2006
Length of natural gas pipelines used by our natural gas segment (km)	17,868	19,212	19,662
Total length of natural gas pipelines (km)	18,995	20,340	20,590
Volume of natural gas sold by our natural gas segment (Bcf)	657.3	888.8	1,200.5
Total volume of natural gas sold(1)(Bcf)	781.4	1,052.2	1,357.0

(1) Including both the natural gas sold to third parties and the natural gas sold within our company for the production of other products.

In addition, we also conduct the operation of crude oil and refined product transmission and storage infrastructure in the natural gas and pipeline segment.

Our Principal Markets for Natural Gas

In 2006, 34.7%, 17.7%, 16.1%, 5.0%, 2.7% and 23.8% of our natural gas sales were to the southwestern, northern, northwestern, northeastern, central, and eastern regions of the PRC, respectively.

Currently, Sichuan Province and Chongqing Municipality in southwest China are two of our principal markets for natural gas. We sold 415.6 billion cubic feet of natural gas to Sichuan Province and Chongqing Municipality in 2006, as compared to 388.1 billion cubic feet in 2005, representing approximately 31.8% of our total natural gas sales in 2006. We supply natural gas to Sichuan Province and Chongqing Municipality from our exploration and production operations in the Sichuan oil region. Our natural gas pipelines in these areas are well developed, consisting of a natural gas transmission network with a total length of approximately 5,661 kilometers. As these areas lack adequate supply of alternative energy resources, such as coal, we believe that we can further expand our natural gas sales as energy demand increases in these areas.

Beijing Municipality, Tianjin Municipality, Hebei Province and Shandong Province in northern China have high energy consumption levels. These areas are also important markets for our natural gas transmission and marketing business. We sold an aggregate of 217.5 billion cubic feet of natural gas to these areas in 2006, as compared to 167.5 billion cubic feet in 2005. Our natural gas sales to Beijing Municipality increased 23.0% from 110.2 billion cubic feet in 2005 to 135.6 billion cubic feet in 2006. We supply natural gas to Beijing Municipality, Tianjin Municipality and Hebei Province primarily from the Changqing oil region through the Shaanxi to Beijing natural gas pipeline, which is one of our natural gas trunk pipelines, and from the Huabei and Dagang oil regions. Currently, we have 2,921 kilometers of natural gas pipelines in these areas.

Henan Province, Anhui Province, Shanghai Municipality, Jiangsu Province, Zhejiang Province, Hubei Province, Hunan Province, Shanxi Province, Gansu Province and Qinghai Province are also our natural gas markets. In 2001, we completed the construction of the Sebei to Xining to Lanzhou natural gas pipeline and in 2004, we completed the construction and commenced commercial operation of the mainlines of the West to East natural gas pipeline and the Zhong County to Wuhan City natural gas pipeline. These three pipelines link our Xinjiang, Changqing, Sichuan and Qinghai gas fields with our natural gas markets referred to above.

Each year, we must supply natural gas to customers subject to the government-formulated guidance supply plan first as required by the PRC government. We enter into natural gas supply contracts with those customers on the basis of the amount of natural gas to be supplied according to the guidance supply plan for the following year's supply.

We have entered into long-term take-or-pay contracts with 23 municipalities and enterprises in Qinghai Province, Gansu Province, Shanxi Province and Tianjin Municipality, 27 municipalities and enterprises in Hubei Province and Hunan Province, 16 municipalities in Shandong Province and 50 municipalities and enterprises in Henan Province, Anhui Province, Shanghai Municipality and other provinces located in the Yangtze River Delta. Under these take-or-pay contracts, we have agreed in principle to supply natural gas to these customers in the next 20 to 25 years at prices determined based on the ex-works prices published by the National Development and Reform Commission, formerly the State Development Planning Commission, supplemented by the pipeline transportation tariffs. See “— Regulatory Matters — Pricing — Natural Gas” for a discussion of natural gas pricing.

Driven by environmental and efficiency concerns, the PRC government is increasingly encouraging industrial and residential use of natural gas to meet primary energy and environmental protection needs. The PRC government has adopted a number of laws and regulations to require municipal governments to increase the use of clean energy, such as natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas, to replace the use of raw coal. Several municipal governments, including that of Beijing, have adopted policies to facilitate natural gas consumption in order to reduce the air pollution level. The PRC government has also adopted a preferential value-added tax rate of 13% for natural gas production as compared to a 17% value-added tax rate for crude oil production.

We believe that these policies have had a positive effect on the development and consumption of natural gas in many municipalities that are our existing or potential markets for natural gas. We believe that these favorable policies will continue to benefit our natural gas business.

Natural Gas Transmission Infrastructure

As of December 31, 2006, our natural gas and pipeline segment owned and operated approximately 19,662 kilometers of natural gas pipelines in China, which represented the vast majority of China's onshore natural gas pipelines. Our existing natural gas pipelines form regional natural gas supply networks in northwestern, southwestern, northern and central China as well as the Yangtze River Delta. Our experience in the design, construction management and operation of our existing natural gas pipelines has enabled us to develop relatively advanced technologies and skills in China in long distance pipeline design, construction and automated operational communications. We believe that we will continue to benefit from those technologies and skills in the future expansion of our natural gas pipeline networks and their ancillary facilities.

Expansion of Our Natural Gas Transmission and Marketing Business

In October 2004, we completed the construction of the main line of our West to East natural gas pipeline and commenced commercial operation in December 2004. Our West to East natural gas pipeline project is designed to link our natural gas fields in Xinjiang and Changqing with Henan Province, Anhui Province, Shanghai Municipality and other areas in the Yangtze River Delta. The total length of the main line for the West to East natural gas pipeline project is 3,786 kilometers. As of December 31, 2006, we had invested RMB 37,717 million in this project. We have completed the construction of two connecting pipelines for the West to East natural gas pipeline project, the Hebei to Nanjing pipeline and the Huaiyang to Wuhan pipeline. The Hebei to Nanjing pipeline starts at Qingshan, Jiangsu Province and ends at Anping, Hebei Province, with its mainline having a length of 886 kilometers. We completed the construction and commenced the commercial operation of the main line of this pipeline in January 2006. The Huaiyang to Wuhan pipeline starts at Huaiyang, Anhui Province and ends at Wuhan, Hubei Province with a total length of 455 kilometers. We completed the construction and commenced the commercial operation of this pipeline in December 2006. We are currently constructing another connecting pipeline for the West to East natural gas pipeline project, the Lanzhou to Yinchuan pipeline. The Lanzhou to Yinchuan pipeline starts at Lanzhou, Gansu Province and ends at Yinchuan, Ningxia Autonomous Region with a total length of 402 kilometers. We expect to complete the construction and commence commercial operation of this pipeline in June 2007. As of March 31, 2007, we entered into take-or-pay contracts with 50 subscribers and distributors to supply them with natural gas through the West to East natural gas pipeline. We believe that the successful completion of this natural gas pipeline and associated storage facilities will substantially enhance our ability to capitalize on anticipated growth in demand for natural gas in these regions. We are currently expanding the transmission capacity of the West to East natural gas pipeline by upgrading the existing 10 gas compression stations and building additional 12 gas compression stations to increase the capacity from 12 billion cubic meters to 17 billion cubic meters per year.

The Zhong County to Wuhan City natural gas pipeline is designed to link the Sichuan gas region with Wuhan City, the other areas in Hubei province and Hunan Province, and has a designed annual throughput capacity of 105.9 billion cubic feet of natural gas. We commenced the construction of the pipeline in August 2003. In December 2004, we completed the construction and commenced commercial operation of the main line of the Zhong County to Wuhan City natural gas pipeline and its Xiangfan branch pipeline and Huangshi branch pipeline. We completed the construction and commenced commercial operation of the Xiangtan branch line in July 2005. As of March 31, 2007, we had entered into take-or-pay contracts with 27 customers in Hubei Province and Hunan Province including municipal governments and enterprises, to supply them with natural gas to be transmitted through the main line and branch lines of the Zhong County to Wuhan City pipeline.

We completed constructing the second natural gas pipeline from Shaanxi to Beijing Municipality in July 2005. This second Shaanxi to Beijing natural gas pipeline has a total length of 935 kilometers and can be used to deliver natural gas from our Changqing oil and gas region to Shaanxi Province, Shanxi Province, Hebei Province and Beijing Municipality with a designed annual throughput capacity of 423.8 billion cubic feet of natural gas. In 2006, we transmitted 66.2 billion cubic feet of natural gas through the second Shaanxi to Beijing natural gas pipeline.

Crude Oil and Refined Product Transportation and Storage Infrastructure

We have an extensive network for the transportation, storage and distribution of both crude oil and refined products, which covers many regions of China. Our goal is to exploit and optimize our existing infrastructure to further consolidate our presence as the leading integrated oil and gas company in China.

In 2005, we completed the construction of a portion of the Sino-Kazakhstan oil pipeline that lies within the territory of the PRC. It starts at Ala Mountain Pass and ends at Dushanzi in Xinjiang Autonomous Region with a total length of 246 kilometers. Commercial operation of the Sino-Kazakhstan oil pipeline commenced in July 2006.

As of December 31, 2006, our crude oil transportation and storage infrastructure consisted of:

- 9,620 kilometers of crude oil pipelines with an average daily throughput of approximately 2.50 million barrels; and
- crude oil storage facilities with an aggregate storage capacity of approximately 17.2 million cubic meters.

We deliver crude oil to customers through our pipeline and storage facility network, through crude oil storage facilities that we lease from third parties and by ships leased by customers. In 2006, approximately 86.7% of our crude oil production was delivered to refineries through our crude oil pipeline network. We believe that our crude oil pipeline network is sufficient for our current and anticipated transportation needs. During the past three years, we have not experienced any delays in delivering crude oil due to pipeline capacity constraints.

Our transportation and storage infrastructure also includes:

- 2,413 kilometers of refined product pipelines with an average daily throughput of approximately 37,000 tons; and
- refined product storage facilities with a total storage capacity of approximately 18.7 million cubic meters.

Most of our refineries are located in the northeastern and northwestern regions of China. Our ability to distribute products through our own product distribution infrastructure to the eastern and southern regions will provide us with greater flexibility in supplying refined products to the domestic markets across China. We plan to continue to enhance our product distribution infrastructure in the northeastern, northwestern, northern and southwestern regions where we already have a significant market share, and to expand our product distribution infrastructure in the eastern and southern regions by acquiring and constructing transportation storage facilities and distribution storage facilities in these regions.

Together with the expansion of our service stations, we expect that our pipelines, primary storage and secondary distribution storage facilities will significantly enhance our existing distribution infrastructure for refined products. We believe that our enhanced distribution infrastructure will help us increase the sales of our refined products.

Competition

As an oil and gas company operating in a competitive industry, we compete in each of our business segments in both China and international markets for desirable business prospects and for customers. Our principal competitors in China are Sinopec, including its subsidiary China National Star Petroleum Corporation, or CNSPC, and China National Offshore Oil Corporation, or CNOOC.

Exploration and Production Operations

We are the largest onshore oil and gas company in China in terms of proved crude oil and natural gas reserves as well as crude oil and natural gas production and sales. However, we compete with Sinopec for the acquisition of desirable crude oil and natural gas prospects. We believe that our experience in crude oil and natural gas exploration and production and our advanced exploration and development technologies that are suitable for diverse geological conditions in China will enable us to maintain our dominant position in discovering and developing crude oil and natural gas reserves in China.

Refining and Marketing and Chemicals and Marketing Operations

We compete with Sinopec in our refining and marketing and chemicals and marketing operations on the basis of price, quality and customer service. Most of our refineries and chemical plants are located in the northeastern, northwestern and northern regions of China where we have the dominant market share for refined products and chemical products. We also sell our refined products and chemical products in the eastern, southern, southwestern and central-southern regions of China, where our products have a considerable market share. The eastern and southern regions of China, where refined products and chemical products are in higher demand, are important markets for our refined products and chemical products. Sinopec has a strong presence in the eastern and southern regions of China in competition with us, and most of Sinopec's refineries, chemical plants and distribution networks are located in these regions in close proximity to these markets. Moreover, as the newly constructed facilities of CNOOC commenced operation, the competition is further intensified. We expect that we will continue to face competition from, among other competitors, Sinopec in increasing our refined products and chemical products sales in these regions. See “Item 3 — Key Information — Risk Factors”.

We also face competition from imported refined products and chemical products on the basis of price and quality. As a result of China’s entry into the WTO, we expect that competition from foreign producers of refined products and chemical products may increase as tariff and non-tariff barriers for imported refined products and chemical products will be reduced or eliminated over time, including the opening over time of retail and wholesale markets in China for refined products and chemical products to foreign competition. Our ability to compete with foreign producers of refined products and chemical products will depend on our ability to reduce our production costs and improve the quality of our products. See “Item 3 — Key Information — Risk Factors”.

Natural Gas and Pipeline Operations

We are the largest supplier of natural gas in terms of volume of natural gas supplied. Currently, we face very limited competition in the supply of natural gas in Beijing Municipality, Tianjin Municipality, Hebei Province, Shanghai Municipality, Jiangsu Province, Zhejiang Province, Anhui Province, Henan Province, Hubei Province, Hunan Province and the northwestern regions of China, our existing principal markets for natural gas. Currently, Sinopec has natural gas fields in Sichuan Province and Chongqing Municipality and sells natural gas to users in Sichuan and Chongqing. We, therefore, have limited competition from Sinopec in our markets in Sichuan Province and Chongqing Municipality. Further, we intend to expand our markets for natural gas into the coastal regions in eastern China where we may face competition from CNOOC and, to a lesser extent, Sinopec. We believe that our dominant natural gas resources base, our relatively advanced technologies and skills in managing long distance pipelines will enable us to continue to be a dominant player in the natural gas markets in China.

Environmental Matters

Together with other companies in the industries in which we operate, we are subject to numerous national, regional and local environmental laws and regulations concerning our oil and gas exploration and production operations, petroleum and petrochemical products and other activities. In particular, these laws and regulations:

- require an environmental evaluation report to be submitted and approved prior to the commencement of exploration, production, refining and chemical projects;
- restrict the type, quantities, and concentration of various substances that can be released into the environment in connection with drilling and production activities;
- limit or prohibit drilling activities within protected areas and certain other areas; and
- impose penalties for pollution resulting from oil, natural gas and petrochemical operations, including criminal and civil liabilities for serious pollution.

These laws and regulations may also restrict air emissions and discharges to surface and subsurface water resulting from the operation of natural gas processing plants, chemical plants, refineries, pipeline systems and other facilities that we own. In addition, our operations are subject to laws and regulations relating to the generation, handling, storage, transportation, disposal and treatment of solid waste materials.

We anticipate that the environmental laws and regulations to which we are subject will become increasingly strict and are therefore likely to have an increasing impact on our operations. It is difficult, however, to predict accurately the effect of future developments in such laws and regulations on our future earnings and operations. Some risk of environmental costs and liabilities is inherent in certain of our operations and products, as it is with other companies engaged in similar businesses. We cannot assure you that material costs and liabilities will not be incurred. However, we do not currently expect any material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations as a result of compliance with such laws and regulations. We paid pollutant discharge fees of approximately RMB 182 million, RMB 199 million and RMB 211 million in 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

To meet future environmental obligations, we are engaged in a continuous program to develop effective environmental protection measures. This program includes research on:

- reducing sulphur levels in heavy fuel oil and diesel fuel;
- reducing olefin and benzene content in gasoline and the quantity of emissions and effluents from our refineries and petrochemical plants; and
- developing and installing monitoring systems at our pollutant discharge openings and developing environmental impact assessments for major projects.

Our capital expenditures on environmental programs in 2004, 2005 and 2006 were approximately RMB 1,345 million, RMB 1,633 million and RMB 4,634 million, respectively.

On December 23, 2003, a gas blow-out incident occurred at our Luoja No. 16H gas well located in Kaixian County, Chongqing Municipality. The gas blow-out caused the leakage of a large quantity of sulfurated hydrogen, resulting in injuries and death to many residents living in the surrounding areas. The PRC government investigated this gas blow-out and found CNPC, who had provided drilling services to us for the Luoja No. 16H gas well, liable. This incident has not had, and we do not believe it will have, a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition. Because a number of our production facilities are located in populated areas, we have established a series of preventative measures to improve the safety of our employees and surrounding residents and minimize disruptions or other adverse effects on our business. These measures include:

- providing each household in areas surrounding our production facilities with printed materials to explain and illustrate safety and protection knowledge and skills; and
- enhancing the implementation of various safety production measures we have adopted previously.

We believe that these preventative measures have helped minimize the possibility of similar incidents resulting in serious casualties and environmental consequences. In addition, the adoption of these preventative measures has not required significant capital expenditures to date, and therefore, will not have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

On November 13, 2005, an explosion occurred at one of our branch companies in Jilin Province. The Chinese government completed the investigation of this accident in December 2006. Based on the results of the investigation, our company paid a fine of RMB 1 million in settlement of all liabilities arising from the accident.

We have implemented the following measures to prevent future occurrences of similar incidents:

- conducting environmental risk monitoring; and
- establishing preventive systems for emergency use at refinery and petrochemical enterprises.

Legal Proceedings

We are not involved in any judicial and arbitral proceedings, the results of which, in the aggregate, would have a material adverse impact on our financial condition.

Properties

Under a restructuring agreement we entered into with CNPC on the date of our establishment in 1999, CNPC undertook to us the following:

- CNPC would use its best endeavors to obtain formal land use right licenses to replace the entitlement certificates in relation to the 28,649 parcels of land, which were leased or transferred to us from CNPC, within one year from August, September and October 1999 when the relevant entitlement certificates were issued;
- CNPC would complete, within one year from November 5, 1999, the necessary governmental procedures for the requisition of the collectively owned land on which 116 service stations owned by us are located; and
- CNPC would obtain individual building ownership certificates in our name for all of the 57,482 buildings transferred to us by CNPC, before November 5, 2000.

As of December 31, 2006, CNPC obtained formal land use right certificates for 27,494 of the 28,649 parcels of land and ownership certificates for some buildings. The governmental procedures for the above-mentioned service stations located on collectively owned land have not been completed to date. Our directors believe that the use of and the conduct of relevant activities at the above-mentioned parcels of land, service stations and buildings are not affected by the fact that the relevant land use right certificates or building ownership certificates have not been obtained or the fact that the relevant governmental procedures have not been completed. Our directors believe that this will not have any material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

We own substantially all of the equipment and production facilities relating to all our business activities. We hold exploration and production licenses covering all of our interests in developed and undeveloped acreage and oil and natural gas wells. See “— Exploration and Production — Properties”.

Regulatory Matters

Overview

China's oil and gas industry is subject to extensive regulation by the PRC government with respect to a number of aspects of exploration, production, transmission and marketing of crude oil and natural gas as well as production, transportation and marketing of refined products and chemical products. The following central government authorities exercise control over various aspects of China's oil and gas industry:

- The Ministry of Land and Resources has the authority for granting, examining and approving oil and gas exploration and production licenses, the administration of registration and transfer of exploration and production licenses.
- The Ministry of Commerce:
 - sets the import and export volume quotas for crude oil and refined products according to the overall supply and demand for crude oil and refined products in China as well as the WTO requirements for China;
 - issues import and export licenses for crude oil and refined products to oil and gas companies that have obtained import and export quotas; and
 - examines and approves production sharing contracts and Sino-foreign equity and cooperative joint venture contracts.

- The National Development and Reform Commission:
 - has the industry administration and policy coordination authority over China's oil and gas industry;
 - determines mandatory minimum volumes and applicable prices of natural gas to be supplied to certain fertilizer producers;
 - publishes guidance prices for natural gas and retail median guidance prices for certain refined products, including gasoline and diesel;
 - approves significant petroleum, natural gas, oil refinery and chemical projects set forth under the Catalogues of Investment Projects Approved by the Central Government; and
 - approves Sino-foreign equity and cooperative projects exceeding certain capital amounts.

Exploration Licenses and Production Licenses

The Mineral Resources Law authorizes the Ministry of Land and Resources to exercise administrative authority over the exploration and production of mineral resources within the PRC. The Mineral Resources Law and its supplementary regulations provide the basic legal framework under which exploration licenses and production licenses are granted. The Ministry of Land and Resources has the authority to issue exploration licenses and production licenses. Applicants must be companies approved by the State Council to engage in oil and gas exploration and production activities.

Applicants for exploration licenses must first register with the Ministry of Land and Resources blocks in which they intend to engage in exploration activities. The holder of an exploration license is obligated to make a progressively increasing annual minimum exploration investment relating to the exploration blocks in respect of which the license is issued. Investments range from RMB 2,000 per square kilometer for the initial year to RMB 5,000 per square kilometer for the second year, and to RMB 10,000 per square kilometer for the third and subsequent years. Additionally, the holder has to pay an annual exploration license fee that starts at RMB 100 per square kilometer for each of the first three years and increases by an additional RMB 100 per square kilometer per year for subsequent years up to a maximum of RMB 500 per square kilometer. The maximum term of an exploration license is seven years, subject to twice renewal upon expiration of the original term, with each renewal being for a two-year term. At the exploration stage, an applicant can also apply for a progressive exploration and production license that allows the holder to test and develop reserves not yet fully proven. Upon the detection and confirmation of the quantity of reserves in a certain block, the holder must apply for a production license based on economic evaluation, market conditions and development planning in order to shift into the production phase in a timely fashion. In addition, the holder needs to obtain the right to use that block of land. Generally, the holder of a full production license must obtain a land use rights certificate for industrial land use covering that block of land.

The Ministry of Land and Resources issues production licenses to applicants on the basis of the reserve reports approved by the relevant authorities. Production license holders are required to pay an annual production right usage fee of RMB 1,000 per square kilometer. Administrative rules issued by the State Council provide that the maximum term of a production license is 30 years. In accordance with a special approval from the State Council, the Ministry of Land and Resources has issued production licenses with terms coextensive with the projected productive life of those reservoirs. Each of our production licenses is renewable upon our application 40 days prior to expiration. If oil and gas prices increase, the productive life of our crude oil and natural gas reservoirs may be extended beyond the current terms of the relevant production licenses.

Among the major PRC oil and gas companies, the exploration licenses and production licenses held by PetroChina, Sinopec and CNOOC account for the majority of mining rights in China. Among those companies, PetroChina and Sinopec primarily engage in onshore exploration and production, while CNOOC primarily engages in offshore exploration and production.

Pricing

Crude Oil

PetroChina and Sinopec set their crude oil median prices each month based on the average Singapore market FOB prices for crude oil of different grades in the previous month. In addition, PetroChina and Sinopec negotiate a premium or discount to reflect transportation costs, the differences in oil quality and market supply and demand. The National Development and Reform Commission will mediate if PetroChina and Sinopec cannot agree on the amount of premium or discount.

Refined Products

Since October 2001, PetroChina has set its retail prices within an 8% floating range of the published retail median guidance prices of gasoline and diesel published by the National Development and Reform Commission (but after March 26, 2006, the price of diesel for fishing vessels has been set in line with the retail base price published in the current year, with no upward adjustment for the time being). These retail median guidance prices of gasoline and diesel vary in each provincial level distribution region. From October 2001 to early 2006, the National Development and Reform Commission published the retail median guidance prices of gasoline and diesel from time to time based on the weighted average FOB Singapore, Rotterdam and New York trading prices for diesel and gasoline plus transportation costs and taxes. Generally, adjustments were made only if the weighted average prices fluctuate beyond 8% of the previously published retail median guidance price. In 2006, the PRC government, under its macro economic controls, introduced a new mechanism for determining the prices of refined products.

PetroChina sets the wholesale prices for its gasoline and diesel on the basis of its retail prices and a discount to its retail prices of at least 4.5% as required by the National Development and Reform Commission.

In addition, the National Development and Reform Commission sets the ex-works median prices for gasoline and diesel sold for military use and national reserve. For other institutional customers including airlines and railway operators, PetroChina may charge on the basis of the ex-works median prices adjustment within an upward or downward adjustment up to 8%.

Chemical Products

PetroChina determines the prices of all of its chemical products.

Natural Gas

The price of natural gas has two components: ex-works price and pipeline transportation tariff.

Prior to December 26, 2005, ex-works prices varied depending on whether or not the natural gas sold was within the government-formulated natural gas supply plan. For natural gas sold within the government-formulated supply plan, the National Development and Reform Commission fixed ex-works prices according to the nature of the customers. Most of these customers were fertilizer producers. For natural gas sold to customers not subject to the government-formulated supply plan, the National Development and Reform Commission published median guidance ex-works prices, and allowed natural gas producers to adjust prices upward or downward by up to 10%.

On December 26, 2005, the National Development and Reform Commission reformed the mechanism for setting the ex-works prices of domestic natural gas by changing the ex-works prices to governmental guidance prices, and categorizing domestic natural gas into two categories. On the basis of the ex-works price set by the government, subject to the negotiations between the seller and the buyer, the actual ex-works price of the first category may float upward or downward up to 10%; while the actual ex-works price of the second category may float upward up to 10% and downward to any level. The price of the first category will be adjusted to the same level as the second category within three to five year. The National Development and Reform Commission does not allow PetroChina and Sinopec to charge different prices towards internal and external enterprises.

PetroChina negotiates the actual ex-works price with natural gas users within the benchmark price set by the government and the adjustment range.

The National Development and Reform Commission sets the pipeline transportation tariff for the natural gas transported by pipelines constructed prior to 1991. For natural gas transported by pipelines constructed after 1991, PetroChina submits to the National Development and Reform Commission for examination and approval proposed pipeline transmission tariffs based on the capital investment made in the pipeline, the depreciation period for the pipeline, the ability of end users to pay and PetroChina's profit margin.

Production and Marketing

Crude Oil

Each year, the National Development and Reform Commission publishes the projected target for the production and sale of crude oil by PetroChina, Sinopec and CNOOC, based on the domestic consumption estimates submitted by domestic producers, including PetroChina, Sinopec and CNOOC, the production of these companies as well as the forecast of international crude oil prices. The actual production levels are determined by the producers themselves and may vary from the submitted estimates. Since January 1, 2007, qualified domestic producers are permitted to engage in the sale and storage of crude oil. Foreign companies are also allowed to establish and invest in enterprises to conduct crude oil-related business.

Refined Products

Previously, only PetroChina, Sinopec and joint ventures established by the two companies had the right to conduct gasoline and diesel wholesale business. Other companies, including foreign invested companies, were not allowed to engage in wholesale of gasoline and diesel in China's domestic market. In general, only domestic companies, including Sino-foreign joint venture companies, were permitted to engage in retail of gasoline and diesel. Since December 11, 2004, wholly-owned foreign enterprises are permitted to conduct crude oil retail business. Since January 1, 2007 when the Measures on the Administration of the Refined Products Market became effective, all entities meeting certain requirements are allowed to submit applications to the Ministry of Commerce to conduct gasoline and diesel wholesale, retail and storage businesses.

Natural Gas

The National Development and Reform Commission publishes in each year the production targets for natural gas producers based on the annual production target prepared on the basis of consumption estimates submitted by all natural gas producers such as PetroChina. The National Development and Reform Commission also formulates the annual natural gas guidance supply plan, which requires natural gas producers to distribute a specified amount of natural gas to specified fertilizer producers, municipal governments and enterprises. The actual production levels of natural gas, except the amount supplied to the fertilizer producers, are determined by the natural gas producers.

Foreign Investments

Cooperation in Exploration and Production with Foreign Companies

Currently, only CNPC and Sinopec have the right to cooperate with foreign companies in onshore crude oil and natural gas exploration and production in China. CNOOC has the right to cooperate with foreign companies in offshore crude oil and natural gas exploration and production in China.

Sino-foreign cooperation projects and foreign parties in onshore oil and gas exploration and production in China are generally selected through open bids and bilateral negotiations. Those projects are generally conducted through production sharing contracts. The Ministry of Commerce must approve those contracts.

As authorized by the Regulations of the PRC on Exploration of Onshore Petroleum Resources in Cooperation with Foreign Enterprises, CNPC has the right to enter into joint cooperation arrangements with foreign oil and gas companies for onshore crude oil and natural gas exploration and production. PetroChina does not have the capacity to enter into production sharing contracts directly with foreign oil and gas companies under existing PRC law. Accordingly, CNPC will continue to enter into production sharing contracts. After signing a production sharing contract, CNPC will, subject to approval of the Ministry of Commerce, assign to PetroChina most of its commercial and operational rights and obligations under the production sharing contract as required by the Non-competition Agreement between CNPC and PetroChina. See “Item 7 — Major Shareholders and Related Party Transactions — Contract for the Transfer of Rights under Production Sharing Contracts”.

Transportation and Refining

PRC regulations permit foreign minority ownership in pipeline transportation, oil storage facilities and oil jetties. There is no express general restriction on foreign investment in refineries and petrochemical facilities. However, construction of new refinery or ethylene facilities, expansion of existing refinery facilities and upgrading of existing ethylene facilities by increasing annual production capacity of more than 200 thousand tons are subject to the approval of relevant government authorities. The production of ethylene with an annual production capacity exceeding 600 thousand tons must be conducted by companies majority-owned by Chinese entities. Furthermore, when appropriate, projects must receive necessary approvals from relevant PRC government agencies. See “Item 3 — Key Information — Risk Factors”.

Import and Export

Since January 1, 2004, the import of crude oil and refined products by state-owned trading companies has been exempted from import quota and licensing control. Non-state-owned trading companies which are qualified to import crude oil and refine products are subject to quotas. Both state-owned trading companies and non-state-owned trading companies are permitted to export crude oil and refined oil products subject to quotas. The Ministry of Commerce has granted PetroChina the right to conduct crude oil and refined product import and export business.

Capital Investment and Financing

Capital investments in exploration and production of crude oil and natural gas made by Chinese oil and gas companies are subject to approval by or filing with relevant government authorities. The development of new oil field with an annual production capacity equal to or exceeding one million tons and new natural gas field with an annual production capacity equal to or exceeding two billion cubic meters is required to be approved by the National Development and Reform Commission. Any other development project of crude oil and natural gas needs to be filed with the National Development and Reform Commission. Oil and gas companies need to obtain approval from the National Development and Reform Commission and the State Administration of Foreign Exchange to borrow from foreign banks and foreign governments in connection with those capital investments.

Taxation, Fees and Royalty

PetroChina is subject to a variety of taxation, fees and royalty. The table below sets forth the various taxation, fees and royalty payable by PetroChina or by Sino-foreign oil and gas exploration and development cooperative projects. Since January 1, 2000, PetroChina and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Daqing Oilfield Company Limited, and branch companies have been taxed on a consolidated basis as approved by the Ministry of Finance and the State Taxation Bureau.

Tax item	Tax base	Tax Rate
Enterprise income tax	Taxable income	Currently at a rate of 33%. However, our qualified branch companies in the west regions of the PRC are entitled to a rate of 15%. Tax concession or exemption enjoyed by any subsidiary or branch company continues to apply. Effective from January 1, 2008, PRC enterprises will be subject to new income tax rates. Its impact on our operating results and financial positions of future periods remains uncertain until more detailed regulations and measures are announced.
Value-added tax	Revenue	13% for liquified natural gas, natural gas, liquified petroleum gas, agricultural film and fertilizers and 17% for other items. PetroChina charges value-added tax from its customers at the time of settlement on top of the selling prices of its products on behalf of the taxation authority. The value-added tax paid by PetroChina for purchasing materials to be consumed during the production process and for charges paid for drilling and other engineering services and labor is deducted from output value-added tax payable by PetroChina. Since March 14, 2006, the rebate of the value-added tax paid in connection with export of gasoline has been suspended.
	Sales volume	5% for the Sino-foreign oil and gas exploration and development cooperative projects. However input value-added tax cannot be deducted.

Tax item	Tax base	Tax Rate
Business tax	Revenue from transportation services	3%
Consumption tax	Aggregate volume sold or self-consumed	RMB 277.6 per ton for gasoline; since January 1, 1999, RMB 388.64 per ton for leaded gasoline. RMB 117.6 per ton for diesel. Since April 1, 2006, RMB 277 per ton for naphtha and levied at the rate of 30% of the taxable amount for the time being. Since April 1, 2006, RMB 256.4 per ton for solvent naphtha and levied at the rate of 30% of the taxable amount for the time being. Since April 1, 2006, RMB 225.2 per ton for lubricants and levied at the rate of 30% of the taxable amount for the time being. Since April 1, 2006, RMB 101.5 per ton for fuel oil and levied at the rate of 30% of the taxable amount for the time being. Since April 1, 2006, RMB 124.6 per ton for aviation kerosene and not levied for the time being.
Resource tax	Aggregate volume sold or self-consumed	Since July 1, 2005, resource tax applicable to crude oil of our company was adjusted upward from the original RMB 8 to 30 per ton to RMB 14 to 30 per ton, and the resource tax for natural gas was adjusted from the original RMB 2 to 15 per thousand cubic meter to RMB 7 to 15 per thousand cubic meter. The actual applicable rate for each oil field may differ depending on the resource differences, volume of the exploration and production activities and costs required for the production at the particular oil field.
Compensatory fee for mineral resources	Revenue	1% for crude oil and natural gas
Crude oil special gain levy	Sales amount above certain threshold	Effective March 26, 2006, levied on the domestic crude oil sold at or above US$40/barrel, with a five-level progressive tax rates, varying from 20% to 40%

Tax item	Tax base	Tax Rate
Exploration license fee	Area	RMB 100 to 500 per square kilometer per year
Production license fee	Area	RMB 1,000 per square kilometer per year
Royalty fee⁽¹⁾	Production volume	Progressive rate of 0–12.5% for crude oil and 0–3% for natural gas

⁽¹⁾ Payable only by Sino-foreign oil and gas exploration and development cooperative projects. The project entity of those cooperative projects is not subject to any other resource tax or fee.

The PRC Highway Law, as amended on October 31, 1999, provides that the PRC government will collect funds for highway maintenance by imposing fuel taxes. The State Council will formulate specific implementation methods and procedures for the imposition of fuel tax. The State Council has not yet announced or published any specific rate, implementation method or procedure for the imposition of the tax.

Environmental Regulations

China has adopted extensive environmental laws and regulations that affect the operation of the oil and gas industry. There are national and local standards applicable to emissions control, discharges to surface and subsurface water and disposal, and the generation, handling, storage, transportation, treatment and disposal of solid waste materials.

The environmental regulations require a company, such as us, to register or file an environmental impact report with the relevant environmental bureau for approval before it undertakes any construction of a new production facility or any major expansion or renovation of an existing production facility. The new facility or the expanded or renovated facility will not be permitted to operate unless the relevant environmental bureau has inspected to its satisfaction that environmental equipment that satisfies the environmental protection requirements has been installed for the facility. A company that wishes to discharge pollutants, whether it is in the form of emission, water or materials, must submit a pollutant discharge declaration statement detailing the amount, type, location and method of treatment. After reviewing the pollutant discharge declaration, the relevant environmental bureau will determine the amount of discharge allowable under the law and will issue a pollutant discharge license for that amount of discharge subject to the payment of discharge fees. If a company discharges more than is permitted in the pollutant discharge license, the relevant environmental bureau can fine the company up to several times the discharge fees payable by the offending company for its allowable discharge, or require the offending company to close its operation to remedy the problem.

ITEM 4A — UNRESOLVED STAFF COMMENTS

We do not have any unresolved Staff comments that are required to be disclosed under this item.

ITEM 5 — OPERATING AND FINANCIAL REVIEW AND PROSPECTS

General

You should read the following discussion together with our consolidated financial statements and their notes included elsewhere in this annual report. Our consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS, which differ in many respects from US GAAP. Note 37 to our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this annual report and the section headed “— Other Information — US GAAP Reconciliation” summarize the significant differences between IFRS and US GAAP as they relate to us.

Overview

We are engaged in a broad range of petroleum and natural gas related activities, including:

- the exploration, development, production and sale of crude oil and natural gas;
- the refining, transportation, storage and marketing of crude oil and petroleum products;
- the production and marketing of basic petrochemical products, derivative chemical products and other chemical products; and
- the transmission and storage of crude oil, refined oil products and natural gas as well as the sale of natural gas.

We are China's largest producer of crude oil and natural gas and are one of the largest companies in China in terms of sales. In the year ended December 31, 2006, we produced approximately 830.7 million barrels of crude oil and approximately 1,371.9 billion cubic feet of natural gas for sale. Our refineries also processed approximately 785 million barrels of crude oil in the year ended December 31, 2006. In the year ended December 31, 2006, we had total revenue of RMB 688,978 million and net income of RMB 142,224 million.

Factors Affecting Results of Operations

Our results of operations and the period-to-period comparability of our financial results are affected by a number of external factors, including changes in the prices of crude oil, refined products, natural gas and chemical products, decrease in our crude oil reserves in China and fluctuations in exchange rates and interest rates.

Crude Oil Prices

Our results of operations are substantially affected by crude oil prices. Since March 2001, we and Sinopec have set our crude oil median prices monthly based on the Singapore market FOB prices for crude oil. Our actual realized crude oil prices include a premium on, or discount from, the median prices which primarily reflects transportation costs, differences in oil quality and market supply and demand conditions.

Since September 1, 1999, the discounts and premiums applied to our crude oil sales have been determined in accordance with a crude oil premium or discount calculation agreement and its supplemental agreement we entered into with Sinopec. These agreements establish premiums or discounts which effect adjustments to the benchmark prices. These agreements do not obligate either party to purchase or sell any crude oil and is thus subject to renegotiation. Under these agreements, the National Development and Reform Commission, formerly the State Development Planning Commission, will mediate if we cannot agree with Sinopec on the premium or discount applicable to a particular crude oil purchase. The table below sets forth the median prices for our principal grades of crude oil in 2004, 2005 and 2006 and the negotiated premiums or discounts applicable to those grades of crude oil since 2004.

Grade of crude oil	Benchmark	Median prices for principal grades of crude oil (RMB/barrel)			Premium/(discount) (RMB/barrel)
		Year 2004 average	Year 2005 average	Year 2006 average	2004	2005	2006
Daqing	Minas	300.7	430	513	0	(4.4)	(3.8)
Jidong	Minas	300.7	430	513	0	(4.4)	(3.8)
Huabei	Minas	300.7	430	513	1.3	(3.0)	(2.4)
Dagang	Cinta	290.5	412	494	1.4	(1.8)	(2.5)
Tarim	Minas	300.7	430	513	(34.6)	(34.9)	(34.6)
Tuha	Tapis	329.2	457	554	(25.5)	_____	(29.0)

In 2006, the median prices for our principal grades of crude oil and crude oil produced in our Daqing oil region were RMB 501 per barrel and RMB 513 per barrel, respectively.

Increases or decreases in the price of crude oil in China have a significant effect on the revenue from our exploration and production segment. As a result of the increases in the prices and sales volume of crude oil and natural gas, the revenue from our exploration and production segment increased 24.9% from RMB 337,208 million in the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 421,340 million in the year ended December 31, 2006. In the year ended December 31, 2006, our average realized selling price for crude oil was RMB 477 per barrel, increased by 20% from RMB 396 per barrel in the year ended December 31, 2005. See “Item 4 — Information on the Company — Regulatory Matters — Pricing” for a more detailed discussion of current PRC crude oil pricing regulations.

Refined Product Prices

Prior to October 2001, the State Development Planning Commission published from time to time retail median gasoline and diesel guidance prices for major cities and provinces. Once published, the retail median prices remained unchanged until either we or Sinopec requested an adjustment and demonstrated that the cumulative change of the FOB Singapore gasoline or diesel trading price from the then applicable retail median guidance price exceeded 5%. From October 2001 to early 2006, the State Development Planning Commission or the National Development and Reform Commission has adjusted such retail median prices from time to time to reflect the FOB Singapore, Rotterdam and New York trading prices for gasoline and diesel, supplemented by transportation costs and taxes. In 2006, the PRC government, under its macro economic controls, introduced a new mechanism for determining the prices of refined products. See “Item 4 — Information on the Company — Regulatory Matters — Pricing” for a more detailed discussion of current PRC refined products pricing regulations.

Since October 2001, we and Sinopec have set our retail prices within an 8% floating range of the published median gasoline and diesel guidance prices. We determine the prices of other refined products with reference to the published median guidance prices of gasoline and diesel. Our retail prices may differ from those of Sinopec within a given market. Our average realized selling prices tend to be higher in the western and northern regions of China, where we dominate the market, as compared to our average realized selling prices in the eastern and southern regions, where Sinopec has a stronger presence.

The following table sets forth the retail median prices for 90(#) gasoline and 0(#) diesel published by the State Development Planning Commission or the National Development and Reform Commission from January 2006 to March 2007 when such adjustments were made.

Date	90(#) Gasoline (RMB/ton)	0(#) Diesel (RMB/ton)
March 26, 2006	5,172	4,510
May 24, 2006	5,672	5,010
January 14, 2007	5,452	—

Chemical Product Prices

We determine and set the prices of all chemical products produced by our chemicals business segment.

Natural Gas Prices

The price of our natural gas price is comprised of the ex-works price and pipeline transportation tariff.

Prior to December 26, 2005, ex-works prices varied depending on whether the natural gas sold was within the government-formulated natural gas supply plan. For natural gas sold within the government-formulated supply plan, the National Development and Reform Commission fixed ex-works prices according to the nature of the customers. Most of these customers were fertilizer producers. For natural gas sold to customers not subject to the government-formulated supply plan, the National Development and Reform Commission published median guidance ex-works prices, and allowed natural gas producers to adjust the prices upward or downward by up to 10%.

On December 26, 2005, the National Development and Reform Commission reformed the mechanism for setting the ex-works prices of domestic natural gas by changing the ex-works prices to governmental guidance prices, and categorizing the domestic natural gas into two tiers. On the basis of the ex-works price set by the government, subject to the negotiations between the seller and the buyer, the actual ex-works price of the first tier may float upward or downward of up to 10%; while the actual ex-works price of the second tier may float upward of up to 10% and downward to any level. The price of the first tier will be adjusted to the same level as the second tier within three to five years.

PetroChina negotiates the actual ex-works price with natural gas users on the basis of the benchmark price set by the government and the adjustment range.

The National Development and Reform Commission sets the pipeline transportation tariff for the natural gas transported by pipelines constructed prior to 1991. For natural gas transported by pipelines constructed after 1991, PetroChina submits to the National Development and Reform Commission for examination and approval proposed pipeline transmission tariffs based on the capital investment made in the pipeline, the depreciation period for the pipeline, the ability of end users to pay and PetroChina's profit margin.

We sell our natural gas at prices which exceed our production and transportation costs.

The results of operations of these segments will be impacted to the extent that our prices do not vary to reflect increases or decreases in our costs. See "Item 4 — Information on the Company — Regulatory Matters — Pricing" for a further discussion of these pricing controls.

Foreign Currency Exposure

For a discussion of the effect of exchange rate fluctuations on our results of operations, please see “Item 11 — Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk — Foreign Exchange Rate Risk”.

Interest Rate Exposure

For a discussion of the effect of interest rate changes on our results of operations, please see “Item 11 — Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk — Interest Rate Risk”.

Critical Accounting Policies

The preparation of our consolidated financial statements requires our management to select and apply significant accounting policies, the application of which may require management to make judgments and estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of our financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Notwithstanding the presentation of our principal accounting policies in Note 3 to our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this annual report, we have identified the accounting policies below as most critical to our business operations and the understanding of our financial condition and results of operations presented in accordance with IFRS. Although these estimates are based on our management’s best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results ultimately may differ from those estimates.

Accounting of Oil and Gas Exploration and Production Activities

We use successful efforts method of accounting, with specialized accounting rules that are unique to the oil and gas industry, for oil and gas exploration and production activities. Under this method, geological and geophysical costs incurred are expensed prior to the discovery of proved reserves. However, all costs for developmental wells, support equipment and facilities, and mineral interests in oil and gas properties are capitalized. Costs of exploratory wells are capitalized as construction in progress pending determination of whether the wells find proved reserves. The costs of exploratory wells will be further capitalized pending determination of whether the wells find sufficient economically exploitable reserves. For exploratory wells located in regions that do not require substantial capital expenditures before the commencement of production, the evaluation of the economic benefits of the reserves in such wells will be completed within one year following the completion of the exploration drilling. Where such evaluation indicates that no economic benefits can be obtained, the relevant costs of exploratory wells will be converted to dry hole exploration expenses. The relevant costs will be capitalized if the evaluation indicates that economic benefits can be obtained. For wells that found economically viable reserves in areas where a major capital expenditure would be required before production can begin, the related well costs remain capitalized only if additional drilling is under way or firmly planned. Otherwise the well costs are expensed as dry holes. We have no costs of unproved properties capitalized in oil and gas properties.

Oil and Gas Reserves

The estimation of the quantities of recoverable oil and gas reserves in oil and gas fields is integral to effective management of our exploration and production operations. Because of the subjective judgments involved in developing and assessing such information, engineering estimates of the quantities of recoverable oil and gas reserves in oil and gas fields are inherently imprecise and represent only approximate amounts.

Before estimated oil and gas reserves are designated as “proved”, certain engineering criteria must be met in accordance with industry standards and the regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Proved oil and gas reserves are the estimated quantities of crude oil and natural gas which geological and engineering data demonstrate with reasonable certainty to be recoverable in future years from known reservoirs under existing economic and operating conditions. Therefore, these estimates do not include probable or possible reserves. Our proved reserve estimates are updated annually by independent, qualified and experienced oil and gas reserve engineering firms in the United States. Our oil and gas reserve engineering department has policies and procedures in place to ensure that these estimates are consistent with these authoritative guidelines. Among other factors as required by authoritative guidelines, this estimation takes into account recent information about each field, including production and seismic information, estimated recoverable reserves of each well, and oil and gas prices and operating costs as of the date the estimate is made. Prices include consideration of changes in existing prices provided only by contractual arrangements, but not on escalations based upon future conditions. Therefore, as prices and cost levels change from year to year, the estimate of proved reserves also changes. We have no costs of unproved properties capitalized in oil and gas properties.

Despite the inherent imprecision in these engineering estimates, estimated proved oil and gas reserve quantity has a direct impact on certain amounts reported in the financials statements. In addition to the capitalization of costs related to oil and gas properties on the balance sheet discussed earlier, estimated proved reserves also impact the calculation of depreciation, depletion and amortization expenses of oil and gas properties. The cost of oil and gas properties is amortized at the field level on the unit of production method. Unit of production rates are based on the total oil and gas reserves estimated to be recoverable from existing facilities based on the current terms of our production licenses. Our reserve estimates include only crude oil and natural gas which management believes can be reasonably produced within the current terms of the production licenses that are granted by the Ministry of Land and Resources, ranging from 30 years to 55 years from the effective date of issuance in March 2000, renewable upon application 30 days prior to expiration. Consequently, the impact of changes in estimated proved reserves is reflected prospectively by amortizing the remaining book value of the oil and gas property assets over the expected future production. If proved reserve estimates are revised downward, earnings could be affected by higher depreciation expense or an immediate write-down of the property's book value had the downward revisions been significant See "— Property, Plant and Equipment" below. Given our large number of producing properties in our portfolio, and the estimated proved reserves, it is unlikely that any changes in reserve estimates will have a significant effect on prospective charges for depreciation, depletion and amortization expenses.

In addition, due to the importance of these estimates to better understanding the perceived value and future cash flows of a company's oil and gas operations, we have also provided supplemental disclosures of "proved" oil and gas reserve estimates prepared in accordance with authoritative guidelines elsewhere in this annual report.

Property, Plant and Equipment

We record property, plant and equipment, including oil and gas properties, initially at cost less accumulated depreciation, depletion and amortization. Cost represents the purchase price of the asset and other costs incurred to bring the asset into existing use. Subsequent to their initial recognition, property, plant and equipment are carried at revalued amount, being the estimated fair value at the date of the revaluation less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Revaluations are performed by independent qualified valuers on a periodic basis to ensure that the carrying amount does not differ materially from that which would be determined using fair value at the balance sheet date. Revaluation surpluses realized through the depreciation or disposal of revalued assets are retained in the revaluation reserve and will not be available to offset against possible future revaluation losses. As disclosed in Note 18 to our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this annual report, our property, plant and equipment, excluding oil and gas reserves, were revalued as of June 30, 1999. Subsequently, our refining and chemical production equipment and oil and gas properties were revalued as of September 30, 2003 and our oil and gas properties as of March 31, 2006.

Depreciation, depletion and amortization to write off the cost or valuation of each asset, other than oil and gas properties, to its residual value is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of such asset as follows:

Buildings	20-40 years
Plant and machinery	10-25 years
Motor vehicles	7-15 years

We do not provide depreciation for construction in progress until it is completed and ready for use.

The useful lives of non-oil-and-gas properties are estimated at the time these purchases are made after considering future changes, business developments and our strategies. Estimated production lives for oil and gas properties are also made after considering the specific factors discussed under “— Oil and Gas Reserves” above. Should there be unexpected adverse changes in these circumstances or events, which include, among others, declines in projected operating results and negative industry or economic trends we would be required to assess the need to shorten the useful lives and/or make impairment provisions.

In performing this impairment assessment, we review internal and external sources of information to identify indications of these unexpected adverse changes. The sources utilized to identify indications of impairment are often subjective in nature and require us to use judgment in applying such information to our businesses. Our interpretation of this information has a direct impact on whether an impairment assessment is performed as at any given balance sheet date. Such information is particularly significant as it relates to our oil and gas properties. If an indication of impairment is identified, the recoverable amount of each cash generating unit is estimated, which is the higher of its fair price net of selling cost and its value in use, which is the estimated net present value of future cash flows to be derived from the continuing use of the asset and from its ultimate disposal. To the extent the carrying amount of a cash generating unit exceeds the recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognized in the income statement.

Depending on our assessment of the overall materiality of the asset under review and complexity of deriving reasonable estimates of the recoverable value, we may perform such assessment utilizing internal resources or we may engage external advisors to advise us in making this assessment. Regardless of the resources utilized, we are required to make many assumptions in making this assessment, including our utilization of such asset, plans to continue to produce and develop proved and associated probable or possible reserves, the cash flows to be generated based on assumptions for future commodity prices and development costs, appropriate market discount rates and the projected market and regulatory conditions. Changes in any of these assumptions could result in a material change to future estimates of the recoverable value of any asset.

Provision for Asset Decommissioning

Provision for future decommissioning and restoration is recognized in full upon the actual decommissioning and restoring of oil and gas properties. The amount recognized is the present value of the estimated future expenditure determined in accordance with local conditions and requirements. A corresponding addition to the related oil and gas properties of an amount equivalent to the provision is also created. This is subsequently depreciated as part of the capital costs of the oil and gas properties. Any change in the present value of the estimated expenditure other than the one due to passage of time which is regarded as interest cost, is reflected as an adjustment to the provision and oil and gas properties.

Impairment of Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivables are recognized initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized costs, using the effective interest method, less provisions made for the impaired receivables. Accounts where there are indications that a receivable may be impaired or not collectible, a provision would be recorded based on best estimates to reduce the receivable balance to the amount that is expected to be collected. Factors considered in making a provision include the historical payment and collection experience, debtors' credit worthiness and appropriate discount rates. The recording of provisions requires the application of judgments about the ultimate resolution of these accounts receivable. As a result, provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect our current best estimates.

Deferred Tax Assets

We are required to exercise considerable judgment in making provisions for deferred tax under the liability method. Under this method, deferred tax is provided for temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying values for financial reporting purposes. Specifically, we must make estimates of projected capital expenditures to be incurred and the resulting incremental timing difference that such capital expenditures would generate for the determination of the amount of temporary difference that will be recovered. We use currently enacted tax rates to determine deferred tax. If these rates change, we would have to adjust our deferred tax in the period in which these changes happen through the income statement.

The principal temporary differences arise from depreciation on oil and gas properties and equipment and provision for impairment of receivables, inventories, investments and property, plant and equipment. Deferred tax assets relating to the carry-forward of unused tax losses are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available against which the unused tax losses can be utilized.

Revenue Recognition

Sales are recognized upon delivery of products and customer acceptance or performance of services, net of sales taxes and discounts. Revenues are recognized only when we have transferred to the buyer the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods in the ordinary course of business, and when the amount of revenue and the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably and the collectibility of the related receivables is reasonably assured.

We sell part of the natural gas produced by us under take-or-pay contracts entered into with our customers. Customers who entered into such a take-or-pay contract are required to take or pay for the minimum amount of natural gas specified in the contract. Revenues from the sale and transportation of natural gas under take-or-pay contracts are recognized under the above accounting policies. Any advance payment for natural gas that has not been consumed will be recorded as deferred revenue until the natural gas has been actually consumed.

We entered into a Crude Oil Mutual Supply Framework Agreement with Sinopec, which can be characterized as a buy/sell contract, and recognized the revenue derived from this agreement in our consolidated statements of income. Since the transactions under the agreement are separately invoiced and settled and cannot be offset with each other, they were not treated as non-monetary transactions as defined in APB Opinion No. 29 "Accounting for Non-monetary transactions". In February 2005, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission issued a letter to the oil and gas industry requesting additional disclosures regarding buy/sell contracts. Accordingly, we have reviewed such transactions and estimated that, if we are required to report the net amount of such buy/sell contracts, our reported amount in the line items of "Sales and other operating revenues" and "Purchase, services and other" for the year ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 would be reduced by RMB 2,217 million, RMB 1,384 million and RMB 2,119 million, respectively. No change will occur to our net income as a result of this.

For detailed discussions of significant differences between IFRS and US GAAP, see Note 37 to our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this annual report and the section headed “— Other Information — US GAAP Reconciliation” below.

Acquisitions

In June 2005, we entered into a capital contribution agreement with CNODC, Central Asia Petroleum Co., Ltd. and CNPC E&D, whereby, in December 2005 we acquired a 50% interest in CNPC E&D, a subsidiary of CNODC, for a consideration of RMB 20,741 million which was paid to CNPC E&D as our capital contribution. Upon consummation of the transaction, we obtained a 50% interest in certain overseas oil and gas assets transferred by CNODC to CNPC E&D. We also entered into a transfer agreement, pursuant to which, in December 2005, we transferred all of our interest in PTRI to CNPC E&D for a consideration of RMB 579 million. See “Item 4 — Information on the Company — Introduction — History and Development of the Company — Overview of Our Operations.”

Upon completion of the acquisition and transfer, we obtained control over CNPC E&D by having the right to appoint four of the seven directors. Our investment in CNPC E&D and the transfer of PTRI to CNPC E&D will be accounted for in a manner similar to a uniting of interests since these transactions are among entities under common control by CNPC. Our consolidated financial statements will be restated as if operations of PetroChina and CNPC E&D had always been combined.

We plan to continue to pursue attractive opportunities outside China as part of our business growth strategy to utilize both domestic and international resources to strengthen our competitiveness. As we continue to implement this strategy, we expect that acquisitions of overseas assets will over time have a material effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

Pursuant to an acquisition agreement by and between our company and CNPC dated March 28, 2005, we acquired the refinery and petrochemical operations respectively owned by CNPC’s wholly-owned subsidiaries, Dayuan and Qingyang, from CNPC for which we paid a cash consideration of RMB 9 million.

The acquisition is deemed a combination of entities under common control since we and the refinery and petrochemical operations of Dayuan and Qingyang are under the common control of CNPC. As a result, we have accounted for the acquisition in a manner similar to a uniting of interests, whereby the assets and liabilities of the refinery and petrochemical operations acquired are accounted for at historical cost to CNPC with net liabilities of RMB 183 million as at the effective date. Our prior years’ consolidated financial statements were restated to give effect to the acquisition in these periods as if the operations of our company and these operations had always been combined in these periods. The difference between the RMB 9 million acquisition price and the net liabilities transferred from CNPC was adjusted against equity.

Pursuant to our board resolutions dated October 26, 2005, we made an offer to the holders of the A Shares of Jinzhou Petrochemical to acquire 150 million outstanding Jinzhou Petrochemical A Shares at the purchase price of RMB 4.25 per share. As of December 31, 2006, we acquired 141,497,463 Jinzhou Petrochemical A Shares, representing 17.97% of the total share capital of Jinzhou Petrochemical, for a total cash consideration of approximately RMB 602 million. After the acquisition, we own 98.92% of the total share capital of Jinzhou Petrochemical. Jinzhou Petrochemical was delisted from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on January 4, 2006 upon approval from the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

Pursuant to our board resolutions dated October 26, 2005, we made separate offers to the holders of the A Shares of Jilin Chemical and the holders of the H Shares of Jilin Chemical to acquire 200 million outstanding A Shares at the purchase price of RMB 5.25 per share, and 964.778 million outstanding H Shares (including ADSs) at the purchase price of HK$2.80 per Share.

As of December 31, 2006, we paid an aggregate of RMB 3,799 million and acquired 189,357,726 A Shares and 961,495,999 H Shares (including ADSs) of Jilin Chemical, representing 32.32% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Jilin Chemical. Following the completion of this acquisition, we owned 99.61% of the total share capital of Jilin Chemical. Jilin Chemical H Shares, A Shares and ADSs were delisted from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, Shenzhen Stock Exchange and the New York Stock Exchange on January 23, February 20 and February 15, 2006, respectively.

Pursuant to our board resolutions dated October 26, 2005, we made an offer to the holders of A Shares of Liaohe Jinma to acquire 200 million issued and outstanding Liaohe Jinma A Shares at the purchase price of RMB 8.80 per share. As of December 31, 2006, we acquired 194,360,943 Liaohe Jinma A Shares, representing 17.67% of the total share capital of Liaohe Jinma for a total consideration of approximately RMB 1,713 million. Following the completion of this acquisition, we own 99.49% of the total share capital of Liaohe Jinma. Upon the approval by China Securities Regulatory Commission, Liaohe Jinma was delisted from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on January 4, 2006.

On December 6, 2005, we entered into two separate purchase agreements with two wholly-owned subsidiaries of CNPC, Liaohe Petroleum Exploration Bureau and China Petroleum Pipeline Bureau, to acquire from the two companies a 15.56% equity interest and a 20.17% equity interest, respectively, in the Fuel Oil Company, a 55.43% subsidiary of our company, with a total cash consideration of RMB 559 million. The Fuel Oil Company principally engages in investing in and developing of fuel oil in the upstream and downstream areas outside the PRC. Upon completion of the above acquisitions, we increased our interest in the Fuel Oil Company to 91.16%.

In August 2006, CNPC E&D entered into an acquisition agreement to acquire a 67% equity interest in PetroKazakhstan Inc., or PKZ, from CNPC for a consideration of US$2,735 million. This acquisition, completed in December 2006, has been accounted for in a manner similar to a pooling of interests. This acquisition increased the level of our oil and gas assets and streamlined our existing exploration and development operations in Kazakhstan.

In 2006, we acquired a 100% interest in an exploration block in Chad through CNPC E&D. This Chad Block covers an area of 220,000 square kilometers and a trap resource of more than 1,000 million barrels of crude oil and is currently one of our most important overseas exploration blocks.

Operating Results

The following discussion is based on our historical results of operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, such results of operations may not be indicative of our future operating performance.

Our income statement for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 is summarized in the table below.

Consolidated Results of Operation

Overview

For the year ended December 31, 2006, our total revenue was RMB 688,978 million, representing an increase of 24.8% from the total revenue of RMB 552,229 for the year ended December 31, 2005. Our net income for the year ended December 31, 2006 was RMB 142,224 million, representing an increase of 6.6% from RMB 133,362 for the year ended December 31, 2005. Our basic and diluted earnings per share attributable to our shareholders for the year ended December 31, 2006 was RMB 0.79, representing an increase of 5.3% from RMB 0.75 for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Total Revenue. Total revenue increased 24.8% from RMB 552,229 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 688,978 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This was primarily due to the increases in the selling prices and sales volume of our principal products, including crude oil, natural gas and certain refined products. The average realized selling price for crude oil increased from US$48.37 per barrel for the year ended December 31, 2005 to US$59.81 per barrel for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 36.4% from RMB 360,058 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 491,002 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This was primarily due to (i) a 35.3% increase in purchases, services and other expenses, (ii) a 32.0% increase in employee compensation costs, (iii) a 19.7% increase in depreciation, depletion and amortization, (iv) a 18.3% increase in selling, general and administrative expenses and (v) a 20.9% increase in exploration expenses.

Purchases, Services and Other Expenses. Purchases, services and other expenses increased 35.3% from RMB 200,321 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 271,123 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This was primarily due to (i) an increase in the purchase cost of crude oil and other feedstock as a result of the increases in the purchase price and purchase volume of crude oil and other feedstock from external suppliers, as we purchased an aggregate of 22.22 million tons of crude oil and other feedstock at an average price of RMB 3,832 per ton in 2006, as compared to 18.98 million tons of crude oil and other feedstock at an average price of RMB 3,194 per ton in 2005; (ii) an increase in the purchase cost of refined products as a result of the increases in the purchase price and purchase volume of refined products from external suppliers, as we purchased 16.93 million tons of refined products at an average price of RMB 3,308 per ton in 2006 as compared to 13.11 million tons of refined oil products at an average price of RMB 2,883 in 2005; and (iii) an increase in the lifting costs of oil and gas operations and the processing costs of our refineries as a result of the increases in prices of raw materials, fuel, electricity and other production materials as well as our expanded production scale. In addition, the increase in the purchase expenses also resulted from an increase in the refined product supply operation in 2006.

Employee Compensation Costs. Employee compensation costs increased 32.0% from RMB 29,675 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 39,161 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This was primarily due to an increase of RMB 7,278 million in the employees' salaries and benefits as a result of the improvement of our operating results and the expansion of our production scale and retail distribution network.

Depreciation, Depletion and Amortization. Depreciation, depletion and amortization increased 19.7% from RMB 51,305 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 61,388 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This was primarily due to an increase of RMB 8,220 million in the provision for depreciation, depletion and amortization that resulted from increases in the average balance of fixed assets and the average balance of oil and gas assets during 2006.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 18.3% from RMB 36,538 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 43,235 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This was primarily due to (i) an increase of RMB 3,050 million in transportation expenses that resulted from increases in railway freights and marine fuel prices and an increase in the sales volume of refined and petrochemical products, and (ii) an increase of RMB 1,065 million in research and development expenses as a result of intensified research and development efforts.

Exploration Expenses. Exploration expenses increased 20.9% from RMB 15,566 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 18,822 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This increase was due primarily to increased expenditures in exploration activities, for the purpose of increasing our crude oil and gas reserves, and an increase in the expensing of exploratory well costs.

Taxes other than Income Taxes. Taxes other than income taxes increased 139.9% from RMB 23,616 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 56,666 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. The increase was primarily due to (i) a recorded levy of RMB 28,914 million to the PRC government as the PRC government commenced to impose a special levy on petroleum exploration enterprises such as our company from March 26, 2006; (2) an increase of RMB 1,510 million in consumption tax as a result of increased sales volume of gasoline and diesel and an expansion of the scope of consumption tax in the PRC in 2006; and (3) an increase of RMB 632 million in resource tax as a result of an increase in resource tax rates in the second half of 2005 and increased production volumes of crude oil and natural gas.

Income from Operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, income from operations increased 3.0% from RMB 192,171 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 197,976 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Net Exchange Gain. Net exchange gain decreased 15.9% from RMB 88 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 74 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. The decrease in the net exchange gain was primarily due to the appreciation of Renminbi against both the United States Dollar and the Japanese Yen, offset by the depreciation in Renminbi against both the Euro and the Pound Sterling.

Net Interest Expense. Net interest expenses increased 37.7% from RMB 838 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 1,154 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This increase was primarily due to an increase of RMB 736 million in accretion expense, recognized as interest expense, in relation to asset retirement obligations.

Income Before Income Taxes. Income before income taxes increased by 2.8% from RMB 193,822 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 199,173 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Income Taxes. Income taxes decreased 8.1% from RMB 54,180 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 49,776 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This decrease was primarily due to the reversal of a tax liability of RMB 4,401 million in relation to certain crude oil sales that were exempted from income tax prior to the establishment of our company in November 1999.

Net Income. As a result of the factors discussed above, net income increased 6.6% from RMB 133,362 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 142,224 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Exploration and Production

Sales and Other Operating Revenue. Sales and other operating revenue increased 24.9% from RMB 337,208 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 421,340 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. The increase was primarily due to increases in the prices and sales volumes of crude oil and natural gas. Our average realized selling price of crude oil in 2006 was US$ 59.81 per barrel, representing an increase of US$ 11.44 per barrel or 23.7% from US$ 48.37 per barrel in the year ended December 31, 2005. In 2006, our exploration and production segment sold 832.8 million barrels of crude oil and 1,322.7 billion cubic feet of natural gas, representing an increase of 5.6% and 26.0% from 2005, respectively.

Intersegment sales revenue increased 25.3% from RMB 270,943 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 339,619 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This increase was mainly due to an increase in the prices of crude oil and natural gas and an increase in the intersegment sales volume. In 2006, our revenue from sales of crude oil to Sinopec was RMB 33,682 million, representing an increase of 21.9% from 2005.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 56.0% from RMB 129,128 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 201,480 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. The increase was primarily due to an increase of RMB 31,114 million in taxes other than income taxes, an increase of RMB 27,564 million in purchase expenses and an increase of RMB 7,021 million in depreciation, depletion and amortization.

Income from Operations. Income from operations increased 5.7% from RMB 208,080 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 219,860 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Refining and Marketing

Sales and Other Operating Revenue. Sales and other operating revenue increased 26.8% from RMB 428,494 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 543,299 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. The increase was due primarily to increases in the selling prices and sales volume of our key refined products.

Sales revenue from gasoline increased 9.4% from RMB 110,438 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 120,771 million for the year ended December 31, 2006, primarily due to a 19.3% increase in our average realized selling price from RMB 4,221 per ton for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 5,034 per ton for the year ended December 31, 2006, partially offset by a 8.3% decrease in the sales volume from 26.16 million tons for the year ended December 31, 2005 to 23.99 million tons for the year ended December 31, 2006.

realized selling price of diesel increased 19.1% from RMB 3,702 per ton for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 4,409 per ton for the year ended December 31, 2006, resulting in an increase in revenue by RMB 34,544 million. The sales volume of diesel increased 2.2% from 47.81 million tons for the year ended December 31, 2005 to 48.86 million tons for the year ended December 31, 2006, resulting in an increase in revenue by RMB 3,916 million.

Sales revenue from kerosene increased 23.2% from RMB 7,480 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 9,219 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Intersegment sales revenue increased 35.7% from RMB 33,019 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 44,806 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This increase was primarily due to increases in the selling prices and changes in intersegment sales volume of key refined products.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 27.7% from RMB 448,304 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 572,463 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This increase was primarily due to an increase of RMB 80,650 million in purchase expenses of crude oil, other feedstock and refined products from external suppliers, and an increase of RMB 2,784 million in the selling, general and administrative expenses. In addition, the increase in our supply of refined products in 2006 also contributed to the increase in the operating expenses. In 2006, we purchased 775 million barrels of crude oil, representing an increase of 31 million barrels as compared with 2005. The average purchase price of crude oil in 2006 was RMB 494 per barrel, representing an increase of RMB 85 per barrel as compared with 2005. As a result, our expenses for purchased crude oil in 2006 were RMB 383,087 million, representing an increase of RMB 78,731 million as compared with 2005.

Loss From Operations. Loss from operations amounted to RMB 29,164 million for the year ended December 31, 2006, compared to RMB 19,810 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, primarily due to the fact that the price increase for crude oil in the international market exceeded that of refined products in the domestic market.

Chemicals and Marketing

Sales and Other Operating Revenue. Sales and other operating revenue increased 11.9% from RMB 73,978 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 82,791 million for the year ended December 31, 2006, primarily due to increases in the sales volumes and selling prices of certain chemical products. The average realized selling prices of polyethylene, polyester, styrene butadiene rubber and urea in 2006 increased 11%, 4%, 22% and 3%, respectively, from 2005. Our chemicals and marketing segment sold 13,562 thousand tons of chemical products for the year ended December 31, 2006, representing an increase of 3.4% from the year ended December 31, 2005.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 9.9% from RMB 70,702 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 77,733 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. The increase was primarily due to the increase in purchase expenses for direct materials.

Income from Operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, income from operations increased 54.4% from RMB 3,276 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 5,058 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Natural Gas and Pipeline

Sales and Other Operating Revenue. Sales and other operating revenue increased 48.5% from RMB 26,214 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 38,917 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. The increase was primarily due to increases in the sales volume and selling prices of natural gas, as well as increases in the transmission volume and average transmission price of natural gas. Our natural gas and pipeline segment sold 1,200.5 billion cubic feet of natural gas in the year ended December 31, 2006, representing an increase of 35.1% from the year ended December 31, 2005. The selling price of natural gas in the year ended December 31, 2006 was US$2.44 per thousand cubic feet, representing an increase of 15.1% from the year ended December 31, 2005. Our natural gas and pipeline segment transmitted 1,123 billion cubic feet of natural gas in the year ended December 31, 2006, representing an increase of 36.8% from the year ended December 31, 2005. The average natural gas transmission price in the year ended December 31, 2006 was US$1.2 per thousand cubic feet, representing an increase of 24.7% from the year ended December 31, 2005.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 30.0% from RMB 23,031 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 29,931 million for the year ended December 31, 2006 due primarily to (i) an increase of RMB 5,155 million in purchase expenses of natural gas primarily as a result of the increase of 312 billion cubic feet in the natural gas purchase volume, as well as the increase of the average purchase price of natural gas from US$1.8 per thousand cubic feet in 2005 to US$1.9 per thousand cubic feet in 2006, and (ii) an increase of RMB 785 million in depreciation expenses.

Income from Operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, income from operations increased 182.3% from RMB 3,183 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 8,986 million for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Year Ended December 31, 2005 Compared to Year Ended December 31, 2004

Consolidated Results of Operation

For the year ended December 31, 2005, our total revenue was RMB 552,229 million, representing an increase of 39.0% from the year ended December 31, 2004. Our net income in the year ended December 31, 2005 was RMB 133,362 million, increased 28.4% from the year ended December 31, 2004. Our basic and diluted earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2005 was RMB 0.75, representing an increase of 27.1% from RMB 0.59 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Total Revenue. Total Revenue increased 39.0% from RMB 397,354 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to 552,229 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. The increase was primarily due to the increases in the sales prices and sales volume of the principal products, such as crude oil, gasoline and diesel, as well as increases in the sales volume of natural gas. The average realized selling price for crude oil increased 43.4% from US$33.72 per barrel for the year ended December 31, 2004 to US$48.37 per barrel for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 46.2% from RMB 246,216 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 360,058 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to (i) a 75.3% increase in purchases, services and other expenses, (ii) a 29.4% increase in employee compensation costs, (iii) a 28.8% increase in exploration expenses, (iv) a 6.1% increase in depreciation, depletion and amortization and (v) a 29.1% increase in selling expenses and in general and administrative expenses.

Purchases, Services and Other Expenses. Purchases, services and other expenses increased 75.3% from RMB 114,249 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 200,321 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to (i) increases in the processing volume at our refineries and the increase of crude oil prices, as we purchased 157 million barrels of crude oil, 15.7 million tons of refined products and 1,706 thousand tons of chemical products in 2005, as compared to 121.8 million barrels of crude oil, 12.0 million tons of refined products and 990 thousand tons of chemical products in 2004; the average purchase price of the crude oil in 2005 was RMB 423 per barrel, representing a 30.6% increase from 2004, (ii) increases in the prices of other raw materials such as water and electricity, and (iii) the expansion of our production scale. The increase in our refined product supply operation in 2005 also contributed to the increase in purchase, services and other expenses.

Employee Compensation Costs. Employee compensation costs increased 29.4% from RMB 22,934 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 29,675 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to an increase of RMB 4,992 million in salaries and other benefits with the improvement of our operating results and an increase in labor costs as a result of the expansion of our retail distribution network.

Depreciation, Depletion and Amortization. Depreciation, depletion and amortization increased 6.1% from RMB 48,362 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 51,305 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to an increase of RMB 4,020 million in the allocation of depreciation and depletion expenses as a result of the increase in the average balance of the assets, and a decrease of RMB 1,720 million in the depreciation expenses as a result of fixed asset disposals and a decrease in the provisions for impairment.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 29.1% from RMB 28,302 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 36,538 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to an increase of RMB 2,580 million in transportation expenses as a result of our increased sales volume of refined products and the increased railway transportation price, as well as an increase of RMB 720 million in repair expenses and lease expenses.

Exploration Expenses. Exploration expenses increased 28.8% from RMB 12,090 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 15,566 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to increased expenditures in exploration activities for the purpose of increasing our crude oil and gas reserves.

Taxes Other than Income Taxes. Taxes other than income taxes increased 18.4% from RMB 19,943 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 23,616 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to an increase of RMB 1,309 million in consumption tax as a result of increased sales volume of gasoline and diesel, an increase of RMB 951 million in resources compensation fees as a result of increased revenues from crude oil and natural gas, as well as an increase of RMB 504 million in resources tax as a result of the government's upward adjustment to the tax rate.

Income From Operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, income from operations increased 27.1% from RMB 151,138 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 192,171 million for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Net Exchange Gain. Net exchange income increased from RMB 8 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 88 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to the appreciation of RMB in 2005.

Net Interest Expense. Net interest expense decreased 45.0% from RMB 1,523 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 838 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This decrease was due primarily to a decrease of RMB 134 million in the interest expenses resulted from the decrease in the average outstanding balance of interest-bearing debts and an increase of RMB 551 million in the interest income as a result of sufficient cashflow derived from operating activities.

Income Before Income Taxes. Income before income taxes increased 28.2% from RMB 151,244 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 193,822 million for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Income Taxes. Income taxes increased 24.3% from RMB 43,598 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 54,180 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, due primarily to the increase in the taxable income.

Net Income. As a result of the factors discussed above, net income increased 28.4% from RMB 103,843 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 133,362 million for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Exploration and Production

Sales and Other Operating Revenue. Sales and other operating revenue increased 44.1% from RMB 233,948 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 337,208 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to increases in the price and sales volume of crude oil, as well as an increase in sales volume of natural gas. Our average realized selling price of crude oil for the year ended December 31, 2005 was US$48.37 per barrel, representing an increase of US$14.65 per barrel or 43.4% from US$33.72 per barrel for the year ended December 31, 2004. In 2005, we sold 788.8 million barrels of crude oil, representing an increase of 21.5 million barrels as compared with 2004. Our exploration and production segment sold 1,049.4 billion cubic feet of natural gas in the year ended December 31, 2005, as compared to 810.4 billion cubic feet of natural gas in the year ended December 31, 2004.

Intersegment sales increased 50.4% from RMB 180,129 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 270,943 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to an increase in the price of crude oil and an increase of intersegment sales volume of crude oil and natural gas. Sales of crude oil to Sinopec increased 14.9% from 24,053 million in 2004 to 27,640 million in 2005 as a result of the increase in the price of crude oil.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 24.5% from RMB 103,735 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 129,128 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to (i) an increase of RMB 13,543 million in purchase expenses, and (ii) an increase of RMB 3,822 million in exploration expenses resulting from the increase of the investment in the hydrocarbon exploration for the purpose of increasing hydrocarbon reserve, and (iii) an increase of RMB 3,221 million in salaries and other benefits.

Income From Operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, income from operations increased 59.8% from RMB 130,213 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 208,080 million for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Refining and Marketing

Sales and Other Operating Revenue. Sales and other operating revenue increased 44.6% from RMB 296,427 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 428,494 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to increases in the prices and the sales volumes of our products.

Sales revenue from gasoline increased 43.6% from RMB 76,919 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 110,438 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. The average realized selling price of gasoline increased 19.2% from RMB 3,542 per ton for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 4,221 per ton for the year ended December 31, 2005, which contributed RMB 17,763 million to the increase of gasoline sales revenue. We sold approximately 26,160 thousand tons of gasoline for the year ended December 31, 2005, representing an increase of 20.5% from approximately 21,710 thousand tons for the year ended December 31, 2004, which contributed RMB 15,756 million to the increase of gasoline sales revenue.

December 31, 2004 to RMB 3,702 per ton for the year ended December 31, 2005, which contributed RMB 25,674 million to the increase of diesel sales revenue. Sales volume of diesel increased from 43,180 thousand tons for the year ended December 31, 2004 to 47,810 thousand tons for the year ended December 31, 2005, representing an increase of 10.7%, which contributed RMB 14,676 million to the increase of diesel sales revenue.

Sales revenue from kerosene increased 27.2% from RMB 5,881 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 7,480 million for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Intersegment sales revenue increased 51.0% from RMB 21,862 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 33,019 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, due primarily to increases in the prices and intersegment sales volume of our principal products.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 57.6% from RMB 284,536 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 448,304 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to (i) an increase of RMB 141,600 million in purchasing crude oil and refined oil, and (ii) an increase of RMB 5,354 million in sales and administrative expenses. In 2005, we purchased 744 million barrels of crude oil, representing an increase of 58 million barrels as compared with 2004. The average purchase price of crude oil was RMB 409 per barrel, which was an increase of RMB 116 per barrel as compared with 2004. As a result, our expenses for purchased crude oil in 2005 were RMB 304,400 million, representing an increase of RMB 103,200 million as compared with 2004. In addition, the increase in our sales volume of refined products in 2005 also contributed to the increase in the operating expenses.

Loss From Operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, in the year ended December 31, 2005 we suffered a loss of RMB 19,810 million from operations while in the year ended December 31, 2004 we realized an income of RMB 11,891 million from operations, due primarily to the fact that, in 2005, the price increase of crude oil exceeded that of refined oil products in China.

Chemicals and Marketing

Sales and Other Operating Revenue. Sales and other operating revenue increased 29.4% from RMB 57,179 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 73,978 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to increases in the prices and sales volumes of chemical products. The average realized selling prices of polyethylene, polyester, styrene butadiene rubber and urea in 2005 increased 13.9%, 3.4%, 9.6% and 17.4%, respectively, from 2004. Our chemicals and marketing segment sold 13,113 thousand tons of chemical products for the year ended December 31, 2005, representing an increase of 10.5% from the year ended December 31, 2004.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 42.8% from RMB 49,524 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 70,702 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, due primarily to an increase of RMB 11,892 million in the purchase expenses of direct materials and an increase of RMB 782 million in the sales and administrative expenses.

Income From Operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, income from operations decreased 57.2% from RMB 7,655 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 3,276 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 due primarily to the increase in the prices of the raw materials.

Natural Gas and Pipeline

Sales and Other Operating Revenue. Sales and other operating revenue increased 43.6% from RMB 18,255 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 26,214 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, due primarily to increases in the sales volume and selling price of natural gas, as well as increases in the transmission volume and transmission price of natural gas.

Our natural gas and pipeline segment sold 888.81 billion cubic feet natural gas in the year ended December 31, 2005, representing an increase of 231.51 billion cubic feet from 657.3 billion cubic feet in the year ended December 31 2004, which resulted in an increase in sales revenue of RMB 4,020 million. In 2005, our average realized selling price of natural gas was US$2.12 per thousand cubic feet, representing an increase of US$0.09 as compared with 2004. The increase of RMB 2,848 million in our income from pipeline transmission of natural gas in 2005 was attributable to an increase in the pipeline transmission volume of natural gas from 616.0 billion cubic feet in 2004 to 820.9 billion cubic feet in 2005, and an increase in the transmission price of natural gas from RMB 5.6 per thousand cubic feet in 2004 to RMB 7.7 per thousand cubic feet in 2005.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses increased 46.5% from RMB 15,720 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 23,031 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, due primarily to (i) an increase of RMB 3,479 million in purchase expenses of natural gas primarily as a result of the increase of 235.1 billion cubic feet in the natural gas purchase volume, as well as the increase of the average purchase price of natural gas from RMB 14.6 per thousand cubic feet in 2004 to RMB 14.7 per thousand cubic feet in 2005, and (ii) an increase of RMB 1,833 million in depreciation expenses.

Income From Operations. As a result of the factors discussed above, income from operations increased 25.6% from RMB 2,535 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 3,183 million for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our primary sources of funding include cash generated by operating activities and short-term and long-term borrowings. Our primary uses of funds were for operating activities, acquisitions, capital expenditures, repayment of short-term and long-term borrowings and distributions of dividends to shareholders. Our payments to CNPC are limited to dividends and payments for services provided to us by CNPC. In the year ended December 31, 2006, we distributed as dividends 45% of our reported net income. We expect that we will continue to distribute as dividends approximately 40% to 50% of our reported net income for all years. See “Item 8 Financial Information — Dividend Policy” for a discussion of factors which may affect the determination by our board of directors of the appropriate level of dividends.

We finance a significant portion of our business operations with short-term borrowings, including short-term debt obtained from PRC State-owned banks. As of December 31, 2006, short-term debt comprised approximately 5.2% of our capital employed as compared to approximately 4.7% as of December 31, 2005. Our financing ability may be limited by our financial condition, our results of operations and the international and domestic capital markets. Prior to accessing the international and domestic capital markets, we must obtain approval from the relevant PRC government authorities. In general, we must obtain PRC government approval for any project involving significant capital investment for our refining and marketing, chemicals and marketing and natural gas and pipeline segments. For a more detailed discussion of factors which may affect our ability to satisfy our financing requirements, see “Item 3 — Key Information — Risk Factors”.

We plan to fund the capital and related expenditures described in this annual report principally through cash generated by operating activities, short-term and long-term borrowings and cash and cash equivalents. Net cash generated by operating activities in the year ended December 31, 2006 was RMB 198,102 million. As of December 31, 2006, we had cash and cash equivalents of RMB 48,559 million. While each of the projects described in this annual report for which significant capital expenditures will be required is important to our future development, we do not believe that failure to implement any one of these projects would have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations. If the price of crude oil undergoes a steep decline in the future, it is likely that we would delay or reduce the scale of the capital expenditures for our exploration and production segment.

Our shareholders approved at our shareholders' meeting held on May 28, 2003 the proposed issuances of our corporate bonds in the principal amount of up to RMB 1,500 million and RMB 4,000 million to PRC citizens and enterprises. Upon the grant of PRC government approval, we issued a portion of these corporate bonds in the principal amount of RMB 1,500 million in October 2003. We received RMB 1,500 million in net proceeds from this issuance. We used the proceeds received from the issuance of these corporate bonds for various crude oil and natural gas exploration projects in a number of our oil and gas regions, as well as for upgrading refining facilities in Daqing Petrochemical and constructing the natural gas pipeline from Zhong County to Wuhan City. We issued another portion of these corporate bonds in the principal amount of RMB 2,000 million in October 2006. We received RMB 2,000 million in net proceeds from this issuance. We used the proceeds received from the issuance of these corporate bonds for various crude oil and natural gas exploration projects in a number of our oil and gas regions, as well as for the construction of supporting facilities to transmit natural gas from our Southwest Oil and Gas Field to eastern China and upgrading PTA (Pure Terephthalic Acid) and raw materials facilities in Liaoyang PetroChemical. In addition, we consider from time to time opportunities to fund our capital needs by accessing the domestic equity capital markets.

We currently do not have any outstanding options, warrants or other rights for any persons to require us to issue any common stock at a price below its market value. We do not currently intend to issue any such rights or to otherwise issue any common stock for a price below its market value.

In addition, we did not have for the year ended December 31, 2006, and do not currently have, any transactions, arrangements or other relationships with unconsolidated entities or other persons that are reasonably likely to materially affect the liquidity or availability of or requirements for our capital resources.

The table below sets forth our cash flows for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 and our cash equivalents at the end of each period.

	Year Ended December 31,
	(RMB in millions)
Net cash generated by operating activities	141,691	203,885	198,102
Net cash used for investing activities	(102,276)	(91,576)	(158,451)
Net cash used for financing activities	(39,586)	(42,634)	(71,739)
Currency translation difference	246	(458)	(258)
Cash and cash equivalents at the end of period	11,688	80,905	48,559

Our cash and cash equivalents decreased by 40.0% from RMB 80,905 million as of December 31, 2005 to RMB 48,559 million as of December 31, 2006.

Cash Generated by Operating Activities

Our net cash generated by operating activities was RMB 198,102 million for the year ended December 31, 2006, representing a decrease of RMB 5,783 million from RMB 203,885 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, due primarily to an increase of RMB 6,657 million in income tax paid during the year ended December 31, 2006.

We had a working capital deficit of RMB 17,657 million for the year ended December 31, 2006, compared with a working capital balance of RMB 22,057 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This decrease in working capital was due primarily to (i) a payment of approximately RMB 21,376 million for the acquisition of the 67% equity interest of PKZ, and (ii) an increase of RMB 14,922 million in the dividends we distributed to our shareholders.

Our net cash flow generated by operating activities was RMB 203,885 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, representing an increase of RMB 62,194 million from RMB 141,691 million for the year ended December 31, 2004, due primarily to an increase of RMB 31,996 million in income for the year and an increase of RMB 22,089 million in our accounts payable.

We had a working capital balance of RMB 22,057 million for the year ended December 31, 2005, compared with the working capital deficit of RMB 8,272 million for the year ended December 31, 2004. This increase in working capital balance was due primarily to (i) the increase in our cash and cash equivalents as a result of a substantial increase of RMB 154,875 million in our sales revenue and (ii) an increase of RMB 15,356 million in inventory, as a result of the expansion of our sales and an increase in the purchase price.

Our notes and other receivables include notes receivable from customers. Other receivables represent advances to employees, non-trade related receivables from other companies, and receivables from government agencies. Allowance for doubtful accounts were primarily related to other receivables which we estimated to be uncollectible. Our notes receivable do not include past due customer amounts and, as a majority portion of our notes receivable are approved by banks, we do not have special arrangements with respect to extended payment terms on notes receivable.

Cash Used for Financing Activities

Our net borrowings as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 were as follows:

	December 31,
	2004	2005	2006
	(RMB in millions)
Short-term debt (including current portion of long-term debt)	34,937	28,689	35,763
Long-term debt	44,648	44,570	35,634
Total debt	79,585	73,259	71,397

Time deposits exceeding one year	3,751	3,428	2,499
Net debt	29,504	(13,000)	17,327

See Note 24 to our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this annual report for information regarding the maturity profile of debt, currency and interest rate structure.

The debts which were guaranteed by CNPC amounted to RMB 756 million, RMB 674 million and RMB 597 million in the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively. CNPC and we have undertaken to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange that we will continue to, on a best endeavor basis, approach each lender with respect to these guaranteed debts with a view toward obtaining the unconditional release of such guarantees.

Of the total debts outstanding as of December 31, 2006, approximately 29.3% were fixed-rate loans and approximately 70.7% were floating-rate loans. Of the total debts outstanding as of December 31, 2006, approximately 74.0% were denominated in Renminbi, approximately 24.8% were denominated in the U.S. dollar and approximately 1.2% were denominated in other major foreign currencies.

Our debts included short-term and long-term debts owed to China Petroleum Finance Company Limited of RMB 29,932 million, RMB 27,319 million and RMB 27,184 million in the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively. The amount of such short-term debts in the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 were RMB 4,351 million, RMB 520 million and RMB 320 million, respectively. The amount of such long-term debts in each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 were RMB 25,581 million, RMB 26,799 million and RMB 26,864 million, respectively. These debts were unsecured with interest at below the prime rate as published by the People's Bank of China. We also maintain a portion of our deposits at China Petroleum Finance Company Limited at the same deposit interest rate for commercial banks published by the People's Bank of China.

Our net cash used for financing activities increased 68.3% from RMB 42,634 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 71,739 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This increase resulted primarily from the following:

- an increase in the distribution of dividends leading to an increase of RMB 14,922 million in cash outflow; and
- our follow-on offering of H shares in 2005 leading to an increase of RMB 19,692 million in cash inflow while no such financing activity occurred in 2006.

Our net cash used for financing activities increased 7.7% from RMB 39,586 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 42,634 million for the year ended December 31, 2005. This increase resulted primarily from the following:

- a decrease in new long-term debts leading to a decrease of RMB 2,939 million in cash inflow;
- an increase in the repayment of short-term debts leading to an increase of RMB 10,667 million in cash outflow; and
- an increase in the distribution of dividends leading to an increase of RMB 19,339 million in cash outflow;

These changes were offset primarily by the following:

- our follow-on offering of H shares leading to an increase of RMB 19,692 million in cash inflow.
- an increase in new short-term debts leading to an increase of RMB 3,906 million in cash inflow; and
- a decrease in the repayment of long-term debts leading to a decrease of RMB 9,156 million in cash outflow.

As at December 31, 2006, our debts consisted of RMB 359 million secured loans, most of which were secured by our assets and time deposits with a term longer than one year.

Our debt to capital employed ratio (calculated by dividing interest-bearing debts by the aggregate of interest-bearing debts and shareholder's equity) as of December 31, 2006 was 10.4%, as compared to 11.9% as of December 31, 2005.

Capital Expenditures and Investments

Our net cash used for investing activities includes capital expenditures and investments, offset by proceeds from the sale of assets and dividends received. The table below sets forth our capital expenditures and investments (including non dry hole exploration expenses) by business segment for each of the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 as well as those anticipated for the year ending December 31, 2007. Actual capital expenditures and investments for periods after January 1, 2007 may differ materially from the amounts indicated below.

Our capital expenditures and investments increased 18.1% from RMB 133,820 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 158,074 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This increase was due primarily to an increase of RMB 22,287 million in capital expenditures and investments in the exploration and production segment and an increase of RMB 2,752 million in capital expenditures in the refining and marketing segment, which were partially offset by a decrease of RMB 2,888 million in capital expenditures in the chemicals and marketing segment. Taking into account the exclusion of the investments relating to the non-dry hole exploration expenses, our capital expenditures for the years ended 2004, 2005 and 2006 would have been RMB 98,946 million, RMB 124,801 million and RMB 148,746 million, respectively.

As of December 31, 2006, the capital expenditures contracted for at the balance sheet date but not recognized in our consolidated financial statements were approximately RMB 9,193 million.

Exploration and Production

A majority of our capital expenditures and investments relate to our exploration and production segment. Our capital expenditures and investments in this segment for the year ended December 31, 2006 totaled RMB 114,520 million, including RMB 29,809 million for exploration activities and RMB 75,050 million for development activities. Our capital expenditures and investments for the segment for the year ended December 31, 2005 totaled RMB 92,233 million, including RMB 25,518 million for exploration activities and RMB 59,113 million for development activities. The increase in our capital expenditures and investments from the year ended December 31, 2005 to the year ended December 31, 2006 was primarily due to the increased capital expenditures for oil and natural gas exploration activities as a part of our efforts to achieve a stable production of crude oil in eastern regions, a rapid development of our operations in western regions and an expedited development of our natural gas business. In addition, we also increased our capital expenditures for safety and environmental protections for this segment in 2006. Taking into account the exclusion of the investments relating to the non-dry hole exploration expenses, the capital expenditures of our exploration and production segment for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 would have been RMB 62,868 million, RMB 83,214 million and RMB 105,192 million, respectively.

Our anticipated capital expenditures and investments for our exploration and production segment for the year ending December 31, 2007 amount to RMB 127,200 million. Approximately RMB 32,000 million is expected to be used for exploration activities and approximately RMB 95,200 million for development activities. We plan to focus our exploration and development efforts in Erdos, Junggar, Tarim, Songliao, Sichuan, Bohai Bay and Qaidam basins.

Refining and Marketing

Our capital expenditures for our refining and marketing segment for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 were RMB 17,684 million, RMB 16,454 million and

RMB 19,206 million, respectively. The increase in 2006 is due primarily to an increase of RMB 4,034 million in our investment in the construction of refining facilities. In addition, we also increased the capital expenditures for safety production protection for this segment in 2006.

Our anticipated capital expenditures for our refining and marketing segment for the year ending December 31, 2007 amount to RMB 28,000 million, which include:

- approximately RMB 20,000 million for the construction and expansion of our refining facilities; and
- approximately RMB 8,000 million for the construction of our service stations and retail facilities for finished oil products.

Chemicals and Marketing

Our capital expenditures for our chemicals and marketing segment for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 were RMB 4,319 million, RMB 13,569 million and RMB 10,681 million, respectively. Lower capital expenditures in 2006 were primarily due to the completion and commencement of commercial production of the upgrades and expansion of the ethylene production facilities in Jilin Petrochemical and Lanzhou Petrochemical in 2006.

Our anticipated capital expenditures for our chemicals and marketing segment for the year ending December 31, 2007 amount to RMB 16,000 million, which mainly include capital expenditures for the ethylene facilities in Dushanzi Petrochemical and Fushun Petrochemical.

Natural Gas and Pipeline

Our capital expenditures for our natural gas and pipeline segment for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 were RMB 13,901 million, RMB 11,137 million and RMB 11,309 million, respectively.

Our anticipated capital expenditures for our natural gas and pipeline segment for the year ending December 31, 2007 amount to approximately RMB 18,000 million, to be used for increasing transmission capacity of the West-East Gas Pipeline, the construction of underground natural gas storage facilities and the construction of pipelines for crude oil and refined products. See “Item 4 — Information on the Company — Natural Gas and Pipeline — Expansion of Our Natural Gas Transmission and Marketing Business” for a more detailed discussion of the expansion plans of our natural gas and pipeline segment.

Other

Our non-segment-specific capital expenditures and investments for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 were RMB 174 million, RMB 427 million and RMB 2,358 million, respectively. Since we started from January 1, 2006 to include capital expenditures and investments for certain research and development activities, which were previously included in the capital expenditures of our four operational segments, in our non-segment-specific capital expenditures, our expenditures for this category increased significantly in 2006.

Our anticipated non-segment-specific capital expenditures and investments for the year ending December 31, 2007 amount to RMB 8,500 million. These planned capital expenditures and investments mainly include capital expenditures for scientific research activities and the construction of the ERP information system.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

There are no off-balance sheet arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources that is material to investors.

All information that is not historical in nature disclosed under “Item 5 — Operating and Financial Review and Prospects — Long-Term Contractual Obligations and Other Commercial Commitments and Payment Obligations” is deemed to be a forward looking statement. See “Forward — Looking Statements” for additional information.

Long-Term Contractual Obligations and Other Commercial Commitments and Payment Obligations

Oil-and-Gas Assets Retirement Obligation

Before the issuance of two provincial regulations, The Environmental Protection Regulation for Oil and Gas Exploration and Production Activities in Heilongjiang Province and The Environmental Protection Regulation for Oil and Gas Exploration and Production Activities in Gansu Province, which set forth specific abandonment and disposal processes for oil and gas exploration and production activities in 2005, our company was neither legally obligated to, nor was our company under the constructive obligation, to take any abandonment measures for its retired oil and gas properties located in China. In 2005, our company established standard abandonment procedures, including plugging all retired wells, dismantling all retired metering stations and other related facilities and performing site restoration, in response to the issuance of two provincial regulations which set forth specific abandonment and disposal processes for oil and gas exploration and production activities. As a result, our company became legally obligated to take abandonment measures for its retired oil and gas properties located in the two provinces where the new regulations were enacted, and is under the constructive obligation to take abandonment measures for its retired oil and gas properties located in other provinces where comparable regulations were not enacted. An obligation of RMB 3,589 million was recorded in 2006 and did not have a material impact on our financial condition.

Research and Development

We have a research and development management department, directly under which there are three research institutions. Except for our branch companies which are engaged in marketing activities, each of our branch companies has its own research and development management department. Most of our branch companies have their own research institutions. Our research and development management departments are mainly responsible for managing and coordinating the research and development activities conducted by each of the research institutions. As of December 31, 2006, we had 22,035 employees engaged in research and development functions.

In 2006, we applied for 423 patents and 135 trademarks in China and 499 trademarks in other countries. We were granted patent rights for 259 patents in China in the same year.

In each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, our total expenditures for research and development were approximately RMB 2,977 million, RMB 3,195 million and RMB 4,260 million, respectively.

Exploration and Production

Most of China's major oil and gas fields are characterized by a broad range of geological conditions, and a majority of China's oil and gas fields are in continental sedimentary basins with complex structures. Our research and development efforts with respect to our exploration and production business focus on:

- geological structures of crude oil and natural gas reserves;
- oil and gas exploration and development;
- oil and gas production and pipeline transportation; and
- energy conservation and environment protection.

Refining and Chemicals

In order to organize and coordinate our research and development activities related to our refining and chemicals businesses, we established PetroChina Refining & Chemicals Technology Research Center in July 2003. In order to enhance our competitiveness and develop core technologies, we have integrated the resources of our down-stream scientific research and development. In April 2006, we expanded PetroChina Refining & Chemicals Technology Research Center and renamed it to PetroChemical Research Institute to carry out our research and development of technologies for refining and chemicals. In the meantime, we have integrated the research and development resources of our local petrochemical companies, and established four research and development centers in Lanzhou Petrochemical, Daqing Petrochemical, Jilin Petrochemical and Liaoyang Petrochemical.

Trend Information

Streamlining of Production Facilities

We plan to continue to streamline our production facilities within the next several years to further improve our operating efficiency and competitiveness by consolidating or shutting down some of our production facilities. We do not believe that the implementation of such plans will have a material adverse impact on our financial position, although we believe that it could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations because we would be required under our accounting policies to recognize in our income statement any impairment loss or impairment provision associated with shutting down our production facilities. See “— General — Critical Accounting Policies” and “— General — Factors Affecting Results of Operations” above for a detailed discussion of other trend information.

Other Information

Inflation

Inflation or deflation has not had a significant impact on our results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2006.

Non-Exchange Traded Contracts

We did not engage for the year ended December 31, 2006, and do not currently engage, to a material extent, in any trading activities involving commodity contracts that are accounted for at fair value but for which a lack of market price quotations makes it necessary to apply fair value estimation techniques.

Related Party Transactions

For a discussion of related party transactions, see “Item 7 — Major Shareholders and Related Party Transactions — Related Party Transactions” and Note 35 to our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this annual report.

Recent IFRS

As we prepared our consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS, any adoption of new standards or amendment or interpretation to existing standards, when effective, may affect our consolidated results of operation, consolidated financial position and consolidated cash flows.

The following standard and interpretations to existing standards, which are relevant to our operations, have been published and are mandatory for accounting periods beginning on or after May 1, 2006. We did not adopt such standard or interpretations as of December 31, 2006:

The IFRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, and the complementary Amendment to IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements — Capital Disclosures, introduces new disclosures relating to financial instruments. We do not expect this standard to have any impact on the classification or valuation of our financial instruments.

The IFRIC Interpretation 10, Interim Financial Reporting and Impairment, prohibits impairment losses, recognized in an interim period, relating to goodwill, investments in equity instruments and investments in financial assets carried at cost to be reversed at a subsequent balance sheet date. We will adopt IFRIC Interpretation 10 from January 1, 2007, but do not expect it will have any impact on our consolidated financial statements.

US GAAP Reconciliation

We prepared our consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS. This basis of accounting may differ from US GAAP. Such differences involve methods for measuring the amounts shown in the financial statements, as well as additional disclosures required by US GAAP.

A summary of the principal differences and additional disclosures applicable to us is set out below:

Acquisition of PKZ

As described in Note 19 to the consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this annual report, we acquired a 67% equity interest in PKZ from CNPC International limited (CNPCI), a subsidiary of CNPC, for a consideration of RMB 21,376 million. The acquisition was completed on December 28, 2006, when we paid the consideration for the acquisition to CNPCI. As both CNPCI and our company are under common control by CPNC, our acquisition of the 67% equity interest in PKZ has been accounted for in a manner similar to pooling of interest under US GAAP accounting and the US GAAP financial data reflects the acquisition since PKZ was first acquired by CNPCI on October 26, 2005.

On December 15, 2006, PKZ paid to CNPCI a dividend of RMB 3,044 million and was recorded as a deemed distribution to CNPCI.

Revaluation of Property, Plant and Equipment

As described in Note 18 to the consolidated financial statements, the property, plant and equipment, excluding oil and gas reserves, transferred to our company by CNPC were appraised as of June 30, 1999, as required by the relevant PRC regulations, by a firm of independent valuers registered in the PRC, China Enterprise Appraisal. In September 2003, our company's refining and chemical production equipment was revalued by a firm of independent valuers registered in the PRC, China United Assets Appraiser Co., Ltd, on a depreciated replacement cost basis. In March 2006, our company's oil and gas properties were revalued by two independent valuers, China United Assets Appraiser Co., Ltd and China Enterprise Appraisals, on a depreciated replacement cost basis.

The June 1999 revaluation resulted in RMB 80,549 million in excess of the prior carrying value and a revaluation loss of RMB 1,122 million on certain property, plant and equipment.

The September 2003 revaluation resulted in RMB 872 million in excess of the carrying value of certain property, plant and equipment immediately prior to the revaluation and a revaluation loss of RMB 1,257 million.

The March 2006 revaluation did not result in significant differences from the carrying value of our oil and gas properties.

The depreciation charge, which includes impairment charge, on the revaluation surplus from January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2006 was RMB 3,828 million, from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 was RMB 6,528 million, and from January 1, 2004 to December 31, 2004 was RMB 8,170 million.

The depreciation charge, which includes impairment charge, on the revaluation loss from January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2006 was RMB Nil, from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 was RMB 149 million, and from January 1, 2004 to December 31, 2004 was RMB 830 million.

The loss on disposal of revalued property, plant and equipment, which includes shut down of manufacturing assets, from January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2006 was RMB 287 million, from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 was RMB 432 million, and from January 1, 2004 to December 31, 2004 was RMB 523 million.

For purposes of reconciling to the US GAAP financial data, the effect of the revaluation, the related depreciation charges and loss on disposal is reversed. A deferred tax asset relating to the reversal of the effect of revaluation in 1999 is established, together with a corresponding increase in the shareholders' equity. Under a special approval granted by the Ministry of Finance, the effect of the revaluation in 1999 is available as additional depreciation base for purposes of determining taxable income.

One-time Compensatory Payments for Staff Housing

The Ministry of Finance of the PRC issued several public notices and regulations during the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 with respect to the one-time compensatory payments for staff housing payable to certain employees who joined the workforce prior to December 31, 1998 and have housing conditions below local standards as determined in accordance with government regulations and guidelines. These Ministry of Finance notices and regulations also provided that the portion of remedial payments attributable to the periods prior to a restructuring of the employer enterprise from a wholly state-owned status to a less than wholly state-owned status is to be borne by the state shareholder of the enterprise.

The restructuring that resulted in the formation of CNPC group took place in November 1999. As such, the one-time compensatory housing payments payable to the eligible employees of our company are to be borne by the state shareholder of our company.

Under IFRS, such direct payments to employees or reimbursements will not be recorded through the consolidated profit and loss account of CNPC. US GAAP contains no such exemption but requires this principal shareholder's action on behalf of our company to be recorded in the consolidated profit and loss account. In the last quarter of year 2002, our company and CNPC completed the process of estimating the amount payable to qualified employees of our company. This amount, RMB 2,553 million, was reflected in determining net income of CNPC for the year ended December 31, 2002, under US GAAP. Since this amount is borne by CNPC, a corresponding amount has been included as an addition to the other reserves in the shareholders' equity of our company. There were no significant changes in this estimate during 2005 and 2006.

Minority Interest

In accordance with the revised IAS 1, "Presentation of Financial Statements" and IAS 27, "Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements", minority interest becomes part of the profit for the year and total equity of our company, whereas under US GAAP, it is respectively excluded from the net income and shareholders' equity of our company. In addition, the reconciling item also includes the impact of minority interest's share of the revaluation gain and loss, on the property, plant and equipment of non-wholly owned subsidiaries and minority interest arising as a result of the acquisition of 67% equity interest in PKZ through a non-wholly owned subsidiary of our company, to net income and shareholders' equity under US GAAP.

Purchase from Minority Interest of Listed Subsidiaries

As described in Note 39 to the consolidated financial statements, our company acquired certain outstanding A shares from the minority interest of Jinzhou Petrochemical Company Limited ("JPCL") and Liaohe Jinma Oilfield Company Limited ("LJOCL") and certain A shares and H shares (including ADSs) from the minority interest of Jilin Chemical Industrial Company Limited ("JCC"). Under IFRS, our company applies a policy of treating transactions with minority interest as transactions with equity participants of our company. Therefore, the assets and liabilities of JPCL, LJOCL and JCC additionally acquired by our company from minority interest were recorded by our company at cost. The difference between the company's purchase cost and the book value of the interests in JPCL and LJOCL acquired by our company from minority interest was recorded in equity. Under US GAAP, the acquisition of additional minority interest is accounted for under purchase method. Assets and liabilities additionally acquired were restated to fair value and the difference of purchase cost over fair value of the minority interest acquired and identified intangible assets was recorded as goodwill. Additional depreciation charge for the assets restated to fair value was recorded.

Recent US Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2005, the Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") reached consensus on Issue No. 04-13, "Accounting for Purchases and Sales of Inventory with the Same Counterparty" ("EITF 04-13") which requires two or more inventory purchase and sales transactions with the same counterparty that are entered into in contemplation of one another to be combined for purposes of applying Opinion 29, "Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions". The Task Force also agreed that an entity should disclose the amount of revenue and costs (or gains and losses) associated with inventory exchanges recognized at fair value. EITF 04-13 should be applied to new arrangements entered into, or modifications or renegotiations of existing arrangements, beginning in the first interim or annual reporting period beginning after March 15, 2006 and early application is permitted in periods for which financial statements have not been issued. Our company did not early adopt EITF 04-13 and does not expect the adoption of EITF 04-13 to have a material impact on our financial position or results of operations.

In June 2006, EITF issued No. 06-3, "How Sales Taxes Collected from Customers and Remitted to Governmental Authorities Should Be Presented in the Income Statement" ("EITF 06-3").

EITF 06-3 requires disclosure of the presentation of taxes on either a gross or a net basis as an accounting policy decision. The provisions of EITF 06-3 are effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2006, and early application is permitted. Our company did not early adopt EITF 06-3 and does not expect the adoption of EITF 06-3 to have a material impact on the presentation of our financial statements.

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 prescribes a comprehensive model for recognizing, measuring, presenting and disclosing in the financial statements uncertain tax positions that an enterprise has taken or expects to take in its tax returns. The provisions of FIN 48 are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. Earlier adoption is permitted as of the beginning of an enterprise's fiscal year, provided the enterprise has not yet issued financial statements, including financial statements for any interim period, for that fiscal year. The cumulative effect of applying the provisions of this Interpretation should be reported as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings for that fiscal year. Our company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting FIN 48.

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements" ("FAS157"), which defines fair value, establishes guidelines for measuring fair value and expands disclosures regarding fair value measurements. FAS 157 does not require any new fair value measurements but rather eliminates inconsistencies in guidance found in various prior accounting pronouncements. FAS 157 will be effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and all interim periods within those fiscal years. Earlier application is permitted if the entity has not issued interim or annual financial statements for that fiscal year. Our company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting FAS 157 but does not expect the adoption of which to have a material effect on our company's consolidated financial position and results of operations.

In September 2006, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") released SAB No. 108, "Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements" ("SAB 108"). SAB 108 provides interpretive guidance on the SEC's views on the consideration of effects of prior year misstatements in quantifying current year misstatements for the purpose of determining whether the current year's financial statements are materially misstated. The provisions of SAB 108 are effective for fiscal years ending after November 15, 2006. The application of SAB 108 did not have any material effect on our company's consolidated financial position, and results of operations.

Quantitative Disclosure Relating to US GAAP and IFRS

Net income. Net income under US GAAP increased 6.0% from RMB 137,866 million for the year ended December 31, 2005 to RMB 146,087 million for the year ended December 31, 2006. This increase was due primarily to an increase of RMB 9,755 million in the net income under IFRS as discussed in "Item 5 — Operating and Financial Review and Prospects — Operating Results".

Shareholders' equity. Shareholders' equity under US GAAP increased 12.6% from RMB 510,141 million as of December 31, 2005 to RMB 574,470 million as of December 31, 2006. This increase was due primarily to the net income of RMB 146,087 million under US GAAP, which was partially offset by the payment of (i) the final dividend of RMB 32,282 million for the year of 2005 and (ii) the interim dividend of RMB 36,307 million for the year of 2006.

Net income. Net income under US GAAP increased 26.4% from RMB 109,051 million for the year ended December 31, 2004 to RMB 137,866 million for the year ended December 31, 2005.

This increase was due primarily to an increase of RMB 31,996 million in the net income under IFRS as discussed in “Item 5 — Operating and Financial Review and Prospects — Operating Results”.

Shareholders' equity. Shareholders' equity under US GAAP increased 25.8% from RMB 405,573 million as of December 31, 2004 to RMB 510,141 million as of December 31, 2005. This increase was due primarily to the net income of RMB 137,866 million under US GAAP, which was partially offset by the payment of (i) the final dividend of RMB 25,936 million for the year of 2004 and (ii) the interim dividend of RMB 27,731 million for the year of 2005.

Environmental Expenses and Capital Expenditures

We paid pollutant discharge fees of approximately RMB 182 million, RMB 199 million and RMB 211 million respectively, in 2004, 2005 and 2006. Our capital expenditures on environmental programs in 2004, 2005 and 2006 were approximately RMB 1,345 million, RMB 1,633 million and RMB 4,634 million, respectively. On November 13, 2005, an explosion occurred at our branch company in Jilin Province. The Chinese government completed its investigation of this accident in December 2006, and we paid a fine of RMB 1 million in settlement of all liabilities arising from the accident.

ITEM 6 — DIRECTORS, SENIOR MANAGEMENT AND EMPLOYEES

Directors, Senior Management and Supervisors

Our board of directors currently consists of twelve directors, three of whom are independent non-executive directors. The directors are elected at a meeting of our shareholders for a term of three years. The directors may be re-elected and re-appointed upon the expiration of his/her term of office. The functions and duties conferred on the board of directors include:

- convening shareholders' meetings and reporting its work to the shareholders' meetings;
- implementing the resolutions of the shareholders' meetings;
- determining our business plans and investment plans;
- formulating our annual budget and final accounts;
- formulating our proposals for dividend and bonus distributions and for the increase or reduction of capital; and
- exercising other powers, functions and duties as conferred by our articles of association.

Seven of the directors are currently affiliated with CNPC or an affiliate of CNPC.

The PRC Company Law requires a joint stock company with limited liability to establish a supervisory committee. This requirement is reflected in our articles of association. The supervisory committee is responsible for monitoring our financial matters and overseeing the actions of our board of directors and our management personnel. The supervisory committee consists of seven supervisors, six of whom are elected, including four shareholders representatives and two independent supervisors, and may be removed, by the shareholders in a general meeting and one of whom is an employees' representative who is elected by our staff, and may be removed, by our staff. Three of our supervisors are affiliated with CNPC. The term of office of our supervisors is three years. The supervisors may be re-elected and re-appointed upon the expiration of his/her term of office. An elected supervisor cannot concurrently hold the position of a director, manager or financial controller. The functions and powers conferred on the supervisory committee include:

- attending board meetings;
- examining our financial affairs;
- examining balance sheets, profit and loss accounts, business reports, dividend distribution proposals and other financial information proposed at shareholders' general meetings by the directors from time to time; and

Compensation

Senior Management Compensation System

Our senior management compensation system links our senior management members' financial interests, including those of our executive directors and our supervisors, with our results of operations and the performance of our shares. All of our senior management members have entered into performance contracts with us. Under this system, the senior management members' compensation has three components, namely, fixed salaries, performance bonuses and stock appreciation rights. The variable components in their compensation account for approximately 70% to 75% of our senior management officers' total potential compensation, including up to 25% forming the performance bonus component and approximately 50% to 70% forming the stock appreciation rights component. Variable compensation rewards are linked to the attainment of specific performance targets, such as net income, return on capital and cost reduction targets. The chart below sets forth the components of the total potential compensation for key officers.

	% Fixed salary	% Stock appreciation rights	% Performance bonus
Chairman	30	70	0
President	25	60	15
Vice President	25	60	15
Department GM	25	50	25

We have granted stock appreciation rights to 300 persons, including members of the board of directors and the supervisory committee, president, vice presidents and departmental managers, general managers and deputy general managers of specialized companies and local subsidiaries. Upon exercise of these stock appreciation rights, members of the senior management will not receive any of our shares, but will, by way of stock appreciation rights, receive a monetary sum that is calculated on the basis of the price of our H shares. In 2006, none of the directors and senior management exercised any of the stock appreciation rights granted to them. Since companies are not permitted to repurchase and hold their own shares for offering stock options under current PRC law, we expect to calculate our book gains and losses on the basis of share prices and in accordance with stock appreciation rights measures and make cash payment of such compensations.

Directors' and Supervisors' Compensation

Our directors and supervisors, who hold senior management positions or are otherwise employed by us, receive compensation in the form of salaries, housing allowances, other allowances and benefits in kind, including our contribution to the pension plans for these directors and supervisors.

The aggregate amount of salaries, housing allowances, other allowances and benefits in kind paid by us to the five highest paid individuals of PetroChina during the year ended December 31, 2006 was RMB 3,303,929. We paid RMB 133,110 as our contribution to the pension plans in respect of those individuals in the year ended December 31, 2006.

The aggregate amount of salaries or other compensation, housing allowances, other allowances and benefits in kind paid by us to our directors, who hold senior management positions or are otherwise employed by us, during the year ended December 31, 2006 was RMB 3,223,043.

Save as disclosed, no other payments have been paid or are payable, in respect of the year ended December 31, 2006, by us or any of our subsidiaries to our directors. In addition, we have no service contracts with our directors that provide for benefits to our directors upon the termination of their employment with us.

In 2006, we paid RMB 162,830 as our contribution to the pension plans in respect of our directors and supervisors, who hold senior management positions or are otherwise employed by us. The aggregate amount of salaries or other compensation, housing allowances, other allowances and benefits in kind paid by us to our supervisors, who hold senior management positions or are otherwise employed by us, during the year ended December 31, 2006 was RMB 714,423.

Board Practices

Our board of directors has four principal committees: an audit committee, an investment and development committee, an evaluation and remuneration committee and a health, safety and environment committee.

Audit Committee

Our audit committee is currently composed of three non-executive independent directors, Mr. Franco Bernabè, Mr. Chee-Chen Tung and Mr. Liu Hongru, and one non-executive director, Mr. Gong Huazhang. Mr. Franco Bernabè serves as the chairman of the committee. Under our audit committee charter, the chairman of the committee must be an independent director and all resolutions of the committee must be approved by independent directors. The audit committee's major responsibilities include:

- supervising the integrity of financial reporting process to ensure fair, transparent and true financial disclosure;
- evaluating the effectiveness of the internal control and risk management framework;
- inspecting and supervising the effectiveness of the internal audit functions;
- reviewing and supervising the engagement and work of external auditors, including evaluating the performance of external auditors annually and raising proposals together with the supervisory committee to the shareholders' meetings with respect to the engagement, re-engagement and dismissal of external auditors and the compensation of such external auditors;
- receiving, keeping and dealing with complaints regarding accounting, internal control or auditing matters.
- receiving and dealing with anonymous submissions and complaints by employees regarding accounting or auditing matters, and keeping such submission and complaints confidential, and other duties provided in the Listing Rules from time to time.

Investment and Development Committee

The current members of our investment and development committee are Mr. Zhou Jiping and Mr. Wang Yilin, as member of the committee. The former chairman of the investment and development committee, Mr. Su Shulin, resigned as a Director of our company in November 2006. The investment and development committee's major responsibilities include:

- studying strategic action plans as proposed by our President and making recommendations to the board of directors;
- studying the annual investment budget and the adjustment proposal regarding the investment plan as proposed by our President and making recommendations to the board of directors; and
- reviewing preliminary feasibility studies and feasibility studies for material investment projects requiring approval of the board of directors and making recommendations to the board of directors.

Evaluation and Remuneration Committee

The current members of our evaluation and remuneration committee are Mr. Liu Hongru, as chairman of the committee, Mr. Zheng Hu and Mr. Chee-Chen Tung, as member of the committee. The evaluation and remuneration committee's major responsibilities include:

- managing the performance evaluations for our President and submitting report to our board and monitoring performance evaluations led by our President for Senior Vice President, Vice Presidents, Chief Financial Officer and other senior management personnel;
- studying our incentive plan, compensation plan and stock appreciation rights plan, supervising and evaluating the implementation of these plans and making recommendations for improvements to and perfection of such plans.

Health, Safety and Environment Committee

The current members of our health, safety and environment committee are Duan Wende, as chairman of the committee, Mr. Zeng Yukang and Mr. Jiang Fan, as member of the committee. The health, safety and environment committee's major responsibilities include:

- supervising the effective implementation of our Health, Safety and Environmental Protection Plan;
- making recommendations to the board of directors and our President for major decisions with respect of health, safety and environmental protection;
- inquiring the occurrence of and responsibilities for material accidents and supervising the remedial measures of material accidents.

Employees

As of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, we had 424,175, 439,220 and 446,290 employees, respectively. The table below sets forth the number of our employees by business segment as of December 31, 2006.

	Employees	% of total
Exploration and production	247,442	55.44
Refining and marketing	118,504	26.55
Chemicals and marketing	61,152	13.70
Natural gas and pipeline	15,496	3.47
Other ⁽¹⁾	3,696	0.84
Total	446,290	100.0%

⁽¹⁾ Including the numbers of employees of the management of our headquarters, specialized companies, PetroChina Exploration & Development Research Institute, PetroChina Planning & Engineering Institute, Petrochemical Research Institute and other units.

Our employees participate in various retirement benefit plans organized by municipal and provincial governments whereby we are required to make monthly insurance contributions to these plans at rates ranging from 16% to 22% of the employees' salary. Expenses incurred by us in connection with the retirement benefit plans were approximately RMB 2,476 million, RMB 3,104 million and RMB 4,645 million, respectively, for the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

In 2006, we have not experienced any strikes, work stoppages, labor disputes or actions which affected the operation of any of our businesses. We consider our relationship with our employees to be good.

Share Ownership

Our directors, senior officers and supervisors do not have share ownership in PetroChina or any of PetroChina's affiliates. We have granted stock appreciation rights relating to our H shares to our directors, senior officers and supervisors. Upon exercise of these stock appreciation rights, members of the senior management will not receive any of our shares, but will, by way of stock appreciation rights, receive a monetary sum which is calculated on the basis of the price of our H shares. Because the relevant PRC laws limit the ownership of the H shares of a company incorporated under the PRC laws to only non-PRC nationals, and companies are not permitted to repurchase and hold their own shares for offering stock appreciation rights under current PRC law, our directors, senior officers and supervisors do not hold our H shares under the stock options granted to them. Instead, we expect to calculate the book gains and losses on the basis of share prices and in accordance with our stock appreciation rights granting criteria to be finalized, and make cash payments of such compensation to our directors, senior officers and supervisors.

ITEM 7 — MAJOR SHAREHOLDERS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Major Shareholders

Prior to the restructuring of the CNPC group in November 1999, CNPC was one of the largest companies in the PRC in terms of sales. As part of the restructuring of the CNPC group, CNPC transferred to PetroChina substantially all its businesses and assets in China relating to the exploration and production of crude oil and natural gas, refining and marketing, chemicals and natural gas sales and transmission. Since the restructuring of the CNPC group, CNPC has engaged in crude oil and natural gas exploration and production business activities outside the PRC and limited chemicals production and retail of refined products. CNPC's primary business activities relate to the provision of various services and products to PetroChina.

PetroChina was established on November 5, 1999 with CNPC as its sole promoter. As of December 31, 2006, CNPC owned 157,922,077,818 State-owned shares, representing approximately 88.21% of the share capital of PetroChina, and, accordingly, CNPC is our controlling shareholder.

The shares held by CNPC are state-owned shares in the share capital of PetroChina. However, CNPC has identical voting rights as holders of H shares. Holders of state-owned shares and H shares are deemed to be shareholders of different classes for certain matters which may have effect on their respective interest.

As of December 31, 2006, Warren E. Buffett, Berkshire Hathaway Inc., OBH, Inc., National Indemnity Company, GEICO Corporation and Government Employees Insurance Company, as a group as defined under Rule 13d-1(b)(1)(ii)(J) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, collectively owned 2,347,761,000 H shares, representing approximately 1.311% of the total outstanding share capital of PetroChina, or approximately 11.13% of the H shares of PetroChina.

Related Party Transactions

As of December 31, 2006, CNPC directly owns an aggregate of approximately 88.21% of the shares of our company and therefore transactions between our company and CNPC constitute related party transactions between our company and CNPC under the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, or the Listing Rules. As of December 31, 2006, CNPC (Hong Kong) Limited, or CNPC (HK), is a 51.99% owned subsidiary of CNPC. Therefore, transactions between our company and CNPC (HK) constitute related party transactions between our company and CNPC (HK) under the Listing Rules. As Beijing Gas Group Co., Ltd., or Beijing Gas, and China Railway Materials and Suppliers Corporation, or CRMSC, are respectively a substantial shareholder (as defined under the Listing Rules) of Beijing Huayou Gas Corporation Limited and PetroChina and CRMSC Oil Marketing Company Limited, both of which are our company's subsidiaries, pursuant to the Listing Rules, the transactions between our company and Beijing Gas and CRMSC respectively constitute related party transactions of our company. Moreover, CNPC and our company each holds 50% interest in CNPC E&D; according to the Listing Rules, CNPC E&D is a connected person of our company. On December 28, 2006, our company acquired 67% equity interest in PKZ through CNPC E&D. Pursuant to the Listing Rules, any subsidiaries of a connected person of our company will also be treated as connected person(s) of our company. Therefore, transactions between our company and (i) CNPC E&D and (ii) PKZ constitute related party transactions of our company under the Listing Rules.

One-off Related Party Transactions

Acquisition of a 67% interest in PKZ

Pursuant to an acquisition agreement dated August 23, 2006 entered into between Pervinage Holding B.V. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of CNPC E&D) and 819 Luxembourg S. a r. l. (an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of CNPC), CNPC E&D has acquired from CNPC the 67% equity interest indirectly held by CNPC in PKZ for a cash consideration of RMB 21,376 million. The acquisition was completed on December 28, 2006. As CNPC is the controlling shareholder of our company, and as CNPC and our company each holds 50% interest in CNPC E&D, CNPC and CNPC E&D are both connected persons of our company. The acquisition constitutes a related party transaction for our company under the Listing Rules. Details of the transaction were announced by our company on August 23, 2006.

Continuing Related Party Transactions

Continuing Related Party Transactions with CNPC

Our company and CNPC continue to carry out certain existing continuing related party transactions. We obtained independent shareholders' approval at the general meeting held on November 8, 2005 for a renewal of the existing continuing related party transactions and the new continuing related party transactions; in addition, at the same general meeting we proposed the new caps for existing continuing related party transactions and the new continuing related party transactions from January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2008. We further sought independent shareholders' approval at the general meeting held on November 1, 2006 for a renewal of the caps for the existing continuing related party transactions for January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2008, which were previously approved by independent shareholders at the general meeting held on November 8, 2005.

Our company and CNPC will continue to carry out the existing continuing related party transactions referred to in the following agreements:

Comprehensive Products and Services Agreement, First Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement and Second Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement

Our company and CNPC continue to implement the Comprehensive Products and Services Agreement ("Comprehensive Agreement") entered into on March 10, 2000 for the provision (i) by our company to CNPC and (ii) by CNPC Group to our company, of a range of products and services which may be required and requested from time to time by either party and/or its subsidiary companies and affiliates. The Comprehensive Agreement has been amended by the First Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement and the Second Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement.

The term of the Comprehensive Agreement was initially ten years starting from the date when our company's business license was issued. This term has been amended by the Second Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement to three years commencing from January 1, 2006.

During the term of the Comprehensive Agreement, termination of the product and service implementation agreements described below may be effected from time to time by the parties to the product and service implementation agreements providing at least six months' written notice of termination in relation to any one or more categories of products or services. Further, in respect of any products or services already contracted to be provided, termination may not take place until after such products and services have been provided.

Under the Comprehensive Products and Services Agreement, products and services to be provided by our company to CNPC Group include such products as refined products, chemical products, natural gas, crude oil and such services as relating to the supply of water, electricity, gas and heating, quantifying and measuring and quality inspection and other products and services as may be requested by the CNPC Group for its own consumption, use or sale from time to time.

More products and services are to be provided by CNPC to our company, both in terms of quantity and variety, than those to be provided by our company to CNPC. Products and services to be provided by CNPC to our company have been grouped together and categorized according to the following types of products and services:

- Construction and technical services,
- Production services,
- Supply of materials services,
- Social services,
- Ancillary services, and
- Financial services.

The First Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement dated June 9, 2005 was entered principally to amend the definitions of “state-prescribed price” and “market price” in the Comprehensive Agreement in view of the characteristics of overseas business and to amend the term of the Comprehensive Agreement to three years. The First Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement took effect on December 19, 2005.

The Second Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement entered into by CNPC and our company on September 1, 2005 provides for certain new continuing related party transactions between our company and certain companies in which both our company and CNPC are shareholders, and where CNPC and/or its subsidiaries and/or affiliates (individually or together) is/are entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 10% or more of the voting power at any general meeting of such company.

The Second Supplemental Comprehensive Agreement took effect on January 1, 2006.

Product and Service Implementation Agreements

According to the current arrangements, from time to time and as required, individual product and service implementation agreements may be entered into between the relevant service companies and affiliates of CNPC Group or our company providing the relevant products or services, as appropriate, and the relevant members of our company or CNPC Group, requiring such products or services, as appropriate.

Each product and service implementation agreement will set out the specific products and services requested by the relevant party and any detailed technical and other specifications which may be relevant to those products or services. The product and service implementation agreements may only contain provisions which are in all material respects consistent with the binding principles and guidelines and terms and conditions in accordance with which such products and services are required to be provided as contained in the Comprehensive Agreement.

As the product and service implementation agreements are simply further elaborations on the provision of products and services as contemplated by the Comprehensive Agreement, they do not as such constitute new categories of related party transactions.

Land Use Rights Leasing Contract

Our company and CNPC continue to implement the Land Use Rights Leasing Contract entered into on March 10, 2000 under which CNPC has leased a total of 42,476 parcels of land in connection with all aspects of the operations and business of our company covering an aggregate area of approximately 1,145 million square meters, located throughout the PRC, to our company for a term of 50 years at an annual fee of RMB 2 billion. The total fee payable for the lease of all such property may, after the expiration of ten years from the effective date of the Land Use Rights Leasing Contract, be adjusted (to reflect market conditions prevalent at such time of adjustment, including the then prevailing marketing prices, inflation or deflation, as applicable, and such other factors considered as important by both parties in negotiating and agreeing to any such adjustment) by agreement between our company and CNPC. In addition, any governmental, legal or other administrative taxes and fees required to be paid in connection with the leased properties will be borne by CNPC. However, any additional amount of such taxes payable as a result of changes in the PRC government policies after the effective date of the contract shall be shared proportionately on a reasonable basis between CNPC and our company.

Buildings Leasing Contract and Buildings Supplementary Leasing Agreement

Our company and CNPC continue to implement the Buildings Leasing Contract entered into on March 10, 2000 in which CNPC has leased to our company a total of 191 buildings covering an aggregate of area of 269,770 square meters, located throughout the PRC for the use by our company for its business operations including the exploration, development and production of crude oil, the refining of crude oil and petroleum products, and the production and sale of chemicals. The 191 buildings were leased at a price of RMB 145 per square meter per year, that is, an aggregate annual fee of RMB 39,116,650 for a term of 20 years. Our company is responsible for the payment of any governmental, legal or other administrative taxes and maintenance charges in connection with these 191 buildings. The Building Leasing Contract sets forth the details of the buildings leased to our company by other member companies within CNPC group.

Further to the Buildings Leasing Contract mentioned above, our company entered into a Supplemental Buildings Leasing Agreement (the "Supplemental Buildings Agreement") with CNPC on September 26, 2002 under which CNPC agrees to lease to our company an additional 404 buildings covering an aggregate of 442,730 square meters. The increase in the number of units being leased in the Supplemental Buildings Agreement is primarily attributed to the expansion of our company's operations mainly in the areas such as oil and natural gas exploration, the West-East Gas Pipeline Project and the construction of the northeast refineries and chemical operation base. The total rent payable under the Supplemental Buildings Agreement amounts to RMB 157,439,540 per annum. Our company and CNPC will, based on changes in their production and operations, and changes in the market price, adjust the sizes and quantities of buildings leased under the Buildings Leasing Contract as well as the Supplemental Buildings Agreement every three years. The Supplemental Buildings Agreement became effective on January 1, 2003 and will expire at the same time as the Buildings Leasing Contract. The terms and conditions of the Buildings Leasing Contract will, to the extent not contradictory to the Supplemental Buildings Agreement, remain in full force.

Intellectual Property Licensing Contracts

Our company and CNPC continue to implement the three intellectual property licensing contracts entered into on March 10, 2000, being the Trademark Licensing Contract, the Patent and Know-how Licensing Contract and the Computer Software Licensing Contract. Pursuant to these licensing contracts, CNPC has granted our company the exclusive right to use certain trademarks, patents, know-how and computer software of CNPC at no cost. These intellectual property rights relate to the assets and businesses of CNPC which were transferred to our company pursuant to the restructuring.

Contract for the Transfer of Rights under Production Sharing Contracts

Our company and CNPC continue to implement the Contract for the Transfer of Rights under Production Sharing Contracts dated March 10, 2000. As part of the restructuring, CNPC transferred to our company relevant rights and obligations under 23 Production Sharing Contracts entered into with a number of international oil and natural gas companies, except for the rights and obligations relating to CNPC's supervisory functions.

Guarantee of Debts Contract

Our company and CNPC continue to implement the Guarantee of Debts Contract entered into on March 10, 2000, pursuant to which all of the debts of CNPC relating to the assets transferred to our company in the restructuring were also transferred to, and assumed by, our company.

In the Guarantee of Debts Contract, CNPC has agreed to guarantee certain debts of our company at no cost. As of December 31, 2006, the total amount guaranteed was RMB 597 million.

As each of the applicable percentage ratio(s) (other than the profits ratio) in respect of the Trademark Licensing Contract, the Patent and Know-how Licensing Contract, the Computer Software Licensing Contract, the Contract for the Transfer of Rights under Production Sharing Contracts and the Guarantee of Debts Contract is less than 0.1%, these transactions are exempted from the reporting, announcement and independent shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules. The Directors believe that these continuing transactions had been entered into in the ordinary course of business for the benefits of our company, and are in the interests of the shareholders as a whole.

New Continuing Related Party Transactions with CNPC E&D

The following new continuing related party transactions arose as a result of the completion of the acquisition of the 67% equity interest in PKZ on December 28, 2006, which was set forth on the announcement dated August 23, 2006:

- the provision of production services by CNPC Group to our company;
- the provision of construction and technical services such as exploration technology services by CNPC Group to our company;
- the provision of materials supply services by CNPC Group to our company.

Continuing Related Party Transactions with CNPC (HK)

As part of the restructuring of CNPC and in preparation for the listing of our company on HKSE, and as disclosed in our company's prospectus dated March 27, 2000, CNPC and our company entered into the Contract for the Transfer of Rights under Production Sharing Contracts whereby the relevant rights and obligations (other than the supervisory functions related to CNPC's role as representative of the PRC government) of CNPC under certain contracts, including the Blocks 9-1 to 9-5 of the Xinjiang Karamay Oilfield Petroleum Contract dated July 1, 1996, entered into between CNPC and Hafnium Limited ("Xinjiang Contract"), and the Leng Jiapu Area Petroleum Contract dated December 30, 1997, entered into between CNPC and Beckbury International Limited ("Liaohe Contract"), were novated to our company.

CNPC (HK) is a 51.99% owned subsidiary of CNPC. CNPC is also our company's controlling shareholder which holds approximately 88.21% of the issued share capital of our company. Upon the effective novation by CNPC to our company of the above interest in the PRC Oil Production Sharing Contracts (the Xinjiang Contract and the Liaohe Contract), certain transactions pursuant to the PRC Oil Production Sharing Contracts constitute continuing related party transactions between our company and CNPC (HK).

Summary of the major terms and conditions of these continuing related party transactions under the Xinjiang Contract and the Liaohe Contract are as follows:

(1) Production and development cost sharing between our company and CNPC (HK):

For both Leng Jiapu Oilfield and blocks 9-1 to 9-5 of the Karamay Oilfield, our company and CNPC (HK) share the development costs for these oilfields as to 46% by our company and 54% by CNPC (HK), and share the oil and natural gas produced from these oilfields, as to 30% by our company and 70% by CNPC (HK).

(2) Provision of assistance by our company to CNPC (HK): Our company shall provide assistance to CNPC (HK), including: (i) leasing warehouses, terminal facilities, barges, pipeline and land, etc.; (ii) obtaining approvals necessary for the conduct of the petroleum operations; and (iii) obtaining office space, office supplies, transportation and communication facilities. For such assistance, CNPC (HK) will pay an annual assistance fee of US$50,000 to each of blocks 9-1 to 9-5 of the Karamay Oilfield and the Leng Jiapu Oilfield. The amount of such fee was determined after negotiations, and has taken into account the actual circumstances and conditions, including the scope of the projects and the level of demand for such assistance. This fee shall be accounted for as operating costs and shared by our company and CNPC (HK) in accordance with the procedures described in the Xinjiang Contract and the Liaohe Contract.

(3) Payment of training fees: In the course of development and operations of each oilfield, CNPC (HK) shall pay our company an amount of US$50,000 annually for the training of personnel carried out by our company for each of the blocks 9-1 to 9-5 of the Karamay Oilfield and the Leng Jiapu Oilfield. The amount of such fee was determined after negotiations, and has taken into account the actual circumstances and conditions, including the scope of the projects and the level of demand for training.

(4) Sale of crude oil by CNPC (HK) to our company: CNPC (HK) has the right to deliver its share of oil production from each of blocks 9-1 to 9-5 of the Karamay Oilfield and the Leng Jiapu Oilfield to a destination of its choice, except for destinations which infringe on the political interests of the PRC. However, given the transportation costs and the prevailing oil prices, the only likely purchaser of the oil production attributable to CNPC (HK) from each of blocks 9-1 to 9-5 of the Karamay Oilfield and the Leng Jiapu Oilfield is CNPC or its affiliates, including our company, which will accept delivery of oil produced in blocks 9-1 to 9-5 of the Karamay Oilfield and the Leng Jiapu Oilfield at the market price. Since the signing of the PRC Oil Production Sharing Contracts, CNPC (HK) has sold all of its share of the oil production to CNPC or its affiliates, including our company. As far as the Board of Directors is aware, CNPC (HK) intends to continue with this arrangement. There is no contractual obligation upon our company to purchase oil produced from blocks 9-1 to 9-5 of the Karamay Oilfield and the Leng Jiapu Oilfield, although, from a commercial perspective, our company intends to continue to accept part of the deliveries. The price of various grades of crude oil sold shall be set either with reference to the price approved by the relevant PRC authorities, or as determined with reference to the prevailing fair market price for transactions of crude oil of a similar quality in the major oil markets. This will be adjusted to take into account the terms of transportation, payment and other terms.

The waiver in respect of the above continuing related party transactions between our company and CNPC (HK) granted by the HKSE expired on December 31, 2006. Our company made an announcement on August 23, 2006 in respect of the reporting and announcement obligations for these continuing related party transaction for the period from January 1, 2007 to December 31, 2008.

Continuing Related Party Transactions with CRMSC and Beijing Gas

Our company entered into a Products and Services Agreement with Beijing Gas on September 1, 2005. Pursuant to the agreement, our company shall continuously provide products and services to Beijing Gas, including the provision of natural gas and natural gas related transmission services. The agreement was effective from January 1, 2006.

On September 1, 2005, our company entered into the CRMSC Products and Services Agreement with CRMSC. Under the CRMSC Products and Services Agreement, products and services to be continuously provided by our company to CRMSC include, among other things, refined products (such as gasoline, diesel and other petroleum products). The term of the CRMSC Products and Services Agreement is three years commencing from January 1, 2006.

During the term of the CRMSC Products and Services Agreement, the product and service implementation agreements may be terminated from time to time by the contracting parties providing at least six months' written notice of termination in relation to any one or more categories of products or services. Further, in respect of any products or services already contracted to be provided, termination may not take place until after such products and services have been provided.

Loans or Guarantees with Related Parties

As of December 31, 2006, we had unsecured short-term and long-term loans from CP Finance in an aggregate amount of RMB 27,184 million. The average annual interest rate on these loans is 4.98%.

ITEM 8 — FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Financial Statements

See pages F-1 to F-78 following Item 19.

Dividend Policy

Our board of directors will declare dividends, if any, in Renminbi with respect to H shares on a per share basis and will pay such dividends in HK dollars. Any final dividend for a financial year shall be subject to shareholders' approval. The Bank of New York will convert the HK dollar dividend payments and distribute them to holders of ADSs in U.S. dollars, less expenses of conversion. The holders of the H shares will share proportionately on a per share basis in all dividends and other distributions declared by our board of directors.

The declaration of dividends is subject to the discretion of our board of directors. Our board of directors will take into account factors including the following:

- general business conditions;
- our financial results;
- capital requirements;
- contractual restrictions on the payment of dividends by us to our shareholders or by our subsidiaries to us;
- our shareholders' interests;
- the effect on our debt ratings; and
- other factors our board of directors may deem relevant.

We may only distribute dividends after we have made allowance for:

- recovery of losses, if any;
- allocations to the statutory common reserve fund; and
- allocations to a discretionary common reserve fund if approved by our shareholders.

The allocation to the statutory funds is 10% of our net income determined in accordance with PRC accounting rules. Under PRC law, our distributable earnings will be equal to our net income determined in accordance with PRC accounting rules or IFRS, whichever is lower, less allocations to the statutory and discretionary funds.

Subject to the above and to ensure that our dividend policy is consistent with that of major international oil and gas companies, we currently expect that we will distribute as dividends approximately 40% to 50% of our reported net income for all years commencing on or after January 1, 2000. We believe that our dividend policy strikes a balance between two important goals:

- providing our shareholders with a competitive return on investment; and
- assuring sufficient reinvestment of profits to enable us to achieve our strategic objectives.

A dividend of RMB 0.202806 per H share (inclusive of applicable tax) for the six months ended June 30, 2006 was paid to our shareholders on September 26, 2006. The board of directors proposed to distribute the final dividend of RMB 0.154699 per H share (inclusive of applicable tax) which was calculated on the basis of the balance between 45% of our net income for the year ended December 31, 2006 and the interim dividend for 2006 which was paid on September 26, 2006. The final dividend to be paid is subject to approval by the annual shareholders' general meeting to be held on May 16, 2007. The final dividend will be paid around June 1, 2007.

Significant Changes

None.

ITEM 9 — THE OFFER AND LISTING

Nature of the Trading Market and Market Price Information

Our ADSs, each representing 100 H shares, par value RMB 1.00 per H share, have been listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange since April 6, 2000 under the symbol “PTR”. Our H shares have been listed and traded on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange since April 7, 2000. In September 2005, our company issued an additional 3,196,801,818 H shares. CNPC also sold 319,680,182 state-owned shares it held concurrently with our Company’s issue of new H shares in September 2005. The New York Stock Exchange and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange are the principal trading markets for our ADSs and H shares, respectively.

ITEM 10 — ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
Memorandum and Articles of Association

Our Articles of Association Currently in Effect

The following is a summary based on the significant provisions of our articles of association currently in effect, which is filed with the Commission as an exhibit to this annual report on Form 20-F. We hereby incorporate by reference the relevant exhibit to this annual report.

Enforceability of Shareholders' Rights

Our articles of association provide that all differences or claims

- between a holder of H shares and us;
- between a holder of H shares and any of our directors, supervisors, general managers, deputy general managers or other senior officers; or
- between a holder of H shares and a holder of State-owned shares, arising from any provision of the articles of association, any right or obligation conferred or imposed by the PRC Company Law or any other relevant law or administrative regulation which concerns our affairs must, with certain exceptions, be referred to arbitration at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in the PRC or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center. Our articles of association provide that such arbitration will be final and conclusive.

Restrictions on Transferability and the Share Register

The articles of association provide that PRC investors are not entitled to be registered as holders of H shares.

As provided in the articles of association, we may refuse to register a transfer of H shares unless:

- any relevant transfer fee is paid;
- the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the share certificates to which it relates, or such other evidence is given as may be reasonably necessary to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
- the instrument of transfer is in respect of one class of shares only; and
- the transfer is conducted in accordance with the laws and administrative regulations of or required by the securities exchanges on which the shares are listed.

We are required to keep a register of our shareholders which shall be comprised of various parts, including one part which is to be maintained in Hong Kong in relation to H shares to be listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Dividends

We may distribute dividends twice a year, with the final dividend for any financial year being subject to the approval of the shareholders by way of an ordinary resolution. The articles of association allow for distribution of dividends in the form of cash or shares.

Dividends may only be distributed, however, after allowance has been made for:

- recovery of losses, if any;
- allocations to the statutory common reserve fund;
- allocations to the statutory common welfare fund; and
- allocations to a discretionary common reserve fund if approved by the shareholders.

The minimum and maximum aggregate allocations to the statutory funds are 15% and 20%, respectively, of our net income determined in accordance with PRC accounting rules.

The articles of association require us to appoint on behalf of the holders of H shares a receiving agent which is registered as a trust corporation under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong to receive dividends declared by us in respect of the H shares on behalf of such shareholders. The articles of association require that cash dividends in respect of H shares be declared in Renminbi and paid by us in HK dollars.

Voting Rights and Shareholders' Meetings

Our board of directors will convene a shareholders' annual general meeting once every year and within six months' from the end of the preceding financial year. Our board will convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months of the occurrence of any one of the following events:

- where the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in the PRC Company law or two-thirds of the number specified in our articles of association;
- where our unrecovered losses reach one-third of the total amount of our share capital;
- where shareholders holding 10% or more of our issued and outstanding voting shares request in writing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting; or
- where our board deems necessary or our board of supervisors so request.

Meetings of a special class of shareholders must be called in certain enumerated situations when the rights of the holders of such class of shares may be modified or adversely affected, as discussed below. Resolutions proposed by shareholders holding 5% or more of the total number of voting shares will be included in the agenda for the relevant annual general meeting if they are matters which fall within the scope of the functions and powers of shareholders in general meeting.

All shareholders' meetings must be convened by our board by written notice given to shareholders not less than 45 days before the meeting. Based on the written replies received by us 20 days before a shareholders' meeting, we will calculate the number of voting shares represented by shareholders who have indicated that they intend to attend the meeting. Where the number of voting shares represented by those shareholders amount to more than one-half of our total voting shares, we may convene the shareholders' general meeting, regardless of the number of shareholders who actually attend. Otherwise, we will, within five days, inform the shareholders again of the motions to be considered and the date and venue of the meeting by way of public announcement. After the announcement is made, the shareholders' meeting may be convened. The accidental omission by us to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, a shareholder will not invalidate the proceedings at that shareholders' meeting.

Shareholders at meetings have the rights, among other things, to approve or reject our profit distribution plans, the annual budget, the financial statements, an increase or decrease in share capital, the issuance of debentures, the merger or liquidation of PetroChina and any amendment to our articles of association. In addition, the rights of a class of shareholders may not be modified or abrogated, unless approved by a special resolution of all shareholders at a general shareholders' meeting and by a special resolution of shareholders of that class of shares at a separate meeting.

Our articles of association enumerate, without limitation, certain amendments which would be deemed to be a modification or abrogation of the rights of a class of shareholders, including increasing or decreasing the number of shares of a class disproportionate to increases or decreases of other classes of shares, removing or reducing rights to receive dividends in a particular currency or creating shares with voting or equity rights superior to shares of such class.

Each H share is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of our shareholders at all shareholders' meetings, except for meetings of a special class of shareholders where only holders of shares of the affected class are entitled to vote on the basis of one vote per share of the affected class. When any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or against any particular resolution under the Listing Rules, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Shareholders are entitled to attend and vote at meetings either in person or by proxy. Proxies must be in writing and deposited at our legal address, or such other place as is specified in the meeting notice, not less than 24 hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote or the time appointed for the passing of the relevant resolutions. When the instrument appointing a proxy is executed by the shareholder's attorney-in-fact, such proxy when deposited must be accompanied by a notarially certified copy of the relevant power of attorney or other authority under which the proxy was executed.

Except for those actions discussed below which require supermajority votes, resolutions of the shareholders are passed by a simple majority of the voting shares held by shareholders who are present in person or by proxy. Special resolutions must be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights represented held by shareholders who are present in person or by proxy.

The following decisions must be adopted by special resolution:

- an increase or reduction of our share capital or the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;
- the issue of our debentures;
- our division, merger, dissolution and liquidation;
- amendments to our articles of association; and
- any other matters considered by the shareholders in a general meeting and which they have resolved by way of an ordinary resolution to be of a nature which may have a material impact on us and should be adopted by special resolution.

All other actions taken by the shareholders, including the appointment and removal of our directors and independent auditors and the declaration of normal dividend payments or stock distributions, will be decided by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders.

In addition, certain amendments to the articles of association require the approval and consent of the relevant PRC authorities.

Any shareholder resolution which is in violation of any laws or regulations of the PRC or the articles of association will be null and void.

Board of Directors

Directors will be elected by shareholders at a general meeting. Because the shares do not have cumulative voting rights, a holder of a majority of our shares is able to elect all of the directors. Directors are elected for a term of three years.

Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least four times every year and shall be convened by the Chairman of the board of directors, who shall notify all directors 14 days before each meeting.

Our board of directors is accountable to the shareholders in general meetings and exercises the following functions and powers to:

- (a) be responsible for the convening of shareholders' meetings and reporting on its work to the shareholders at such meetings;
- (b) implement the resolutions passed by the shareholders in general meetings;
- (c) determine our business plans and investment proposals;
- (d) formulate our annual preliminary and final budgets;
- (e) formulate our profit distribution proposal and loss recovery proposals;
- (f) formulate proposals for the increase or reduction of our registered capital and the issuance of our debentures;
- (g) draw up plans for our merger, division or dissolution;
- (h) decide on our internal management structure;
- (i) appoint or remove our president and to appoint or remove the vice presidents and other senior officers, including the financial controller, based on the recommendation of the general manager, and to decide on their remuneration;
- (j) formulate our basic management system;
- (k) formulate proposals for any amendment of our articles of association; and
- (l) exercise any other powers conferred by the shareholders in general meetings.

Except for items (f), (g) and (k), which require the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of all of our directors, resolutions on any other items may be approved by the affirmative vote of a simple majority of our directors.

A director shall abstain from voting on any resolutions of the board of directors if he/she or any of his/her associates is interested therein, and he/she shall not be counted in the quorum of the directors for such meetings. The board of directors shall transact its businesses by convening a board meeting instead of by circulation of papers. If an independent non-executive director or any of its associates does not have any significant interest in the matters to be resolved in a board meeting, he/she shall attend the board meeting. For purpose of this paragraph, the associate herein has the same meaning ascribed to it in the Listing Rules. If any listing rules of other stock exchanges on which our stocks listed have stricter stipulations on the abstention of voting by directors, then such stipulations shall be followed.

In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchanges on which our H shares are listed, the articles of association place on each of our directors, supervisors, president, vice presidents and any other senior officers a duty to each shareholder, in the exercise of our functions and powers entrusted to such person:

- not to cause us to exceed the scope of business stipulated in our business license;
- to act honestly in our best interests;
- not to expropriate our property in any way, including, without limitation, usurpation of opportunities which benefit us; and

- not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including, without limitation, rights to distributions and voting rights, save and except according to a restructuring which has been submitted to the shareholders for their approval in accordance with the articles of association.

Our articles of association further place on each of our directors, supervisors, president, vice presidents and senior officers:

- a duty, in the exercise of such person's powers and discharge of such person's duties, to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances;
- a fiduciary obligation, in the exercise of our powers entrusted to him or her, not to place himself or herself in a position where his or her duty to us and his or her interests may conflict; and
- a duty not to direct a person or entity related or connected to a director, supervisor, president, vice president or senior officer in certain relationships enumerated in the articles of association to act in a manner which such director, supervisor, president, vice president or senior officer is prohibited from doing.

Subject to compliance with all relevant laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders in a general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his term of office. Subject to certain qualifications, a director, supervisor, president, vice president or other senior officer may be relieved of liability for a specific breach of his or her duties by the informed consent of shareholders in a general meeting.

Board of Supervisors

The board of supervisors is composed of seven members appointed to monitor our financial matters:

- to verify financial reports and other financial information which have been prepared by the board and which are proposed to be presented at shareholders' meetings, and
- to oversee our directors, president, vice presidents and other senior officers in order to prevent such persons from abusing their authority or infringing upon our interest.

The rights of the board of supervisors are generally limited to investigating and reporting to shareholders and management on our affairs and to calling shareholders' extraordinary general meetings.

One member of the board of supervisors will be an employee representative appointed by our employees. The remaining members will be appointed by the shareholders in a general meeting. One member of the board of supervisors shall be the chairman. A member of the board of supervisors may not be a director, the president, a vice president or the chief financial officer. The term of office of each member of the board of supervisors is three years, including the term of office of the chairman of the board of supervisors, both of which terms of office are renewable upon re-election and re-appointment. Reasonable expenses incurred by the board of supervisors in carrying out its duties will be paid by us.

The board of supervisors is accountable, and will report, to the shareholders in the shareholders' general meetings.

Restrictions on Large or Controlling Shareholders

Our articles of association provide that, in addition to any obligation imposed by laws and administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchanges on which our

H shares are listed, a controlling shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the shareholders generally or of some part of the shareholders:

- to relieve a director or supervisor from his or her duty to act honestly in our best interests;
- to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor of our assets in any way, including, without limitation, opportunities which may benefit us; or
- to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor of the individual rights of other shareholders, including, without limitation, rights to distributions and voting rights, except according to a restructuring of our company which has been submitted for approval by the shareholders in a general meeting in accordance with our articles of association.

A controlling shareholder, however, will not be precluded by our articles of association or any laws and administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchanges on which our H shares are listed from voting on these matters.

A controlling shareholder is defined by our articles of association as any person who acting alone or in concert with others:

- is in a position to elect more than one-half of the board of directors;
- has the power to exercise, or to control the exercise of, 30% or more of our voting rights;
- holds 30% or more of our issued and outstanding shares; or
- has de facto control of us in any other way.

Amended Articles of Association Pending for Approval

In November 2006, our shareholders approved our amended articles of association at the annual general meeting of shareholders, which is subject to the applicable regulatory approval and filing before they become effective. Accordingly, we are still governed by our current articles of association in effect. We expect the approval for our amended articles of association to be granted in due course.

The amended articles of association purports to expand our business scope to allow us to operate convenient stores in service stations and provide related services.

Share Capital Structure

Upon the completion of our company's global initial public offering, the aggregate number of common shares of our company was 175,824,176,000, of which the promoter CNPC held 158,241,758,000 shares, representing 90% of our total share capital at the time, and H shareholders held 17,582,418,000 shares, representing 10% of our total share capital at the time.

On September 15, 2005, our company issued 3,196,801,818 new shares. Concurrently CNPC sold 319,680,182 state-owned shares it held. Following these transactions, the share capital structure of our company changed to the following: the number of common shares is 179,020,977,818, of which CNPC holds 157,922,077,818 shares, representing 88.21% of the total share capital, and H shareholders hold 21,098,900,000 shares, representing 11.79% of the total share capital.

Material Contracts

The following contracts, not being contracts in the ordinary course of business, have been entered into by our company and/or its subsidiaries within the two years preceding the date of this annual report and are or may be material.

- Share Purchase Agreement in respect of the shares of PetroKazakhstan, dated August 23, 2006, between Pervinage Holding B.V. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of CNPC E&D) and 819 Luxembourg S. a r. l. (an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of CNPC);
- Capital Contribution Agreement, dated June 9, 2005, among China National Oil and Gas Exploration and Development Corporation, Central Asia Petroleum Company Limited, Zhong You Kan Tan Kai Fa Company Limited and our company (English Translation); and
- Transfer Agreement, dated June 9, 2005, between Zhong You Kan Tan Kai Fa Company Limited and our company (English Translation).

Exchange Controls

The Renminbi currently is not a freely convertible currency. We receive most of our revenues in Renminbi. A portion of our Renminbi revenues must be converted into other currencies to meet our foreign currency obligations. We have substantial requirements for foreign currency, including:

- debt service on foreign currency-denominated debt;
- purchases of imported equipment and materials; and
- payment of any dividends declared in respect of the H shares.

Under the existing foreign exchange regulations in China, we may undertake current account foreign exchange transactions, including the payment of dividends, without prior approval from the State Administration of Foreign Exchange by producing commercial documents evidencing such transactions, provided that they are processed through Chinese banks licensed to engage in foreign exchange transactions. The PRC government has stated publicly that it intends to make the Renminbi freely convertible in the future. However, uncertainty exists as to whether the PRC government may restrict access to foreign currency for current account transactions if foreign currency becomes scarce in the PRC.

Foreign exchange transactions under the capital account, including principal payments with respect to foreign currency-denominated obligations, continue to be subject to limitations and require the prior approval of the State Administration of Foreign Exchange. These limitations could affect our ability to obtain foreign exchange through debt financing, or to obtain foreign exchange for capital expenditures.

We have been, and will continue to be, affected by changes in exchange rates in connection with our ability to meet our foreign currency obligations and will be affected by such changes in connection with our ability to pay dividends on the H shares in Hong Kong dollars and on ADSs in US dollars. We believe that we have or will be able to obtain sufficient foreign exchange to continue to satisfy these obligations. We do not engage in any financial contract or other arrangement to hedge our currency exposure.

We are not aware of any other PRC laws, decrees or regulations that restrict the export or import of capital or that affect the remittance of dividends, interest or other payments to non-resident holders.

Taxation

The following discussion addresses the main PRC and United States tax consequences of the ownership of H shares or ADSs purchased held by the investor as capital assets.

PRC Taxation

Dividends and Individual Investors

Under the Provisional Regulations of China Concerning Questions of Taxation on Enterprises Experimenting with the Share System (the “Provisional Regulations”) and other applicable tax laws and regulations, dividends paid by PRC companies on shares experimenting with the share system to individuals are generally subject to a PRC withholding tax of 20%. However, on July 21, 1993, the PRC State Administration of Taxation issued the Notice Concerning the Taxation of Gains on Transfer and Dividends from Shares (Equities) Received by Foreign Investment Enterprises, Foreign Enterprises and Foreign Individuals (the “Tax Notice”). Under the Tax Notice, dividends paid by a PRC company to foreign persons with respect to shares listed on an overseas stock exchange (“Overseas Shares”), including the H shares and ADSs, are not subject to PRC withholding tax for the time being.

The Individual Income Tax Law of the PRC was amended effective January 1, 1994 and states that it supersedes any contradictory prior administrative regulation concerning individual income tax. The amended Individual Income Tax Law can be interpreted as providing that all foreign individuals are subject to the 20% withholding tax on dividends paid by a PRC company on its Overseas Shares unless specifically exempted by the financial authority of the State Council of the PRC. However, in a letter dated July 26, 1994 to the former State Commission for Restructuring the Economic System, the former State Council Securities Committee and the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the PRC State Administration of Taxation restated the exemption. In the event that the letter is withdrawn, a 20% tax may be withheld on dividends paid to you, subject to reduction by an applicable tax treaty between China and the country where you reside. To date, the relevant tax authorities have not collected withholding tax from dividend payments on such shares exempted under the Tax Notice.

Dividends and Foreign Enterprises

According to the Provisional Regulations and other applicable tax laws and regulations, dividends paid by PRC companies to foreign enterprises are ordinarily subject to a PRC withholding tax levied at a flat rate of 20%. However, according to the Tax Notice, a foreign enterprise with no permanent establishment in China receiving dividends paid on Overseas Shares will temporarily not be subject to the 20% withholding tax. If such withholding tax becomes applicable in the future, such rate may still be reduced under relevant tax treaties, if applicable.

Tax Treaties

If you are a resident or citizen of a country that has entered into a double-taxation treaty with the PRC, you may be entitled to a reduction in the amount of tax withheld, if any, imposed on the payment of dividends. The PRC currently has such treaties with a number of countries, including but not limited to:

- the United States;
- Australia;
- Canada;
- France;
- Germany;
- Japan;
- Malaysia;
- Singapore;

- the United Kingdom; and
- the Netherlands.

Under each one of such treaties, the rate of withholding tax imposed by China's taxation authorities is generally reduced. For example, under the double taxation treaty between China and the United States, China may tax dividends paid by us to an eligible U.S. holder up to a maximum of 10% of their gross amount. Under the treaty, an eligible U.S. holder is a person who, by reason of domicile, residence, place or head office, place of incorporation or any other criterion of similar nature is subject to taxation in the United States, as applicable under the treaty's "treaty shopping provisions".

Capital Gains

The Tax Notice provides that gains realized by foreign enterprises upon the sale of Overseas Shares which are not held by entities established by such enterprises in the PRC and gains realized by foreign individuals upon the sale of Overseas Shares are not subject to withholding tax for the time being. However, as far as individuals are concerned, the Individual Income Tax Law of the PRC, as amended on October 31, 1993 and effective on January 1, 1994, provides for a capital gains tax of 20% on individuals. On January 28, 1994, the Provisions for Implementing the Individual Income Tax Law of the PRC was promulgated which provides that the measures to levy individual income tax on the gains realized on the sale of shares will be made in the future by the Ministry of Finance and subject to the approval of the State Council. On June 20, 1994, February 9, 1996 and March 30, 1998, the Ministry of Finance and the State Administration of Taxation issued notices providing that temporarily no capital gains tax will be imposed on gains from the sale of shares by individuals. However, it is uncertain whether the above exemption for foreign enterprises and foreign individuals will continue to apply or be renewed in the future. If such exemption does not apply or is not renewed, and the Tax Notice is found not to apply, as a holder of H shares or ADSs you may be subject to a 20% tax on capital gains, unless reduced by an applicable double taxation treaty.

Additional PRC Tax Considerations

Under the Provisional Regulations of the People's Republic of China Concerning the Stamp Duty, a stamp duty is not imposed by the PRC on the transfer of shares, such as the H shares or ADSs, of PRC publicly traded companies that take place outside of China.

United States Federal Income Taxation

The following is a general discussion of the material United States federal income tax consequences of purchasing, owning and disposing of the H shares or ADSs if you are a U.S. holder, as defined below, and hold the H shares or ADSs as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code. This discussion does not address all of the tax consequences relating to the purchase, ownership and disposition of the H shares or ADSs, and does not take into account U.S. holders who may be subject to special rules including:

- tax-exempt entities;
- certain insurance companies;
- broker-dealers;
- traders in securities that elect to mark to market;
- U.S. holders liable for alternative minimum tax;
- U.S. holders that own 10% or more of our voting stock;

- U.S. holders that hold the H shares or ADSs as part of a straddle or a hedging or conversion transaction; or
- U.S. holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar.

This discussion is based on the Code, its legislative history, final, temporary and proposed United States Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, published rulings and court decisions as in effect on the date hereof, all of which are subject to change, or changes in interpretation, possibly with retroactive effect. In addition, this discussion is based in part upon representations of the depository and the assumption that each obligation in the deposit agreement and any related agreements will be performed according to its terms.

You are a “U.S. holder” if you are:

- a citizen or resident of the United States for United States federal income tax purposes;
- a corporation, or other entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof;
- an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax without regard to its source; or
- a trust:
 - subject to the primary supervision of a United States court and the control of one or more United States persons; or
 - that has elected to be treated as a United States person under applicable United States Treasury regulations.

If a partnership holds the H shares or ADSs, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership that holds the H shares or ADSs, we urge you to consult your tax advisors regarding the consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the H shares or ADSs.

This discussion does not address any aspects of United States taxation other than federal income taxation.

We urge you to consult your tax advisors regarding the United States federal, state, local and non-United States tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the H shares or ADSs.

In general, if you hold ADRs evidencing ADSs, you will be treated as the owner of the H shares represented by the ADSs. The following discussion assumes that we are not a passive foreign investment company, or PFIC, as discussed under “PFIC Rules” below.

Distributions on the H Shares or ADSs

The gross amount of any distribution (without reduction for any PRC tax withheld) we make on the H shares or ADSs out of our current or accumulated earnings and profits (as determined for United States federal income tax purposes) will be includible in your gross income as dividend income when the distribution is actually or constructively received by you, in the case of the H shares, or by the depository in the case of ADSs. Subject to certain limitations, dividends paid to non-corporate U.S. holders, including individuals, may be eligible for a reduced rate of taxation if we are deemed to be a “qualified foreign corporation” for United States federal income tax purposes. A qualified foreign corporation includes:

- a foreign corporation that is eligible for the benefits of a comprehensive income tax treaty with the United States that includes an exchange of information program; or

- a foreign corporation if its stock with respect to which a dividend is paid (or ADSs backed by such stock) is readily tradable on an established securities market within the United States, but does not include an otherwise qualified foreign corporation that is a PFIC. We believe that we will be a qualified foreign corporation so long as we are not a PFIC and we are considered eligible for the benefits of the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the People's Republic of China for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Tax Evasion with Respect to Taxes on Income, or the Treaty. Our status as a qualified foreign corporation, however, may change.

Distributions that exceed our current and accumulated earnings and profits will be treated as a return of capital to you to the extent of your basis in the H shares or ADSs and thereafter as capital gain. Any dividend will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction generally allowed to United States corporations in respect of dividends received from United States corporations. The amount of any distribution of property other than cash will be the fair market value of such property on the date of such distribution.

If we make a distribution paid in HK dollars, you will be considered to receive the U.S. dollar value of the distribution determined at the spot HK dollar/U.S. dollar rate on the date such distribution is received by you or by the depository, regardless of whether you or the depository convert the distribution into U.S. dollars. Any gain or loss resulting from currency exchange fluctuations during the period from the date the dividend payment is includible in your income to the date you or the depository convert the distribution into U.S. dollars will be treated as United States source ordinary income or loss for foreign tax credit limitation purposes.

Subject to various limitations, any PRC tax withheld from distributions in accordance with PRC law, as limited by the Treaty, will be deductible or creditable against your United States federal income tax liability. For foreign tax credit limitation purposes, dividends paid on the H shares or ADSs will be foreign source income, and for taxable years beginning on or before December 31, 2006, generally will be treated as "passive income" or, in the case of some U.S. holders, "financial services income." For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2006, such dividends generally will be treated as "passive category income" or, in the case of some U.S. holders, "general category income." You may not be able to claim a foreign tax credit (and instead may claim a deduction) for non-United States taxes imposed on dividends paid on the H Shares or ADSs if you (i) have held the H Shares or ADSs for less than a specified minimum period during which you are not protected from risk of loss with respect to such shares, or (ii) are obligated to make payments related to the dividends (for example, pursuant to a short sale).

Sale, Exchange or Other Disposition

Upon a sale, exchange or other disposition of the H shares or ADSs, you will recognize a capital gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference between the U.S. dollar value of the amount realized and your tax basis, determined in U.S. dollars, in such H shares or ADSs. Any gain or loss will generally be United States source gain or loss for foreign tax credit limitation purposes. Capital gain of certain non-corporate U.S. holders, including individuals, is generally taxed at a maximum rate of 15% where the property has been held more than one year. Your ability to deduct capital losses is subject to limitations.

If you are paid in a currency other than U.S. dollars, any gain or loss resulting from currency exchange fluctuations during the period from the date of the payment resulting from sale, exchange or other disposition to the date you convert the payment into U.S. dollars will be treated as United States source ordinary income or loss for foreign tax credit limitation purposes.

PFIC Rules

In general, a foreign corporation is a PFIC for any taxable year in which, after applying relevant look-through rules with respect to the income and assets of subsidiaries:

- 75% or more of its gross income consists of passive income, such as dividends, interest, rents and royalties; or
- 50% or more of the average quarterly value of its assets consists of assets that produce, or are held for the production of, passive income.

We believe that we will not meet either of the PFIC tests in the current or subsequent taxable years and therefore will not be treated as a PFIC for such periods. However, there can be no assurance that we will not be a PFIC in the current or subsequent taxable years.

If we were a PFIC in any taxable year that you held the H shares or ADSs, you generally would be subject to special rules with respect to “excess distributions” made by us on the H shares or ADSs and with respect to gain from your disposition of the H shares or ADSs. An “excess distribution” generally is defined as the excess of the distributions you receive with respect to the H shares or ADSs in any taxable year over 125% of the average annual distributions you have received from us during the shorter of the three preceding years, or your holding period for the H shares or ADSs. Generally, you would be required to allocate any excess distribution or gain from the disposition of the H shares or ADSs ratably over your holding period for the H shares or ADSs. The portion of the excess distribution or gain allocated to a prior taxable year, other than a year prior to the first year in which we became a PFIC, would be taxed at the highest United States federal income tax rate on ordinary income in effect for such taxable year, and you would be subject to an interest charge on the resulting tax liability, determined as if the tax liability had been due with respect to such particular taxable years. The portion of the excess distribution or gain that is not allocated to prior taxable years, together with the portion allocated to the years prior to the first year in which we became a PFIC, would be included in your gross income for the taxable year of the excess distribution or disposition and taxed as ordinary income.

The foregoing rules with respect to excess distributions and dispositions may be avoided or reduced if you are eligible for and timely make a valid “mark-to-market” election. If your H shares or ADSs were treated as shares regularly traded on a “qualified exchange” for United States federal income tax purposes and a valid mark-to-market election was made, in calculating your taxable income for each taxable year you generally would be required to take into account as ordinary income or loss the difference, if any, between the fair market value and the adjusted tax basis of your H shares or ADSs at the end of your taxable year. However, the amount of loss you would be allowed is limited to the extent of the net amount of previously included income as a result of the mark-to-market election. The New York Stock Exchange on which the ADSs are traded is a qualified exchange for United States federal income tax purposes.

Alternatively, a timely election to treat us as a qualified electing fund under Section 1295 of the Code could be made to avoid the foregoing rules with respect to excess distributions and dispositions. You should be aware, however, that if we become a PFIC, we do not intend to satisfy record keeping requirements that would permit you to make a qualified electing fund election.

If you own the H shares or ADSs during any year that we are a PFIC, you must file Internal Revenue Service, or IRS, Form 8621. We encourage you to consult your own tax advisor concerning the United States federal income tax consequences of holding the H shares or ADSs that would arise if we were considered a PFIC.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

In general, information reporting requirements will apply to dividends in respect of the H shares or ADSs or the proceeds of the sale, exchange, or redemption of the H shares or ADSs paid within the United States, and in some cases, outside of the United States, other than to various exempt recipients, including corporations. In addition, you may, under some circumstances, be subject to “backup withholding” with respect to dividends paid on the H shares or ADSs or the proceeds of any sale, exchange or transfer of the H shares or ADSs, unless you

- are a corporation or fall within various other exempt categories, and, when required, demonstrate this fact; or
- provide a correct taxpayer identification number on a properly completed IRS Form W-9 or a substitute form, certify that you are exempt from backup withholding and otherwise comply with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules.

Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules generally will be creditable against your United States federal income tax liability provided that you furnish the required information to the IRS in a timely manner. If you do not provide a correct taxpayer identification number you may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS.

Significant Differences in Corporate Governance Practices

ITEM 11 — QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

In the normal course of business, we hold or issue various financial instruments which expose us to interest rate and foreign exchange rate risks. Additionally, our operations are affected by certain commodity price movements. We historically have not used derivative instruments for hedging or trading purposes. Such activities are subject to policies approved by our senior management. Substantially all of the financial instruments we hold are for purposes other than trading. We regard an effective market risk management system as an important element of our treasury function and are currently enhancing our systems. A primary objective of our market risk management is to implement certain methodologies to better measure and monitor risk exposures.

The following discussions and tables, which constitute “forward-looking statements” that involve risks and uncertainties, summarize our market-sensitive financial instruments including fair value, maturity and contract terms. Such discussions address market risk only and do not present other risks which we face in the normal course of business.

Interest Rate Risk

Our interest risk exposure arises from changing interest rates. The tables below provide information about our financial instruments including various debt obligations that are sensitive to changes in interest rates. The tables present principal cash flows and related weighted-average interest rates at expected maturity dates. Weighted-average variable rates are based on effective rates as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006. The information is presented in Renminbi equivalents, our reporting currency.

Foreign Exchange Rate Risk

We conduct our business primarily in Renminbi. However, a portion of our RMB revenues are converted into other currencies to meet foreign currency financial instrument obligations and to pay for imported equipment, crude oil and other materials. Foreign currency payments for imported equipment represented 18.6%, 29.1% and 33.6% of our total payments for equipment in 2004, 2005 and 2006 respectively. Foreign currency payments for imported crude oil and other materials represented 9.6%, 3.4% and 5.5% of our total payments for materials in 2004, 2005 and 2006 respectively.

The Renminbi is not a freely convertible currency. Limitation in foreign exchange transactions imposed by the PRC government could cause future exchange rates to vary significantly from current or historical exchange rates. The tables below provide information about our financial instruments including foreign currency denominated debt instruments that are sensitive to foreign currency exchange rates. The tables below summarize such information by presenting principal cash flows and related weighted-average interest rates at expected maturity dates in RMB equivalents, using the exchange rates in effect as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

⁽¹⁾ Due to the declining interest rates in recent years in China, the PRC government has implemented a program to adjust interest rates on certain fixed RMB loans periodically to reflect the market rates in effect published by the People's Bank of China, or the PBOC, from time to time. As a result, these previously fixed RMB loans are categorized as variable rate loans as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006. The newly adjusted rates usually become effective one year after the announcement by the PBOC. The average interest rates on these loans are calculated based on the then effective rates as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

Commodity Price Risk

We are engaged in a broad range of petroleum related activities. The hydrocarbon commodity markets are influenced by global as well as regional supply and demand conditions. We publish the prices of crude oil supplied to the domestic and foreign market on a monthly basis with reference to international prices of crude oil. A decline in prices of crude oil and refined products could adversely affect our financial performance. We historically have not used commodity derivative instruments to hedge the potential price fluctuations of crude oil and other refined products. Therefore, during 2007 and years thereafter, we were exposed to the general price fluctuations of broadly traded oil and gas commodities.

Evaluation of the Management on Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our Chairman, who performs the functions of Chief Executive Officer, and our Chief Financial Officer, after evaluating the effectiveness of PetroChina's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in the United States Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d(e)) as of the end of the period covered by this annual report, have concluded that, as of such date, our company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that material information required to be disclosed in the reports that we file and furnish under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and regulations.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Our company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f). Under the supervision and with the participation of our company's management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, our company evaluated the effectiveness of the its internal control over financial reporting based on criteria established in the framework in Internal Control — Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on this evaluation, our company's management has concluded that its internal control over financial reporting was effective as of December 31, 2006.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies and procedures may deteriorate.

Our independent registered public accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers (Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong), has audited management's assessment of the effectiveness of our company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006, as stated in their report which is included elsewhere in this annual report.

ITEM 16A — AUDIT COMMITTEE FINANCIAL EXPERT

Our audit committee is composed of three non-executive independent directors, Messrs. Franco Bernabè, Chee-Chen Tung and Liu Hongru, and one non-executive director, Gong Huazhang. See "Item 6 — Directors, Senior Management and Employees — Board Practices — Audit Committee". Our board of directors has determined that Liu Hongru, our non-executive independent director is qualified as a “financial expert,” as defined in Item 16A of Form 20-F. In June 2006, with the consent of the audit committee, we retained COSO Chairman, Dr. Larry E Rittenberg, as the financial advisor to our audit committee to give assistance with relevant work.

ITEM 16B — CODE OF ETHICS

We have adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer, other executives and senior officers and a separate Code of Ethics that applies to all of our employees. We have included these two Codes of Ethics as Exhibit 16.1 and Exhibit 16.2 to this annual report.

These two Codes of Ethics are also posted on our website, www.petrochina.com.cn, and may be accessed as follows:

2. Next, click on “Corporate Governance Structure”.
3. Finally, click on “Code of Ethics for Senior Management” or “Code of Ethics for Employees of PetroChina Company Limited”.

ITEM 16C — PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

PricewaterhouseCoopers (Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong) has served as PetroChina’s independent public accountants for each of the fiscal years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2006, for which audited financial statements appear in this annual report on Form 20-F. The auditors are elected annually at the annual general meeting of PetroChina.

The offices of PricewaterhouseCoopers (Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong) are located at Prince’s Building, 22nd Floor, Central, Hong Kong.

The following table presents the aggregate fees for professional audit services and other services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers (Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong) to PetroChina for each of the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2006.

	December 31,

Audit fees	50	140
Audit-related fees	—	—
Tax fees	—*	—*
All other fees	—	25
Total	50	165

Audit fees consist of fees billed for the annual audit services and other audit services, which are those services that only the external auditor reasonably can provide, and include the group audit, statutory audits, and assistance with and review of documents filed with SEC.

Tax fees include fees billed for tax compliance services and the aggregate fees are less than RMB 1 million for each of years ended December 31, 2005 and 2006.

Included in other fees mainly include fees approved and billed in 2006 in relation to the services in connection with the Company’s preparedness project on internal control procedures over financial reporting under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

Audit Committee Pre-approved Policies and Procedures

Currently, all non-audit services to be provided by our independent public accountants, PricewaterhouseCoopers (Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong), must be approved by our audit committee.

During 2006, services relating to all audit-related fees provided to us by PricewaterhouseCoopers (Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong) were approved by our audit committee in accordance with the de minimis exception to the pre-approval requirement provided by paragraph (c)(7)(i)(C) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X.

MANAGEMENT'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f). Under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, the Company evaluated the effectiveness of the its internal control over financial reporting based on criteria established in the framework in Internal Control-integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on this evaluation, the Company's management has concluded that its internal control over financial reporting was effective as of December 31, 2006.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies and procedures may deteriorate.

The Company's independent registered public accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers (Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong), has audited management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006, as stated in their report which is included herein.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of PetroChina Company Limited:

We have completed an integrated audit of PetroChina Company Limited's 2006 consolidated financial statements and of its internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006 and audits of its 2005 and 2004 consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Our opinions, based on our audits, are presented below.

Consolidated financial statements

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated statements of income, consolidated balance sheets and the related consolidated statements of cash flows and of changes in equity ("consolidated financial statements") present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of PetroChina Company Limited ("the Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") at December 31, 2006 and 2005, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2006 in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit of financial statements includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

International Financial Reporting Standards vary in certain significant respects from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The application of the latter would have affected the determination of consolidated net income for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2006 and the determination of consolidated equity at December 31, 2006 and 2005 to the extent summarized in Note 37 to the consolidated financial statements.

Internal control over financial reporting

Also, in our opinion, management's assessment, included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting, that the Company maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006 based on criteria established in Internal Control — Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO), is fairly stated, in all material respects, based on those criteria. Furthermore, in our opinion, the Company maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006, based on criteria established in Internal Control — Integrated Framework issued by the COSO. The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. Our responsibility is to express opinions on management's assessment and on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit of internal control over financial reporting in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. An audit of internal control over financial reporting includes obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, evaluating management's assessment, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control, and performing such other procedures as we consider necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinions.

A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

1 ORGANIZATION AND PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

PetroChina Company Limited (the “Company”) was established in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC” or “China”) on November 5, 1999 as a joint stock company with limited liability as a result of a group restructuring (the “Restructuring”) of China National Petroleum Corporation (“CNPC”) in preparation for the listing of the Company’s shares in Hong Kong and in the United States of America in 2000 (See Note 27). The Company and its subsidiaries are collectively referred to as the “Group”.

The Group is principally engaged in (i) the exploration, development and production of crude oil and natural gas, (ii) the refining, transportation, storage and marketing of crude oil and petroleum products, (iii) the production and sale of chemicals, and (iv) the transmission, marketing and sale of natural gas (See Note 36).

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The consolidated financial statements of the Group (comprising the consolidated statements of income, consolidated balance sheets, consolidated statements of cash flows and the consolidated statements of changes in equity of the Group) have been prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”). The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared under the historical cost convention except as disclosed in the accounting policies below.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based on management’s best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results may ultimately differ from those estimates. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 4.

In 2006, the Group adopted the following amendments and interpretations to existing standards which are relevant to its operations. The adoption of these amendments and interpretations did not result currently in changes to the Group’s accounting policies. In summary:

(a) Amendments and interpretations to existing standards effective in 2006

- International Accounting Standard (“IAS”) No 39 (IAS 39) and IFRS 4 (Amendment), Financial Guarantee Contracts; and
- International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (“IFRIC”) Interpretation 4, Determining whether an Arrangement contains a Lease;

(b) Interpretations to existing standards early adopted by the Group

- IFRIC Interpretation 8, Scope of IFRS 2 (effective for annual periods beginning on or after May 1, 2006)

The following amendments and interpretations are mandatory for accounting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2006 but are not relevant to the Group’s operations:

- IAS 19 (Amendment), Employee Benefits: Actuarial Gains and Losses, Group Plans and Disclosures;

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — (Continued) (Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

- IAS 21 (Amendment), Net Investment in a Foreign Operation;
- IAS 39 (Amendment), Cash Flow Hedge Accounting of Forecast Intragroup Transactions;
- IAS 39 (Amendment), The Fair Value Option;
- IFRIC Interpretation 5, Rights to Interests arising from Decommissioning, Restoration and Environmental Rehabilitation Funds; and
- IFRIC Interpretation 6, Liabilities arising from Participating in a Specific Market — Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment.

In accordance with the acquisition agreement between the Company and CNPC dated March 28, 2005, the Company acquired the refining and petrochemical businesses owned by CNPC's wholly-owned subsidiaries, Ningxia Dayuan Refinery and Petrochemical Company Limited ("Dayuan") and Qingyang Refinery and Petrochemical Company Limited ("Qingyang") with a total consideration of Renminbi 9 ("RMB", the national currency of the PRC).

The acquisition was a combination of businesses under common control since the Company and CNPC's refinery and petrochemical businesses owned by Dayuan and Qingyang are under the common control of CNPC. As a result, the Company accounted for the acquisition in a manner similar to a uniting of interests, whereby the assets and liabilities acquired are accounted for at historical cost to CNPC (net liabilities of RMB 183 at the effective date). The consolidated financial statements have been restated to give effect to the acquisition with all periods presented as if the operations of the Group and these refinery and petrochemical businesses have always been combined. The difference between RMB 9 payable and the net liabilities transferred from CNPC have been adjusted against equity.

In August 2005 the shareholders of the Company approved the acquisition and transfer agreements relating to the Company's acquisition of a 50% ownership interest in CNPC Exploration and Development Company Limited ("CNPC E&D"). CNPC E&D was formed in 2005 and was wholly owned by China National Oil and Gas Exploration and Development Corporation ("CNODC", wholly owned by CNPC) and one of its subsidiaries. Under the terms of the related agreements, CNODC transferred certain oil and gas exploration operations into CNPC E&D and the Company contributed to CNPC E&D its wholly-owned subsidiary, PetroChina International Limited ("PTRI"), and cash amounting to approximately RMB 20,162, which is the difference between the cash contribution of RMB 20,741 payable by the Company according to the acquisition agreement and cash consideration of RMB 579 for PTRI receivable by the Company.

The terms of the agreements grant the Company the right to appoint four of the seven directors of CNPC E&D and enable the Company to maintain effective control over CNPC E&D.

Similar to the acquisition of the refinery and petrochemical businesses from CNPC described above, the investment in CNPC E&D and related transactions have been accounted for in a manner similar to uniting of interests as all entities involved are under common control by CNPC. The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been restated as if the operations of the Company and CNPC E&D have always been combined. The payment was made directly to CNPC E&D, therefore the difference between RMB 20,162 paid and the net assets of RMB 35,551 at the effective date acquired (including RMB 20,162 contributed by the Company and RMB 50 for the contributed paid-in capital by CNODC and its subsidiary) have been adjusted against equity.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — (Continued) (Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

3 SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries. Subsidiaries are those entities in which the Group has an interest of more than one half of the voting rights or otherwise has power to govern the financial and operating policies.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group and are no longer consolidated from the date that control ceases. Other than the business combination under common control for which the accounting policy is disclosed in Note 2, the purchase method of accounting is used to account for the acquisition of subsidiaries. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the fair value of the assets given up, shares issued or liabilities undertaken at the date of acquisition plus costs directly attributable to the acquisition. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date, irrespective of the extent of any minority interest. The excess of the cost of acquisition over the fair value of the Group's share of the identifiable net assets of the subsidiary acquired is recorded as goodwill. If the cost of acquisition is less than the fair value of the identifiable net assets of subsidiary acquired, the difference is recognized directly in the consolidated statements of income. Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealized gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated; unrealized losses are also eliminated but considered an impairment indicator of the asset transferred. Where necessary, accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

(b) Investments in equity affiliates

Equity affiliates are entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control, generally accompanying a shareholding of between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in equity affiliates are accounted for by the equity method in the consolidated financial statements of the Group and are initially recognized at cost. Under this method the Group's share of the post-acquisition income or losses of equity affiliates is recognized in the consolidated statements of income and its share of post-acquisition movements in reserves is recognized in reserves. The cumulative post-acquisition movements are adjusted against the cost of the investment. When the Group's share of losses in an equity affiliate equals or exceeds its interest in the equity affiliate, including any other unsecured receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the equity affiliate. Unrealized gains on transactions between the Group and its equity affiliates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the equity affiliates; unrealized losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. The Group's investment in equity affiliates includes goodwill identified on acquisition, net of any accumulated loss and is tested for impairment as part of the overall balance. Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of an acquisition over the fair value of the Group's share of the net identifiable assets of the acquired associate at the date of acquisition.

(c) Investments in jointly controlled entities

Jointly controlled entities are those over which the Group has contractual arrangements to jointly share control with one or more parties. The Group's interest in joint ventures is accounted for by the equity method of accounting (Note 3(b)) in the consolidated financial statements.

(d) Transactions with minority interest

The Group applies a policy of treating transactions with minority interest as transactions with equity participants of the Group. Gains and losses resulting from the disposals to minority interest are recorded in equity. The differences between any consideration paid and the relevant share of the carrying value of net assets of the subsidiary acquired, resulting from the purchase from minority interest, are recorded in equity.

(e) Foreign currencies

Items included in the financial statements of each entity in the Group are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates ("the functional currency"). Most assets and operations of the Group are located in the PRC, and the functional currency of the Company and most of the consolidated subsidiaries is RMB. For the majority of the overseas oil and gas exploration and production operations, the functional currency is United States Dollar. The consolidated financial statements and the balance sheet of the Company are presented in RMB which is the presentation currency of the Company and most of the consolidated subsidiaries.

Foreign currency transactions of the Group are accounted for at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transactions; monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at balance sheet date exchange rates; gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities are recognized in the consolidated statements of income. Statements of income and cash flows of the Group's entities that have a functional currency different from the Group's presentation currency are translated into the Group's presentation currency at average exchange rates for the year and their balance sheets are translated at the exchange rates at the balance sheet date. Currency translation differences are recognized in shareholders' equity.

The Group did not enter into material hedge contracts during any of the years presented. No foreign currency exchange gains or losses were capitalized in any of the years presented.

(f) Financial instruments

Financial instruments carried at the balance sheet date include cash and cash equivalents, investments (including available-for-sale investments and time deposits), receivables, payables, lease obligations and debts. Where necessary, the particular recognition methods adopted are disclosed in the individual policy statements associated with each item.

Derivatives are initially recognized at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into with subsequent changes in the fair value recognized in the consolidated statements of income. The Group did not hold any derivative financial instruments for hedging or risk management purposes in any of the years presented.

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

(g) Investments

The Group classifies its investments into the following categories: at fair value through income or loss, held-to-maturity, loans and receivables and available-for-sale.

Investments that are acquired principally for the purpose of generating a profit from short-term fluctuations in price are classified as investments at fair value through income or loss and included in current assets. The Group did not hold any investments in this category in any of the years presented.

Investments with fixed maturity that the management has the intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as held-to-maturity and are included in current assets if their respective maturity dates are twelve months or less from balance sheet date, or in non-current assets if their respective maturity dates are more than twelve months from balance sheet date; the Group did not hold any investments in this category in any of the years presented.

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for those with maturities greater than 12 months from the balance sheet date. These are classified as non-current assets. Loans and receivables are initially recorded at fair value and subsequently at amortized cost.

Available-for-sale investments are non-derivatives that are either designated in this category or not classified in any other categories; these are included in non-current assets unless management intends to dispose of the investment within twelve months of the balance sheet date. Management determines the appropriate classification of the investments at the time of the purchase and re-evaluates such designation on a regular basis.

Regular purchases and sales of available-for-sale investments are recognized on settlement date, the date that the asset is delivered to or by the Group (the effective acquisition or sale date). Available-for-sale investments are initially recognized at fair value plus transaction costs. Available-for-sale investments are derecognized when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership in the investment. Available-for-sale investments are measured at fair value except where there are no quoted market prices in active markets and the fair values cannot be reliably measured using valuation techniques. Available-for-sale investments carried at cost are subject to review for impairment.

(h) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, including oil and gas properties (Note 3(i)), are initially recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation, depletion and amortization. Cost represents the purchase price of the asset and other costs incurred to bring the asset into existing use. Subsequent to their initial recognition, property, plant and equipment are carried at revalued amounts. Revaluations are performed by independent qualified valuers periodically.

In the intervening years between independent revaluations, the directors review the carrying values of the property, plant and equipment and adjustment is made where the carrying value differs from fair value.

Increases in the carrying amount arising on revaluation are credited to the revaluation reserve. Decreases in valuation of property, plant and equipment are first offset against increases from earlier revaluations in respect of the same asset and are thereafter charged to the consolidated statements of income. All other decreases in valuation are charged to the consolidated statements of income.

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

Any subsequent increases are credited to the consolidated statements of income up to the amount previously charged.

Revaluation surpluses realized through the depreciation or disposal of revalued assets are retained in the revaluation reserve and will not be available for offsetting against possible future revaluation losses.

Depreciation, to write off the cost or valuation of each asset, other than oil and gas properties (Note 3(i)), to their residual values over their estimated useful lives is calculated using the straight-line method.

The Group uses the following useful lives for depreciation purposes:

Buildings	20-40 years
Plant and equipment	10-25 years
Motor vehicles	7-15 years

No depreciation is provided for construction in progress until they are completed and ready for use.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date.

Property, plant and equipment, including oil and gas properties (Note 3(i)), are reviewed for possible impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the carrying amount of a cash generating unit exceeds the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and its value in use, which is the estimated net present value of future cash flows to be derived from the continuing use of the assets.

Gains and losses on disposal of property, plant and equipment are determined by reference to their carrying amount and are recorded in the consolidated statements of income.

Interest and other costs on debts to finance the construction of property, plant and equipment are capitalized during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the property for its intended use. Costs for planned major maintenance activities, primarily related to refinery turnarounds, are expensed as incurred except for costs of components that result in improvements and betterments which are capitalized as part of property, plant and equipment and depreciated over their useful lives.

(i) Oil and gas properties

The successful efforts method of accounting is used for oil and gas exploration and production activities. Under this method, all costs for development wells, support equipment and facilities, and proved mineral interests in oil and gas properties are capitalized. Geological and geophysical costs are expensed when incurred. Costs of exploratory wells are capitalized as construction in progress pending determination of whether the wells find proved oil and gas reserves. Proved oil and gas reserves are the estimated quantities of crude oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids which geological and engineering data demonstrate with reasonable certainty to be recoverable in future years from known reservoirs under existing economic and operating conditions, i.e., prices and costs as of the date the estimate is made. Prices include consideration of changes in existing prices provided only by contractual arrangements, but not on escalations based upon future conditions. Exploratory wells in areas not requiring major capital expenditures are evaluated for economic viability within one year of completion of drilling. The related well costs are expensed as dry holes if it is determined that such economic viability is not attained. Otherwise, the related well costs are reclassified to oil and gas properties and subject to impairment review (Note 3(h)). For wells that are found to have economically viable reserves in areas where major capital expenditure would be required before production can begin, the related well costs remain capitalized only if additional drilling is under way or firmly planned. Otherwise the well costs are expensed as dry holes. The Group does not have any costs of unproved properties capitalized in oil and gas properties.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

The Ministry of Land and Resources in China issues production licenses to applicants on the basis of the reserve reports approved by relevant authorities. Administrative rules issued by the State Council provide that the maximum term of a production license is 30 years. However, in accordance with a special approval from the State Council, the Ministry of Land and Resources has issued production licenses effective from March 2000 to the Group for all of its crude oil and natural gas reservoirs with terms coextensive with the projected production life of those reservoirs, ranging up to 55 years. Production licenses to be issued to the Group in the future will be subject to the 30-year maximum unless additional special approvals can be obtained from the State Council. Each of the Group's production licenses is renewable upon application by the Group 30 days prior to expiration. Future oil and gas price increases may extend the productive lives of crude oil and natural gas reservoirs beyond the current terms of the relevant production licenses. Payments on such licenses are made annually and are expensed as incurred.

The cost of oil and gas properties is amortized at the field level on the unit of production method. Unit of production rates are based on oil and gas reserves estimated to be recoverable from existing facilities based on the current terms of the Group's production licenses. The Group's oil and gas reserves estimates include only crude oil and natural gas which management believes can be reasonably produced within the current terms of these production licenses.

(j) Intangible assets

Expenditure on acquired patents, trademarks, technical know-how and licenses is capitalized at historical cost and amortized using the straight-line method over their useful lives, generally over 10 years. Intangible assets are not revalued. The carrying amount of each intangible asset is reviewed annually and adjusted for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognized whenever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount and is recognized in the consolidated statements of income. The recoverable amount is measured as the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use which is the present value of estimated future cash flows to be derived from continuing use of the asset.

(k) Leases

Leases of property, plant and equipment where the Group assumes substantially all the benefits and risks of ownership are classified as capital leases. Capital leases are capitalized at the inception of the lease at the lower of the fair value of the leased property and the estimated present value of the underlying lease payments. Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and finance charges so as to achieve a constant rate on the finance balance outstanding. Property, plant and equipment acquired under capital leases are generally depreciated over the useful life of the asset as the Group usually obtains ownership of such leased assets by the end of the lease term.

Leases of assets under which a significant portion of the risks and benefits of ownership are effectively retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are expensed on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Payments made to the PRC's land authorities to secure land use rights are treated as operating leases. Land use rights are generally obtained through advance lump-sum payments and the terms for use range up to 50 years.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — (Continued) (Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

(l) Related parties

Related parties include CNPC and its subsidiaries, other state-controlled enterprises and their subsidiaries directly or indirectly controlled by the PRC government, corporations in which the Company is able to control or exercise significant influence, key management personnel of the Company and CNPC and their close family members.

Transactions with related parties do not include those done in the ordinary course of business with terms consistently applied to all public and private entities and where there is no choice of supplier such as electricity, telecommunications, postal service and local government retirement funds.

(m) Inventories

Inventories are oil products, chemical products and materials and supplies which are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is determined by the weighted average cost method. The cost of finished goods comprises raw materials, direct labour, other direct costs and related production overheads, but excludes debt cost. Net realizable value is the estimate of the selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the cost of completion and selling expenses.

(n) Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are recognized initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less provision made for impairment of these receivables. Such provision for impairment of accounts receivable is established if there is objective evidence that the Group will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables. The amount of the provision is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of expected cash flows, discounted at the market rate of interest for similar borrowers.

(o) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash in hand, deposits held with banks and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less from the time of purchase.

(p) Debts

Debts are recognized initially at the fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. In subsequent periods, debts are stated at amortized cost using the effective yield method. Any difference between proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognized in the consolidated statements of income over the terms of the debts, except for the portion eligible for capitalization.

Debts are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — (Continued) (Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

(q) Taxation

The Company has obtained approval from the State Administration for Taxation to report taxable income on a consolidated basis.

Deferred tax is provided in full, using the liability method, for temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying values in the financial statements. However, deferred tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable income or loss. Currently enacted tax rates are used to determine deferred tax.

The principal temporary differences arise from depreciation on oil and gas properties and equipment and provision for impairment of receivables, inventories, investments and property, plant and equipment. Deferred tax assets relating to the carryforward of unused tax losses are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available against which the unused tax losses can be utilized.

The Group also incurs various other taxes and levies that are not income taxes. "Taxes other than income taxes", which form part of the operating expenses, primarily comprise a special levy on domestic sales of crude oil (See Note 7), consumption tax, resource tax, urban construction tax, education surcharges and business tax.

(r) Revenue recognition

Sales are recognized upon delivery of products and customer acceptance or performance of services, net of sales taxes and discounts. Revenues are recognized only when the Group has transferred to the buyer the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods in the ordinary course of the Group's activities, and when the amount of revenue and the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably and collectability of the related receivables is reasonably assured.

The Group markets a portion of its natural gas production under take-or-pay contracts. Customers under the take-or-pay contracts are required to take or pay for the minimum natural gas deliveries specified in the contract clauses. Revenue recognition for natural gas sales and transmission tariff under the take-or-pay contracts follows the accounting policies described in this note. Payments received from customers for natural gas not yet taken are recorded as deferred revenues until actual deliveries take place.

The Group reports gross the revenue under take-or-pay contracts in the consolidated statements of income. As a result of a communication to the oil and gas industry issued by the US Securities and Exchange Commission in February 2005 requesting additional disclosures regarding buy/sell contracts, the Group reviewed such contracts and estimated that, if buy/sell contracts were reported net, both "Sales and other operating revenues" and "Purchase, services and other" for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 would be reduced by RMB 2,217, RMB 1,384 and RMB 2,119, respectively, with no impact on net income.

(s) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate of the amount can be made.

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

Provision for future decommissioning and restoration is recognized in full on the installation of oil and gas properties. The amount recognized is the present value of the estimated future expenditure determined in accordance with local conditions and requirements. A corresponding addition to the related oil and gas properties of an amount equivalent to the provision is also created. This is subsequently depreciated as part of the costs of the oil and gas properties. Any change in the present value of the estimated expenditure other than the one due to passage of time which is regarded as interest cost, is reflected as an adjustment to the provision and oil and gas properties.

(t) Research and development

Research expenditure incurred is recognized as an expense. Costs incurred on development projects are recognized as intangible assets to the extent that such expenditure is expected to generate future economic benefits. Research and development expenses were RMB 2,977, RMB 3,195 and RMB 4,260 for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

(u) Retirement benefit plans

The Group contributes to various employee retirement benefit plans organised by Chinese municipal and provincial governments under which it is required to make monthly contributions to these plans at rates prescribed by the related municipal and provincial governments. The Chinese municipal and provincial governments undertake to assume the retirement benefit obligations of existing and future retired Chinese employees of the Group. Contributions to these plans are charged to expense as incurred. The Group currently has no additional material obligations outstanding for the payment of retirement and other post-retirement benefits of employees in China or overseas other than the monthly contributions described above.

(v) Share-based compensation — Share appreciation rights

Compensation under the share appreciation rights is measured based on the fair value of the liability incurred and is expensed over the vesting period. The liability is remeasured at each balance sheet date to its fair value until settlement with all changes included in employee compensation cost in the consolidated statements of income; the related liability is included in the salaries and welfare payable. The Group does not have any other share-based compensation.

(w) New accounting developments

(1) New standards and interpretations to existing standards that are not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group

The following new standard and interpretations to existing standards have been published that are mandatory for accounting periods beginning on or after May 1, 2006 or later periods but that the Group has not early adopted:

- IFRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, and the complementary Amendment to IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements — Capital Disclosures

IFRS 7 introduces new disclosures relating to financial instruments. The Group does not expect the standard to have any impact on the classification and valuation of the Group's financial instruments.

- IFRIC Interpretation 10, Interim Financial Reporting and Impairment (effective for annual periods beginning on or after November 1, 2006)

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — (Continued) (Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

IFRIC Interpretation 10 prohibits the impairment losses recognized in an interim period on goodwill, investments in equity instruments and investments in financial assets carried at cost to be reversed at a subsequent balance sheet date. The Group will apply IFRIC Interpretation 10 from January 1, 2007, but it is not expected to have any impact on the consolidated financial statements.

(2) Interpretations to existing standards that are not yet effective and not relevant for the Group's operations

The following interpretations to existing standards have been published that are mandatory for accounting periods beginning on or after May 1, 2006 or later periods but are not relevant for the Group's operations:

- IFRIC Interpretation 7, Applying the Restatement Approach under IAS 29, Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies (effective from March 1, 2006)
- IFRIC Interpretation 9, Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives (effective for annual periods beginning on or after June 1, 2006)

(x) Convenience translation

The consolidated financial statements are expressed in RMB. Solely for the convenience of the reader, the December 31, 2006, the consolidated financial statements have been translated into United States dollars at the noon buying rate in New York City on December 31, 2006 for cable transfer in RMB as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York of US$1.00 = RMB 7.8041. No representation is made that the RMB amounts could have been, or could be, converted into United States dollars at that rate or at any other certain rate on December 31, 2006, or at any other date.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The matters described below are considered to be the most critical in understanding the judgements that are involved in preparing the Group's consolidated financial statements.

(a) Estimation of oil and natural gas reserves

Oil and natural gas reserves are key elements in the Group's investment decision-making process. They are also an important element in testing for impairment. Changes in proved oil and natural gas reserves, particularly proved developed reserves, will affect unit-of-production depreciation, depletion and amortization charges to the consolidated statement of income. Proved reserve estimates are subject to revision, either upward or downward, based on new information, such as from development drilling and production activities or from changes in economic factors, including product prices, contract terms or development plans. In general, changes in the technical maturity of oil and natural gas reserves resulting from new information becoming available from development and production activities have tended to be the most significant cause of annual revisions. Changes to the Group's estimates of proved reserves, particularly proved developed reserves, affect the amount of depreciation, depletion and amortization recorded in the Group's consolidated financial statements for property, plant and equipment related to oil and gas production activities. A reduction in proved developed reserves will increase depreciation, depletion and amortization charges (assuming constant production) and reduce net income.

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

(b) Estimated impairment of property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment, including oil and gas properties, are reviewed for possible impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. Determination as to whether and how much an asset is impaired involves management estimates and judgements such as future prices of crude oil, refined products and chemical products and production profile. However, the impairment reviews and calculations are based on assumptions that are consistent with the Group's business plan. These assumptions also include those relative to the pricing regulations by the regulatory agencies in China that the policies will not restrict the profit margins of refined products to levels that will be insufficient to recover the carrying cost of the related production assets. Favorable changes to some assumptions may avoid the need to impair any assets in these years, whereas unfavourable changes may cause the assets to become impaired.

(c) Estimation of asset retirement obligations

Provisions are recognized for the future decommissioning and restoration of oil and gas properties. The amounts of the provisions recognized are the present values of the estimated future expenditures. The estimation of the future expenditures is based on current local conditions and requirements, including legal requirements, technology, price level, etc In addition to these factors, the present values of these estimated future expenditures are also impacted by the estimation of the economic life of oil and gas properties. Changes in any of these estimates will impact the operating results and the financial position of the Group over the remaining economic life of oil and gas properties.

6 SHUT DOWN OF MANUFACTURING ASSETS

During the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, the Group provided RMB 220, RMB Nil and RMB Nil respectively for the shut down of certain less efficient operating facilities in the refining and chemical manufacturing plants.

The charge of RMB 220 provided for in the year ended December 31, 2004 represented the net book value of the refining facilities (RMB 192) and chemical facilities (RMB 28).

There were no employee termination or relocation costs relating to the shut down of these manufacturing equipments.

7 TAXES OTHER THAN INCOME TAXES

Taxes other than income taxes include RMB Nil, RMB Nil and RMB 28,914 for the year ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 of special levy which is paid or payable on the portion of income realized by petroleum exploration enterprises from the sales of domestic crude oil at prices higher than a specific level. This levy was imposed by the PRC government and became effective from March 26, 2006.

10 BASIC AND DILUTED NET INCOME PER SHARE

Basic and diluted earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2004 have been computed by dividing income for the year attributable to equity holders of the Company by the number of 175,824 million shares issued and outstanding for the year.

Basic and diluted earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2005 have been computed by dividing income for the year attributable to equity holders of the Company by weighted average number of 176,770 million shares issued and outstanding for the year.

Basic and diluted earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2006 have been computed by dividing income for the year attributable to equity holders of the Company by the number of 179,021 million shares issued and outstanding for the year.

There are no potential dilutive ordinary shares.

12 CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The weighted average effective interest rate on bank deposits was 1.97% and 1.95% for the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

13 INVESTMENTS IN COLLATERALIZED LOANS

Securities, in the form of loans collateralized by principally PRC government bonds, purchased by the Group are recorded as investments in collateralized loans. These securities have terms ranging from 3 days to 182 days. The difference between the purchase price and the amount that the Group is expected to receive upon the maturity of these securities is accounted as interest income and accrued over the lives of the corresponding securities using the effective yield method. Investments in collateralized loans are accounted for as collateralized financing transactions and are recorded at their contractual amounts plus interest accrued.

14 NOTES RECEIVABLE

Notes receivable represent mainly the bills of acceptance issued by banks for sale of goods and products. All notes receivable are due within one year.

Balance at December 31	8,296	8,998

RMB 639 at December 31, 2006 for capitalized exploratory well costs over one year are principally related to wells that are under further evaluation of drilling results or pending completion of development planning to ascertain economic viability.

Cash payments of RMB 25,099 and RMB 26,052 have been incurred in connection with exploration activities, including RMB 9,019 and RMB 9,328 related to operating activities and RMB 16,080 and RMB 16,724 related to investing activities for the year ended December 31, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

A valuation of the Group's property, plant and equipment, excluding oil and gas reserves, was carried out during 1999 by independent valuers on depreciated replacement costs basis.

The 1999 revaluation resulted in RMB 80,549 in excess of the prior carrying value and a revaluation loss of RMB 1,122 on certain property, plant and equipment.

As at September 30, 2003, a revaluation of the Group's refining and chemical production equipment was undertaken by a firm of independent valuers, China United Assets Appraiser Co., Ltd, in the PRC on a depreciated replacement cost basis.

The September 2003 revaluation resulted in RMB 872 in excess of the carrying value on certain property, plant and equipment immediately prior to the revaluation and a revaluation loss of RMB 1,257.

As at March 31, 2006, a revaluation of the Group's oil and gas properties was undertaken by independent valuers, China United Assets Appraiser Co., Ltd and China Enterprise Appraisals, on a depreciated replacement cost basis. The revaluation did not result in significant difference from their carrying value.

Repair and maintenance costs were RMB 6,314, RMB 7,880 and RMB 9,233 for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

Bank debts are secured on property, plant and equipment with a net book value of RMB 75 and RMB 39 at December 31, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

Asset retirement obligations are in relation to oil and gas properties (See Note 18).

The 2004 opening balance represented the obligation recognized by CNPC E&D acquired by the Company through a business combination under common control (See Note 2).

Before the issuance of two provincial regulations which set forth specific abandonment and disposal processes for oil and gas exploration and production activities in 2005, the Group was neither legally obligated to, nor was the Group under any constructive obligations to take any abandonment measures for its retired oil and gas properties located in China. For safety purposes, the Group performed capping or plugging on certain wells, which were considered to be in areas with extensive human use at the time of the abandonment.

In 2005, the Group established standard abandonment procedures, including plugging all retired wells, dismantling all retired metering stations and other related facilities and performing site restoration, in response to the issuance of two provincial regulations which set forth specific abandonment and disposal processes for oil and gas exploration and production activities. As a result of this change in legal requirements as well as the Group's practice in China, the Group became legally obligated to take abandonment measures for its retired oil and gas properties located in the two provinces where the new regulations were enacted and is constructively obligated to take abandonment measures for its retired oil and gas properties located in all other provinces in China.

The Group does not have any assets that are legally restricted for purposes of setting asset retirement obligations.

In accordance with the Restructuring Agreement between CNPC and the Company effective as of November 5, 1999, the Company issued 160 billion state-owned shares in exchange for the assets and liabilities transferred to the Company by CNPC. The 160 billion state-owned shares were the initial registered capital of the Company with a par value of RMB 1.00 per share.

On April 7, 2000, the Company issued 17,582,418,000 shares, represented by 13,447,897,000 H shares and 41,345,210 American Depositary Shares (“ADSs”) (each representing 100 H shares) in a global initial public offering (“Global Offering”) and the trading of the H shares and the ADSs on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and the New York Stock Exchange commenced on April 7, 2000 and April 6, 2000, respectively. The H shares and ADSs were issued at prices of HK$1.28 per H share and US$16.44 per ADS respectively for which the net proceeds to the Company were approximately RMB 20 billion. The shares issued pursuant to the Global Offering rank equally with existing shares.

Pursuant to the approval of the China Securities Regulatory Commission, 1,758,242,000 state-owned shares of the Company owned by CNPC were converted into H shares for sale in the Global Offering.

In September 2005, the Company issued 3,196,801,818 new H shares at HK$6.00 per share and net proceeds to the Company amounted to approximately RMB 19,692. CNPC also sold 319,680,182 state-owned shares it held concurrently with PetroChina’s sale of new H shares in September 2005.

Shareholders’ rights are governed by the PRC Company Law that requires an increase in registered capital to be approved by the shareholders in shareholders’ general meetings and the relevant PRC Government and regulatory authorities.

- (a) Pursuant to the PRC regulations and the Company's Articles of Association, the Company is required to transfer 10% of its net profit, as determined under the PRC accounting regulations, to a Statutory Common Reserve Fund ("Reserve Fund"). Appropriation to the Reserve Fund may be ceased when the fund aggregates to 50% of the Company's registered capital. The transfer to this reserve must be made before distribution of dividends to shareholders.

The Reserve Fund shall only be used to make good previous years' losses, to expand the Company's production operations, or to increase the capital of the Company. Upon approval by a resolution of shareholders' general meeting, the Company may convert its Reserve Fund into share capital and issue bonus shares to existing shareholders in proportion to their original shareholdings or to increase the nominal value of each share currently held by them, provided that the balance of the Reserve Fund after such issue is not less than 25% Company's of the registered capital.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

- (b) Pursuant to the Company Law of the PRC revised on October 27, 2005 and carried out as of January 1, 2006, the Company is required to cease to draw the statutory common welfare from January 1, 2006. In accordance with the Circular on Accounting Treatment Following the Implementation of "Company Law" issued by the Ministry of Finance of the PRC on March 15, 2006, the Company transferred the statutory common welfare fund balance as at the December 31, 2005 into the Reserve Fund.
- (c) According to the Company's Articles of Association, the distributable reserve is the lower of the retained earnings computed under PRC accounting regulations and IFRS. As of December 31, 2006, the Company's distributable reserve amounted to RMB 205,379 million which was computed under IFRS.
- (d) As of December 31, 2006, revaluation surplus realized through the depreciation or disposal of revalued assets amounted to approximately RMB 53,717 and RMB 57,832 as of December 31, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

29 PENSIONS

The Group participates in various employee retirement benefit plans organized by PRC municipal and provincial governments under which it is required to make monthly contributions to these plans at rates ranging from 16% to 22% of the employees' basic salary for the relevant periods. Expenses incurred by the Group in connection with the retirement benefit plans were RMB 2,476, RMB 3,104 and RMB 4,645, for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

30 FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Group holds or issues various financial instruments which expose it to credit, interest rate, foreign exchange rate and fair value risks. In addition, the Group's operations are affected by certain commodity price movements. The Group historically has not used derivative instruments for hedging or trading purposes. Such activities are subject to policies approved by the Group's senior management. Substantially all of the financial instruments the Group holds is for purposes other than trading. The Group regards an effective market risk system as an important element of the Group's treasury function and is continuously enhancing its systems. A primary objective is to implement certain methodologies to better measure and monitor risk exposures.

(a) Credit risk

The carrying amounts of accounts receivable included in the balance sheet represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to its financial assets. Majority of cash and time deposits are placed with state-owned banks and financial institutions. No other financial assets carry a significant exposure to credit risk. The Group has no significant concentration of credit risk.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

(b) Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to the risk arising from changing interest rates. A detailed analysis of the Group's debts, together with their respective interest rates and maturity dates, are included in Note 24.

(c) Foreign exchange rate risk

From July 21, 2005, the PRC government reformed the Renminbi exchange rate regime and implemented a regulated floating exchange rate regime based on market supply and demand with reference to a basket of currencies. However, Renminbi is still regulated in capital projects. The exchange rates of Renminbi are affected by domestic and international economic developments and political changes, and supply and demand for Renminbi. Future exchange rates of Renminbi against other currencies could vary significantly from the current exchange rates. As Renminbi is the functional currency of the Company and most of its consolidated subsidiaries, the fluctuation of the exchange rate of Renminbi may have positive or negative impacts on the results of operations of the Group. An appreciation of Renminbi against United States Dollar may decrease the Group's turnover, but the cost of acquiring imported materials and equipment may be reduced. A devaluation of Renminbi against United States Dollar may not have a negative impact on the Group's turnover but may increase the cost for acquiring imported materials and equipment as well as the debt obligations denominated in foreign currencies of the Group.

(d) Commodity price risk

The Group is engaged in a wide range of petroleum-related activities. The oil and gas markets are affected by global and regional demands and supplies. Prices of onshore crude oil are determined with reference to the prices of crude oil on the international markets. A decline in the prices of crude oil and refined products could adversely affect the Group's financial position. The Group historically has not used commodity derivative instruments to hedge against potential price fluctuations of crude oil and refined products. Therefore, the Group is exposed to the general price fluctuations of broadly traded oil and gas commodities in 2007 and thereafter.

(e) Fair values

The carrying amounts of the following financial assets and financial liabilities approximate their fair value as all of them are in short-term in nature: cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments (comprising investments in collateralized loans and time deposits with maturities over three months but within one year), accounts receivable and trade payable, other receivables and payables, lease obligations, short-term debts and floating rate long-term debts. The fair value of the fixed rate long-term debts is likely to be different from their carrying amounts. As the majority of the debts are at floating rates, the fair value of these debts approximate their carrying amounts. Analysis of the fair value and carrying amounts of long-term debts are presented in Note 24.

31 CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

(a) Bank and other guarantees

At December 31, 2006, the Group had contingent liabilities in respect of guarantees made to China Petroleum Finance Company Limited (“CP Finance”), a subsidiary of CNPC, and a State-controlled bank from which it is anticipated that no material liabilities will arise.

	At December 31,

CP Finance	187	162
Guarantee of debts of third party from a State-controlled bank	—	41
	187	203

(b) Environmental liabilities

CNPC and the Group have operated in China for many years. China has adopted extensive environmental laws and regulations that affect the operation of the oil and gas industry. The outcome of environmental liabilities under proposed or future environmental legislation cannot reasonably be estimated at present, and could be material. Under existing legislation, however, management believes that there are no probable liabilities, except for the amounts which have already been reflected in the financial statements, that will have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Group.

On November 13, 2005, explosions occurred at a manufacturing facility of a branch of the Company located in the Jilin Province. The investigation into the accident was completed by the PRC Government in December 2006. Based on the results of the investigation, the Company paid a fine of RMB 1 in settlement of all liability related to the accident.

(c) Legal contingencies

The Group is the named defendant in certain insignificant lawsuits as well as the named party in other proceedings arising in the ordinary course of business. While the outcomes of such contingencies, lawsuits or other proceedings cannot be determined at present, the management of the Group believes that any resulting liabilities will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Group.

(d) Leasing of roads, land and buildings

According to the Restructuring Agreement entered into between the Company and CNPC in 1999 upon the formation of the Company, CNPC has undertaken to the Company the following:

- CNPC will use its best endeavors to obtain formal land use right certificates to replace the entitlement certificates in relation to the 28,649 parcels of land which were leased or transferred to the Company from CNPC, within one year from August, September and October 1999 when the relevant entitlement certificates were issued;

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

- CNPC will complete, within one year from November 5, 1999, the necessary governmental procedures for the requisition of the collectively-owned land on which 116 service stations owned by the Company are located; and
- CNPC will obtain individual building ownership certificates in the name of the Company for all of the 57,482 buildings transferred to the Company by CNPC, before November 5, 2000.

As at December 31, 2006, CNPC obtained formal land use right certificates in relation to 27,494 out of the above-mentioned 28,649 parcels of land, some building ownership certificates for the above-mentioned buildings, but has completed none of the necessary governmental procedures for the above-mentioned service stations located on collectively-owned land. The Directors of the Company confirm that the use of and the conduct of relevant activities at the above-mentioned parcels of land, service stations and buildings are not affected by the fact that the relevant land use right certificates or individual building ownership certificates have not been obtained or the fact that the relevant governmental procedures have not been completed. In management's opinion, the outcome of the above events will not have a material adverse effect on the results of operations or the financial position of the Group.

(e) Group insurance

Except for limited insurance coverage for vehicles and certain assets subject to significant operating risks, the Group does not carry any other insurance for property, facilities or equipment with respect to its business operations. In addition, the Group does not carry any third-party liability insurance against claims relating to personal injury, property and environmental damages or business interruption insurance since such insurance coverage is not customary in China. While the effect of under-insurance on future incidents cannot be reasonably assessed at present, management believes that it may have a material impact on the operating results but will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Group.

34 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

CNPC, the immediate parent of the Company, is a state-controlled enterprise directly controlled by the PRC government. The PRC government is the Company's ultimate controlling party. State-controlled enterprises and their subsidiaries, in addition to CNPC Group companies, directly or indirectly controlled by the PRC government are also related parties of the Group. Neither CNPC nor the PRC government publishes financial statements available for public use.

The Group has extensive transactions with other members of the CNPC Group. Because of the relationship, it is possible that the terms of the transactions between the Group and other members of the CNPC Group are not the same as those that would result from transactions with other related parties or wholly unrelated parties.

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

As a result of the restructuring of CNPC to form the Company in 1999, the Company and CNPC entered into a Comprehensive Products and Services Agreement for a range of products and services which may be required and requested by either party; a Land Use Rights Leasing Contract under which CNPC leases 42,476 parcels of land located throughout the PRC to the Company; and a Buildings Leasing Contract under which CNPC leases 191 buildings located throughout the PRC to the Company.

The term of the current Comprehensive Products and Services Agreement were amended in 2005 and the agreement is effective through December 31, 2008. The products and services to be provided by the CNPC Group to the Company under the Comprehensive Products and Services Agreement include construction and technical services, production services, supply of material services, social services, ancillary services and financial services. The products and services are provided in accordance with (1) state-prescribed prices; or (2) where there is no state-prescribed price, relevant market prices; or (3) where neither (1) nor (2) is applicable, actual cost incurred; or the agreed contractual price, being the actual cost plus a margin of no more than 15% for certain construction and technical services, and 3% for all other types of services.

The Land Use Rights Leasing Contract provides for the lease of an aggregate area of approximately 1,145 million square meters of land located throughout the PRC to business units of the Group for a term of 50 years at an annual fee of RMB 2,000. The total fee payable for the lease of all such property may, after every 10 years, be adjusted by agreement between the Company and CNPC.

Under the Buildings Leasing Contract, 191 buildings covering an aggregate area of 269,770 square meters located throughout the PRC are leased at an aggregate annual fee of RMB 39 for a term of 20 years. The Company also entered into a Supplemental Buildings Leasing Agreement with CNPC in September 2002 to lease an additional 404 buildings covering approximately 442,730 square meters at an annual rental of RMB 157. The Supplemental Buildings Leasing Agreement will expire at the same time as the Buildings Leasing Agreement.

In addition to the related party information shown elsewhere in the financial statements, the following is a summary of significant related party transactions entered into in the ordinary course of business between the Group and its related parties during the years and balances arising from related party transactions at the end of the years indicated below:

(i) No longer a director or supervisor since May 18, 2004.

(ii) No longer a director or supervisor since November 8, 2005.

(iii) No longer a director since November 24, 2006

The emoluments of the directors and supervisors fall within the following bands (including directors and supervisors whose term expired during the year):

	2006 Number	2005 Number	2004 Number
RMB Nil – RMB 1	20	25	24

Fee for directors and supervisors disclosed above included RMB 95 thousand, RMB 828 thousand and RMB 813 thousand respectively, for the year ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 paid to independent non-executive directors.

None of the directors and supervisors has waived their remuneration during the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2006.

The five highest paid individuals in the Group for each of the three years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 above were also directors or supervisors and their emoluments are reflected in the analysis shown above.

During 2004, 2005 and 2006, the Company did not incur any severance payment to any director for loss of office or any payment as inducement to any director to join the Company.

The Company has adopted a share option scheme which is a share appreciation right arrangement payable in cash to the recipients upon exercise of the rights which became effective on the initial public offering of the H shares of the Company on April 7, 2000. The directors, supervisors and senior executives of the Company are eligible for the scheme. 87,000,000 units of share appreciation rights were granted to senior executives. 35,000,000 units were granted to the directors and supervisors; of these 35,000,000 units, 33,130,000 units are outstanding, net of subsequent forfeiture of 1,870,000 units by a former independent director.

The rights can be exercised on or after April 8, 2003, the third anniversary of the grant, up to April 7, 2008. The exercise price is the price as at the initial public offering being HK$1.28 per share or approximately RMB 1.36 per share.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

As at December 31, 2006, none of the holders of the share appreciation rights had exercised the rights. The liability for the units awarded under the scheme has been calculated based on fair value of the liability incurred and is expensed over the vesting period. The liability is remeasured at each balance sheet date to its fair value and amounted to approximately RMB 630 and RMB 1,167 at December 31, 2005 and 2006 respectively.

36 SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Group is engaged in a broad range of petroleum related activities through its four major business segments: Exploration and Production, Refining and Marketing, Chemicals and Marketing and Natural Gas and Pipeline.

The Exploration and Production segment is engaged in the exploration, development, production and sales of crude oil and natural gas.

The Refining and Marketing segment is engaged in the refining, transportation, storage and marketing of crude oil and petroleum products.

The Chemicals and Marketing segment is engaged in the production and sale of basic petrochemical products, derivative petrochemical products, and other chemical products.

The Natural Gas and Pipeline segment is engaged in the sale of natural gas and the transmission of natural gas, crude oil and refined products.

In addition to these four major business segments, the Other segment includes the assets, income and expenses relating to cash management, financing activities, the corporate centre, research and development, and other business services to the operating business segments of the Group.

Most assets and operations of the Group are located in the PRC, which is considered as one geographic location in an economic environment with similar risks and returns. In addition to its operations in the PRC, the Group also has oversea operations through subsidiaries engaging in the exploration and production of crude oil and natural gas.

The accounting policies of the operating segments are the same as those described in Note 3 — “Summary of Principal Accounting Policies”.

Operating segment information for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 is presented below:

Note (a) — Intersegment sales are conducted principally at market price.

Note (b) — Segment result is income from operations before other costs. Other costs include selling, general and administrative expenses and other net expense.

Note (c) — Segment results for the years ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 included impairment of property, plant and equipment (Note 18) and shut down of manufacturing assets (Note 6).

Note (d) — Other liabilities mainly include income tax payable, other taxes payable and deferred taxation.

Note (e) — Elimination of intersegment balances represents elimination of intersegment accounts and investments.

Note (f) — Effective January 1, 2006, the results of operations, together with the corresponding assets and liabilities, of certain research and development activities of the Group are reclassified from the Exploration and Production segment, the Refining and Marketing segment, the Chemicals and Marketing segment and the Natural Gas and Pipeline segment to the Other segment to reflect the changes in the manner under which these activities are managed. The results of operations, together with the corresponding assets and liabilities, of these research and development activities were included in the previously reported segments in the segment information for the year ended December 31, 2005. Selected financial data of these research and development activities

In preparing the summary of differences between IFRS and US GAAP, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the estimates of revenues and expenses. Accounting estimates have been employed in these consolidated financial statements to determine reported amounts, including realizability, useful lives of tangible and intangible assets, income taxes and other factors. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

A summary of the principal differences and additional disclosures applicable to the Group is set out below:

(a) Acquisition of PetroKazakhstan Inc.

As described in Note 19 to the consolidated financial statements of the Group, the Group acquired a 67% equity interest in PetroKazakhstan Inc. from CNPC International Limited (CNPCI), a subsidiary of CNPC, effective on December 28, 2006 for RMB 21,376. As both CNPCI and the Group are under common control by CPNC, the acquisition of the 67% equity interest in PetroKazakhstan Inc. has been accounted for in a manner similar to pooling of interests under US GAAP accounting and the US GAAP financial data reflects the acquisition of the 67% equity interest in PetroKazakhstan Inc. since PetroKazakhstan Inc. was first acquired by CNPCI on October 26, 2005.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS — (Continued) (Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

On December 15, 2006, PetroKazakhstan Inc. paid to CNPCI a dividend amount to RMB 3,044 and was recorded as a deemed distribution to CNPCI.

The purchase consideration for the acquisition of the 67% equity interest in Petro-Kazakhstan Inc. was paid by the Group to CNPCI on December 28, 2006.

(b) Revaluation of property, plant and equipment

As described in note 18, the property, plant and equipment, excluding oil and gas reserves, transferred to the Company by CNPC were appraised during 1999 by a firm of independent valuers on a depreciated replacement cost basis. The 1999 revaluation resulted in RMB 80,549 in excess of the carrying value immediately prior to the revaluation and a revaluation loss of RMB 1,122 on certain property, plant and equipment.

As at September 30, 2003, a revaluation of the Group's refining and chemical production equipment was undertaken by a firm of independent valuers registered in the PRC, China United Assets Appraiser Co., Ltd, on a depreciated replacement cost basis. The September 2003 revaluation resulted in RMB 872 in excess of the carrying value immediately prior to the revaluation and a revaluation loss of RMB 1,257 on certain property, plant and equipment.

As at March 31, 2006, a revaluation of the Group's oil and gas properties was undertaken by independent valuers, China United Assets Appraiser Co., Ltd and China Enterprise Appraisals, on a depreciated replacement cost basis. The revaluation did not result in significant difference from their carrying value.

The depreciation charge, which includes impairment charge, on the revaluation surplus from January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2006 was RMB 3,828 and from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 was RMB 6,528, respectively.

The depreciation charge, which includes impairment charge, on the revaluation loss from January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2006 was Nil, and from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 was RMB 149.

The loss on disposal of revalued property, plant and equipment from January 1, 2006 to December 31, 2006 was RMB 287, and from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005 was RMB 432 which includes shut down of manufacturing assets.

For purposes of reconciling to the US GAAP financial data, the effect of the revaluation, the related depreciation charges and loss on disposal was reversed. A deferred tax asset relating to the reversal of the effect of revaluation in 1999 was established, together with a corresponding increase in the equity. Under a special approval granted by the Ministry of Finance, the effect of the revaluation in 1999 is available as additional depreciation base for purposes of determining taxable income.

(c) One-time remedial payments for staff housing

The Ministry of Finance of the PRC issued several public notices and regulations during the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 with respect to the one-time remedial payments for staff housing payable to certain employees who joined the workforce prior to December 31, 1998 and have housing conditions below local standards as determined in accordance with government regulations and guidelines. These Ministry of Finance notices and regulations also provided that the portion of remedial payments attributable to the periods prior to a restructuring of the employer enterprise from a wholly state-owned status to a less than wholly state-owned status is to be borne by the state shareholder of the enterprise.

PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED

The restructuring that resulted in the formation of the Group took place in November 1999. As such, the one-time remedial housing payments payable to the eligible employees of the Group are to be borne by the state shareholder of the Company.

Under IFRS, such direct payments to employees or reimbursements will not be recorded through the consolidated statements of income of the Group. US GAAP contains no such exemption but requires this principal shareholder's action on behalf of the Company to be recorded in the consolidated statements of income. In the last quarter of year 2002, the Group and CNPC completed the process of estimating the amount payable to qualified employees of the Group. This amount, RMB 2,553, was reflected in determining net income of the Group for the year ended December 31, 2002, under US GAAP. Since this amount is borne by CNPC, a corresponding amount has been included as an addition to the other reserves in the equity of the Group. There were no significant changes in this estimate during 2005 and 2006.

(d) Minority interest

In accordance with the revised IFRS 1 "Presentation of Financial Statements" and IAS 27 "Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements", minority interest becomes part of the profit for the year and total equity of the Group, respectively, whereas under US GAAP, it is respectively excluded from the net income and equity of the Group.

This reconciling item includes the impact of minority interest's share of the revaluation gain and loss, on the property, plant and equipment of non-wholly owned subsidiaries and the impact of minority interest arising from the acquisition of the 67% equity interest in PetroKazakhstan Inc. by a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Group to net income and equity under US GAAP.

(e) Purchase from minority interest of listed subsidiaries

As described in note 38, the Company acquired certain outstanding A shares from the minority interest of Jinzhou Petrochemical Company Limited ("JPCL") and Liaohe Jinma Oilfield Company Limited ("LJOCL") and certain A shares and H shares (including ADSs) from the minority interest of Jilin Chemical Industrial Company Limited ("JCIC"). Under IFRS, the Company applies a policy of treating transactions with minority interest as transactions with equity participants of the Group. Therefore, the assets and liabilities of JPCL, LJOCL and JCIC additionally acquired by the Company from minority interest were recorded by the Company at cost. The difference between the Company's purchase cost and the book value of the interests in JPCL LJOCL and JCIC acquired by the Company from minority interest was recorded in equity. Under US GAAP, the acquisition of additional minority interest is accounted for under purchase method. Assets and liabilities additionally acquired were restated to fair value and the difference of purchase cost over fair value of the minority interest acquired and identified intangible assets was recorded as goodwill. Additional depreciation charges were provided for the assets which were restated to fair value.

(f) Recent US accounting pronouncements

In September 2005, the Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") reached consensus on Issue No. 04-13, "Accounting for Purchases and Sales of Inventory with the Same Counterparty" ("EITF 04-13") which requires two or more inventory purchase and sales transactions with the same counterparty that are entered into in contemplation of one another should be combined for purposes of applying Opinion 29, "Accounting for Nonmonetary Transactions". The Task Force also agreed that an entity should disclose the amount of revenue and costs (or gains and losses) associated with inventory exchanges recognized at fair value. This Issue should be applied to new arrangements entered into, or modifications or renegotiations of existing arrangements, beginning in the first interim or annual reporting period beginning after March 15, 2006 and early application is permitted in periods for which financial statements have not been issued. The Group did not early adopt EITF 04-13 and does not expect the adoption of EITF 04-13 to have a material impact on the Group's financial position or results of operations.

(Amounts in millions except for per share data or unless otherwise stated)

In June 2006, EITF issued No. 06-3, "How Sales Taxes Collected from Customers and Remitted to Governmental Authorities Should Be Presented in the Income Statement" ("EITF 06-3"). EITF 06-3 requires disclosure of the presentation of taxes on either a gross or a net basis as an accounting policy decision. The provisions of EITF 06-3 are effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2006, and early application is permitted. The Group did not early adopt EITF 06-3 and does not expect the adoption of EITF 06-3 to have a material impact on the presentation of the Group's financial statements.

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes — an Interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" ("FIN 48"). FIN 48 prescribes a comprehensive model for recognizing, measuring, presenting and disclosing in the financial statements uncertain tax positions that the Group has taken or expects to take in its tax returns. The provisions of FIN 48 are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. Earlier adoption is permitted as of the beginning of an enterprise's fiscal year, provided the enterprise has not yet issued financial statements, including financial statements for any interim period, for that fiscal year. The cumulative effect of applying the provisions of this Interpretation should be reported as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings for that fiscal year. The Group is currently evaluating the impact of adopting FIN 48.

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements" ("FAS157"), which defines fair value, establishes guidelines for measuring fair value and expands disclosures regarding fair value measurements. FAS 157 does not require any new fair value measurements but rather eliminates inconsistencies in guidance found in various prior accounting pronouncements. FAS 157 will be effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and all interim periods within those fiscal years. Earlier application is permitted if the entity has not issued interim or annual financial statements for that fiscal year. The Group is currently evaluating the impact of adopting FAS 157 but does not expected to have a material effect on the Group's consolidated financial position and results of operations.

In September 2006, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") released SAB No. 108, "Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements" ("SAB 108"). SAB 108 provides interpretive guidance on the SEC's views on the consideration of effects of prior year misstatements in quantifying current year misstatements for the purpose of determining whether the current year's financial statements are materially misstated. The provisions of SAB 108 are effective for fiscal years ending after November 15, 2006. The application of SAB 108 did not have any material effect on the Group's consolidated financial position, and results of operations.

- (i) Pursuant to the resolution passed at the Board of Directors' meeting held on October 26, 2005, the Company offered to acquire all of the 150,000,000 outstanding A shares of Jinzhou Petrochemical Company Limited ("JPCL") from minority shareholders at RMB 4.25 per share. As at December 31, 2006, the Company had paid a total cash consideration of RMB 602 and acquired 141,497,463 A shares, representing approximately 17.97% of the total issued shares of JPCL. Upon this acquisition, the Company owns 98.92% of the outstanding shares of JPCL. The excess of the cost of purchase over the carrying value of the underlying assets and liabilities acquired was recorded in equity. As approved by China Securities Regulatory Commission, JPCL was delisted from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on January 4, 2006.

- (ii) Pursuant to the resolution passed by the Board of Directors' meeting held on October 26, 2005, the Company offered to acquire all the 200,000,000 outstanding A shares and 964,778,000 H shares (including ADS) of Jilin Chemical Industrial Company Limited ("JCIC") from minority shareholders at RMB 5.25 per A share and HK$2.80 per H share respectively. As at December 31, 2006, the Company had paid a total cash consideration of RMB 3,799 and acquired 189,357,726 A shares and 961,495,999 H shares (including ADS), representing approximately 32.32% of the total issued shares of JCIC. Upon this acquisition, the Company owns 99.61% of the outstanding shares of JCIC. The excess of the cost of purchase over the carrying value of the underlying assets and liabilities acquired was recorded in equity. JCIC was delisted from the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and the New York Stock Exchange on January 23, 2006 and February 15, 2006, respectively. As approved by China Securities Regulatory Commission, JCIC was delisted from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on February 20, 2006.
- (iii) Pursuant to the resolution passed by the Board of Directors' meeting held on October 26, 2005, the Company offered to acquire all of the 200,000,000 outstanding A shares of Liaohe Jinma Oilfield Company Limited ("LJOCL") from minority shareholders at RMB 8.80 per share. As at December 31, 2006, the Company had paid a total cash consideration of RMB 1,713 and acquired 194,360,943 A shares, representing approximately 17.67% of the total issued shares of LJOCL. Upon this acquisition, the Company owns 99.49% of the outstanding shares of LJOCL. The excess of the cost of purchase over the carrying value of the underlying assets and liabilities acquired was recorded in equity. As approved by China Securities Regulatory Commission, LJOCL was delisted from the Shenzhen Stock Exchange on January 4, 2006.

The acquisitions of interests from minority shareholders of the above non-wholly owned principal subsidiaries and another non-wholly owned subsidiary in the year ended December 31, 2005 and 2006 resulted in a total adjustment to equity of RMB 1,438 and RMB 2,156, respectively.

39 EVENTS AFTER BALANCE SHEET DATE

On March 16, 2007, the corporate income tax law was passed at the Fifth Session of Tenth National People's Congress of PRC whereby all enterprises with operations in the PRC will be subject to the same statutory income tax rate. The Group will evaluate the impact of the new tax law on the operating results and the financial position of the Group when the new tax law is implemented.

40 APPROVAL OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors on March 19, 2007 and will be submitted to the shareholders for approval at the annual general meeting to be held on May 16, 2007.

Proved Reserve Estimates

Oil and gas proved reserves cannot be measured exactly. Reserve estimates are based on many factors related to reservoir performance that require evaluation by the engineers interpreting the available data, as well as price and other economic factors. The reliability of these estimates at any point in time depends on both the quality and quantity of the technical and economic data, and the production performance of the reservoirs as well as engineering judgement. Consequently, reserve estimates are subject to revision as additional data become available during the producing life of a reservoir. When a commercial reservoir is discovered, proved reserves are initially determined based on limited data from the first well or wells. Subsequent data may better define the extent of the reservoir and additional production performance, well tests and engineering studies will likely improve the reliability of the reserve estimate. The evolution of technology may also result in the application of improved recovery techniques such as supplemental or enhanced recovery projects, or both, which have the potential to increase reserves beyond those envisioned during the early years of a reservoir's producing life.

Proved oil and gas reserves are the estimated quantities of crude oil and natural gas which geological and engineering data demonstrate with reasonable certainty to be recoverable in future years from known reservoirs under existing economic and operating conditions, i.e., prices and costs as of the date the estimate is made. Prices include consideration of changes in existing prices provided only by contractual arrangements, but not on escalations based upon future conditions. Proved developed reserves are those reserves, which can be expected to be recovered through existing wells with existing equipment and operating methods. Proved undeveloped reserves are those reserves which are expected to be recovered from new wells on undrilled acreage or from existing wells where relatively major expenditure is required.

The Ministry of Land and Resources in China issues production licenses to applicants on the basis of the reserve reports approved by relevant authorities. Administrative rules issued by the State Council provide that the maximum term of a production license is 30 years. However, in accordance with a special approval from the State Council, the Ministry of Land and Resources has issued production licenses effective from March 2000 to the Group for all of its crude oil and natural gas reservoirs with terms coextensive with the projected productive life of those reservoirs, ranging up to 55 years. Production licenses to be issued to the Group in the future will be subject to the 30-year maximum unless additional special approvals can be obtained from the State Council. Each of the Group's production licenses is renewable upon application by the Group 30 days prior to expiration.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION ON OIL AND GAS PRODUCING
(Amounts in millions unless otherwise stated)

Oil and gas price increases may extend the productive lives of crude oil and natural gas reservoirs beyond the current terms of the relevant production licenses.

Proved reserve estimates as of December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 were based on reports prepared by DeGolyer and MacNaughton, and Gaffney, Cline & Associates, independent engineering consultants. These reserve estimates were prepared for each oil and gas region (as opposed to individual fields within a region) and adjusted for the estimated effects of using prices and costs prevailing at the end of the period. The Company's reserve estimates include only crude oil and natural gas, which the Company believes can be reasonably produced within the current terms of production licenses.

Estimated quantities of net proved oil and condensate and natural gas reserves and of changes in net quantities of proved developed and undeveloped reserves for each of the period indicated are as follows:

	Crude Oil and Condensate (millions of barrels)	Natural Gas (billions of cubic feet)

At December 31, 2006, 10,975 million barrels of crude oil and condensate and 52,673.4 billion cubic feet of natural gas proved developed and undeveloped reserves are located within China, and 643 million barrels of crude oil and condensate and 795.6 billion cubic feet of natural gas proved developed and undeveloped reserves are located overseas.

Standardized Measure

The following disclosures concerning the standardized measure of future cash flows from proved oil and gas reserves are presented in accordance with the US Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 69, Disclosures about Oil and Gas Producing Activities. The amounts shown are based on prices and costs at the end of each period, currently enacted tax rates and a 10 percent annual discount factor. Since prices and costs do not remain static, and no price or cost changes have been considered, the results are not necessarily indicative of the fair market value of estimated proved reserves, but they do provide a common benchmark which may enhance the users' ability to project future cash flows.

The standardized measure of discounted future net cash flows related to proved oil and gas reserves at the end of each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 is as follows (in millions of RMB):

At December 31, 2004
Future cash inflows from sales of oil and gas	4,046,151
Future production costs	(912,881)
Future development costs	(106,332)
Future income tax expense	(934,068)
Future net cash flows	2,092,870
Discount at 10% for estimated timing of cash flows	(1,092,412)

In such placement, the Company issued 3,196,801,818 new shares and the promoter sold 319,680,182 shares held by it. Following the placement as described above, the share capital structure of the Company comprises 179,020,977,818 common shares, of which 157,922,077,818 common shares, which represent approximately 88.21% of the Company's share capital, are held by China National Petroleum Corporation; 21,098,900,000 shares, which represent approximately 11.79% of the Company's share capital, are held by the H shares shareholders.

Article 17. The Company's board of directors may take all necessary action for the issuance of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares after proposals for issuance of the same have been approved by the securities authority of the State Council.

MP17

The Company may implement its proposal to issue Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph within fifteen (15) months from the date of approval by the securities authority of the State Council.

Article 18. Where the total number of shares stated in the proposal for the issuance of shares include Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares, such shares should be fully subscribed for at their respective offerings. If the shares cannot be fully subscribed for all at once due to special circumstances, the shares may, subject to the approval of the securities authority of the State Council, be issued in separate branches.

MP18

Article 19. The registered capital of the Company shall be RMB179,020,977,818; if the issued shares are redeemed or new shares are issued, the registered capital of the Company shall be adjusted accordingly, and put on file with the companies approving department authorised by the State Council and the securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

MP19

Article 20. The Company may, based on its operating and development needs, authorise the increase of its capital pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association.

MP20

The Company may increase its capital in the following ways:

- (1) by offering new shares for subscription by unspecified investors;
- (2) by issuing new shares to its existing shareholders;
- (3) by allotting bonus shares to its existing shareholders;
- (4) by any other means which is permitted by law and administrative regulation.

After the Company's increase of share capital by means of the issuance of new shares has been approved in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association, the issuance thereof should be made in accordance with the procedures set out in the relevant laws and administrative regulations.

Article 21. Unless otherwise stipulated in the relevant laws or administrative regulations, shares in the Company shall be freely transferable and are not subject to any lien.

MP21, App.31(2)

Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be purchased, sold, donated, inherited and mortgaged in accordance with the Chinese laws and the Company's Articles of Association. The transfer and transmission of the shares shall be registered in accordance with the relevant regulations.

The Company has the power to sell the shares of a shareholder who is untraceable, if

- (a) during a period of 12 years at least three years dividends in respect of the shares in question have become payable and no dividend during that period has been claimed; and
- (b) on expiry of the 12 years the issuer gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by way of an advertisement approved by the securities authority of the State Council, and notifies the securities authority of the State Council and other relevant overseas securities regulatory committee of such intention.

CHAPTER 4: REDUCTION OF CAPITAL AND
REPURCHASE OF SHARES

Article 22. According to the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association, the Company may reduce its registered capital.

MP22

Article 23. The Company must prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets when it reduces its registered capital.

MP23, App.37(1)

The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days of the date of the Company's resolution for reduction of capital and shall publish an announcement in a newspaper at least three (3) times within thirty (30) days of the date of such resolution. A creditor has the right within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice from the Company or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive such notice, within ninety (90) days of the date of the first public announcement, to require the Company to repay its debts or to provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

The Company's registered capital may not, after the reduction in capital, be less than the minimum amount prescribed by law.

Article 24. The Company may, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Company's Articles of Association and with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State, repurchase its issued shares under the following circumstances:

MP24

(1) cancellation of shares for the purposes of reducing its capital;

(2) merging with another company that holds shares in the Company;

(3) other circumstances permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

Article 25. The Company may repurchase shares in one of the following ways, with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State:

MP25

(1) by making a general offer for the repurchase of shares to all its shareholders on a pro rata basis;

(2) by repurchasing shares through public dealing on a stock exchange;

(3) by repurchasing shares outside of the stock exchange by means of an off-market agreement.

Article 26. The Company must obtain the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting (in the manner stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association) before it can repurchase shares outside of the stock exchange by means of an off-market agreement. The Company may, by obtaining the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting (in the same manner), release, vary or waive its rights under an agreement which has been so entered into.

MP26

An agreement for the repurchase shares referred to in the preceding paragraph includes (without limitation) an agreement to become liable to repurchase shares or an agreement to have the right to repurchase shares.

The Company may not assign an agreement for the repurchase of its shares or any right contained in such an agreement.

Article 27. Shares which have been legally repurchased by the Company shall be cancelled within the period prescribed by law and administrative regulation, and the Company shall apply to the original companies registration authority for registration of the change in its registered capital and make a public announcement.

MP27

The aggregate par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered share capital.

Article 28. Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchase of its issued shares:

MP28

(1) where the Company repurchases shares at par value, payment shall be made out of book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose;

(2) where the Company repurchases shares of the Company at a premium to its par value, payment up to the par value may be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:

(i) if the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company;

(ii) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the new issue shall not exceed the aggregate amount of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased nor shall it exceed the book value of the Company's capital common reserve fund account (including the premiums on the new issue) at the time of the repurchase;

(3) the Company shall make the following payments out of the Company's distributable profits:

(i) payment for the acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares;

(ii) payment for variation of any contract for the repurchase of its shares;

(iii) payment for the release of its obligation(s) under any contract for the repurchase of shares;

(4) after the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the aggregate par value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for payment of the par value of shares which have been repurchased shall be transferred to the Company's capital common reserve fund account.

CHAPTER 5: FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR ACQUISITION OF SHARES

Article 29. The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to a person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares in the Company. This includes any person who directly or indirectly incurs any obligations as a result of the acquisition of shares in the Company (the "Obligor").

MP29

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to the Obligor for the purposes of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by such person.

This Article shall not apply to the circumstances specified in Article 31 of this Chapter.

Article 30. For the purposes of this Chapter, "financial assistance" includes (without limitation) the following:

MP30

- (1) gift;
- (2) guarantee (including the assumption of liability by the guarantor or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the Obligor), compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company's own default) or release or waiver of any rights;
- (3) provision of loan or any other agreement under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of another party, or the change in parties to, or the assignment of rights under, such loan or agreement;
- (4) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

For the purposes of this Chapter, "assumption of obligations" includes the assumption of obligations by way of contract or by way of arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not and irrespective of whether such obligation is to be borne solely by the Obligor or jointly with other persons) or by any other means which results in a change in his financial position.

Article 31. The following actions shall not be deemed to be activities prohibited by Article 29 of this Chapter:

MP31

(1) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is given in good faith in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares in the Company, or the giving of the financial assistance is an incidental part of some larger purpose of the Company;

(2) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets by way of dividend;

(3) the allotment of bonus shares as dividends;

(4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares of the Company or a reorganisation of the share capital structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association;

(5) the lending of money by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business, where the lending of money is part of the scope of business of the Company (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits);

(6) contributions made by the Company to the employee share ownership schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits).

CHAPTER 6: SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REGISTER OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 32. Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

MP32

The share certificate of the Company shall, aside from matters required by the Company Law and the Special Regulations, also contain other matters required to be stated therein by the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed.

Article 33. Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by the Chairman of the Company's board of directors. Where the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed require other senior officer(s) of the Company to sign on the share certificates, the share certificates shall also be signed by such senior officer(s). The share certificates shall take effect after being sealed or imprinted with the seal of the Company. The share certificate shall only be sealed with the Company's seal under the authorisation of the board of directors. The signatures of the Chairman of the board of directors or other senior officer(s) of the Company may be printed in mechanical form.

Article 34. The Company shall keep a register of shareholders which shall contain the following particulars:

MP34

- (1) the name (title) and address (residence), the occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and quantity of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid-up on or agreed to be paid-up on the shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) the share certificate number(s) of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which each person was entered in the register as a shareholder;
- (6) the date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings in the Company.

Article 35. The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the securities authority of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory organisations, maintain the register of shareholders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares overseas and appoint overseas agent(s) to manage such register of shareholders. The original register of shareholders for holders of H Shares shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

MP35, C.2 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1997] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D1(b)

A duplicate register of shareholders for the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders for the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

The Company shall make available at its Hong Kong representative office for inspection by the public and shareholders free of charge, and for copying by shareholders at reasonable charges, the following:-

- (1) a complete duplicate of the register of members;
- (2) a report showing the state of the issued share capital of the Company;
- (3) the latest audited Financial Statements and the Directors', Auditors' and Supervisors' Reports;
- (4) special resolutions of the Company;
- (5) reports showing the number and nominal value of securities repurchased by the Company since the end of the last financial year, the aggregate amount paid for such securities and the maximum and the minimum prices paid in respect of each class of securities repurchased (with a breakdown between domestic shares and foreign shares);
- (6) a copy of the latest annual examination report filed with the State Administration of Industry and Commerce; and
- (7) for shareholders only, copies of the minutes of meetings of shareholders' meetings.

Article 36. The Company shall have a complete register of shareholders which shall comprise the following parts:

MP36

- (1) the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's residence (other than those share registers which are described in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article);
- (2) the register of shareholders in respect of the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares of the Company which is maintained in the same place as the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed; and
- (3) the register of shareholders which are maintained in such other place as the board of directors may consider necessary for the purposes of the listing of the Company's shares.

Article 37. Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of any shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register.

MP37

Amendments or rectification of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where the register of shareholders is maintained.

Article 38.

All Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be transferred by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the directors may approve. The instrument of transfer of any share may be executed by hand without seal. If the shareholder is the recognised clearing house or its nominee defined by the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), the share transfer form may be executed by hand or in mechanically-printed form.

C.12 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1

All Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong which have been fully paid-up may be freely transferred in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association. However, unless such transfer complies with the following requirements, the board of directors may refuse to recognise any instrument of transfer and would not need to provide any reason therefor:

(1) a fee of HK$2.50 per instrument of transfer or such higher amount as the board of directors may from time to time require but lesser than the amount agreed from time to time by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("LISTING RULES") has been paid to the Company for registration of the instrument of transfer and other documents relating to or which will affect the right of ownership of the shares;

App.31(1)

(2) the instrument of transfer only relates to Foreign-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong;

(3) the stamp duty which is chargeable on the instrument of transfer has already been paid;

(4) the relevant share certificate(s) and any other evidence which the board of directors may reasonably require to show that the transferor has the right to transfer the shares have been provided;

(5) if it is intended that the shares be transferred to joint owners, the maximum number of joint owners shall not be more than four (4);

App.31(3)

(6) the Company does not have any lien on the relevant shares.

App.31(2)

If the Company refuses to register any transfer of shares, the Company shall within two (2) months of formal application for the transfer provide the transferor and transferee with a notice of refusal to register such transfer.

The directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers of the Company shall report the number of shares which they hold in the Company and may not transfer such shares during their term of office.

Article 39. No change may be made in the register of shareholders as a result of a transfer of shares within thirty (30) days prior to the date of a shareholders' general meeting or within five (5) days before the record date for the Company's distribution of dividends.

MP38

Article 40. When the Company needs to determine the rights attaching to shares in the Company for the purposes of convening a shareholders' meeting, for dividend distribution, for liquidation or for any other purpose, the board of directors shall decide on a date for the determination of rights attaching to shares in the Company. The shareholders of the Company shall be such persons who appear in the register of shareholders at the close of such determination date.

MP39

Article 41. Any person aggrieved and claiming to be entitled to have his name (title) entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.

MP40

Article 42. Any person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his name (title) entered in the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company may, if his share certificate (the "original certificate") relating to the shares is lost, apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the "Relevant Shares").

MP41, App.37(1)

Application by a holder of Domestic-Invested Shares, who has lost his share certificate, for a replacement share certificate shall be dealt with in accordance with Article 150 of the Company Law.

Application by a holder of Overseas-Listed Foreign Shares, who has lost his share certificate, for a replacement share certificate may be dealt with in accordance with the law of the place where the original register of shareholders of holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares is maintained, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations.

The issue of a replacement share certificate to a holder of H Shares, who has lost his share certificate, shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration (i) stating the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss; and (ii) declaring that no other person is entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of the Relevant Shares.

(2) The Company has not received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant declaring that his name shall be entered into the register of shareholders in respect of such shares before it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant.

(3) The Company shall, if it intends to issue a replacement share certificate, publish a notice of its intention to do so at least once every thirty (30) days within a period of ninety (90) consecutive days in such newspapers as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

(4) The Company shall, prior to publication of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, deliver to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed, a copy of the notice to be published and may publish the notice upon receipt of confirmation from such stock exchange that the notice has been exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange. Such notice shall be exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days.

In the case of an application which is made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the notice to be published.

(5) If, by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company has not have received any challenge from any person in respect of the issuance of the replacement share certificate, it may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant pursuant to his application.

(6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate and document the cancellation of the original share certificate and issuance of a replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders accordingly.

(7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant and the Company is entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable security is provided by the applicant therefor.

Article 43.

Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association and a bona fide purchaser acquires or becomes the registered owner of such shares, his name (title) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

MP42

Article 44. The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate unless the claimant is able to prove that the Company has acted in a deceitful manner.

MP43

CHAPTER 7: SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Article 45. A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name (title) is entered in the register of shareholders.

MP44, App.39

A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class and amount of shares held by him; shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

In the case of the joint shareholders, if one of the joint shareholders is deceased, only the other existing shareholders of the joint shareholders shall be deemed as the persons who have the ownership of the relevant shares. But the board of directors has the power to require them to provide a certificate of death as necessary for the purpose of modifying the register of shareholders, or any of the joint shareholders of the shares, only the joint shareholders ranking first in the register of shareholders have the right to accept certificates of the relevant shares, receive notices of the Company, attend and vote at shareholders' general meetings of the Company. Any notice which is delivered to the shareholder shall be considered as all the joint shareholders of the relevant shares who have been delivered.

Article 46. The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

MP45

(1) the right to receive dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;

(2) the right to attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and to vote thereat;

(3) the right of supervisory management over the Company's business operations and the right to present proposals or to raise queries;

(4) the right to transfer shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Company's Articles of Association;

(5) the right to obtain relevant information in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association, including:

(i) the right to obtain a copy of the Company's Articles of Association, subject to payment of costs;

(ii) the right to inspect and copy, subject to payment of a reasonable fee:

- (a) all parts of the register of shareholders;
- (b) personal particulars of each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers, including:
 - (aa) present and former name and alias;
 - (bb) principal address (place of residence);
 - (cc) nationality;
 - (dd) primary and all other part-time occupations and duties;
 - (ee) identification documents and the numbers thereof;
- (c) report on the state of the Company's share capital;
- (d) reports showing the aggregate par value, quantity, highest and lowest price paid in respect of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the end of the last accounting year and the aggregate amount paid by the Company for this purpose;
- (e) minutes of shareholders' general meetings;

(6) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of surplus assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;

(7) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 47. The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

MP46

- (1) to comply with the Company's Articles of Association;
- (2) to pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;

(3) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 48.

In addition to the obligations imposed by laws and administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, a controlling shareholder (as such term is defined in the following Article) shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or part of the shareholders of the Company:

MP47

(1) to relieve a director or supervisor of his duty to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;

(2) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the Company's assets in any way, including (without limitation) opportunities which are beneficial to the Company;

(3) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distributions and voting rights (save pursuant to a restructuring which has been submitted for approval by the shareholders in a general meeting in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association).

Article 49.

For the purpose of the foregoing Article, a "controlling shareholder" means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

MP48

(1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half of the board of directors;

(2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or to control the exercise of 30 % or more of the voting rights in the Company;

(3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30 % or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;

(4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other way.

CHAPTER 8: SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL
MEETINGS

Article 50. The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with law.

MP49

Article 51. The shareholders' general meeting shall have the following functions and powers:

MP50

- (1) to decide on the Company's operational policies and investment plans;
- (2) to elect and replace directors and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors;
- (3) to elect and replace supervisors who represent the shareholders and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of supervisors;
- (4) to examine and approve the board of directors' reports;
- (5) to examine and approve the supervisory committee's reports;
- (6) to examine and approve the Company's proposed annual preliminary and final financial budgets;
- (7) to examine and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans;
- (8) to decide on the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
- (9) to decide on matters such as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (10) to decide on the issue of debentures by the Company;
- (11) to decide on the appointment, dismissal and non-reappointment of the accountants of the Company;
- (12) to amend the Company's Articles of Association;
- (13) to consider motions raised by shareholders who represent 5 % or more of the total number of voting shares of the Company;
- (14) to decide on other matters which, according to law, administrative regulation or the Company's Articles of Association, need to be approved by shareholders in general meetings;

(15) matters which the shareholders in a general meeting may authorise the board of directors to carry out on its behalf or which they may sub-delegate to the board of directors.

Article 52. The Company shall not, without the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, enter into any contract with any person (other than a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer) pursuant to which such person shall be responsible for the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of the Company's business.

MP51

Article 53. Shareholders' general meetings are divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. Annual general meetings are held once every year and within six (6) months from the end of the preceding financial year.

MP52

The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months of the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(1) where the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or two-thirds of the number specified in the Company's Articles of Association;

(2) where the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total amount of its share capital;

(3) where shareholder(s) holding 10 % or more of the Company's issued and outstanding voting shares request(s) in writing for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;

(4) whenever the board of directors deems necessary or the supervisory committee so requests.

Article 54. When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, written notice of the meeting shall be given forty-five (45) days before the date of the meeting to notify all of the shareholders whose names appear in the share register of the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the meeting shall deliver to the Company his written reply concerning his attendance at such meeting twenty (20) days before the date of the meeting.

MP53

Article 55. When the Company convenes a shareholders' annual general meeting, shareholder(s) holding 5% or more of the total voting shares of the Company shall have the right to propose new motions in writing, and the Company shall place such proposed motions on the agenda for such annual general meeting if they are matters falling within the functions and powers of shareholders in general meetings.

MP54

Article 56. The Company shall, based on the written replies which it receives from the shareholders twenty (20) days before the date of the shareholders' general meeting, calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting amount to more than one-half of the Company's total voting shares, the Company may hold the meeting; if not, then the Company shall, within five (5) days, notify the shareholders by way of public announcement the matters to be considered at, and the place and date for, the meeting. The Company may then hold the meeting after publication of such announcement.

MP55

A shareholders' extraordinary general meeting shall not decide on any matter not stated in the notice for the meeting.

Article 57. A notice of a meeting of the shareholders of the Company shall satisfy the following criterion:

MP56

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) state the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provide such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to make an informed decision on the proposals put before them. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made to amalgamate the Company with another, to repurchase the shares of the Company, to reorganise its share capital, or to restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with copies of the proposed agreement, if any, and the cause and effect of such proposal must be properly explained;
- (5) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent, if any, of the material interests of any director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer in the proposed transaction and the effect which the proposed transaction will have on them in their capacity as shareholders in so far as it is different from the effect on the interests of shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contain the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting;

(7) contain a conspicuous statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at such meeting is entitled to appoint one (1) or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf and that a proxy need not be a shareholder;

(8) specify the time and place for lodging proxy forms for the relevant meeting.

Article 58.

Notice of shareholders' general meetings shall be served on each shareholder (whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote at the meeting), by personal delivery or prepaid airmail to the address of the shareholder as shown in the register of shareholders. For the holders of Domestic-Invested Shares, notice of the meetings may also be issued by way of public announcement.

MP57, App.37(1) & 7(3)

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one (1) or more national newspapers designated by the securities authority of the State Council within the interval of forty-five (45) days to fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting; after the publication of such announcement, the holders of Domestic-Invested Shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' general meeting. Such public announcement shall be published in Chinese and English in accordance with Article 182.

Article 59.

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the failure to receive the notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions adopted thereat.

MP58

Article 60.

Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one (1) or more persons (whether such person is a shareholder or not) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and a proxy so appointed shall be entitled to exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorisation from that shareholder:

MP59

- (1) the shareholders' right to speak at the meeting;
- (2) the right to demand or join in demanding a poll;
- (3) the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one (1) proxy may only vote on a poll.

If the shareholder is the recognized clearing house defined by the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), such shareholder is entitled to appoint one or more persons as his proxies to attend on his behalf at a general meeting or at any class meeting, but, if one or more persons have such authority, the letter of authorization shall contain the number and class of the shares in connection with such authorization. Such person can exercise the right on behalf of the recognized clearing house (or its attorney) as if he is the individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 61. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a legal entity, either under seal or under the hand of a director or a duly authorised attorney. The letter of authorization shall contain the number of the shares to be represented by the attorney. If several persons are authorized as the attorney of the shareholder, the letter of authorization shall specify the number of the shares to be represented by each attorney.

MP60

Article 62. The instrument appointing a voting proxy and, if such instrument is signed by a person under a power of attorney or other authority on behalf of the appointor, a notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authority shall be deposited at the residence of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the proxy propose to vote or the time appointed for the passing of the resolution.

MP61

If the appointor is a legal person, its legal representative or such person as is authorised by resolution of its board of directors or other governing body may attend any meeting of shareholders of the Company as a representative of the appointor.

Article 63. Any form issued to a shareholder by the directors for use by such shareholder for the appointment of a proxy to attend and vote at meetings of the Company shall be such as to enable the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against the motions, such instructions being given in respect of each individual matter to be voted on at the meeting. Such a form shall contain a statement that, in the absence of specific instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

MP62

The Company has the right to request a proxy who attends a shareholders' meeting to provide evidence of his or its identity.

If a shareholder which is a legal person appoints its legal representative to attend a meeting on its behalf, the Company has the right to request such legal representative to produce evidence of his or its identity and a notarially certified copy of the resolutions of such shareholder's board of directors in respect of the appointment of the proxy or the power of attorney executed by such other organisation which has the capacity to appoint the proxy.

Article 64. A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointor or revocation of the proxy or the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that the Company did not receive any written notice in respect of such matters before the commencement of the relevant meeting.

MP63

Article 65. Resolutions of shareholders' general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

MP64

An ordinary resolution must be passed by votes representing more than one-half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

A special resolution must be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 66. A shareholder (including a proxy), when voting at a shareholders' general meeting, may exercise such voting rights as are attached to the number of voting shares which he represents. Each share shall have one (1) vote.

MP65

Where any shareholder, under the Listing Rules, is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 67. At any shareholders' general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands unless voting by way of a poll is required under the Listing Rules or the listing rules of any other stock exchanges on which the shares of the Company are listed or demanded by the following persons before or after any vote by a show of hands:

MP66

- (1) by the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) by at least two (2) shareholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote thereat;
- (3) by one (1) or more shareholders present in person or by proxy and representing 10 % or more of all shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting, before or after a vote is carried out by a show of hands.

Unless voting by way of a poll is required under the Listing Rules or the listing rules of any other stock exchanges on which the shares of the Company are listed or so demanded, the chairman may declare that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the record of such in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that such resolution has been passed. There is no need to provide evidence of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands the same.

Article 68. A poll demanded on the election of the chairman of the meeting, or on a question of adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

MP67

Article 69. On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two (2) or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

MP68

Article 70. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be have a casting vote.

MP69

Article 71. The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

MP70

(1) work reports of the board of directors and the supervisory committee;

(2) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans formulated by the board of directors;

(3) removal of members of the board of directors and members of the supervisory committee, their remuneration and manner of payment;

App.34(3)

(4) annual preliminary and final budgets, balance sheets and profit and loss accounts and other financial statements of the Company;

(5) matters other than those which are required by the laws and administrative regulations or by the Company's Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 72. The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

MP71

- (1) the increase or reduction in share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;
- (2) the issue of debentures of the Company;
- (3) the division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendment of the Company's Articles of Association;
- (5) any other matters considered by the shareholders in general meeting, and resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by a special resolution.

Article 73.

Shareholders who request for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting shall comply with the following procedures:

MP72

(1) Two (2) or more shareholders holding in aggregate 10 % or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held shall sign one (1) or more counterpart requisitions stating the object of the meeting and requiring the board of directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting thereof. The board of directors shall as soon as possible proceed to convene the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or a class meeting thereof after receipt of such requisition(s). The amount of shareholdings referred to above shall be calculated as at the date of deposit of the requisition(s).

(2) If the board of directors fails to issue a notice of such a meeting within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of the requisition(s), the requisitionists may themselves convene such a meeting (in a manner as similar as possible to the manner in which shareholders' meetings are convened by the board of directors) within four (4) months from the date of receipt of the requisition(s) by the board of directors.

Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of failure by the board of directors to duly convene a meeting shall be repaid to the requisitionists by the Company and any sum so repaid shall be set-off against sums owed by the Company to the defaulting directors.

Article 74.

The Chairman of the board of directors shall convene and chair every shareholders' general meeting. If the Chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the vice-chairman of the board of directors shall convene and chair the meeting. If both the Chairman and vice-chairman of the board of directors are unable to attend the meeting, then the board of directors may designate a director to convene and chair the meeting. If no chairman of the meeting has been so designated, shareholders present shall choose one (1) person to act as the chairman of the meeting. If for any reason, the shareholders shall fail to elect a chairman, then the shareholder (including a proxy) holding the largest number of shares carrying the right to vote thereat shall be the chairman of the meeting.

MP73

Article 75. The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed. His decision, which shall be final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minute book.

MP74

Article 76. If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution which has been put to vote at a shareholders' meeting, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

MP75

Article 77. If votes are counted at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the count shall be recorded in the minute book.

MP76

Article 78. The minutes, shareholders' attendance lists and proxy forms shall be kept at the Company's place of residence.

MP76

Article 79. Copies of the minutes of proceedings of any shareholders' meeting shall, during business hours of the Company, be open for inspection by any shareholder without charge. If a shareholder requests for a copy of such minutes from the Company, the Company shall send a copy of such minutes to him within seven (7) days after receipt of reasonable fees therefor.

MP77

CHAPTER 9: SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING
BY A CLASS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 80. Those shareholders who hold different classes of shares are class shareholders.

MP78

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 81. Rights conferred on any class of shareholders ("class rights") may not be varied or abrogated save with the approval of a special resolution of shareholders in a general meeting and by holders of shares of that class at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with Articles 83 to 87.

MP79

Article 82. The following circumstances shall be deemed to be variation or abrogation of the rights attaching to a particular class of shares:

MP80

- (1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of that class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class having voting or equity rights or privileges equal or superior to those of shares of that class;
- (2) to exchange all or part of the shares of that class for shares of another class or to exchange or to create a right to exchange all or part of the shares of another class for shares of that class;
- (3) to remove or reduce rights to accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends attached to shares of that class;
- (4) to reduce or remove preferential rights attached to shares of that class to receive dividends or to the distribution of assets in the event that the Company is liquidated;
- (5) to add, remove or reduce conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer or pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of that class;
- (6) to remove or reduce rights to receive payment payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of that class;
- (7) to create a new class of shares having voting or equity rights or privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (8) to restrict the transfer or ownership of shares of that class or to increase the types of restrictions attaching thereto;
- (9) to allot and issue rights to subscribe for, or to convert the existing shares into, shares in the Company of that class or another class;
- (10) to increase the rights or privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) to restructure the Company in such a way so as to result in the disproportionate distribution of obligations between the various classes of shareholders;
- (12) to vary or abrogate the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 83.

Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at shareholders' general meetings, have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning sub-paragraphs (2) to (8), (11) and (12) of Article 82, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at such class meetings.

MP81

"(An) interested shareholder(s)", as such term is used in the preceding paragraph, means:

(1) in the case of a repurchase of shares by way of a general offer to all shareholders of the Company or by way of public dealing on a stock exchange pursuant to Article 25, a "controlling shareholder" within the meaning of Article 49;

(2) in the case of a repurchase of shares by an off-market agreement pursuant to Article 25, a holder of the shares to which the proposed agreement relates;

(3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, a shareholder who assumes a relatively lower proportion of obligation than the obligations imposed on shareholders of that class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the general interests of the shareholders of that class.

Article 84. Resolutions of a class of shareholders shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of shareholders of that class represented at the relevant meeting who, according to Article 83, are entitled to vote thereat.

MP82

Article 85. Written notice of a class meeting shall be given to all shareholders who are registered as holders of that class in the register of shareholders forty-five (45) days before the date of the class meeting. Such notice shall give such shareholders notice of the matters to be considered at such meeting, the date and the place of the class meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the class meeting shall deliver his written reply in respect thereof to the Company twenty (20) days before the date of the class meeting.

MP83

If the shareholders who intend to attend such class meeting represent more than half of the total number of shares of that class which have the right to vote at such meeting, the Company may hold the class meeting; if not, the Company shall within five (5) days give the shareholders further notice of the matters to be considered, the date and the place of the class meeting by way of public announcement. The Company may then hold the class meeting after such public announcement has been made.

Article 86. Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

MP84

Class meetings shall be conducted in a manner which is as similar as possible to that of shareholders' general meetings. The provisions of the Company's Articles of Association relating to the manner for the conduct of shareholders' general meetings are also applicable to class meetings.

Article 87. Apart from the holders of other classes of shares, the holders of the Domestic-Invested Shares and holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be deemed to be holders of different classes of shares.

App. 13 Pt. D 1(f)

The special procedures for approval by a class of shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

MP85 C.3 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 3

(1) where the Company issues, upon the approval by special resolution of its shareholders in a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every twelve (12) months, not more than 20% of each of its existing issued Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares; or

App.13 Pt.D 1f(i)

(2) where the Company's plan to issue Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares at the time of its establishment is carried out within fifteen (15) months from the date of approval of the securities authority of the State Council.

App.13 Pt.D 1f(ii)

CHAPTER 10: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 88. The Company shall have a board of directors. The board of directors shall consist of thirteen (13) directors. The board of directors shall have one (1) Chairman, two (2) Vice-chairman(s) and twelve (10) directors, of which three (3) independent (non-executive) directors.

MP86

The board of directors shall have nine (9) outside directors, who shall not hold office within the Company.

Article 89. Directors shall be elected at the shareholders' general meeting each for a term of three (3) years. At the expiry of a director's term, the term is renewable upon re-election.

MP87, C.4 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.34(3)-4(5)

The period for lodgement of notices in writing to the Company of the intention to propose a person for election as a director and of such person's consent to be elected shall be at least 7 days and which shall commence no earlier than the day after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting convened to consider such election and shall end no later than 7 days prior to the date of such general meeting.

The Chairman and the Vice-chairman shall be elected and removed by more than one-half of all of the members of the board of directors. The term of office of each of the Chairman and the Vice-chairman is three (3) years, which term is renewable upon re-election.

Subject to compliance with all relevant laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders' general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his term of office. However, the director's right to claim for damages which arises out from his removal shall not be affected thereby.

The Directors shall not be required to hold qualifying shares.

Article 90.

The board of directors is accountable to the shareholders in general meeting and exercises the following functions and powers:

MP88

- (1) to be responsible for the convening of the shareholders' general meeting and to report on its work to the shareholders in general meetings;
- (2) to implement the resolutions passed by the shareholders in general meetings;
- (3) to determine the Company's business plans and investment proposals;
- (4) to formulate the Company's annual preliminary and final financial budgets;
- (5) to formulate the Company's profit distribution proposal and loss recovery proposal;
- (6) to formulate proposals for the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital and for the issuance of the Company's debentures;
- (7) to draw up plans for the merger, division or dissolution of the Company;
- (8) to decide on the Company's internal management structure;
- (9) to appoint or remove the Company's general manager and to appoint or remove the senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and other senior officers (including the financial controller(s) of the Company) and, based on the recommendations of the general manager, to decide on their remuneration;
- (10) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (11) to formulate proposals for any amendment of the Company's Articles of Association;
- (12) to exercise any other powers conferred by the shareholders in general meetings.

Other than the board of directors' resolutions in respect of the matters specified in sub-paragraphs (6), (7) and (11) of this Article which shall be passed by the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of all the directors, the board of directors' resolutions in respect of all other matters may be passed by the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the directors.

Article 91. The board of directors shall not, without the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, dispose or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the aggregate of the amount or value of the consideration for the proposed disposition, and the amount or value of the consideration for any such disposition of any fixed assets of the Company that has been completed in the period of four (4) months immediately preceding the proposed disposition, exceeds 33 % of the value of the Company's fixed assets as shown in the latest balance sheet which was tabled at a shareholders' general meeting.

MP89

For the purposes of this Article, "disposition" includes an act involving the transfer of an interest in assets but does not include the usage of fixed assets for the provision of security.

The validity of a disposition by the Company shall not be affected by any breach of the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 92. The Chairman of the board of directors shall exercise the following powers:

MP90

- (1) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over meetings of the board of directors;
- (2) to check on the implementation of resolutions passed by the board of directors at directors' meetings;
- (3) to sign the securities certificates issued by the Company;
- (4) to exercise other powers conferred by the board of directors.

When the Chairman is unable to exercise his powers, such powers shall be exercised by the Vice-chairman who has been designated by the Chairman to exercise such powers on his behalf.

Article 93. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least four times every year and shall be convened by the Chairman of the board of directors. Where there is an urgent matter, an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors may be held if it is so requested by more than one-third of the directors, the Chairman of the board of directors or the Company's general manager.

MP91

Article 94. Notice of meetings and extraordinary meetings of the board of directors shall be delivered in person, by facsimile, by express delivery service or by registered mail. The time limit for the delivery of notice of meetings and extraordinary meetings of the board of directors shall be at least fourteen (14) days and ten (10) days respectively before the meeting.

MP92

Article 95. Notice of a meeting shall be deemed to have been given to any director who attends the meeting without protesting against, before or at its commencement, any lack of notice.

Article 96. Any regular or extraordinary meeting of the board of directors may be held by way of telephone conferencing or similar communication equipment so long as all directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with each other. All such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Article 97. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held only if more than half of the directors (including any alternate director appointed pursuant to Article 98 of the Company's Articles of Association) are present.

MP93, App.34(1)

Each director shall have one (1) vote. Unless otherwise provided for in the Company's Articles of Association, a resolution of the board of directors must be passed by more than half of all of the directors of the Company. A resolution of the board of directors relating to connected transactions shall be signed by independent (non-executive) directors before coming into effect.

Where there is an equality of votes cast both for and against a resolution, the Chairman of the board of directors shall have a casting vote.

A director shall not vote on any board resolution in which he or any of his associates has a material interest nor shall he be counted in the quorum present at the same board meeting. The relevant transaction shall be dealt with by way of a board meeting and not by way of circulation of written board resolution. If an independent non-executive director (and whose associates) has no material interests in the transaction, he should be present at such board meeting. In this Article, "associate" has the same meaning as defined in the Listing Rules. If any stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed sets out more stringent rules in relation to the matters in relation to which any director should abstain from voting, the directors should comply with the more stringent rules.

Article 98. Directors shall attend the meetings of the board of directors in person. Where a director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he may by a written power of attorney appoint another director to attend the meeting on his behalf. The power of attorney shall set out the scope of the authorisation.

MP94

A Director appointed as a representative of another director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of authority conferred by the appointing director. Where a director is unable to attend a meeting of the board of directors and has not appointed a representative to attend the meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to vote at the meeting.

Article 99. In respect of any matter which needs to be determined by the board of directors at an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors and where the board of directors has already sent out written notice of matters to be decided at such meeting and the number of directors who have signified their consent thereto reaches the amount set out in Article 97, a valid resolution shall be deemed to be passed and there is no need to hold a board of directors' meeting.

Article 100. The board of directors shall keep minutes of resolutions passed at meetings of the board of directors. The minutes shall be signed by the directors present at the meeting and the person who recorded the minutes. The directors shall be liable for the resolutions of the board of directors. If a resolution of the board of directors violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Company's Articles of Association and the Company suffers serious losses as a result thereof, the directors who participated in the passing of such resolution are liable to compensate the Company therefor. However, if it can be proven that a director expressly objected to the resolution when the resolution was voted on, and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such director may be released from such liability.

MP95

CHAPTER 11: SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 101. The Company shall have one (1) secretary of the board of directors. The secretary shall be a senior officer of the Company.

MP96

Article 102. The secretary of the Company's board of directors shall be a natural person who has the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be appointed by the board of directors. His primary responsibilities are to ensure that:

MP97

(1) to organise board meetings and general meetings of the Company, and to ensure that the Company has complete organisation documents and records;

(2) minutes of the meetings of the board of directors shall be circulated to all directors for their signature and records within 14 days after the board meeting is held and be made available for inspection;

(3) the Company prepares and delivers, in accordance with law, those reports and documents required by competent authorities entitled thereto;

(4) the Company's registers of shareholders are properly maintained, and that persons entitled to receive the Company's records and documents are furnished therewith without delay.

Article 103. A director or other senior officer of the Company may also act as the secretary of the board of directors. The certified public accountancy firm which has been appointed by the Company to act as its auditors shall not act as the secretary of the board of directors.

MP98

Where the office of secretary is held concurrently by a director, and an act is required to be done by a director and a secretary separately, the person who holds the office of director and secretary may not perform the act in a dual capacity.

CHAPTER 12: GENERAL MANAGER

Article 104. The Company shall have a general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller. The general manager proposed by the Chairman of the board of directors shall be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors. Senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and financial controller proposed by the general manager shall be appointed or dismissed by the board of the directors. A member of the board of directors may act concurrently as the general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller or other senior officers.

MP99

Article 105. The general manager shall be accountable to the board of directors and shall exercise the following functions and powers:

MP100

(1) to be in charge of the Company's production, operation and management and to organise the implementation of the resolutions of the board of directors;

(2) to organise the implementation of the Company's annual business plan and investment proposal;

(3) to draft plans for the establishment of the Company's internal management structure;

(4) to draft the Company's basic management system;

(5) to formulate concrete rules and regulations for the Company;

(6) to propose the appointment or dismissal by the board of directors of the Company's senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers,

financial controller and other senior officers ;

(7) to appoint or dismiss management personnel other than those required to be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors;

(8) other powers conferred by the Company's Articles of Association and the board of directors.

Article 106. The general manager shall attend meetings of the board of directors. The general manager, who is not a director, does not have any voting rights at board meetings.

MP101

Article 107. The general manager and senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and financial controller performing their functions and powers, shall act honestly and diligently and in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

MP102

CHAPTER 13: SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 108. The Company shall have a supervisory committee.

MP103

Article 109. The supervisory committee shall compose of seven (7) supervisors. One of the members of the supervisory committee shall act as the chairman. Each supervisor shall serve for a term of three (3) years, which term is renewable upon re-election and re-appointment.

MP104, C.5 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D 1(d) (i)

The election or removal of the chairman of the supervisory committee shall be determined by two-thirds or more of the members of the supervisory committee.

The chairman shall serve for a term of three (3) years, which term is renewable upon re-election and re-appointment.

Article 110. The supervisory committee shall comprise of four (6) supervisors who shall represent the shareholders, and who shall be elected or removed by the shareholders in general meetings, and one (1) supervisor who shall represent the employees of the Company and who shall be elected or removed democratically thereby.

MP105

Article 111. The directors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and financial controller shall not act concurrently as supervisors.

MP106

Article 112. Meetings of the supervisory committee shall be held at least once every year, and shall be convened by the chairman of the supervisory committee.

MP107

Article 113. The supervisory committee shall be accountable to the shareholders in a general meeting and shall exercise the following functions and powers in accordance with law:

MP108

- (1) to review the Company's financial position;
- (2) to supervise the directors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers to ensure that they do not act in contravention of any law, regulation or the Company's Articles of Association;
- (3) to demand any director, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or any other senior officer who acts in a manner which is harmful to the Company's interest to rectify such behaviour;
- (4) to check the financial information such as the financial report, business report and plans for distribution of profits to be submitted by the board of directors to the shareholders' general meetings and to authorise, in the Company's name, publicly certified and practising accountants to assist in the re-examination of such information should any doubt arise in respect thereof;
- (5) to propose to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting;
- (6) to represent the Company in negotiations with or in bringing actions against a director;
- (7) other functions and powers specified in the Company's Articles of Association.

Supervisors shall attend meetings of the board of directors.

Article 114. Meetings of the supervisory committee shall be held only if three (3) or more supervisors are present. Resolutions of the supervisory committee shall be passed by the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of all of its members.

MP109, C.6 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D
1(d)(ii)

Article 115. All reasonable fees incurred in respect of the employment of professionals (such as, lawyers, certified public accountants or practising auditors) which are required by the supervisory committee in the exercise of its functions and powers shall be borne by the Company.

MP110

Article 116. A supervisor shall carry out his duties honestly and faithfully in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

MP111

CHAPTER 14: THE QUALIFICATIONS AND DUTIES OF THE DIRECTORS,
SUPERVISORS, GENERAL MANAGER, SENIOR DEPUTY GENERAL MANAGERS,
DEPUTY GENERAL MANAGERS,
FINANCIAL CONTROLLER AND OTHER SENIOR OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY

Article 117. A person may not serve as a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or any other senior officer of the Company if any of the following circumstances apply:

MP112

(1) a person who does not have or who has limited capacity for civil conduct;

(2) a person who has been sentenced for corruption, bribery, infringement of property or misappropriation of property or other crimes which destroy the social economic order, where less than a term of five (5) years has lapsed since the sentence was served, or a person who has been deprived of his political rights and not more than five (5) years have lapsed since the sentence was served;

(3) a person who is a former director, factory manager or manager of a company or enterprise which has been dissolved or put into liquidation as a result of mismanagement and who was personally liable for the winding up of such company or enterprise, where less than three (3) years have elapsed since the date of completion of the insolvent liquidation of the company or enterprise;

(4) a person who is a former legal representative of a company or enterprise the business licence of which was revoked due to violation of law and who are personally liable therefor, where less than three (3) years have elapsed since the date of the revocation of the business licence;

(5) a person who has a relatively large amount of debts which have become overdue;

(6) a person who is currently under investigation by judicial organs for violation of criminal law;

(7) a person who, according to laws and administrative regulations, cannot act as a leader of an enterprise;

(8) a person other than a natural person;

(9) a person who has been convicted by the competent authority for violation of relevant securities regulations and such conviction involves a finding that such person has acted fraudulently or dishonestly, where not more than five (5) years have lapsed from the date of such conviction.

Article 118. The validity of an act carried out by a director, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company on its behalf shall, as against a bona fide third party, shall not be affected by any irregularity in his office, election or any defect in his qualification.

MP113

Article 119. In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange on which shares of the Company are listed, each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and other senior officers owes a duty to each shareholder, in the exercise of the functions and powers of the Company entrusted to him:

MP114

(1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of business stipulated in its business licence;

(2) to act honestly and in the best interests of the Company;

(3) not to expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (without limitation) usurpation of opportunities which benefit the Company;

(4) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distribution and voting rights, save and except pursuant to a restructuring of the Company which has been submitted to the shareholders for approval in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 120. Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers owes a duty, in the exercise of his powers and in the discharge of his duties, to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

MP115

Article 121. Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers shall exercise his powers or perform his duties in accordance with the fiduciary principle; and shall not put himself in a position where his duty and his interest may conflict. This principle includes (without limitation) discharging the following obligations:

MP116

(1) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;

(2) to act within the scope of his powers and not to exceed such powers;

(3) to exercise the discretion vested in him personally and not to allow himself to act under the control of another and, unless and to the extent permitted by laws, administrative regulations or with the informed consent of shareholders given in a general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion;

(4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;

(5) unless otherwise provided for in the Company's Articles of Association or except with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;

(6) not to use the Company's property for his own benefit, without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;

(7) not to exploit his position to accept bribes or other illegal income or expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (without limitation) opportunities which benefit the Company;

(8) not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transactions, without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;

(9) to comply with the Company's Articles of Association, to perform his official duties faithfully, to protect the Company's interests and not to exploit his position and power in the Company to advance his own interests;

(10) not to compete with the Company in any way, save with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;

(11) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or to lend such funds to any other person, not to use the Company's assets to set up deposit accounts in his own name or in the any other name or to use such assets to guarantee the debts of a shareholder of the Company or any other personal liabilities;

(12) not to release any confidential information which he has obtained during his term of office, without the informed consent of the shareholders in a general meeting; nor shall he use such information otherwise than for the Company's benefit, save that disclosure of such information to the court or other governmental authorities is permitted if:

(i) disclosure is made under compulsion of law;

(ii) public interests so warrants;

(iii) the interests of the relevant director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer so requires;

(13) strictly comply with the relevant laws and regulations and the relevant rules of the stock exchanges on which the shares of the Company are listed in respect of dealings with the securities of the Company.

Article 122.

Each director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller and other senior officer of the Company shall not direct the following persons or institutions ("associates") to act in a manner which he is prohibited from so acting:

MP117

(1) the spouse or minor child of the director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer;

(2) the trustee of the director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer or of any person described in sub-paragraph (1) above;

(3) the partner of that director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer or any person referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article;

(4) a company in which that director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer, whether alone or jointly with one (1) or more of the persons referred to in sub-paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article and other directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers, has de facto controlling interest;

(5) the directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and other senior officers of a company which is being controlled in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (4) above.

Article 123.

The fiduciary duties of the directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers of the Company do not necessarily cease with the termination of their tenure. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of their tenure. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require depending on the amount of time which has lapsed between the termination and the act concerned and the circumstances and the terms under which the relationship between the relevant director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager and the senior officer on the one hand and the Company on the other hand was terminated.

MP118

Article 124. Subject to Article 48, a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company may be relieved of liability for specific breaches of his duty with the informed consent of the shareholders given at a general meeting.

MP119

Article 125. Where a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company is in any way, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company, (other than his contract of service with the Company), he shall declare the nature and extent of his interests to the board of directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the contract, transaction or arrangement or proposal therefor is otherwise subject to the approval of the board of directors.

MP120

Unless the interested director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer discloses his interests in accordance with the preceding sub-paragraph of this Article and the contract, transaction or arrangement is approved by the board of directors at a meeting in which the interested director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer is not counted as part of the quorum and refrains from voting, a contract, transaction or arrangement in which that director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer is materially interested is voidable at the instance of the Company except as against a bona fide party thereto who does not have notice of the breach of duty by the interested director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer.

For the purposes of this Article, a director, supervisor, general manager, Senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager financial controller or other senior officer of the Company is deemed to be interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement in which his associate is interested.

Article 126. Where a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company gives to the board of directors a notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he is interested in contracts, transactions or arrangements which may subsequently be made by the Company, that notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Article to be a sufficient declaration of his interests, so far as the content stated in such notice is concerned, provided that such notice shall have been given before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first taken into consideration by the Company.

MP121

Article 127. The Company shall not pay taxes for or on behalf of a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer in any manner.

MP122

Article 128. The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan to or provide any guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to a director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company or of the Company's holding company or any of their respective associates.

MP123

The foregoing prohibition shall not apply to the following circumstances:

(1) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to its subsidiary;

(2) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan or any other funds available to any of its directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties properly, in accordance with the terms of a service contract approved by the shareholders in a general meeting;

(3) if the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the lending of money or the giving of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to or provide a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to any of the relevant directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers or their respective associates in the ordinary course of its business on normal commercial terms.

Article 129. Any person who receives funds from a loan which has been made by the Company acting in breach of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.

MP124

Article 130. A guarantee for the repayment of a loan which has been provided by the Company acting in breach of Article 128(1) shall not be enforceable against the Company, save in respect of the following circumstances:

MP125

(1) the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan which was made to an associate of any of the directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers of the Company or of the Company's holding company and the lender of such funds did not know of the relevant circumstances at the time of the making of the loan; or

(2) the collateral which has been provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 131.

For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a "guarantee" includes an undertaking or property provided to secure the obligor's performance of his obligations.

MP126

Article

132. In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company breaches the duties which he owes to the Company, the Company has a right:

MP127

(1) to demand such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer to compensate it for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;

(2) to rescind any contract or transaction which has been entered into between the Company and such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer or between the Company and a third party (where such third party knows or should have known that such director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer representing the Company has breached his duties owed to the Company);

(3) to demand such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer to account for profits made as result of the breach of his duties;

(4) to recover any monies which should have been received by the Company and which were received by such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer instead, including (without limitation) commissions; and

(5) to demand repayment of interest earned or which may have been earned by such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer on monies that should have been paid to the Company.

Article 133. The Company shall, with the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, enter into a contract in writing with a director or supervisor wherein his emoluments are stipulated. The aforesaid emoluments include:

MP128

- (1) emoluments in respect of his service as director, supervisor or senior officer of the Company;
- (2) emoluments in respect of his service as director, supervisor or senior officer of any subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) emoluments in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) payment by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office.

No proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for anything due to him in respect of the matters mentioned in this Article except pursuant to the contract mentioned above.

Article 134. The contract concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors or supervisors should provide that in the event that the Company is acquired, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment in respect of his loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of this paragraph, the acquisition of the Company includes any of the following:

MP129

- (1) an offer made by any person to the general body of shareholders;
- (2) an offer made by any person with a view to the offeror becoming a "controlling shareholder" within the meaning of Article 49.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of such offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such sum on a pro rata basis amongst such persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be paid out of such sum.

CHAPTER 15: FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING
SYSTEMS AND PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

- Article 135. The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and PRC accounting standards formulated by the finance regulatory department of the State Council.
- MP130
- Article 136. At the end of each fiscal year, the Company shall prepare a financial report which shall be examined and verified in a manner prescribed by law.
- MP131
- Article 137. The board of directors of the Company shall place before the shareholders at every annual general meeting such financial reports which the relevant laws, administrative regulations and directives promulgated by competent regional and central governmental authorities require the Company to prepare.
- MP132
- Article 138. The Company's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company twenty (20) days before the date of every shareholders' annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.
- MP133, C.7 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.35
- The Company shall deliver or send to each shareholder of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares by prepaid mail at the address registered in the register of shareholders the said reports not later than twenty-one (21) days before the date of every annual general meeting of the shareholders.
- Article 139. The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or that of the place outside the PRC where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the financial statements. In distributing its after-tax profits, the lower of the two amounts shown in the financial statements shall be adopted.
- MP134
- Article 140. Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company must also be prepared and presented in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations, and also in accordance with either international accounting standards or that of the place overseas where the Company's shares are listed.
- MP135
- Article 141. The Company shall publish its financial reports twice every fiscal year, that is, the interim financial report shall be published within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the first six (6) months of each fiscal year; the annual financial report shall be published within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the expiration of each fiscal year.

MP136

Article 142. The Company shall not keep accounts other than those required by law.

MP137

Article 143. The Company's after-tax profit shall be allocated in accordance with the following order:

- (1) compensation of losses;
- (2) allocation of ten percent of its after-tax profit to the statutory common reserve fund;
- (3) allocation of five percent to ten percent of its after-tax to the statutory common welfare fund;
- (4) allocation to the discretionary common reserve fund upon approval by resolution of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (5) payment of dividends in respect of ordinary shares.

The Company shall not allocate dividends or carry out other allocations in the form of bonuses, before the Company has compensated for its losses and made allocations to the statutory common reserve fund and the statutory common welfare fund.

Article 144. Capital common reserve fund includes the following items:

MP138

- (1) premium on shares issued at a premium price;
- (2) any other income designated for the capital common reserve fund by the regulations of the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

Article 145. The common reserve fund of the Company shall be applied for the following purposes:

- (1) to compensate losses;
- (2) to expand the Company's production and operation;
- (3) to convert the common reserve fund into capital in order to increase its capital. The Company may convert its common reserve fund into capital with the approval of shareholders in a general meeting. When such conversion takes place, the Company shall either distribute new shares in proportion to the existing shareholders' number of shares, or increase the par value of each share, provided, however, that when the statutory common reserve fund is converted to capital, the balance of the statutory common reserve fund may not fall below 25 % of the registered capital.

- Article 146. The Company's statutory common welfare fund is used for the collective welfare of the Company's employees.
- Article 147. Dividend shall be paid twice a year. The final dividends of the Company shall be decided by the shareholders by way of an ordinary resolution. The shareholders may by way of an ordinary resolution authorize the board of directors to decide the interim dividends.
- Article 148. The Company may distribute dividends in the form of:
MP139
(1) cash;
(2) shares.
If any shareholder has not claimed his dividends six years after such dividends has been declared, such shareholder is deemed to forfeit his right to claim such dividends. The Company shall not exercise its power to forfeit the unclaimed dividends until after the expiry of the applicable limitation period.
- Article 149. The Company shall calculate, declare and pay dividends and other amounts which are payable to holders of Domestic-Invested Shares in Renminbi. The Company shall calculate and declare dividends and other payments which are payable to holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares in Renminbi, and shall pay such amounts in the local currency of the place in which such Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares are listed (if such shares are listed in more than one place, then the currency of the principal place on which such shares are listed as determined by the board of directors).
- Article 150. The Company shall pay dividends and other amounts to holders of Foreign-Invested Shares in accordance with the relevant foreign exchange control regulations of the State. If there is no applicable regulation, the applicable exchange rate shall be the average closing rate for the relevant foreign currency announced by the Peoples' Bank of China during the week prior to the announcement of payment of dividend and other amounts.
- Article 151. The Company shall appoint receiving agents for holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares. Such receiving agents shall receive dividends which have been declared by the Company and all other amounts which the Company should pay to holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares on such shareholders' behalf.

MP140, C.8 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D 1(c)

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the relevant requirements of the laws of the place at which the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed or the relevant regulations of such stock exchange.

The receiving agents appointed for holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong shall each be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

CHAPTER 16: APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

Article 152. The Company shall appoint an independent firm of accountants which is qualified under the relevant regulations of the State to audit the Company's annual report and review the Company's other financial reports.

MP141

The first auditors of the Company may be appointed before the first annual general meeting of the Company at the inaugural meeting. Auditors so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

If the inaugural meeting does not exercise the powers under the preceding paragraph, those powers shall be exercised by the board of directors.

Article 153. The auditors appointed by the Company shall hold office from the conclusion of the annual general meeting of shareholders at which they were appointed until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of shareholders.

MP142

Article 154. The auditors appointed by the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

MP143

(1) a right to review to the books, records and vouchers of the Company at any time, the right to require the directors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and other senior officers of the Company to supply relevant information and explanations;

(2) a right to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries such information and explanation as are necessary for the discharge of its duties;

(3) a right to attend shareholders' general meetings and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any shareholders' general meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any shareholders' general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's accountancy firm.

Article 155. If there is a vacancy in the position of auditor of the Company, the board of directors may appoint an accountancy firm to fill such vacancy before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. Any other accountancy firm which has been appointed by the Company may continue to act during the period during which a vacancy arises.

MP144

Article 156. The shareholders in a general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove the Company's auditors before the expiration of its term of office, irrespective of the provisions in the contract between the Company and the Company's auditors. However, the accountancy firm's right to claim for damages which arise from its removal shall not be affected thereby.

MP145

Article 157. The remuneration of an accountancy firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined by the shareholders in a general meeting. The remuneration of an accountancy firm appointed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

MP146

Article 158. The Company's appointment, removal or non-reappointment of an accountancy firm shall be resolved by the shareholders in a general meeting. Such resolution shall be filed with the securities authority of the State Council.

MP147, C.9 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D 1(e)(i)

Where a resolution at a general meeting of shareholders is passed to appoint as auditor a person other than an incumbent auditor, to fill a casual vacancy in the office of auditor, to reappoint as auditor a retiring auditor who was appointed by the board of directors to fill a casual vacancy or to remove an auditor before the expiration of his term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) A copy of the appointment or removal proposal shall be sent (before notice of meeting is given to the shareholders) to the firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post or the firm which has left its post in the relevant fiscal year (leaving includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement).

(2) If the auditor leaving its post makes representations in writing and requests the Company to give the shareholders notice of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations have been received too late) take the following measures:

(a) in any notice of the resolution given to shareholders, state the fact of the representations having been made; and

(b) attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association.

(3) If the Company fails to send out the auditor's representations in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (2) above, such auditor may (in addition to his right to be heard) require that the representations be read out at the meeting.

(4) An auditor which is leaving its post shall be entitled to attend the following shareholders' general meetings:

(a) the general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;

(b) the general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal; and

(c) the general meeting which convened as a result of its resignation, and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any such meeting, and to speak at any such meeting which it attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns it as former auditor of the Company.

Article 159.

Prior notice should be given to the accountancy firm if the Company decides to remove such accountancy firm or not to renew the appointment thereof. Such accountancy firm shall be entitled to make representations at the shareholders' general meeting. Where the accountancy firm resigns from its position as the Company's auditors, it shall make clear to the shareholders in a general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company.

MP148, C.10 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D
1(e) (ii)-(e) (iv)

An accountancy firm may resign its office by depositing at the Company's legal address a resignation notice which shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as may be stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

(1) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or

(2) a statement of any such circumstances.

Where a notice is deposited under the preceding sub-paragraph, the Company shall within fourteen (14) days send a copy of the notice to the relevant governing authority. If the notice contains a statement under the preceding sub-paragraph (2), a copy of such statement shall be placed at the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company should also send a copy of such statement by prepaid mail to every shareholder of Overseas-Listed Foreign Shares at the address registered in the register of shareholders.

Where the auditor's notice of resignation contains a statement in respect of the above, it may require the board of directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of receiving an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.

CHAPTER 17: INSURANCE

Article 160. The different types or items of the Company's insurance shall be decided at a meeting of the board of directors in accordance with the relevant insurance law in China.

CHAPTER 18: LABOUR AND PERSONNEL
MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Article 161. The Company may at its discretion employ and dismiss employees based on the business development needs of the Company and in accordance with the requirements of the laws and administrative regulations of the State.

Article 162. The Company may formulate its labour and payroll systems and payment methods in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the State, the Company's Articles of Association and the economical benefits of the Company.

Article 163. The Company shall endeavour to improve its employee benefits and to continually improve the working environment and living standards of its employees.

Article 164. The Company shall provide medical, retirement and unemployment insurance for its employees and put in place a labour insurance system, in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the State.

CHAPTER 19: TRADE UNIONS

Article 165. The Company's employees may form trade unions, carry on trade union activities and protect their legal rights. The Company shall provide the necessary conditions for such activities.

CHAPTER 20: MERGER AND DIVISION OF THE COMPANY

Article 166. In the event of the merger or division of the Company, a plan shall be presented by the Company's board of directors and shall be approved in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association. The Company shall then go through the relevant approval process. A shareholder who objects to the plan of merger or division shall have the right to demand the Company or the shareholders who consent to the plan of merger or division to acquire such dissenting shareholders' shareholding at a fair price. The contents of the resolution of merger or division of the Company shall constitute special documents which shall be available for inspection by the shareholders of the Company.

MP149

Such special documents shall be sent by mail to holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares.

Article 167. The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by the establishment of a new company.

MP150, App.37(1)

In the event of a merger, the merging parties shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days of the date of the Company's merger resolution and shall publish a public notice in a newspaper at least three (3) times within thirty (30) days of the date of the Company's merger resolution.

At the time of merger, rights in relation to debtors and indebtedness of each of the merged parties shall be assumed by the company which survives the merger or the newly established company.

Article 168. Where there is a division of the Company, its assets shall be divided up accordingly.

MP151, App.3 7(1)

In the event of division of the Company, the parties to such division shall execute a division agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days of the date of the Company's division resolution and shall publish a public notice in a newspaper at least three (3) times within thirty (30) days of the date of the Company's division resolution.

Debts of the Company prior to division shall be assumed by the companies which exist after the division in accordance with the agreement of the parties.

Article 169. The Company shall, in accordance with law, apply for change in its registration with the companies registration authority where a change in any item in its registration arises as a result of any merger or division. Where the Company is dissolved, the Company shall apply for cancellation of its registration in accordance with law. Where a new company is established, the Company shall apply for registration thereof in accordance with law.

MP152

CHAPTER 21: DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Article 170. The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

MP153

(1) a resolution for dissolution is passed by shareholders at a general meeting;

(2) dissolution is necessary due to a merger or division of the Company;

(3) the Company is legally declared insolvent due to its failure to repay debts as they become due; and

(4) the Company is ordered to close down because of its violation of laws and administrative regulations.

Article 171.

A liquidation committee shall be set up within fifteen (15) days of the Company being dissolved pursuant to sub-paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, and the composition of the liquidation committee of the Company shall be determined by an ordinary resolution of shareholders in a general meeting.

MP154

Where the Company is dissolved under sub-paragraph (3) of the preceding Article, the People's Court shall in accordance with the provisions of relevant laws organise the shareholders, relevant organisations and relevant professional personnel to establish a liquidation committee to carry out the liquidation.

Where the Company is dissolved under sub-paragraph (4) of the preceding Article, the relevant governing authorities shall organise the shareholders, relevant organisations and professional personnel to establish a liquidation committee to carry out the liquidation.

Article 172.

Where the board of directors proposes to liquidate the Company for any reason other than the Company's declaration of its own insolvency, the board shall include a statement in its notice convening a shareholders' general meeting to consider the proposal to the effect that, after making full inquiry into the affairs of the Company, the board of directors is of the opinion that the Company will be able to pay its debts in full within twelve (12) months from the commencement of the liquidation.

MP155

Upon the passing of the resolution by the shareholders in a general meeting for the liquidation of the Company, all functions and powers of the board of directors shall cease.

The liquidation committee shall act in accordance with the instructions of the shareholders' general meeting to make a report at least once every year to the shareholders' general meeting on the committee's income and expenses, the business of the Company and the progress of the liquidation; and to present a final report to the shareholders' general meeting on completion of the liquidation.

Article 173. The liquidation committee shall, within ten (10) days of its establishment, send notices to creditors and shall, within sixty (60) days of its establishment, publish a public announcement in a newspaper at least three (3) times.

MP156, App.37(1)

A creditor shall, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice, or for creditors who have not personally received such notice, within ninety (90) days of the date of the first public announcement, report its rights to the liquidation committee. When reporting his rights, the creditor shall provide an explanation of matters which are relevant thereto and shall provide evidential material in respect thereof. The liquidation committee shall register the creditor's rights.

Article 174. During the liquidation period, the liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers:

MP157

- (1) to sort out the Company's assets and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets respectively;
- (2) to send notify the creditors or to publish public announcements;
- (3) to dispose of and liquidate any unfinished businesses of the Company;
- (4) to pay all outstanding taxes;
- (5) to settle claims and debts;
- (6) to deal with the surplus assets remaining after the Company's debts have been repaid;
- (7) to represent the Company in any civil proceedings.

Article 175. After it has sorted out the Company's assets and after it has prepared the balance sheet and an inventory of assets, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation plan and present it to a shareholders' general meeting or to the relevant governing authority for confirmation.

MP158

The company's assets shall be distributed in accordance with law or regulation. If there is no applicable law, such distribution shall be carried out in accordance with a fair and reasonable procedure determined by the liquidation committee.

Any surplus assets of the Company remaining after its debts have been repaid in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be distributed to its shareholders according to the class of shares and the proportion of shares held.

During the liquidation period, the Company shall not commence any new business activities.

Article 176. If after putting the Company's assets in order and preparing a balance sheet and an inventory of assets in connection with the liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee discovers that the Company's assets are insufficient to repay the Company's debts in full, the liquidation committee shall immediately apply to the People's Court for a declaration of insolvency.

MP159

After a Company is declared insolvent by a ruling of the People's Court, the liquidation committee shall transfer all matters arising from the liquidation to the People's Court.

Article 177. Following the completion of the liquidation, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, a statement of income and expenses received and made during the liquidation period and a financial report, which shall be verified by a Chinese registered accountant and submitted to the shareholders' general meeting or the relevant governing authority for confirmation.

MP160

The liquidation committee shall, within thirty (30) days after such confirmation, submit the documents referred to in the preceding paragraph to the companies registration authority and apply for cancellation of registration of the Company, and publish a public announcement relating to the termination of the Company.

CHAPTER 22: PROCEDURES FOR AMENDMENT
OF THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Article 178. The Company may amend its Articles of Association in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

MP161

Article 179. The Company's Articles of Association shall be amended in the following manner:

- (1) The Directors shall propose the manner in which the Company's Article of Association shall be amended;
- (2) The foregoing proposal shall be furnished to the shareholders in writing and a shareholders' meeting shall be convened;
- (3) The amendments shall be approved by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders present at the meeting.

Article 180. Amendment of the Company's Articles of Association which involve the contents of the Mandatory Provisions of Overseas-Listed Companies' Articles of Association (signed by the Securities Committee of the State Council and the Economic Reform Committee of the State on 27 August 1994) ("Mandatory Provisions") shall become effective upon receipt of approvals from the securities authority of the State Council and the companies approving department authorised by the State Council. If there is any change relating to the registered particulars of the Company, application shall be made for change in registration in accordance with law.

MP162

CHAPTER 23: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Article 181. The Company shall abide by the following principles for dispute resolution:

MP163

(1) Whenever any disputes or claims arise between: holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and the Company; holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller or other senior officers; or holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and holders of

Domestic-Invested Shares, in respect of any rights or obligations arising from these Articles of Association, the Company Law or any rights or obligations conferred or imposed by the Company Law and special regulations (including other relevant laws) or any other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company, such disputes or claims shall be referred by the relevant parties to arbitration.

Where a dispute or claim of rights referred to in the preceding paragraph is referred to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be referred to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall, where such person is the Company, the Company's shareholders, directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller or other senior officers of the Company, comply with the arbitration.

Disputes in respect of the definition of shareholders and disputes in relation to the register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

(2) A claimant may elect for arbitration to be carried out at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its Rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body elected by the claimant.

If a claimant elects for arbitration to be carried out at Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, any party to the dispute or claim may apply for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

(3) If any disputes or claims of rights are settled by way of arbitration in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) of this Article, the laws of the PRC shall apply, save as otherwise provided in the laws and administrative regulations.

(4) The award of an arbitral body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

CHAPTER 24: NOTICE

- Article 182. Unless otherwise provided, the Company shall, where it is making a public announcement in the prescribed or approved manner, issue or deliver any notice or announcement in at least one (1) national newspaper which has been appointed by the securities authority of the State Council. And, where possible, to publish such notice or announcement in English and in Chinese on the same day in a major Chinese and a major English newspaper in Hong Kong respectively.
- Article 183. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, notices, information or written statement issued by the Company to holders of Overseas-listed shares shall be personally delivered to the registered address of each of such shareholders, or sent by mail to each of such shareholders.
- Notices to be issued to holders of Domestic-invested shares shall have to be released in any one or more newspapers appointed by the securities authority of the State Council, all holders of Domestic-invested shares shall be deemed to have received such notices once they are published.
- Article 184. All notices which are to be sent by mail shall be clearly addressed, postage pre-paid, and shall be put in envelopes before being posted by mail. Such letters of notice shall be deemed to have been received by shareholders five (5) days after the date of despatch.
- Article 185. Any notices, document, information or written statement from the shareholders or directors to the Company shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail to the legal address of the Company.
- Article 186. Shareholders or directors of the Company who want to prove that certain notices, documents, information or written statements have been sent to the Company shall provide evidential materials showing that such notices, documents, information or written statements have been sent to the Company by normal methods within designated times, and that the mailing address is correct and the postage is fully paid.

CHAPTER 25: SUPPLEMENTARY

Article 187. In these Articles of Association, references to "accountancy firm" shall have the same meaning as "auditors".

MP165

Article 188. The Company's Articles of Association are written in Chinese and English. Both text shall be equally valid. If there is any discrepancy between the two versions, the Chinese version of the Articles of Association shall prevail.

In such placement, the Company issued 3,196,801,818 new shares and the promoter sold 319,680,182 shares held by it. Following the placement as described above, the share capital structure of the Company comprises 179,020,977,818 common shares, of which 157,922,077,818 common shares, which represent approximately 88.21% of the Company's share capital, are held by China National Petroleum Corporation; 21,098,900,000 shares, which represent approximately 11.79% of the Company's share capital, are held by the H shares shareholders.

Article 17. The Company's board of directors may take all necessary action for the issuance of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares after proposals for issuance of the same have been approved by the securities authority of the State Council.

MP17

The Company may implement its proposal to issue Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph within fifteen (15) months from the date of approval by the securities authority of the State Council.

Article 18. Where the total number of shares stated in the proposal for the issuance of shares include Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and Domestic-Invested Shares, such shares should be fully subscribed for at their respective offerings. If the shares cannot be fully subscribed for all at once due to special circumstances, the shares may, subject to the approval of the securities authority of the State Council, be issued in separate branches.

MP18

Article 19. The registered capital of the Company shall be RMB179,020,977,818; if the issued shares are redeemed or new shares are issued, the registered capital of the Company shall be adjusted accordingly, and put on file with the companies approving department authorised by the State Council and the securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

MP19

Article 20. The Company may, based on its operating and development needs, authorise the increase of its capital pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association.

MP20

The Company may increase its capital in the following ways:

- (1) by offering new shares for subscription by unspecified investors;
- (2) by issuing new shares to its existing shareholders;
- (3) by allotting bonus shares to its existing shareholders;
- (4) by any other means which is permitted by law and administrative regulation.

After the Company's increase of share capital by means of the issuance of new shares has been approved in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association, the issuance thereof should be made in accordance with the procedures set out in the relevant laws and administrative regulations.

Article 21. Unless otherwise stipulated in the relevant laws or administrative regulations, shares , in the Company shall be freely transferable and are not subject to any lien.

MP21 App.31(2)

Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be purchased, sold, donated, inherited and mortgaged in accordance with the Chinese laws and the Company's Articles of Association. The transfer and transmission of the shares shall be registered in accordance with the relevant regulations.

The Company has the power to sell the shares of a shareholder who is untraceable, if

- (a) during a period of 12 years at least three years dividends in respect of the shares in question have become payable and no dividend during that period has been claimed; and
- (b) on expiry of the 12 years the issuer gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by way of an advertisement approved by the securities authority of the State Council, and notifies the securities authority of the State Council and other relevant overseas securities regulatory committee of such intention.

CHAPTER 4: REDUCTION OF CAPITAL AND
REPURCHASE OF SHARES

Article 22. According to the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association, the Company may reduce its registered capital.

MP22

Article 23. The Company must prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets when it reduces its registered capital.

MP23, App.37(1)

The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days of the date of the Company's resolution for reduction of capital and shall publish an announcement in a newspaper at least three (3) times within thirty (30) days of the date of such resolution. A creditor has the right within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice from the Company or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive such notice, within ninety (90) days of the date of the first public announcement, to require the Company to repay its debts or to provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

The Company's registered capital may not, after the reduction in capital, be less than the minimum amount prescribed by law.

Article 24. The Company may, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Company's Articles of Association and with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State, repurchase its issued shares under the following circumstances:

MP24

(1) cancellation of shares for the purposes of reducing its capital;

(2) merging with another company that holds shares in the Company;

(3) other circumstances permitted by laws and administrative regulations.

Article 25. The Company may repurchase shares in one of the following ways, with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State:

MP25

(1) by making a general offer for the repurchase of shares to all its shareholders on a pro rata basis;

(2) by repurchasing shares through public dealing on a stock exchange;

(3) by repurchasing shares outside of the stock exchange by means of an off-market agreement.

Article 26. The Company must obtain the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting (in the manner stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association) before it can repurchase shares outside of the stock exchange by means of an off-market agreement. The Company may, by obtaining the prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting (in the same manner), release, vary or waive its rights under an agreement which has been so entered into.

MP26

An agreement for the repurchase shares referred to in the preceding paragraph includes (without limitation) an agreement to become liable to repurchase shares or an agreement to have the right to repurchase shares.

The Company may not assign an agreement for the repurchase of its shares or any right contained in such an agreement.

Article 27. Shares which have been legally repurchased by the Company shall be cancelled within the period prescribed by law and administrative regulation, and the Company shall apply to the original companies registration authority for registration of the change in its registered capital and make a public announcement.

MP27

The aggregate par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered share capital.

Article 28. Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchase of its issued shares:

MP28

(1) where the Company repurchases shares at par value, payment shall be made out of book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose;

(2) where the Company repurchases shares of the Company at a premium to its par value, payment up to the par value may be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:

(i) if the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company;

(ii) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the new issue shall not exceed the aggregate amount of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased nor shall it exceed the book value of the Company's capital common reserve fund account (including the premiums on the new issue) at the time of the repurchase;

(3) the Company shall make the following payments out of the Company's distributable profits:

(i) payment for the acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares;

(ii) payment for variation of any contract for the repurchase of its shares;

(iii) payment for the release of its obligation(s) under any contract for the repurchase of shares;

(4) after the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the aggregate par value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for payment of the par value of shares which have been repurchased shall be transferred to the Company's capital common reserve fund account.

CHAPTER 5: FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR ACQUISITION OF SHARES

Article 29. The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to a person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares in the Company. This includes any person who directly or indirectly incurs any obligations as a result of the acquisition of shares in the Company (the "Obligor").

MP29

The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to the Obligor for the purposes of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by such person.

This Article shall not apply to the circumstances specified in Article 31 of this Chapter.

Article 30. For the purposes of this Chapter, "financial assistance" includes (without limitation) the following:

MP30

- (1) gift;
- (2) guarantee (including the assumption of liability by the guarantor or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the Obligor), compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company's own default) or release or waiver of any rights;
- (3) provision of loan or any other agreement under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of another party, or the change in parties to, or the assignment of rights under, such loan or agreement;
- (4) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

For the purposes of this Chapter, "assumption of obligations" includes the assumption of obligations by way of contract or by way of arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not and irrespective of whether such obligation is to be borne solely by the Obligor or jointly with other persons) or by any other means which results in a change in his financial position.

Article 31. The following actions shall not be deemed to be activities prohibited by Article 29 of this Chapter:

MP31

(1) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is given in good faith in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares in the Company, or the giving of the financial assistance is an incidental part of some larger purpose of the Company;

(2) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets by way of dividend;

(3) the allotment of bonus shares as dividends;

(4) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares of the Company or a reorganisation of the share capital structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association;

(5) the lending of money by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business, where the lending of money is part of the scope of business of the Company (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits);

(6) contributions made by the Company to the employee share ownership schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits).

CHAPTER 6: SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REGISTER OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 32. Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

MP32

The share certificate of the Company shall, aside from matters required by the Company Law and the Special Regulations, also contain other matters required to be stated therein by the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed.

Article 33. Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by the Chairman of the Company's board of directors. Where the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed require other senior officer(s) of the Company to sign on the share certificates, the share certificates shall also be signed by such senior officer(s). The share certificates shall take effect after being sealed or imprinted with the seal of the Company. The share certificate shall only be sealed with the Company's seal under the authorisation of the board of directors. The signatures of the Chairman of the board of directors or other senior officer(s) of the Company may be printed in mechanical form.

Article 34. The Company shall keep a register of shareholders which shall contain the following particulars:

MP34

- (1) the name (title) and address (residence), the occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (2) the class and quantity of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) the amount paid-up on or agreed to be paid-up on the shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) the share certificate number(s) of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) the date on which each person was entered in the register as a shareholder;
- (6) the date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings in the Company.

Article 35. The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the securities authority of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory organisations, maintain the register of shareholders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares overseas and appoint overseas agent(s) to manage such register of shareholders. The original register of shareholders for holders of H Shares shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

MP35, C.2 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1997] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D 1(b)

A duplicate register of shareholders for the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders for the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

The Company shall make available at its Hong Kong representative office for inspection by the public and shareholders free of charge, and for copying by shareholders at reasonable charges, the following:-

- (1) a complete duplicate of the register of members;
- (2) a report showing the state of the issued share capital of the Company;
- (3) the latest audited Financial Statements and the Directors', Auditors' and Supervisors' Reports;
- (4) special resolutions of the Company;
- (5) reports showing the number and nominal value of securities repurchased by the Company since the end of the last financial year, the aggregate amount paid for such securities and the maximum and the minimum prices paid in respect of each class of securities repurchased (with a breakdown between domestic shares and foreign shares);
- (6) a copy of the latest annual examination report filed with the State Administration of Industry and Commerce; and
- (7) for shareholders only, copies of the minutes of meetings of shareholders' meetings.

Article 36.

The Company shall have a complete register of shareholders which shall comprise the following parts:

MP36

- (1) the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's residence (other than those share registers which are described in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article);
- (2) the register of shareholders in respect of the holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares of the Company which is maintained in the same place as the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed; and
- (3) the register of shareholders which are maintained in such other place as the board of directors may consider necessary for the purposes of the listing of the Company's shares.

Article 37.

Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of any shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register.

MP37

Amendments or rectification of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where the register of shareholders is maintained.

Article 38.

All Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be transferred by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the directors may approve. The instrument of transfer of any share may be executed by hand without seal. If the shareholder is the recognised clearing house or its nominee defined by the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), the share transfer form may be executed by hand or in mechanically-printed form.

C.12 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1

All Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong which have been fully paid-up may be freely transferred in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association. However, unless such transfer complies with the following requirements, the board of directors may refuse to recognise any instrument of transfer and would not need to provide any reason therefor:

(1) a fee of HK$2.50 per instrument of transfer or such higher amount as the board of directors may from time to time require but lesser than the amount agreed from time to time by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("LISTING RULES") has been paid to the Company for registration of the instrument of transfer and other documents relating to or which will affect the right of ownership of the shares;

App.31(1)

(2) the instrument of transfer only relates to Foreign-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong;

(3) the stamp duty which is chargeable on the instrument of transfer has already been paid;

(4) the relevant share certificate(s) and any other evidence which the board of directors may reasonably require to show that the transferor has the right to transfer the shares have been provided;

(5) if it is intended that the shares be transferred to joint owners, the maximum number of joint owners shall not be more than four (4);

App.31(3)

(6) the Company does not have any lien on the relevant shares.

App.31(2)

If the Company refuses to register any transfer of shares, the Company shall within two (2) months of formal application for the transfer provide the transferor and transferee with a notice of refusal to register such transfer.

The directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers of the Company shall report the number of shares which they hold in the Company and may not transfer such shares during their term of office.

Article 39. No change may be made in the register of shareholders as a result of a transfer of shares within thirty (30) days prior to the date of a shareholders' general meeting or within five (5) days before the record date for the Company's distribution of dividends.

MP38

Article 40. When the Company needs to determine the rights attaching to shares in the Company for the purposes of convening a shareholders' meeting, for dividend distribution, for liquidation or for any other purpose, the board of directors shall decide on a date for the determination of rights attaching to shares in the Company. The shareholders of the Company shall be such persons who appear in the register of shareholders at the close of such determination date.

MP39

Article 41. Any person aggrieved and claiming to be entitled to have his name (title) entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.

MP40

Article 42. Any person who is a registered shareholder or who claims to be entitled to have his name (title) entered in the register of shareholders in respect of shares in the Company may, if his share certificate (the "original certificate") relating to the shares is lost, apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the "Relevant Shares").

MP41, App.37(1)

Application by a holder of Domestic-Invested Shares, who has lost his share certificate, for a replacement share certificate shall be dealt with in accordance with Article 150 of the Company Law.

Application by a holder of Overseas-Listed Foreign Shares, who has lost his share certificate, for a replacement share certificate may be dealt with in accordance with the law of the place where the original register of shareholders of holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares is maintained, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations.

The issue of a replacement share certificate to a holder of H Shares, who has lost his share certificate, shall comply with the following requirements:

(1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in a prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration (i) stating the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss; and (ii) declaring that no other person is entitled to have his name entered in the register of shareholders in respect of the Relevant Shares.

(2) The Company has not received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant declaring that his name shall be entered into the register of shareholders in respect of such shares before it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant.

(3) The Company shall, if it intends to issue a replacement share certificate, publish a notice of its intention to do so at least once every thirty (30) days within a period of ninety (90) consecutive days in such newspapers as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

(4) The Company shall, prior to publication of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, deliver to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed, a copy of the notice to be published and may publish the notice upon receipt of confirmation from such stock exchange that the notice has been exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange. Such notice shall be exhibited in the premises of the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days.

In the case of an application which is made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the notice to be published.

(5) If, by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company has not have received any challenge from any person in respect of the issuance of the replacement share certificate, it may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant pursuant to his application.

(6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate and document the cancellation of the original share certificate and issuance of a replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders accordingly.

(7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant and the Company is entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable security is provided by the applicant therefor.

Article 43.

Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association and a bona fide purchaser acquires or becomes the registered owner of such shares, his name (title) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

MP42

Article 44. The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate unless the claimant is able to prove that the Company has acted in a deceitful manner.

MP43

CHAPTER 7: SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Article 45. A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name (title) is entered in the register of shareholders. A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class and amount of shares held by him; shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

MP44, App.39

In the case of the joint shareholders, if one of the joint shareholders is deceased, only the other existing shareholders of the joint shareholders shall be deemed as the persons who have the ownership of the relevant shares. But the board of directors has the power to require them to provide a certificate of death as necessary for the purpose of modifying the register of shareholders, or any of the joint shareholders of the shares, only the joint shareholders ranking first in the register of shareholders have the right to accept certificates of the relevant shares, receive notices of the Company, attend and vote at shareholders' general meetings of the Company. Any notice which is delivered to the shareholder shall be considered as all the joint shareholders of the relevant shares who have been delivered.

Article 46. The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

MP45

(1) the right to receive dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;

(2) the right to attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and to vote thereat;

(3) the right of supervisory management over the Company's business operations and the right to present proposals or to raise queries;

(4) the right to transfer shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Company's Articles of Association;

(5) the right to obtain relevant information in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association, including:

(i) the right to obtain a copy of the Company's Articles of Association, subject to payment of costs;

(ii) the right to inspect and copy, subject to payment of a reasonable fee:

- (a) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (b) personal particulars of each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers, including:
 - (aa) present and former name and alias;
 - (bb) principal address (place of residence);
 - (cc) nationality;
 - (dd) primary and all other part-time occupations and duties;
 - (ee) identification documents and the numbers thereof;
 - (c) report on the state of the Company's share capital;
 - (d) reports showing the aggregate par value, quantity, highest and lowest price paid in respect of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the end of the last accounting year and the aggregate amount paid by the Company for this purpose;
 - (e) minutes of shareholders' general meetings;
- (6) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of surplus assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;
- (7) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 47.

The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

MP46

- (1) to comply with the Company's Articles of Association;
- (2) to pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;

(3) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 48.

In addition to the obligations imposed by laws and administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed, a controlling shareholder (as such term is defined in the following Article) shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or part of the shareholders of the Company:

MP47

(1) to relieve a director or supervisor of his duty to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;

(2) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the Company's assets in any way, including (without limitation) opportunities which are beneficial to the Company;

(3) to approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distributions and voting rights (save pursuant to a restructuring which has been submitted for approval by the shareholders in a general meeting in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association).

Article 49.

For the purpose of the foregoing Article, a "controlling shareholder" means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

MP48

(1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect more than half of the board of directors;

(2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or to control the exercise of 30 % or more of the voting rights in the Company;

(3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds 30 % or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;

(4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control of the Company in any other way.

CHAPTER 8: SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL
MEETINGS

Article 50. The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with law.

MP49

Article 51. The shareholders' general meeting shall have the following functions and powers:

MP50

- (1) to decide on the Company's operational policies and investment plans;
- (2) to elect and replace directors and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors;
- (3) to elect and replace supervisors who represent the shareholders and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of supervisors;
- (4) to examine and approve the board of directors' reports;
- (5) to examine and approve the supervisory committee's reports;
- (6) to examine and approve the Company's proposed annual preliminary and final financial budgets;
- (7) to examine and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans;
- (8) to decide on the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
- (9) to decide on matters such as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (10) to decide on the issue of debentures by the Company;
- (11) to decide on the appointment, dismissal and non-reappointment of the accountants of the Company;
- (12) to amend the Company's Articles of Association;
- (13) to consider motions raised by shareholders who represent 5 % or more of the total number of voting shares of the Company;
- (14) to decide on other matters which, according to law, administrative regulation or the Company's Articles of Association, need to be approved by shareholders in general meetings;

(15) matters which the shareholders in a general meeting may authorise the board of directors to carry out on its behalf or which they may sub-delegate to the board of directors.

Article 52. The Company shall not, without the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, enter into any contract with any person (other than a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer) pursuant to which such person shall be responsible for the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of the Company's business.

MP51

Article 53. Shareholders' general meetings are divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. Annual general meetings are held once every year and within six (6) months from the end of the preceding financial year.

MP52

The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months of the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(1) where the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or two-thirds of the number specified in the Company's Articles of Association;

(2) where the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total amount of its share capital;

(3) where shareholder(s) holding 10 % or more of the Company's issued and outstanding voting shares request(s) in writing for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting;

(4) whenever the board of directors deems necessary or the supervisory committee so requests.

Article 54. When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, written notice of the meeting shall be given forty-five (45) days before the date of the meeting to notify all of the shareholders whose names appear in the share register of the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the meeting shall deliver to the Company his written reply concerning his attendance at such meeting twenty (20) days before the date of the meeting.

MP53

Article 55. When the Company convenes a shareholders' annual general meeting, shareholder(s) holding 5% or more of the total voting shares of the Company shall have the right to propose new motions in writing, and the Company shall place such proposed motions on the agenda for such annual general meeting if they are matters falling within the functions and powers of shareholders in general meetings.

MP54

Article 56. The Company shall, based on the written replies which it receives from the shareholders twenty (20) days before the date of the shareholders' general meeting, calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting amount to more than one-half of the Company's total voting shares, the Company may hold the meeting; if not, then the Company shall, within five (5) days, notify the shareholders by way of public announcement the matters to be considered at, and the place and date for, the meeting. The Company may then hold the meeting after publication of such announcement.

MP55

A shareholders' extraordinary general meeting shall not decide on any matter not stated in the notice for the meeting.

Article 57. A notice of a meeting of the shareholders of the Company shall satisfy the following criterion:

MP56

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) state the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provide such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to make an informed decision on the proposals put before them. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made to amalgamate the Company with another, to repurchase the shares of the Company, to reorganise its share capital, or to restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with copies of the proposed agreement, if any, and the cause and effect of such proposal must be properly explained;
- (5) contain a disclosure of the nature and extent, if any, of the material interests of any director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer in the proposed transaction and the effect which the proposed transaction will have on them in their capacity as shareholders in so far as it is different from the effect on the interests of shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contain the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting;

(7) contain a conspicuous statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at such meeting is entitled to appoint one (1) or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf and that a proxy need not be a shareholder;

(8) specify the time and place for lodging proxy forms for the relevant meeting.

Article 58.

Notice of shareholders' general meetings shall be served on each shareholder (whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote at the meeting), by personal delivery or prepaid airmail to the address of the shareholder as shown in the register of shareholders. For the holders of Domestic-Invested Shares, notice of the meetings may also be issued by way of public announcement.

MP57, App.37(1) & 7(3)

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one (1) or more national newspapers designated by the securities authority of the State Council within the interval of forty-five (45) days to fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting; after the publication of such announcement, the holders of Domestic-Invested Shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' general meeting. Such public announcement shall be published in Chinese and English in accordance with Article 182.

Article 59.

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the failure to receive the notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions adopted thereat.

MP58

Article 60.

Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one (1) or more persons (whether such person is a shareholder or not) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and a proxy so appointed shall be entitled to exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorisation from that shareholder:

MP59

- (1) the shareholders' right to speak at the meeting;
- (2) the right to demand or join in demanding a poll;
- (3) the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one (1) proxy may only vote on a poll.

If the shareholder is the recognized clearing house defined by the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), such shareholder is entitled to appoint one or more persons as his proxies to attend on his behalf at a general meeting or at any class meeting, but, if one or more persons have such authority, the letter of authorization shall contain the number and class of the shares in connection with such authorization. Such person can exercise the right on behalf of the recognized clearing house (or its attorney) as if he is the individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 61. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a legal entity, either under seal or under the hand of a director or a duly authorised attorney. The letter of authorization shall contain the number of the shares to be represented by the attorney. If several persons are authorized as the attorney of the shareholder, the letter of authorization shall specify the number of the shares to be represented by each attorney.

MP60

Article 62. The instrument appointing a voting proxy and, if such instrument is signed by a person under a power of attorney or other authority on behalf of the appointor, a notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authority shall be deposited at the residence of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the proxy propose to vote or the time appointed for the passing of the resolution.

MP61

If the appointor is a legal person, its legal representative or such person as is authorised by resolution of its board of directors or other governing body may attend any meeting of shareholders of the Company as a representative of the appointor.

Article 63. Any form issued to a shareholder by the directors for use by such shareholder for the appointment of a proxy to attend and vote at meetings of the Company shall be such as to enable the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against the motions, such instructions being given in respect of each individual matter to be voted on at the meeting. Such a form shall contain a statement that, in the absence of specific instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

MP62

The Company has the right to request a proxy who attends a shareholders' meeting to provide evidence of his or its identity.

If a shareholder which is a legal person appoints its legal representative to attend a meeting on its behalf, the Company has the right to request such legal representative to produce evidence of his or its identity and a notarially certified copy of the resolutions of such shareholder's board of directors in respect of the appointment of the proxy or the power of attorney executed by such other organisation which has the capacity to appoint the proxy.

Article 64. A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointor or revocation of the proxy or the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that the Company did not receive any written notice in respect of such matters before the commencement of the relevant meeting.

MP63

Article 65. Resolutions of shareholders' general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

MP64

An ordinary resolution must be passed by votes representing more than one-half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

A special resolution must be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 66. A shareholder (including a proxy), when voting at a shareholders' general meeting, may exercise such voting rights as are attached to the number of voting shares which he represents. Each share shall have one (1) vote.

MP65

Where any shareholder, under the Listing Rules, is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 67. At any shareholders' general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands unless voting by way of a poll is required under the Listing Rules or the listing rules of any other stock exchanges on which the shares of the Company are listed or demanded by the following persons before or after any vote by a show of hands:

MP66

(1) by the chairman of the meeting;

(2) by at least two (2) shareholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote thereat;

(3) by one (1) or more shareholders present in person or by proxy and representing 10 % or more of all shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting, before or after a vote is carried out by a show of hands.

Unless voting by way of a poll is required under the Listing Rules or the listing rules of any other stock exchanges on which the shares of the Company are listed or so demanded, the chairman may declare that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the record of such in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that such resolution has been passed. There is no need to provide evidence of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands the same.

Article 68. A poll demanded on the election of the chairman of the meeting, or on a question of adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

MP67

Article 69. On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two (2) or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

MP68

Article 70. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be have a casting vote.

MP69

Article 71. The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

MP70

(1) work reports of the board of directors and the supervisory committee;

(2) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans formulated by the board of directors;

(3) removal of members of the board of directors and members of the supervisory committee, their remuneration and manner of payment;

App.34(3)

(4) annual preliminary and final budgets, balance sheets and profit and loss accounts and other financial statements of the Company;

(5) matters other than those which are required by the laws and administrative regulations or by the Company's Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 72. The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

MP71

- (1) the increase or reduction in share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;
- (2) the issue of debentures of the Company;
- (3) the division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) amendment of the Company's Articles of Association;
- (5) any other matters considered by the shareholders in general meeting, and resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by a special resolution.

Article 73.

Shareholders who request for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting shall comply with the following procedures:

MP72

(1) Two (2) or more shareholders holding in aggregate 10 % or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held shall sign one (1) or more counterpart requisitions stating the object of the meeting and requiring the board of directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting thereof. The board of directors shall as soon as possible proceed to convene the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or a class meeting thereof after receipt of such requisition(s). The amount of shareholdings referred to above shall be calculated as at the date of deposit of the requisition(s).

(2) If the board of directors fails to issue a notice of such a meeting within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of the requisition(s), the requisitionists may themselves convene such a meeting (in a manner as similar as possible to the manner in which shareholders' meetings are convened by the board of directors) within four (4) months from the date of receipt of the requisition(s) by the board of directors.

Any reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of failure by the board of directors to duly convene a meeting shall be repaid to the requisitionists by the Company and any sum so repaid shall be set-off against sums owed by the Company to the defaulting directors.

Article 74.

The Chairman of the board of directors shall convene and chair every shareholders' general meeting. If the Chairman is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, the vice-chairman of the board of directors shall convene and chair the meeting. If both the Chairman and vice-chairman of the board of directors are unable to attend the meeting, then the board of directors may designate a director to convene and chair the meeting. If no chairman of the meeting has been so designated, shareholders present shall choose one (1) person to act as the chairman of the meeting. If for any reason, the shareholders shall fail to elect a chairman, then the shareholder (including a proxy) holding the largest number of shares carrying the right to vote thereat shall be the chairman of the meeting.

MP73

Article 75. The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed. His decision, which shall be final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minute book.

MP74

Article 76. If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution which has been put to vote at a shareholders' meeting, he may have the votes counted. If the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

MP75

Article 77. If votes are counted at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the count shall be recorded in the minute book.

MP76

Article 78. The minutes, shareholders' attendance lists and proxy forms shall be kept at the Company's place of residence.

MP76

Article 79. Copies of the minutes of proceedings of any shareholders' meeting shall, during business hours of the Company, be open for inspection by any shareholder without charge. If a shareholder requests for a copy of such minutes from the Company, the Company shall send a copy of such minutes to him within seven (7) days after receipt of reasonable fees therefor.

MP77

CHAPTER 9: SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING
BY A CLASS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 80. Those shareholders who hold different classes of shares are class shareholders.

MP78

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 81. Rights conferred on any class of shareholders ("class rights") may not be varied or abrogated save with the approval of a special resolution of shareholders in a general meeting and by holders of shares of that class at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with Articles 83 to 87.

MP79

Article 82. The following circumstances shall be deemed to be variation or abrogation of the rights attaching to a particular class of shares:

MP80

- (1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of that class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class having voting or equity rights or privileges equal or superior to those of shares of that class;
- (2) to exchange all or part of the shares of that class for shares of another class or to exchange or to create a right to exchange all or part of the shares of another class for shares of that class;
- (3) to remove or reduce rights to accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends attached to shares of that class;
- (4) to reduce or remove preferential rights attached to shares of that class to receive dividends or to the distribution of assets in the event that the Company is liquidated;
- (5) to add, remove or reduce conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer or pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of that class;
- (6) to remove or reduce rights to receive payment payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of that class;
- (7) to create a new class of shares having voting or equity rights or privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (8) to restrict the transfer or ownership of shares of that class or to increase the types of restrictions attaching thereto;
- (9) to allot and issue rights to subscribe for, or to convert the existing shares into, shares in the Company of that class or another class;
- (10) to increase the rights or privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) to restructure the Company in such a way so as to result in the disproportionate distribution of obligations between the various classes of shareholders;
- (12) to vary or abrogate the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 83.

Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at shareholders' general meetings, have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning sub-paragraphs (2) to (8), (11) and (12) of Article 82, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at such class meetings.

MP81

"(An) interested shareholder(s)", as such term is used in the preceding paragraph, means:

(1) in the case of a repurchase of shares by way of a general offer to all shareholders of the Company or by way of public dealing on a stock exchange pursuant to Article 25, a "controlling shareholder" within the meaning of Article 49;

(2) in the case of a repurchase of shares by an off-market agreement pursuant to Article 25, a holder of the shares to which the proposed agreement relates;

(3) in the case of a restructuring of the Company, a shareholder who assumes a relatively lower proportion of obligation than the obligations imposed on shareholders of that class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the general interests of the shareholders of that class.

Article 84. Resolutions of a class of shareholders shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of shareholders of that class represented at the relevant meeting who, according to Article 83, are entitled to vote thereat.

MP82

Article 85. Written notice of a class meeting shall be given to all shareholders who are registered as holders of that class in the register of shareholders forty-five (45) days before the date of the class meeting. Such notice shall give such shareholders notice of the matters to be considered at such meeting, the date and the place of the class meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the class meeting shall deliver his written reply in respect thereof to the Company twenty (20) days before the date of the class meeting.

MP83

If the shareholders who intend to attend such class meeting represent more than half of the total number of shares of that class which have the right to vote at such meeting, the Company may hold the class meeting; if not, the Company shall within five (5) days give the shareholders further notice of the matters to be considered, the date and the place of the class meeting by way of public announcement. The Company may then hold the class meeting after such public announcement has been made.

Article 86. Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

MP84

Class meetings shall be conducted in a manner which is as similar as possible to that of shareholders' general meetings. The provisions of the Company's Articles of Association relating to the manner for the conduct of shareholders' general meetings are also applicable to class meetings.

Article 87. Apart from the holders of other classes of shares, the holders of the Domestic-Invested Shares and holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares shall be deemed to be holders of different classes of shares.

App. 13 Pt. D 1(f)

The special procedures for approval by a class of shareholders shall not apply in the following circumstances:

MP85 C.3 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 3

(1) where the Company issues, upon the approval by special resolution of its shareholders in a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every twelve (12) months, not more than 20% of each of its existing issued Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares; or

App.13 Pt.D 1f(i)

(2) where the Company's plan to issue Domestic-Invested Shares and Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares at the time of its establishment is carried out within fifteen (15) months from the date of approval of the securities authority of the State Council.

App.13 Pt.D 1f(ii)

CHAPTER 10: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 88. The Company shall have a board of directors. The board of directors shall consist of thirteen (13) directors. The board of directors shall have one (1) Chairman, two (2) Vice-chairman(s) and twelve (10) directors, of which three (3) independent (non-executive) directors.

MP86

The board of directors shall have nine (9) outside directors, who shall not hold office within the Company.

Article 89. Directors shall be elected at the shareholders' general meeting each for a term of three (3) years. At the expiry of a director's term, the term is renewable upon re-election.

The period for lodgement of notices in writing to the Company of the intention to propose a person for election as a director and of such person's consent to be elected shall be at least 7 days and which shall commence no earlier than the day after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting convened to consider such election and shall end no later than 7 days prior to the date of such general meeting.

MP87, C.4 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.34(3)-4(5)

The Chairman and the Vice-chairman shall be elected and removed by more than one-half of all of the members of the board of directors. The term of office of each of the Chairman and the Vice-chairman is three (3) years, which term is renewable upon re-election.

Subject to compliance with all relevant laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders' general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his term of office. However, the director's right to claim for damages which arises out from his removal shall not be affected thereby.

The Directors shall not be required to hold qualifying shares.

Article 90.

The board of directors is accountable to the shareholders in general meeting and exercises the following functions and powers:

MP88

- (1) to be responsible for the convening of the shareholders' general meeting and to report on its work to the shareholders in general meetings;
- (2) to implement the resolutions passed by the shareholders in general meetings;
- (3) to determine the Company's business plans and investment proposals;
- (4) to formulate the Company's annual preliminary and final financial budgets;
- (5) to formulate the Company's profit distribution proposal and loss recovery proposal;
- (6) to formulate proposals for the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital and for the issuance of the Company's debentures;
- (7) to draw up plans for the merger, division or dissolution of the Company;
- (8) to decide on the Company's internal management structure;
- (9) to appoint or remove the Company's general manager and to appoint or remove the senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and other senior officers (including the financial controller(s) of the Company) and, based on the recommendations of the general manager, to decide on their remuneration;
- (10) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (11) to formulate proposals for any amendment of the Company's Articles of Association;
- (12) to exercise any other powers conferred by the shareholders in general meetings.

Other than the board of directors' resolutions in respect of the matters specified in sub-paragraphs (6), (7) and (11) of this Article which shall be passed by the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of all the directors, the board of directors' resolutions in respect of all other matters may be passed by the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the directors.

Article 91. The board of directors shall not, without the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, dispose or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the aggregate of the amount or value of the consideration for the proposed disposition, and the amount or value of the consideration for any such disposition of any fixed assets of the Company that has been completed in the period of four (4) months immediately preceding the proposed disposition, exceeds 33 % of the value of the Company's fixed assets as shown in the latest balance sheet which was tabled at a shareholders' general meeting.

MP89

For the purposes of this Article, "disposition" includes an act involving the transfer of an interest in assets but does not include the usage of fixed assets for the provision of security.

The validity of a disposition by the Company shall not be affected by any breach of the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 92. The Chairman of the board of directors shall exercise the following powers:

MP90

- (1) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over meetings of the board of directors;
- (2) to check on the implementation of resolutions passed by the board of directors at directors' meetings;
- (3) to sign the securities certificates issued by the Company;
- (4) to exercise other powers conferred by the board of directors.

When the Chairman is unable to exercise his powers, such powers shall be exercised by the Vice-chairman who has been designated by the Chairman to exercise such powers on his behalf.

Article 93. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least four times every year and shall be convened by the Chairman of the board of directors. Where there is an urgent matter, an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors may be held if it is so requested by more than one-third of the directors, the Chairman of the board of directors or the Company's general manager.

MP91

Article 94. Notice of meetings and extraordinary meetings of the board of directors shall be delivered in person, by facsimile, by express delivery service or by registered mail. The time limit for the delivery of notice of meetings and extraordinary meetings of the board of directors shall be at least fourteen (14) days and ten (10) days respectively before the meeting.

MP92

Article 95. Notice of a meeting shall be deemed to have been given to any director who attends the meeting without protesting against, before or at its commencement, any lack of notice.

Article 96. Any regular or extraordinary meeting of the board of directors may be held by way of telephone conferencing or similar communication equipment so long as all directors participating in the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with each other. All such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Article 97. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held only if more than half of the directors (including any alternate director appointed pursuant to Article 98 of the Company's Articles of Association) are present.

MP93, App.34(1)

Each director shall have one (1) vote. Unless otherwise provided for in the Company's Articles of Association, a resolution of the board of directors must be passed by more than half of all of the directors of the Company. A resolution of the board of directors relating to connected transactions shall be signed by independent (non-executive) directors before coming into effect.

Where there is an equality of votes cast both for and against a resolution, the Chairman of the board of directors shall have a casting vote.

A director shall not vote on any board resolution in which he or any of his associates has a material interest nor shall he be counted in the quorum present at the same board meeting. The relevant transaction shall be dealt with by way of a board meeting and not by way of circulation of written board resolution. If an independent non-executive director (and whose associates) has no material interests in the transaction, he should be present at such board meeting. In this Article, "associate" has the same meaning as defined in the Listing Rules. If any stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed sets out more stringent rules in relation to the matters in relation to which any director should abstain from voting, the directors should comply with the more stringent rules.

Article 98. Directors shall attend the meetings of the board of directors in person. Where a director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he may by a written power of attorney appoint another director to attend the meeting on his behalf. The power of attorney shall set out the scope of the authorisation.

MP94

A Director appointed as a representative of another director to attend the meeting shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of authority conferred by the appointing director. Where a director is unable to attend a meeting of the board of directors and has not appointed a representative to attend the meeting on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to vote at the meeting.

Article 99. In respect of any matter which needs to be determined by the board of directors at an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors and where the board of directors has already sent out written notice of matters to be decided at such meeting and the number of directors who have signified their consent thereto reaches the amount set out in Article 97, a valid resolution shall be deemed to be passed and there is no need to hold a board of directors' meeting.

Article 100. The board of directors shall keep minutes of resolutions passed at meetings of the board of directors. The minutes shall be signed by the directors present at the meeting and the person who recorded the minutes. The directors shall be liable for the resolutions of the board of directors. If a resolution of the board of directors violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Company's Articles of Association and the Company suffers serious losses as a result thereof, the directors who participated in the passing of such resolution are liable to compensate the Company therefor. However, if it can be proven that a director expressly objected to the resolution when the resolution was voted on, and that such objection was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such director may be released from such liability.

MP95

CHAPTER 11: SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 101. The Company shall have one (1) secretary of the board of directors. The secretary shall be a senior officer of the Company.

MP96

Article 102. The secretary of the Company's board of directors shall be a natural person who has the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be appointed by the board of directors. His primary responsibilities are to ensure that:

MP97

(1) to organise board meetings and general meetings of the Company, and to ensure that the Company has complete organisation documents and records;

(2) minutes of the meetings of the board of directors shall be circulated to all directors for their signature and records within 14 days after the board meeting is held and be made available for inspection;

(3) the Company prepares and delivers, in accordance with law, those reports and documents required by competent authorities entitled thereto;

(4) the Company's registers of shareholders are properly maintained, and that persons entitled to receive the Company's records and documents are furnished therewith without delay.

Article 103.

A director or other senior officer of the Company may also act as the secretary of the board of directors. The certified public accountancy firm which has been appointed by the Company to act as its auditors shall not act as the secretary of the board of directors.

MP98

Where the office of secretary is held concurrently by a director, and an act is required to be done by a director and a secretary separately, the person who holds the office of director and secretary may not perform the act in a dual capacity.

CHAPTER 12: GENERAL MANAGER

Article 104.

The Company shall have a general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller. The general manager proposed by the Chairman of the board of directors shall be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors. Senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and financial controller proposed by the general manager shall be appointed or dismissed by the board of the directors. A member of the board of directors may act concurrently as the general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller or other senior officers.

MP99

Article 105.

The general manager shall be accountable to the board of directors and shall exercise the following functions and powers:

MP100

(1) to be in charge of the Company's production, operation and management and to organise the implementation of the resolutions of the board of directors;

(2) to organise the implementation of the Company's annual business plan and investment proposal;

(3) to draft plans for the establishment of the Company's internal management structure;

(4) to draft the Company's basic management system;

(5) to formulate concrete rules and regulations for the Company;

(6) to propose the appointment or dismissal by the board of directors of the Company's senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers,

financial controller and other senior officers ;

(7) to appoint or dismiss management personnel other than those required to be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors;

(8) other powers conferred by the Company's Articles of Association and the board of directors.

Article 106. The general manager shall attend meetings of the board of directors. The general manager, who is not a director, does not have any voting rights at board meetings.

MP101

Article 107. The general manager and senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and financial controller performing their functions and powers, shall act honestly and diligently and in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

MP102

CHAPTER 13: SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 108. The Company shall have a supervisory committee.

MP103

Article 109. The supervisory committee shall compose of seven (7) supervisors. One of the members of the supervisory committee shall act as the chairman. Each supervisor shall serve for a term of three (3) years, which term is renewable upon re-election and re-appointment.

MP104, C.5 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D 1(d) (i)

The election or removal of the chairman of the supervisory committee shall be determined by two-thirds or more of the members of the supervisory committee.

The chairman shall serve for a term of three (3) years, which term is renewable upon re-election and re-appointment.

Article 110. The supervisory committee shall comprise of four (6) supervisors who shall represent the shareholders, and who shall be elected or removed by the shareholders in general meetings, and one (1) supervisor who shall represent the employees of the Company and who shall be elected or removed democratically thereby.

MP105

Article 111. The directors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and financial controller shall not act concurrently as supervisors.

MP106

Article 112. 1 Meetings of the supervisory committee shall be held at least once every year, and shall be convened by the chairman of the supervisory committee.

MP107

Article 113. The supervisory committee shall be accountable to the shareholders in a general meeting and shall exercise the following functions and powers in accordance with law:

MP108

- (1) to review the Company's financial position;
- (2) to supervise the directors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers to ensure that they do not act in contravention of any law, regulation or the Company's Articles of Association;
- (3) to demand any director, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or any other senior officer who acts in a manner which is harmful to the Company's interest to rectify such behaviour;
- (4) to check the financial information such as the financial report, business report and plans for distribution of profits to be submitted by the board of directors to the shareholders' general meetings and to authorise, in the Company's name, publicly certified and practising accountants to assist in the re-examination of such information should any doubt arise in respect thereof;
- (5) to propose to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting;
- (6) to represent the Company in negotiations with or in bringing actions against a director;
- (7) other functions and powers specified in the Company's Articles of Association.

Supervisors shall attend meetings of the board of directors.

Article 114. Meetings of the supervisory committee shall be held only if three (3) or more supervisors are present. Resolutions of the supervisory committee shall be passed by the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of all of its members.

MP109, C.6 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D
1(d)(ii)

Article 115. All reasonable fees incurred in respect of the employment of professionals (such as, lawyers, certified public accountants or practising auditors) which are required by the supervisory committee in the exercise of its functions and powers shall be borne by the Company.

MP110

Article 116. A supervisor shall carry out his duties honestly and faithfully in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

MP111

CHAPTER 14: THE QUALIFICATIONS AND DUTIES OF THE DIRECTORS,
SUPERVISORS, GENERAL MANAGER, SENIOR DEPUTY GENERAL MANAGERS,
DEPUTY GENERAL MANAGERS,
FINANCIAL CONTROLLER AND OTHER SENIOR OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY

Article 117. A person may not serve as a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or any other senior officer of the Company if any of the following circumstances apply:

MP112

(1) a person who does not have or who has limited capacity for civil conduct;

(2) a person who has been sentenced for corruption, bribery, infringement of property or misappropriation of property or other crimes which destroy the social economic order, where less than a term of five (5) years has lapsed since the sentence was served, or a person who has been deprived of his political rights and not more than five (5) years have lapsed since the sentence was served;

(3) a person who is a former director, factory manager or manager of a company or enterprise which has been dissolved or put into liquidation as a result of mismanagement and who was personally liable for the winding up of such company or enterprise, where less than three (3) years have elapsed since the date of completion of the insolvent liquidation of the company or enterprise;

(4) a person who is a former legal representative of a company or enterprise the business licence of which was revoked due to violation of law and who are personally liable therefor, where less than three (3) years have elapsed since the date of the revocation of the business licence;

(5) a person who has a relatively large amount of debts which have become overdue;

(6) a person who is currently under investigation by judicial organs for violation of criminal law;

(7) a person who, according to laws and administrative regulations, cannot act as a leader of an enterprise;

(8) a person other than a natural person;

(9) a person who has been convicted by the competent authority for violation of relevant securities regulations and such conviction involves a finding that such person has acted fraudulently or dishonestly, where not more than five (5) years have lapsed from the date of such conviction.

Article 118. The validity of an act carried out by a director, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company on its behalf shall, as against a bona fide third party, shall not be affected by any irregularity in his office, election or any defect in his qualification.

MP113

Article 119. In addition to the obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange on which shares of the Company are listed, each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and other senior officers owes a duty to each shareholder, in the exercise of the functions and powers of the Company entrusted to him:

MP114

(1) not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of business stipulated in its business licence;

(2) to act honestly and in the best interests of the Company;

(3) not to expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (without limitation) usurpation of opportunities which benefit the Company;

(4) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distribution and voting rights, save and except pursuant to a restructuring of the Company which has been submitted to the shareholders for approval in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 120. Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers owes a duty, in the exercise of his powers and in the discharge of his duties, to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

MP115

Article 121. Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers shall exercise his powers or perform his duties in accordance with the fiduciary principle; and shall not put himself in a position where his duty and his interest may conflict. This principle includes (without limitation) discharging the following obligations:

MP116

(1) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;

(2) to act within the scope of his powers and not to exceed such powers;

(3) to exercise the discretion vested in him personally and not to allow himself to act under the control of another and, unless and to the extent permitted by laws, administrative regulations or with the informed consent of shareholders given in a general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion;

(4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;

(5) unless otherwise provided for in the Company's Articles of Association or except with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;

(6) not to use the Company's property for his own benefit, without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;

(7) not to exploit his position to accept bribes or other illegal income or expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (without limitation) opportunities which benefit the Company;

(8) not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transactions, without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;

(9) to comply with the Company's Articles of Association, to perform his official duties faithfully, to protect the Company's interests and not to exploit his position and power in the Company to advance his own interests;

(10) not to compete with the Company in any way, save with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;

(11) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or to lend such funds to any other person, not to use the Company's assets to set up deposit accounts in his own name or in the any other name or to use such assets to guarantee the debts of a shareholder of the Company or any other personal liabilities;

(12) not to release any confidential information which he has obtained during his term of office, without the informed consent of the shareholders in a general meeting; nor shall he use such information otherwise than for the Company's benefit, save that disclosure of such information to the court or other governmental authorities is permitted if:

(i) disclosure is made under compulsion of law;

(ii) public interests so warrants;

(iii) the interests of the relevant director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer so requires;

(13) strictly comply with the relevant laws and regulations and the relevant rules of the stock exchanges on which the shares of the Company are listed in respect of dealings with the securities of the Company.

Article 122.

Each director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller and other senior officer of the Company shall not direct the following persons or institutions ("associates") to act in a manner which he is prohibited from so acting:

MP117

(1) the spouse or minor child of the director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer;

(2) the trustee of the director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer or of any person described in sub-paragraph (1) above;

(3) the partner of that director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer or any person referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article;

(4) a company in which that director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer, whether alone or jointly with one (1) or more of the persons referred to in sub-paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article and other directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers, has de facto controlling interest;

(5) the directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and other senior officers of a company which is being controlled in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (4) above.

Article 123.

The fiduciary duties of the directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers of the Company do not necessarily cease with the termination of their tenure. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of their tenure. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require depending on the amount of time which has lapsed between the termination and the act concerned and the circumstances and the terms under which the relationship between the relevant director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager and the senior officer on the one hand and the Company on the other hand was terminated.

MP118

Article 124. Subject to Article 48, a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company may be relieved of liability for specific breaches of his duty with the informed consent of the shareholders given at a general meeting.

MP119

Article 125. Where a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company is in any way, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company, (other than his contract of service with the Company), he shall declare the nature and extent of his interests to the board of directors at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the contract, transaction or arrangement or proposal therefor is otherwise subject to the approval of the board of directors.

MP120

Unless the interested director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer discloses his interests in accordance with the preceding sub-paragraph of this Article and the contract, transaction or arrangement is approved by the board of directors at a meeting in which the interested director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer is not counted as part of the quorum and refrains from voting, a contract, transaction or arrangement in which that director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer is materially interested is voidable at the instance of the Company except as against a bona fide party thereto who does not have notice of the breach of duty by the interested director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer.

For the purposes of this Article, a director, supervisor, general manager, Senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager financial controller or other senior officer of the Company is deemed to be interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement in which his associate is interested.

Article 126. Where a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company gives to the board of directors a notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he is interested in contracts, transactions or arrangements which may subsequently be made by the Company, that notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding Article to be a sufficient declaration of his interests, so far as the content stated in such notice is concerned, provided that such notice shall have been given before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first taken into consideration by the Company.

MP121

Article 127. The Company shall not pay taxes for or on behalf of a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer in any manner.

MP122

Article 128. The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan to or provide any guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to a director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company or of the Company's holding company or any of their respective associates.

MP123

The foregoing prohibition shall not apply to the following circumstances:

(1) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to its subsidiary:

(2) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan or any other funds available to any of its directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties properly, in accordance with the terms of a service contract approved by the shareholders in a general meeting;

(3) if the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the lending of money or the giving of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to or provide a guarantee in connection with the making of a loan to any of the relevant directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers or their respective associates in the ordinary course of its business on normal commercial terms.

Article 129. Any person who receives funds from a loan which has been made by the Company acting in breach of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.

MP124

Article 130. A guarantee for the repayment of a loan which has been provided by the Company acting in breach of Article 128(1) shall not be enforceable against the Company, save in respect of the following circumstances:

MP125

(1) the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan which was made to an associate of any of the directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller and other senior officers of the Company or of the Company's holding company and the lender of such funds did not know of the relevant circumstances at the time of the making of the loan; or

(2) the collateral which has been provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 131. For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a "guarantee" includes an undertaking or property provided to secure the obligor's performance of his obligations.

MP126

Article 132. In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer of the Company breaches the duties which he owes to the Company, the Company has a right:

MP127

(1) to demand such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer to compensate it for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;

(2) to rescind any contract or transaction which has been entered into between the Company and such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer or between the Company and a third party (where such third party knows or should have known that such director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer representing the Company has breached his duties owed to the Company);

(3) to demand such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager or other senior officer to account for profits made as result of the breach of his duties;

(4) to recover any monies which should have been received by the Company and which were received by such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer instead, including (without limitation) commissions; and

(5) to demand repayment of interest earned or which may have been earned by such director, supervisor, general manager, senior deputy general manager, deputy general manager, financial controller or other senior officer on monies that should have been paid to the Company.

Article 133. The Company shall, with the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, enter into a contract in writing with a director or supervisor wherein his emoluments are stipulated. The aforesaid emoluments include:

MP128

- (1) emoluments in respect of his service as director, supervisor or senior officer of the Company;
- (2) emoluments in respect of his service as director, supervisor or senior officer of any subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) emoluments in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) payment by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office.

No proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for anything due to him in respect of the matters mentioned in this Article except pursuant to the contract mentioned above.

Article 134. The contract concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors or supervisors should provide that in the event that the Company is acquired, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment in respect of his loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of this paragraph, the acquisition of the Company includes any of the following:

MP129

- (1) an offer made by any person to the general body of shareholders;
- (2) an offer made by any person with a view to the offeror becoming a "controlling shareholder" within the meaning of Article 49.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of such offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such sum on a pro rata basis amongst such persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be paid out of such sum.

CHAPTER 15: FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING
SYSTEMS AND PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

- Article 135. The Company shall establish its financial and accounting systems in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and PRC accounting standards formulated by the finance regulatory department of the State Council.
- MP130
- Article 136. At the end of each fiscal year, the Company shall prepare a financial report which shall be examined and verified in a manner prescribed by law.
- MP131
- Article 137. The board of directors of the Company shall place before the shareholders at every annual general meeting such financial reports which the relevant laws, administrative regulations and directives promulgated by competent regional and central governmental authorities require the Company to prepare.
- MP132
- Article 138. The Company's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company twenty (20) days before the date of every shareholders' annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.
- MP133, C.7 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.35
- The Company shall deliver or send to each shareholder of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares by prepaid mail at the address registered in the register of shareholders the said reports not later than twenty-one (21) days before the date of every annual general meeting of the shareholders.
- Article 139. The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or that of the place outside the PRC where the Company's shares are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared respectively in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the financial statements. In distributing its after-tax profits, the lower of the two amounts shown in the financial statements shall be adopted.
- MP134
- Article 140. Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company must also be prepared and presented in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations, and also in accordance with either international accounting standards or that of the place overseas where the Company's shares are listed.
- MP135
- Article 141. The Company shall publish its financial reports twice every fiscal year, that is, the interim financial report shall be published within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the first six (6) months of each fiscal year; the annual financial report shall be published within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the expiration of each fiscal year.

MP136

Article 142. The Company shall not keep accounts other than those required by law.

MP137

Article 143. The Company's after-tax profit shall be allocated in accordance with the following order:

- (1) compensation of losses;
- (2) allocation of ten percent of its after-tax profit to the statutory common reserve fund;
- (3) allocation of five percent to ten percent of its after-tax to the statutory common welfare fund;
- (4) allocation to the discretionary common reserve fund upon approval by resolution of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (5) payment of dividends in respect of ordinary shares.

The Company shall not allocate dividends or carry out other allocations in the form of bonuses, before the Company has compensated for its losses and made allocations to the statutory common reserve fund and the statutory common welfare fund.

Article 144. Capital common reserve fund includes the following items:

MP138

- (1) premium on shares issued at a premium price;
- (2) any other income designated for the capital common reserve fund by the regulations of the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

Article 145. The common reserve fund of the Company shall be applied for the following purposes:

- (1) to compensate losses;
- (2) to expand the Company's production and operation;
- (3) to convert the common reserve fund into capital in order to increase its capital. The Company may convert its common reserve fund into capital with the approval of shareholders in a general meeting. When such conversion takes place, the Company shall either distribute new shares in proportion to the existing shareholders' number of shares, or increase the par value of each share, provided, however, that when the statutory common reserve fund is converted to capital, the balance of the statutory common reserve fund may not fall below 25 % of the registered capital.

- Article 146. The Company's statutory common welfare fund is used for the collective welfare of the Company's employees.
- Article 147. Dividend shall be paid twice a year. The final dividends of the Company shall be decided by the shareholders by way of an ordinary resolution. The shareholders may by way of an ordinary resolution authorize the board of directors to decide the interim dividends.
- Article 148. The Company may distribute dividends in the form of:
MP139
(1) cash;
(2) shares.

If any shareholder has not claimed his dividends six years after such dividends has been declared, such shareholder is deemed to forfeit his right to claim such dividends. The Company shall not exercise its power to forfeit the unclaimed dividends until after the expiry of the applicable limitation period.

- Article 149. The Company shall calculate, declare and pay dividends and other amounts which are payable to holders of Domestic-Invested Shares in Renminbi. The Company shall calculate and declare dividends and other payments which are payable to holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares in Renminbi, and shall pay such amounts in the local currency of the place in which such Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares are listed (if such shares are listed in more than one place, then the currency of the principal place on which such shares are listed as determined by the board of directors).
- Article 150. The Company shall pay dividends and other amounts to holders of Foreign-Invested Shares in accordance with the relevant foreign exchange control regulations of the State. If there is no applicable regulation, the applicable exchange rate shall be the average closing rate for the relevant foreign currency announced by the Peoples' Bank of China during the week prior to the announcement of payment of dividend and other amounts.
- Article 151. The Company shall appoint receiving agents for holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares. Such receiving agents shall receive dividends which have been declared by the Company and all other amounts which the Company should pay to holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares on such shareholders' behalf.

MP140, C.8 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D 1(c)

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the relevant requirements of the laws of the place at which the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed or the relevant regulations of such stock exchange.

The receiving agents appointed for holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong shall each be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

CHAPTER 16: APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

Article 152. The Company shall appoint an independent firm of accountants which is qualified under the relevant regulations of the State to audit the Company's annual report and review the Company's other financial reports.

MP141

The first auditors of the Company may be appointed before the first annual general meeting of the Company at the inaugural meeting. Auditors so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

If the inaugural meeting does not exercise the powers under the preceding paragraph, those powers shall be exercised by the board of directors.

Article 153. The auditors appointed by the Company shall hold office from the conclusion of the annual general meeting of shareholders at which they were appointed until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of shareholders.

MP142

Article 154. The auditors appointed by the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

MP143

(1) a right to review to the books, records and vouchers of the Company at any time, the right to require the directors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers and other senior officers of the Company to supply relevant information and explanations;

(2) a right to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from its subsidiaries such information and explanation as are necessary for the discharge of its duties;

(3) a right to attend shareholders' general meetings and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any shareholders' general meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any shareholders' general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's accountancy firm.

Article 155. If there is a vacancy in the position of auditor of the Company, the board of directors may appoint an accountancy firm to fill such vacancy before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. Any other accountancy firm which has been appointed by the Company may continue to act during the period during which a vacancy arises.

MP144

Article 156. The shareholders in a general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove the Company's auditors before the expiration of its term of office, irrespective of the provisions in the contract between the Company and the Company's auditors. However, the accountancy firm's right to claim for damages which arise from its removal shall not be affected thereby.

MP145

Article 157. The remuneration of an accountancy firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined by the shareholders in a general meeting. The remuneration of an accountancy firm appointed by the board of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

MP146

Article 158. The Company's appointment, removal or non-reappointment of an accountancy firm shall be resolved by the shareholders in a general meeting. Such resolution shall be filed with the securities authority of the State Council.

MP147, C.9 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D 1(e)(i)

Where a resolution at a general meeting of shareholders is passed to appoint as auditor a person other than an incumbent auditor, to fill a casual vacancy in the office of auditor, to reappoint as auditor a retiring auditor who was appointed by the board of directors to fill a casual vacancy or to remove an auditor before the expiration of his term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) A copy of the appointment or removal proposal shall be sent (before notice of meeting is given to the shareholders) to the firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post or the firm which has left its post in the relevant fiscal year (leaving includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement).

(2) If the auditor leaving its post makes representations in writing and requests the Company to give the shareholders notice of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations have been received too late) take the following measures:

(a) in any notice of the resolution given to shareholders, state the fact of the representations having been made; and

(b) attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association.

(3) If the Company fails to send out the auditor's representations in the manner set out in sub-paragraph (2) above, such auditor may (in addition to his right to be heard) require that the representations be read out at the meeting.

(4) An auditor which is leaving its post shall be entitled to attend the following shareholders' general meetings:

(a) the general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;

(b) the general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal; and

(c) the general meeting which convened as a result of its resignation, and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any such meeting, and to speak at any such meeting which it attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns it as former auditor of the Company.

Article 159.

Prior notice should be given to the accountancy firm if the Company decides to remove such accountancy firm or not to renew the appointment thereof. Such accountancy firm shall be entitled to make representations at the shareholders' general meeting. Where the accountancy firm resigns from its position as the Company's auditors, it shall make clear to the shareholders in a general meeting whether there has been any impropriety on the part of the Company.

MP148, C.10 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1 App.13 Pt.D
1(e) (iii)-(e) (iv)

An accountancy firm may resign its office by depositing at the Company's legal address a resignation notice which shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date as may be stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

(1) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or

(2) a statement of any such circumstances.

Where a notice is deposited under the preceding sub-paragraph, the Company shall within fourteen (14) days send a copy of the notice to the relevant governing authority. If the notice contains a statement under the preceding sub-paragraph (2), a copy of such statement shall be placed at the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company should also send a copy of such statement by prepaid mail to every shareholder of Overseas-Listed Foreign Shares at the address registered in the register of shareholders.

Where the auditor's notice of resignation contains a statement in respect of the above, it may require the board of directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of receiving an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.

CHAPTER 17: INSURANCE

Article 160. The different types or items of the Company's insurance shall be decided at a meeting of the board of directors in accordance with the relevant insurance law in China.

CHAPTER 18: LABOUR AND PERSONNEL
MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Article 161. The Company may at its discretion employ and dismiss employees based on the business development needs of the Company and in accordance with the requirements of the laws and administrative regulations of the State.

Article 162. The Company may formulate its labour and payroll systems and payment methods in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the State , the Company's Articles of Association and the economical benefits of the Company.

Article 163. The Company shall endeavour to improve its employee benefits and to continually improve the working environment and living standards of its employees.

Article 164. The Company shall provide medical, retirement and unemployment insurance for its employees and put in place a labour insurance system, in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations of the State.

CHAPTER 19: TRADE UNIONS

Article 165. The Company's employees may form trade unions, carry on trade union activities and protect their legal rights. The Company shall provide the necessary conditions for such activities.

COMPANY

Article 166. In the event of the merger or division of the Company, a plan shall be presented by the Company's board of directors and shall be approved in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association. The Company shall then go through the relevant approval process. A shareholder who objects to the plan of merger or division shall have the right to demand the Company or the shareholders who consent to the plan of merger or division to acquire such dissenting shareholders' shareholding at a fair price. The contents of the resolution of merger or division of the Company shall constitute special documents which shall be available for inspection by the shareholders of the Company.

MP149

Such special documents shall be sent by mail to holders of Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares.

Article 167. The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by the establishment of a new company.

MP150, App.37(1)

In the event of a merger, the merging parties shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days of the date of the Company's merger resolution and shall publish a public notice in a newspaper at least three (3) times within thirty (30) days of the date of the Company's merger resolution.

At the time of merger, rights in relation to debtors and indebtedness of each of the merged parties shall be assumed by the company which survives the merger or the newly established company.

Article 168. Where there is a division of the Company, its assets shall be divided up accordingly.

MP151, App.37(1)

In the event of division of the Company, the parties to such division shall execute a division agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days of the date of the Company's division resolution and shall publish a public notice in a newspaper at least three (3) times within thirty (30) days of the date of the Company's division resolution.

Debts of the Company prior to division shall be assumed by the companies which exist after the division in accordance with the agreement of the parties.

Article 169. The Company shall, in accordance with law, apply for change in its registration with the companies registration authority where a change in any item in its registration arises as a result of any merger or division. Where the Company is dissolved, the Company shall apply for cancellation of its registration in accordance with law. Where a new company is established, the Company shall apply for registration thereof in accordance with law.

MP152

CHAPTER 21: DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Article 170. The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

MP153

(1) a resolution for dissolution is passed by shareholders at a general meeting;

(2) dissolution is necessary due to a merger or division of the Company;

(3) the Company is legally declared insolvent due to its failure to repay debts as they become due; and

(4) the Company is ordered to close down because of its violation of laws and administrative regulations.

Article 171.

A liquidation committee shall be set up within fifteen (15) days of the Company being dissolved pursuant to sub-paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, and the composition of the liquidation committee of the Company shall be determined by an ordinary resolution of shareholders in a general meeting.

MP154

Where the Company is dissolved under sub-paragraph (3) of the preceding Article, the People's Court shall in accordance with the provisions of relevant laws organise the shareholders, relevant organisations and relevant professional personnel to establish a liquidation committee to carry out the liquidation.

Where the Company is dissolved under sub-paragraph (4) of the preceding Article, the relevant governing authorities shall organise the shareholders, relevant organisations and professional personnel to establish a liquidation committee to carry out the liquidation.

Article 172.

Where the board of directors proposes to liquidate the Company for any reason other than the Company's declaration of its own insolvency, the board shall include a statement in its notice convening a shareholders' general meeting to consider the proposal to the effect that, after making full inquiry into the affairs of the Company, the board of directors is of the opinion that the Company will be able to pay its debts in full within twelve (12) months from the commencement of the liquidation.

MP155

Upon the passing of the resolution by the shareholders in a general meeting for the liquidation of the Company, all functions and powers of the board of directors shall cease.

The liquidation committee shall act in accordance with the instructions of the shareholders' general meeting to make a report at least once every year to the shareholders' general meeting on the committee's income and expenses, the business of the Company and the progress of the liquidation; and to present a final report to the shareholders' general meeting on completion of the liquidation.

Article 173. The liquidation committee shall, within ten (10) days of its establishment, send notices to creditors and shall, within sixty (60) days of its establishment, publish a public announcement in a newspaper at least three (3) times.

MP156, App.37(1)

A creditor shall, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice, or for creditors who have not personally received such notice, within ninety (90) days of the date of the first public announcement, report its rights to the liquidation committee. When reporting his rights, the creditor shall provide an explanation of matters which are relevant thereto and shall provide evidential material in respect thereof. The liquidation committee shall register the creditor's rights.

Article 174. During the liquidation period, the liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers:

MP157

- (1) to sort out the Company's assets and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets respectively;
- (2) to send notify the creditors or to publish public announcements;
- (3) to dispose of and liquidate any unfinished businesses of the Company;
- (4) to pay all outstanding taxes;
- (5) to settle claims and debts;
- (6) to deal with the surplus assets remaining after the Company's debts have been repaid;
- (7) to represent the Company in any civil proceedings.

Article 175. After it has sorted out the Company's assets and after it has prepared the balance sheet and an inventory of assets, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation plan and present it to a shareholders' general meeting or to the relevant governing authority for confirmation.

MP158

The company's assets shall be distributed in accordance with law or regulation. If there is no applicable law, such distribution shall be carried out in accordance with a fair and reasonable procedure determined by the liquidation committee.

Any surplus assets of the Company remaining after its debts have been repaid in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be distributed to its shareholders according to the class of shares and the proportion of shares held.

During the liquidation period, the Company shall not commence any new business activities.

Article 176. If after putting the Company's assets in order and preparing a balance sheet and an inventory of assets in connection with the liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee discovers that the Company's assets are insufficient to repay the Company's debts in full, the liquidation committee shall immediately apply to the People's Court for a declaration of insolvency.

MP159

After a Company is declared insolvent by a ruling of the People's Court, the liquidation committee shall transfer all matters arising from the liquidation to the People's Court.

Article 177. Following the completion of the liquidation, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, a statement of income and expenses received and made during the liquidation period and a financial report, which shall be verified by a Chinese registered accountant and submitted to the shareholders' general meeting or the relevant governing authority for confirmation.

MP160

The liquidation committee shall, within thirty (30) days after such confirmation, submit the documents referred to in the preceding paragraph to the companies registration authority and apply for cancellation of registration of the Company, and publish a public announcement relating to the termination of the Company.

CHAPTER 22: PROCEDURES FOR AMENDMENT
OF THE COMPANY'S ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Article 178. The Company may amend its Articles of Association in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

MP161

Article 179. The Company's Articles of Association shall be amended in the following manner:

- (1) The Directors shall propose the manner in which the Company's Article of Association shall be amended;
- (2) The foregoing proposal shall be furnished to the shareholders in writing and a shareholders' meeting shall be convened;
- (3) The amendments shall be approved by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders present at the meeting.

Article 180. Amendment of the Company's Articles of Association which involve the contents of the Mandatory Provisions of Overseas-Listed Companies' Articles of Association (signed by the Securities Committee of the State Council and the Economic Reform Committee of the State on 27 August 1994) ("Mandatory Provisions") shall become effective upon receipt of approvals from the securities authority of the State Council and the companies approving department authorised by the State Council. If there is any change relating to the registered particulars of the Company, application shall be made for change in registration in accordance with law.

MP162

CHAPTER 23: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Article 181. The Company shall abide by the following principles for dispute resolution:

MP163

(1) Whenever any disputes or claims arise between: holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and the Company; holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller or other senior officers; or holders of the Overseas-Listed Foreign-Invested Shares and holders of

Domestic-Invested Shares, in respect of any rights or obligations arising from these Articles of Association, the Company Law or any rights or obligations conferred or imposed by the Company Law and special regulations (including other relevant laws) or any other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company, such disputes or claims shall be referred by the relevant parties to arbitration.

Where a dispute or claim of rights referred to in the preceding paragraph is referred to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be referred to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall, where such person is the Company, the Company's shareholders, directors, supervisors, general manager, senior deputy general managers, deputy general managers, financial controller or other senior officers of the Company, comply with the arbitration.

C.11 Zheng Jian Hai Han [1995] No. 1

Disputes in respect of the definition of shareholders and disputes in relation to the register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

(2) A claimant may elect for arbitration to be carried out at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its Rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its Securities Arbitration Rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body elected by the claimant.

If a claimant elects for arbitration to be carried out at Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, any party to the dispute or claim may apply for a hearing to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

(3) If any disputes or claims of rights are settled by way of arbitration in accordance with sub-paragraph (1) of this Article, the laws of the PRC shall apply, save as otherwise provided in the laws and administrative regulations.

(4) The award of an arbitral body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

CHAPTER 24: NOTICE

- Article 182. Unless otherwise provided, the Company shall, where it is making a public announcement in the prescribed or approved manner, issue or deliver any notice or announcement in at least one (1) national newspaper which has been appointed by the securities authority of the State Council. And, where possible, to publish such notice or announcement in English and in Chinese on the same day in a major Chinese and a major English newspaper in Hong Kong respectively.
- Article 183. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, notices, information or written statement issued by the Company to holders of Overseas-listed shares shall be personally delivered to the registered address of each of such shareholders, or sent by mail to each of such shareholders.
- Notices to be issued to holders of Domestic-invested shares shall have to be released in any one or more newspapers appointed by the securities authority of the State Council, all holders of Domestic-invested shares shall be deemed to have received such notices once they are published.
- Article 184. All notices which are to be sent by mail shall be clearly addressed, postage pre-paid, and shall be put in envelopes before being posted by mail. Such letters of notice shall be deemed to have been received by shareholders five (5) days after the date of despatch.
- Article 185. Any notices, document, information or written statement from the shareholders or directors to the Company shall be delivered personally or sent by registered mail to the legal address of the Company.
- Article 186. Shareholders or directors of the Company who want to prove that certain notices, documents, information or written statements have been sent to the Company shall provide evidential materials showing that such notices, documents, information or written statements have been sent to the Company by normal methods within designated times, and that the mailing address is correct and the postage is fully paid.

CHAPTER 25: SUPPLEMENTARY

Article 187. In these Articles of Association, references to "accountancy firm" shall have the same meaning as "auditors".

Article 188. The Company's Articles of Association are written in Chinese and English. Both text shall be equally valid. If there is any discrepancy between the two versions, the Chinese version of the Articles of Association shall prevail.

CRUDE OIL MUTUAL SUPPLY
FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT FOR YEAR 2007 BETWEEN
PETROCHINA COMPANY LIMITED
AND CHINA PETROCHEMICAL CORPORATION
BEIJING
JANUARY 2007

CRUDE OIL MUTUAL SUPPLY FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT FOR YEAR 2007

PetroChina Company Limited ("PetroChina") and China Petrochemical Corporation ("Sinopec"), following friendly consultations and on the basis of equality, have entered into this Agreement (this "Agreement") on mutual supply of crude oil in the year of 2007.

I. QUANTITIES AND VARIETIES OF CRUDE OIL TO BE SUPPLIED HEREUNDER

1. In 2007, PetroChina shall supply Sinopec with 7.1 million tons of domestic onshore crude oil, including 4.8 million tons of blended oil produced at the Daqing Oil Region (excluding replacement crude oil), 0.7 million tons of oil produced at the Jizhong Oil Region, 0.8 million tons of oil produced at the Changqing Oil Region, and 0.8 million tons of oil produced at the Tarim Basin Oil Region.
2. In 2007, Sinopec shall supply PetroChina with 1.12 million tons of domestic onshore crude oil, including 0.5 million tons produced at the Tahe Oil Region and 0.5 million tons produced at the Shengli Oil Region, 60,000 tons produced at Jilin (Yaoyintai) Oil Region, 40,000 tons produced at Inner Mongolia (Baiyinchagan) Oil Region, and 20,000 tons produced at Sinopec Southern Exploration and Production Company (Baise).
3. The parties hereto shall, in principle, make available crude oil of the above supply and take delivery thereof on an evenly distributed basis. The quarterly mutual supply of crude oil may be adjusted as necessary by mutual agreement thereon and in light of the availability of crude oil resources, price and the State's macro-economic planning requirements.

II. QUALITY OF CRUDE OIL

Matters with respect to the quality of the crude oil to be supplied hereunder shall be handled pursuant to applicable provisions of SY7513-88 Technical Conditions of Crude Oil at Wellhead.

III. QUARTERLY SUPPLY AGREEMENTS; SALES AND PURCHASE CONTRACTS ON AN ENTERPRISE-BY-ENTERPRISE BASIS

Quarterly supply agreements shall be entered into by and between PetroChina Natural Gas & Pipeline Company and the Production and Management Department of Sinopec. After the quarterly plans have been made known to their respective subsidiaries, PetroChina's regional companies (including its oil fields, refineries and pipeline companies) and Sinopec's subsidiaries (including its oil fields and refineries) will enter into specific sales and purchase contracts. The total quantities and varieties of crude oil to be supplied under such contracts shall be consistent with those specified under the above quarterly supply agreements.

IV. PRICE OF CRUDE OIL

The price of crude oil to be supplied hereunder shall be settled on the basis of the standard crude oil price published by the National Development and Reform Commission each month and the crude oil premium mutually agreed between the parties.

V. PAYMENT GUARANTEE

Payment of the price of crude oil to be supplied hereunder shall be made on a timely basis and pursuant to principles agreed upon by the parties hereto. PetroChina and Sinopec agree to be guarantors, and to take ordinary guarantee liabilities for the failure of timely payment of the price of crude oil and other payments by their respective oil refineries. The payer shall make timely payments to the payee upon receipt of and pursuant to the payment notice.

SHARE PURCHASE AGREEMENT

THIS SHARE PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") dated as of August 23, 2006 (the "Execution Date"), is made by and between (1) 819 LUXEMBOURG S.A R.L., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Luxembourg with company registration number B105 323 and having its registered office at 12, rue Leon Thyès, L-2636, Luxembourg (the "Seller"), and (2) PERVINAGE HOLDING B.V. a company incorporated and registered in the Netherlands (with company number BV 1388899 and having its registered office at Rokin 55, 1012KK Amsterdam (the "Buyer") (the Seller and the Buyer taken together being the "Parties", and each individually, a "Party").

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, CNPC International Ltd, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Cayman Islands ("CNPCI"), entered into an arrangement agreement dated August 21, 2005, with PetroKazakhstan Inc. ("PKZ"), a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Province of Alberta, Canada (the "Arrangement Agreement");

WHEREAS, the transactions contemplated under the Arrangement Agreement were completed on October 26, 2005 (the "Completion of the Arrangement");

WHEREAS, under the terms of a memorandum of understanding executed by CNPCI and JSC National Company KazMunaiGas, a company organized and existing under the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan ("KMG") dated October 15, 2005 (the "MOU"), CNPCI agreed to sell or cause its Controlled Affiliates to sell to KMG or its nominee and KMG agreed to purchase that number of shares equal to 33% (on a fully diluted basis) of the issued and outstanding common shares of PKZ;

WHEREAS, under the terms of a consent letter executed by the Seller and KMG on May 12, 2006 (the "Consent Letter"), CNPCI and KMG agreed that 818 Acquisition Inc. (a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Province of Alberta, Canada, with company registration number 2011871056) ("818") and PKZ would amalgamate under the laws of the Province of Alberta (the "Amalgamation"), and that the company formed as a result of the Amalgamation (the "Company") would become the owner of all of the assets and liabilities of PKZ and 818, except for the shares of PKZ;

WHEREAS, the Amalgamation was completed on June 29, 2006;

WHEREAS, the Company is a corporation with authorized capital consisting of an unlimited number of common shares of which 74,228,000 common shares are issued and outstanding and no preferred shares are issued and outstanding;

WHEREAS, upon the completion of the Amalgamation, the Seller was the registered and beneficial owner of all of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company;

WHEREAS, CNPCI owns 100% (one hundred per cent) of the issued and outstanding share capital of the Seller;

WHEREAS, subsequent to the MOU, CNPCI and KMG agreed that the Seller would sell to KazMunaiGaz PKI Finance BV, a company organized and existing under the laws of the Netherlands ("KMGS") 33% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company, being equal to 24,495,240 common shares of the Company (the "KMG Shares");

WHEREAS, for this purpose CNPCI, the Seller, KMG and KMGS entered into an interest purchase agreement dated July 5, 2006, pursuant to which the Seller agreed to sell and KMGS agreed to purchase the KMG Shares (the "Interest Purchase Agreement");

WHEREAS, on July 5, 2006, pursuant to the Interest Purchase Agreement, KMGS purchased the KMG Shares;

WHEREAS, upon completion of the sale of the KMG Shares to KMGS pursuant to the Interest Purchase Agreement, the Seller is the registered and beneficial owner of 67% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company, being equal to 49,732,760 common shares of the Company (the "Sale Shares");

WHEREAS, CNPCI and KMG entered into a memorandum on July 5, 2006 (the "PKOP Memo") with respect to a proposed reorganization (the "PKOP Reorganization") of PetroKazakhstan Oil Products (a limited liability partnership established and existing under the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan with its principle address at 5th kilometer, Lengerskoye Shosse, Shymkent, SKO, 161011, the Republic of Kazakhstan) ("PKOP") and the proposed PKOP Reorganization has not yet been carried out as of the date of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Seller has agreed to sell and the Buyer has agreed to buy the Sale Shares under the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements and other good and valuable consideration contained in this Share Purchase Agreement, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE II

PURCHASE AND SALE OF THE SALE SHARES

Section 2.1 Purchase and Sale of the Sale Shares

Subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and in reliance on the covenants, representations and warranties contained herein, the Seller shall sell, convey, transfer, assign and deliver to the Buyer, and the Buyer shall purchase and acquire from the Seller, all of the Seller's ownership rights and interest in and to the Sale Shares, free and clear of all Liens other than Liens created by the Shareholder's Agreement or imposed by applicable Laws.

Section 2.2 Purchase Price for the Sale Shares

The total consideration for the Sale Shares shall be an amount in cash equal to US$ 55 per each Sale Share constituting the Sale Shares, and constituting an aggregate purchase price of US$ 2,735,301,800 (the "Purchase Price").

The Parties agree that the Buyer shall have no obligation to pay any other amount to the Seller in addition to the Purchase Price with respect to the payment for the Sale Shares and the assignment and assumption set forth in Section 2.4 below, including without limitation, any interest with respect to the Purchase Price for the period from the Execution Date to the Closing Date.

Section 2.3 Payment of the Purchase Price

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Buyer shall pay or shall procure the payment of the Purchase Price in USD and/or RMB in immediately available funds to the Seller or to a person designated by the Seller in writing to receive the Purchase Price on its behalf, in accordance with Section 3.1(c). The parties agree to use the mid-point exchange rate between US$ and RMB published by the People's Bank of China on the Closing Date for any currency conversions required for the payment of the Purchase Price.

Section 2.4 Assignment and Assumption of Rights and Obligations under the PKOP Memo.

The Seller agrees to assign and the Buyer agrees to assume all of the Seller's rights and obligations under the PKOP Memo.

The assignment and assumption shall become effective from the Closing Date.

If the PKOP Reorganization is completed prior to the Closing, the Seller and the Buyer agree that at Closing, the Seller will transfer all of its rights, benefits and interests derived from the PKOP Memo (including the 50% equity interest in Valsera Holding B.V. and any consideration or payment received directly or indirectly from KMG or KMG's Affiliate for the transfer of the 50% equity interests in Valsera Holding B.V.) to the Buyer for no additional consideration. If the PKOP Reorganization is not completed prior to the Closing, the Seller and the Buyer agree that the Buyer shall carry out the PKOP Reorganization in accordance with the PKOP Memo in the place of the Seller, and shall be entitled to, and responsible for, all of the benefits and burdens thereunder.

ARTICLE III

CLOSING

Section 3.1 Closing

The Seller shall use its reasonable endeavors to obtain the co-operation of KMG to take all necessary action (including executing necessary documentation) to effect the assignment and assumption by the Buyer of rights and obligations of the Seller under the PKOP Memo.

(a) The Closing shall consist of the transfer of the Sale Shares and payment of the Purchase Price pursuant to Articles II and III of this Agreement (the "Closing").

(b) Unless this Agreement is previously terminated in accordance with its terms, the Closing will occur in Beijing, the PRC on the Closing Date; provided, that in no event shall the Closing Date occur after the Longstop Date.

(c) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Closing:

(i) the Seller shall sell and the Buyer shall purchase the Sale Shares;

(ii) the Buyer shall pay the Purchase Price, in immediately available funds, to the Seller by wire transfer to such account(s) in accordance with such instructions as the Seller may provide; and

(iii) each Party shall transfer and deliver to the other Party the documents set out in Section 3.2 of this Agreement.

Section 3.2 Closing Deliveries

(a) On Closing, the Seller covenants and agrees to deliver to the Buyer the following:

(i) certified copies of all necessary approvals which the Seller and the Buyer should obtain, with the necessary cooperation and assistance from the Buyer, with respect of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement in accordance with the applicable Laws including without limitation: the MEMR Letter and an approval from Competent Authorities regulating competition and/or anti-monopoly in relation to the transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

(ii) a certified copy of the resolution adopted by the Seller, its board of directors and/or other governing body, as appropriate, evidencing the due authorization of the Seller to enter into and perform all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, taking such actions as are required of it on the Closing Date, and the execution, delivery and performance of all other agreements, instruments or other documents contemplated hereby including the sale and transfer of the Sale Shares to the Buyer;

(iii) a certified copy of the Articles and bylaws of the Company;

(iv) a notice signed by a duly authorized officer of the Seller stating that all of the conditions as set out in Article IX have either been satisfied or waived by the Seller;

(v) certificates of a duly authorized officer of the Seller as required under Section 8.1;

(vi) a share certificate representing the Sales Shares duly registered in the name of the Buyer;

(vii) a certificate of status or equivalent in respect of the Seller dated as of the Closing Date or the Business Day prior to the Closing Date;

(viii) a certified copy of the signed resolution of the directors of the Company approving the transfer of the Sale Shares to the Buyer;

(ix) a certified copy of the shareholders register for the Company updated to include the transfer of the Sale Shares to the Buyer as contemplated by this Agreement;

(x) to the extent agreed by the Seller's Canadian legal counsel, the original legal opinion issued by the Seller's Canadian legal counsel to the Buyer in a form and substance satisfactory to both Parties; and

(xi) a certified copy of the Shareholder's Agreement.

(b) On Closing, the Buyer covenants and agrees to deliver to the Seller the following:

(i) the purchase price

(ii) certified copies of all necessary approvals which the Buyer and the Seller should obtain, with the necessary cooperation and assistance from the Seller, with respect of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the PRC;

(iii) a certified copy of the resolution adopted by the Buyer, its board of directors and/or other governing body, as appropriate, evidencing the due authorization of the Buyer to enter into and perform all of its obligations under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, taking such actions as are required of it on the Closing, and the execution, delivery and performance of all other agreements, instruments or other documents contemplated hereby;

(iv) a notice by a duly authorized -officer of the Buyer stating that all of the conditions as set out in Article VIII have either been satisfied or waived by the Buyer; and

(v) a certificate of status or equivalent in respect of the Buyer dated as of the Closing Date or the Business Day prior to the Closing Date.

Section 3.3 No partial completion

Both Parties agree that neither Party shall be obliged to complete the sale and purchase of any of the Sale Shares unless the sale and purchase of all of the Sale Shares is completed simultaneously.

Section 3.4 Rights to terminate

Either Party may terminate this Agreement by a written notice to the other Party at any time before Closing if any Material Adverse Effect occurs. A non-breaching Party may terminate this Agreement by a written notice to the other Party at any time before Closing if any of the following circumstances arises or occurs at any time before Closing, namely:

(i) any failure to meet any of the conditions set out under Articles VIII or IX (as the case maybe) of this Agreement by the breaching Party unless otherwise waived in writing by the non-breaching Party;

(ii) any material breach by the breaching Party of its obligations under this Agreement, including without limitation any material breach by the breaching Party of its Warranties under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV

INDEMNITY

Section 4.1 Representations and Warranties

The Seller hereby represents and warrants to the Buyer as of the Execution Date and the Closing Date as to the matters referred to under Article V (the "Seller's Warranties") and the Buyer hereby represents and warrants to the Seller as of the Execution Date and the Closing Date as to the matters referred to under this Article VI (the "Buyer's Warranties") (collectively, the "Warranties").

Each Warranty shall be separate and independent and (except as expressly otherwise provided) no Warranty shall be limited by reference to any other Warranty. Each Party acknowledges that the other Party is relying upon its Warranties in connection with the sale and purchase of the Sale Shares.

For the avoidance of doubt, any references in Article V and VI to the Company should also include PKZ prior to the Amalgamation.

Section 4.2 Indemnity

Subject to Section 4.3, each Party undertakes to the other (without limiting any other rights of the other Party in any way including rights to damages for breach of any Warranty or on any other basis) that, if there is a breach of any Warranty, it shall pay or procure payment in cash to the other Party on demand a sum equal to the aggregate of (i) the amount which would be necessary to put the other Party into the financial position which would have existed had there been no breach of the Warranty; and (ii) all costs suffered or incurred by the other Party, directly or indirectly, as a result of or in connection with the breach of Warranty. The amount to be paid in accordance with this Section shall be paid in full without deduction or retention (except as required by Law or as otherwise expressly permitted under this Agreement). Each Party hereby waives and relinquishes any right of set-off or counterclaim which it may have in respect of the payment of any such amount.

Notwithstanding the above, each Party shall not be entitled in any event to damages or other amounts in respect of any claim or claims under any of the Warranties unless and until: (i) the aggregate amount of all such claims exceeds US$10 million; or (ii) the amount of any individual claim exceeds US$1 million.

Section 4.3 Limitation of Liability

(a) The Buyer acknowledges that, in entering into this Agreement, and all documents and instructions required to effect the sale and purchase of the Sale Shares (such documents and instructions together with this Agreement being the "Transaction Documents"), it does not rely on, and shall have no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, or assurance (whether of fact or of Law and whether made incorrectly or negligently) of the Seller or any of its Affiliates, other than as expressly set out in this Agreement (including without limitation the Seller's Warranties set out in Article V of this Agreement) and/or other Transaction Documents.

(b) The Seller shall not be liable for any punitive, indirect or consequential losses (including loss of profit) arising from any breach of any provision of the Transaction Documents, other than as expressly set out in this Agreement (including without limitation the Seller's Warranties set out in Article V of this Agreement) and/or other Transaction Documents.

(c) The maximum aggregate amount for which the Seller shall be liable for all damages, costs, expenses, or losses (direct or indirect) arising from any breach of the Transaction Documents shall be an amount equal to the Purchase Price.

(d) The Seller shall not be liable for any damages, costs, expenses or losses (direct or indirect) if and to the extent that a claim would not have arisen or the damages, costs, expenses and/or losses would have been less but for acts or omissions of the Buyer or its Controlled Affiliates.

(e) The Seller shall not be liable for any damages, costs, expenses or losses (direct or indirect) to the extent that such claim would not have arisen but for a change in, or in any Competent Authorities' interpretation of, any Laws.

Notwithstanding the above, nothing in this Agreement shall operate to limit or exclude any liability for fraud.

Section 4.4 Notification

Each Party undertakes to notify the other Party in writing promptly if it becomes aware of any circumstance arising after the date of this Agreement which would cause any Warranty (if the Warranties were repeated with reference to the facts and circumstances then existing) to become untrue or inaccurate or misleading in any material respect.

ARTICLE V

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE SELLER

Section 5.1 Organization and Authority

The Seller is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the Laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation, with full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and any documents or instruments required by this Agreement to be delivered by it to the Buyer, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 5.2 Due Authorization; Binding Obligation

The execution, delivery and performance by the Seller of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Seller. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Seller. This Agreement constitutes the valid and binding obligations of the Seller, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the qualification, however, that the enforcement of the rights and remedies created hereby is subject to bankruptcy and other similar laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights and remedies of creditors and that the availability of the remedy of specific enforcement or of injunctive relief is subject to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought.

Section 5.3 Non-Contravention

To the best knowledge of the Seller, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Seller and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not, with or without the giving of notice or the lapse of time, or both:

(a) except as otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, violate, conflict with, result in the breach of or constitute a default under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any Authorization or obligation of the Seller, the Company or its Controlled Affiliates to any Person or result in the creation of any Lien upon any property or assets of the Seller, the Company or its Controlled Affiliates under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (1) the charter documents, certificate of incorporation or by-laws or other constitutive documents of the Seller, the Company or its Controlled Affiliates, or (2) any covenant or agreement to which the Seller, the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates is a party or by which the Seller's, the Company's or its Controlled Affiliates' property or assets are bound, or (3) any Laws in respect of which the Seller, the Company or its Controlled Affiliates are subject, other than, in the case of clauses (2) and (3) above, any such items that, individually or in the aggregate, would not result in a Material Adverse Effect or would not adversely affect the ability of the Seller, the Company or its Controlled Affiliates, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby;

(b) except as otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, lead to the exercise of any termination or disposition right by any Person with which the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates has established a joint enterprise or joint venture;

(c) to the best of the Seller's knowledge and belief after making reasonable enquiries, result in the loss of any applicable Tax preferential treatment, Tax deduction or Tax exemption or result in any increase in applicable Taxes with respect to the Company or its Controlled Affiliates;

(d) give rise to any right of termination or acceleration of indebtedness, or cause any third party indebtedness owing by the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates to come due before its stated maturity or cause any available credit to cease to be available which is material to the Company or its Controlled Affiliates taken as a whole; or

(e) result in the imposition of, give rise to or trigger any Encumbrance upon any asset or property of the Company or its Controlled Affiliates, or restrict, hinder, impair or limit the ability of the Company or its Controlled

Affiliates to carry on their respective businesses as and where it is now being carried on.

Section 5.4 Regulatory Approvals and Third Party Consents

(a) On the Closing Date, no consent, approval, order or authorization of, or declaration or filing with, any Competent Authority is required to be obtained by the Seller, the Company or its Controlled Affiliates in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation by the Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby except those have been duly obtained by the Seller, the Company or its Controlled Affiliates prior to the Closing.

(b) To the best knowledge of the Seller, no third party consents are required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation by the Seller, the Company or its Controlled Affiliates of the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 5.5 Title to the Sale Shares

The Seller is the registered and beneficial owner of the Sale Shares, such Sale Shares having been validly issued and outstanding as fully paid shares. The Seller has good and marketable title, free and clear of any Liens (other than those created by the Shareholder's Agreement) and there are no shareholders agreements (except the Shareholder's Agreement), pooling agreements, voting trusts or other agreements or understandings with respect to the voting of the Sale Shares. The Sale Shares constitute 67% (sixty seven percent) of the common shares of the Company issued and outstanding as of the Closing Date and there are no other securities of the Company outstanding as of the date hereof.

Section 5.6 Organization of the Company and its Controlled Affiliates

To the best knowledge of the Seller, each of the Company and its Controlled Affiliates has been duly incorporated or formed under all applicable Laws, is validly subsisting and has full corporate or legal power and authority to own its properties and conduct its businesses as currently owned and conducted. The Seller has disclosed in Schedule 3 to this Agreement to the Buyer the names, jurisdictions of incorporation and other particulars of the Company and to the best knowledge of the Seller, such disclosure is true, accurate, complete and not misleading.

Section 5.7 Delisting of PKZ Shares

The shares of PKZ have been delisted from each of the Toronto Stock Exchange, New York Stock Exchange, London Stock Exchange, Frankfurt Stock Exchange and the Kazakhstan Stock Exchange. The Company is not a reporting issuer in Canada or the equivalent thereof in the United States, the United Kingdom, Germany or Kazakhstan.

Section 5.8 Listed Shares

No shares of the Company, its Material Controlled Affiliates or to the best knowledge of the Seller, any other Controlled Affiliates are listed on any internationally recognized securities exchange.

Section 5.9 Share Structure

To the best knowledge of the Seller, the share structure of the Company and the information disclosed in this Agreement regarding the Company and (where applicable) its Controlled Affiliates are complete, authentic and accurate.

To the best knowledge of the Seller, all of the outstanding shares of capital stock and other ownership interests of each of the Company and its Controlled Affiliates are validly issued, fully paid and all such shares and other ownership interests owned directly or indirectly by the Company or its Controlled Affiliates are owned free and clear of all material Encumbrances and there are no outstanding options, rights, entitlements, understandings or commitments (contingent or otherwise) regarding the right to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any such shares of capital stock or other ownership interests in any of its Controlled Affiliates, except those disclosed in the Disclosed Documents or publicly disclosed by the Seller. Except as disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, there are no options, warrants, purchase rights, subscription rights, conversion privileges, exchange rights or preemptive rights or other rights, agreements, arrangements or other commitments of a similar nature to which the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates is bound relating to the issued or unissued share capital of the Company or such Controlled Affiliates or obligating the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates to issue any shares of, or other equity interest in, the Company or the Controlled Affiliates or securities or obligations of any kind convertible into or exchangeable for any shares of the Company, any Controlled Affiliates or any other Person, nor is there outstanding any stock appreciation rights, phantom equity or similar rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments based upon the book value, income or any other attribute of the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates. There are no outstanding bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness of the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates having the right to vote (or that are convertible for, exercisable into or exchangeable for securities having the right to vote) on any matter on which the holders of the Company shares may vote

Section 5.10 Title to Property and Assets

The Company, its Material Controlled Affiliates and to the best knowledge of the Seller, any other Controlled Affiliates of the Company have clear title to their respective property and assets necessary for the conduct of their respective businesses and operations, and except as otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, there are no outstanding Encumbrances affecting such property and assets.

Section 5.11 Maintenance of the Company, and its Material Controlled Affiliates and its Controlled Affiliates

(a) To the best knowledge of the Seller, except as otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, the business, properties and assets of the Company and its Material Controlled Affiliates have, at all times following the Completion of the Arrangement and as at the Execution Date and the Closing Date, been maintained, as they have been previously maintained by the management, board of directors and shareholders of the Company and the Material Controlled Affiliates prior to the Completion of the Arrangement. Furthermore, to the best knowledge of the Seller, since the Completion of the Arrangement, the Company and its Material Controlled Affiliates have not (other than as disclosed in the Disclosed Documents):

(i) conducted their businesses not in the ordinary and regular course of business consistent with their past practice;

(ii) transferred, sold or otherwise disposed of or encumbered any shares of the Company or its Material Controlled Affiliates other than as contemplated in respect of the transaction contemplated under this Agreement;

(iii) incurred indebtedness that was not budgeted for by the Company as at October 15, 2005, made significant capital expenditures and/or acquired or disposed of any asset, in each case in excess of US$20 million or outside the ordinary course of business;

(iv) executed crude sale or sale of petroleum products, shipment, processing or transportation contracts for a term exceeding three (3) months;

(v) declared or paid dividends unless otherwise agreed by the Parties;

(vi) concluded third party management agreements or out-of-court settlements in an amount exceeding US$ 10 million;

(vii) initiated any Action for claims in excess of US$ 10 million, except where the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates has taken judicial or arbitral action to protect itself from losses; or (viii) entered into transactions with Affiliates for a value in excess of US$ 10 million.

(ix) incurred any debt, liability or loss which would cause a Material Adverse Effect;

(x) entered into any loan agreement for an amount exceeding US$ 10 million;

(xi) made any capital investment or undertakings exceeding US$ 10 million;

(xii) incurred any increase in or modification of the compensation payable or to become payable by the Company or any of its Material Controlled Affiliates to any of their respective directors, officers or employees, or any grant to any such director, officer or employee of any increase in entitlements under, or general institution of, retention, severance or termination programs or pay, in each case, other than annual increases consistent with past practice or as a result of promotions in the ordinary course of business

(xiii) incurred any adoption by the Company or any of its Material Controlled Affiliates, of any increase in or modification of any bonus, pension, retention, insurance or benefit arrangement (including the granting of stock options, restricted stock awards or stock appreciation rights) made to, for or with any of their respective directors, officers or employees, in each case, other than annual increases consistent with past practice, as required under Law or collective agreements, or as a result of promotions in the ordinary course of business;

(xiv) incurred any material revaluation by the Company or any of its Material Controlled Affiliates of any of their assets;

(xv) utilized any swaps, options or other financial instruments except for the purpose of their respective normal business operations.

(b) With respect to JV KazGerMunai LLP and Turgai Petroleum, and all other Controlled Affiliates of the Company that are not Material Controlled Affiliates of the Company, the Seller represents and warrants that, to the best knowledge of the Seller, since the Completion of the Arrangement and as at the Execution Date and the Closing Date, and except as otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, the Seller has not voted in favor of or otherwise given its consent to, or caused or permitted its directors or officers to vote in favor of or otherwise give consent to, JV KazGerMunai LLP, Turgai Petroleum or any other Controlled Affiliates of the Company that is not a Material Controlled Affiliate of the Company, undertaking an action that would, if the representations and warranties in this Section 5.11 had been made by JV KazGerMunai LLP, Turgai Petroleum or any other Controlled Affiliates of the Company that is not a Material Controlled Affiliate of the Company, result in any such representation and warranties being untrue or incorrect.

Section 5.12 No Litigation

Unless otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, there is no claim, litigation, arbitration, investigation or other proceeding (whether or not relating to the operation of its business, environment, taxation, employment, intellectual property or otherwise) pending or threatened against or relating to the Company or its Controlled Affiliates which would, if adversely determined, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or to the best knowledge of the Seller, any other Controlled Affiliates of the Company. To the best knowledge of the Seller, neither the Company, its Controlled Affiliates, nor their respective properties or assets is subject to any outstanding judgment, order, writ, injunction or decree which has or would, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company or its Controlled Affiliates, or prevent or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 5.13 No Contingent Debt

To the best knowledge of the Seller and unless otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, neither the Company nor any of its Controlled Affiliates has any liabilities or obligations of any nature (whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise) except (i) liabilities or obligations set forth in the audited consolidated balance sheet of the Company as of December 31, 2005, or (ii) liabilities or obligations incurred since December 31, 2005 in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, none of which have had or would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and/or its Controlled Affiliates.

Section 5.14 Environment

To the best knowledge of the Seller, all operations of the Company and its Controlled Affiliates have been, and are now, in compliance in all material respects with all applicable Laws with respect to environment protection, except where the failure to be in compliance would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. Neither the Company nor any of its Controlled Affiliates is subject to any proceeding, application, order or directive which relates to environmental health or safety matters, and which may require any material work, repairs, construction or expenditures; or any demand or notice with respect to the breach of any Laws applicable to the Company or its Controlled Affiliates, including, without limitation, any regulations respecting the use, storage, treatment, transportation, or disposition of hazardous substances.

Section 5.15 Insurance

To the best knowledge of the Seller, the Company has maintained sufficient insurance coverage to cover the potential risks in relation to their production and operation in accordance with good business practices in international oil industry. All policies of insurance in force as of the date hereof naming the Company as an insured shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be cancelled or otherwise terminated as a result of transactions contemplated hereby, other than such cancellations as would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company.

Section 5.16 Taxes

To the best knowledge of the Seller, the Company, its Controlled Affiliates, JV KazGerMunai LLP and Turgai Petroleum timely filed, or caused to be filed, all tax returns required to be filed by them (all of which returns were correct and complete in all material respects) and have paid, collected, withheld or remitted, or caused to be paid, collected, withheld or remitted, all taxes, that are due and payable, collectible and remittable in each case, except for any such tax returns or taxes, the non-filing or non-payment of which have not had and would not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on them, or which are being contested in good faith, and the Company has provided adequate accruals in accordance with applicable accounting rules in its consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2005 for any taxes for the period covered by such financial statements that have not been paid, whether or not shown as being due on any tax returns.

Section 5.17 Pensions

To the best knowledge of the Seller, the Company and its Material Controlled Affiliates have, according to applicable Laws and related agreements, paid for all pensions and benefits relating to their respective employees, except as otherwise in the Disclosed Documents. There is no Action pending or threatened in respect of any of the pension plans of the Company, or their assets which would, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company.

Section 5.18 Intellectual Property Rights

(a) To the best knowledge of the Seller, all of the intellectual property rights used or required by the Company and its Material Controlled Affiliates for its business are valid, enforceable, in full force and effect. There is no infringement by the Company, or its Controlled Affiliates, of any intellectual property rights owned or used by any third party and no proceedings, claims or complaints have been brought or threatened to the Company or its Controlled Affiliates in relation to the same.

(b) To the best knowledge of the Seller, the Company and its Material Controlled Affiliates are not aware of any unauthorized use of any of such company's intellectual property rights by any third party or of any activity or proposed activity of any third party which infringes, invalidate or dilutes any right comprised in any such intellectual property rights.

Section 5.19 Material Contracts

(a) To the best knowledge of the Seller, all agreements, arrangements and understandings of a material nature or having a value in excess of USD 10 million entered into by the Company and each of its Material Controlled Affiliates constitute legal, valid, effective and binding obligations of such company, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents; and provided, however, that the enforcement of the rights and remedies created thereby are subject to bankruptcy and other similar laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights and remedies of creditors and that the availability of the remedy of specific enforcement or of injunctive relief is subject to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought. The Company and its Material Controlled Affiliates have performed in all material respects all respective obligations required to be performed by them to date under such material contracts and are not in breach or default in any material respect thereunder.

(b) In relation to any agreements, arrangements and understandings of a material nature involving the Company or its Material Controlled Affiliates, except for those matters otherwise disclosed in the Disclosed Documents, to the best knowledge of the Seller, there is no such agreement, arrangement or understanding:

(i) which, if terminated, will cause a Material Adverse Effect on the Company;

(ii) the terms of which would be prohibited by the application of Article 81(1) and/or Article 82 of the EC Treaty or any applicable Laws having similar effect, whether or not such material contract has been notified to the relevant competition authority;

(iii) which is a contract that contains any non-competition obligations or otherwise; or

(iv) which is a partnership agreement or joint venture agreement.

Section 5.20 Articles of Association

The Articles of the Company as at the Closing Date are in the form attached to this Agreement as Schedule 4 without modification or amendment.

Section 5.21 Amalgamation

The Amalgamation has been completed in accordance with applicable Laws. As of the date immediately following the Completion of the Amalgamation, the Company was the owner of all of the assets and liabilities previously held or attached to each of PKZ and 818, except for the shares of PKZ. Any and all Authorizations or other administrative authority required from any Competent Authority, as well as any and all consents required from third parties regarding the Amalgamation have been obtained by the Seller and or the Company. There are no outstanding liabilities of the Seller, the Company and its Controlled Affiliates in relation to the Amalgamation.

Section 5.22 Financial Statements

To the best knowledge of the Seller, the audited consolidated statements of income and retained earnings and cash flows of the Company for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003 and the audited consolidated balance sheets of the Company as at December 31, 2005, 2004 and 2003, were prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP consistently applied and fairly present in all material respects the consolidated financial condition of the Company at the respective dates indicated and the results of operations and cash flows of the Company (on a consolidated basis) for the periods covered.

Section 5.23 Books and Records

To the best knowledge of the Seller, the financial books, records and accounts of the Company and its Controlled Affiliates, in all material respects, (i) have been maintained in accordance with good business practices on a basis consistent with prior years, (ii) are stated in reasonable detail and accurately and fairly reflect the material transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company and its Controlled Affiliates and (iii) accurately and fairly reflect the basis for the Company's financial statements. The Company has devised and maintains a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that (i) transactions are executed in accordance with management's general or specific authorization; and (ii) transactions are recorded as necessary (A) to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with applicable accounting rules, or any other criteria applicable to such statements and (B) to maintain accountability for assets. The Company's and its Controlled Affiliates' corporate records and minute books have been maintained substantially in compliance with applicable Laws and are complete and accurate in all material respects.

Section 5.24 Employment

To the best knowledge of the Seller:

(a) the Company is not a party to any written or oral policy, agreement, obligation or understanding providing for severance or termination payments to, or any employment agreement with, any director or officer of the Company;

(b) except as set forth in the Disclosed Documents, there are no contracts of employment entered into by the Company or its Controlled Affiliates with any of its director and / or employee which would entitle such director / employee to receive enhanced benefits or payments upon the Company entering into this Agreement or any of the other documents contemplated by this Agreement to which the Company is a party or upon the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby;

(c) neither the Company nor any of its Controlled Affiliates: (i) is party to any collective bargaining agreement with a term that expires within the 12-month period following the date of this Agreement; or (ii) has any current, pending or threatened strikes (including official or unofficial strikes or other labour relations difficulties), work stoppage, slowdown or lockouts, union representation or organizing activities or unlawful labour practices or actions that, in the case of (i) and (ii), would, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company; and

(d) neither the Company nor any of its Controlled Affiliates is subject to any claim for wrongful dismissal, constructive dismissal or any other tort claim, actual or threatened, or any litigation, actual or threatened, relating to employment or termination of employment of employees or independent contractors other than those claims or such litigation as would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company.

Section 5.25 Licenses

To the best knowledge of the Seller, the Company and each of its Controlled Affiliates owns, possesses, or has obtained and is in compliance in all material respects with, all licenses, permits, certificates, orders, grants, approvals and other authorizations of or from any Competent Authority necessary to conduct its businesses as now conducted or as proposed to be conducted, other than those the failure to own, possess, obtain or be in compliance with would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. No suspension or cancellation of any of the above permits is pending or threatened except where the suspension or cancellation of any of such permits have not had and would not be reasonably expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on the Company.

Section 5.26 No Default

To the best knowledge of the Seller, none of the Seller, the Company and any of its Controlled Affiliates is in default under, and there exists no event, condition or occurrence which, after notice or lapse of time or both, would constitute such a default under any material contract, agreement or license to which it is a party or by which it is bound which would, if terminated or upon exercise of a right made available to a third party solely by a reason of such a default due to such default, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company. None of the Seller, the Company or any of its Controlled Affiliates is in violation of its respective constitutional documents or any applicable Laws which could have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company.

Section 5.27 Due diligence information

To the best knowledge of the Seller, all information and documentation provided to the Buyer or its Affiliates during the preparation and negotiation of this Agreement including without limitation all information provided to the Buyer, its Affiliates and/or their advisers for due diligence purpose was provided by the Seller, the Company and their Affiliates in good faith and is true, accurate, complete and not misleading in all material aspect.

Section 5.28 PKOP Memo

No third party consent is required with respect to the arrangement and assumption under Section 2.4 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE BUYER

Section 6.1 Organization and Authority

The Buyer is a private company with limited liability duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the Netherlands, with full corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and any documents or instruments required by this Agreement to be delivered by it to any other Parties, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 6.2 Due Authorization; Binding Obligation

The execution, delivery and performance by the Buyer of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Buyer. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Buyer. This Agreement constitutes the valid and binding obligations of the Buyer, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the qualification, however, that the enforcement of the rights and remedies created hereby is subject to bankruptcy and other similar laws of general application relating to or affecting the rights and remedies of creditors and that the availability of the remedy of specific enforcement or of injunctive relief is subject to the discretion of the court before which any proceeding therefor may be brought.

Section 6.3 Non-Contravention.

To the best knowledge of the Buyer, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Buyer and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not, with or without the giving of notice or the lapse of time, or both, violate, conflict with, result in the breach of or constitute a default under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any Authorization or obligation of the Buyer to any Person, or result in the creation of any Lien upon the property or assets of the Buyer under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (1) the charter documents, certificate of incorporation or by-laws or other constitutive documents of the Buyer, or (2) any covenant or agreement to which the Buyer is a party or by which the Buyer's property or the assets are bound, or (3) any Laws in respect of which the Buyer is subject, other than, in the case of clauses (2) and (3) above, any such items that, individually or in the aggregate, would not result in a Material Adverse Effect or would not adversely affect the ability of the Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

Section 6.4 Regulatory Approvals.

On the Closing Date, the Buyer is not required to obtain any Authorization (except those have been duly obtained by the Buyer prior to the Closing), in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Buyer, or the consummation of the transactions by Buyer contemplated hereby.

ARTICLE VII

FURTHER AGREEMENTS AND ASSURANCES

Section 7.1 Further Assurances for Closing

The Parties shall, and shall make commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any necessary third party shall, do, execute, perform and deliver, at each Party's own cost, all such further deeds, documents, assurances, acts and things as may reasonably be required by the Parties to give effect to this Agreement and to ensure that the Buyer receives the right, title and interest to and in the Sale Shares on and from the Closing.

Section 7.2 Government Filings, Approvals and Notices

Each of the Parties shall cooperate and assist each of the other Parties and their respective Affiliates, and use its reasonable endeavors to obtain as promptly as practicable all Authorizations of any Competent Authority required in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including, by (i) providing reasonable assistance in preparation of any required filings and submissions, (ii) promptly making all filings or submissions required of such Party to any applicable Competent Authority, provided that each Party shall use reasonable endeavors to make all such filings and submissions available to the other Party for review and comment prior to such filing or submission, and (iii) seeking to avoid the entry of, or seeking to have vacated or terminated, any decree, order or judgment that would restrain, prevent or delay the Closing. In addition, each of the Parties shall promptly notify the other Parties and upon request of such Parties shall promptly furnish copies of any notices or other written communications from any Competent Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 7.3 Confidentiality

(a) Each Party undertakes that it shall not, and shall procure that none of its Affiliates shall, disclose to any Person (other than those whose province it is to know the same on a "need-to-know" basis for the proper implementation of this Agreement) or use or exploit for any purpose whatever any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the activities and discussions of the Parties related to the performance of this Agreement or any trade secrets or confidential knowledge or any financial or trading information relating to the business or affairs of any other Party ("Confidential Information") which such Party (or its Affiliates) may receive or obtain as a result of negotiating or entering into or arising from this Agreement, and shall use its reasonable endeavours to prevent its (and their) employees and agents from so acting; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to JV KazGerMunai LLP and Turgai Petroleum, it is acknowledged that the Seller and the Company are unable to procure the compliance by such entities with the provisions of this Section 7.3, since the Company and its Affiliates do not have Control of JV KazGerMunai LLP or Turgai Petroleum; and provided, further, that the Seller shall not directly or indirectly take any affirmative action that causes a breach of this Section 7.3 by JV KazGerMunai LLP or Turgai Petroleum.

(b) Each Party shall (and shall procure that its Affiliates shall):

(i) procure that anyone coming into receipt of Confidential Information from such Party as permitted by Section 7.3(a) shall be informed upon receipt that such information is Confidential Information; and

(ii) procure that any Person to whom disclosure is made by such Party as permitted by Section 7.3(a) shall comply with the provisions of this Section 7.3 in respect of such Confidential Information as if such person was a Party.

(c) For avoidance of doubt, no Party shall be entitled to disclose Confidential Information to an Affiliate that is not under its Control, provided, however, that any Party shall be entitled to disclose Confidential Information to an Affiliate that is not under its Control provided that such Party shall ensure that such Affiliate complies with the provisions of Section 7.3(b).

(d) The restrictions in this Section 7.3 shall continue to apply after the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, and shall only terminate five (5) years after the date of termination of the Shareholder's Agreement, but shall cease to apply earlier with respect to information or knowledge:

(i) which may properly come into the public domain through no fault of or breach of this Section 7.3 by the Party so restricted;

(ii) which a Party (or other Person properly receiving the information as permitted by Section 7.3(a) or Section 7.3(c) is required to disclose by applicable Laws or by any Competent Authority or where required by the rules or regulations of any stock or securities exchange or listing authority applicable to a Party or its Affiliate;

(iii) which is independently developed by the relevant Party or acquired from a third party which is not subject to an obligation to keep such Confidential Information confidential, to the extent that it is acquired with the right to use or exploit or disclose the same;

(iv) where the disclosure (subject to Section 7.3 (b)) is in confidence to a Party's agents, advisors, officers, directors, managers, or employees of a Party or any of its Affiliates, or information reasonably required to be disclosed to such Persons for a purpose reasonably incidental to this Agreement, provided that the provisions in Section 7.3(b) are complied with; or

(v) where, in relation to the Buyer, the disclosure (subject to Section 7.3 (b)) is made to the independent directors and/or independent accountants of the Buyer or its Affiliates, and the information is reasonably required to be disclosed to such Persons for the purpose of evaluating the transactions contemplated under this Agreement, provided that the provisions in Section 7.3(b) are complied with.

ARTICLE VIII

CONDITIONS TO THE BUYER'S OBLIGATIONS TO PROCEED WITH THE CLOSING

The obligations of the Buyer to proceed with the Closing are subject to the satisfaction, or waiver in writing by the Buyer on or prior to the Closing Date, of the following conditions:

Section 8.1 Accuracy of the Seller's Warranties

The Seller's Warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects (and those qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct in all respects) as of the Execution Date and the Closing Date as though made as of such dates (unless specific dates are otherwise indicated in the text of such representations and warranties) and the Seller shall have delivered to the Buyer a certificate to that effect, dated as of such dates, and signed by a duly authorized officer of the Seller.

Section 8.2 Government Approvals

Any and all necessary Authorizations or other administrative authority required from any Competent Authority to proceed with the transactions contemplated hereby (including without limitation approvals from Competent Authorities regulating competition and/or anti-monopoly in relation to the transaction contemplated by this Agreement) shall have been obtained by the Seller and/or the Company and are in full force and effect. The Buyer agrees to provide necessary cooperation and assistance to the Seller and/or the Company in accordance with Section 7.2 of this Agreement for the fulfillment of this condition.

Section 8.3 No Legal Proceedings

No injunction shall be in effect prohibiting or restraining the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and no Action shall have been commenced or threatened by any Competent Authority to restrain or challenge the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or seeking to obtain material damages from the Buyer or its Affiliates or the Company or its Affiliates if such transactions are consummated.

Section 8.4 Consents under Shareholder's Agreement

Each of the parties to the Shareholder's Agreement shall have given and executed all necessary consents and approvals to the sale of the Sale Shares under this Agreement as required under the terms of the Shareholder's Agreement.

Section 8.5 Execution of Assignment and Assumption Agreement

The Assignment and Assumption Agreement should have been executed by its parties as required under the terms of the Shareholder's Agreement in connection with the sale of the Sale Shares to the Buyer under this Agreement.

ARTICLE IX

CONDITIONS TO THE SELLER'S OBLIGATIONS TO PROCEED WITH THE CLOSING

The obligations of the Seller to proceed with the Closing are subject to the satisfaction, or waiver in writing by the Seller on or prior to the Closing Date, of the following conditions:

Section 9.1 Accuracy of the Buyer's Warranties

The Buyer's Warranties shall be true and correct in all material respects (and those qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct in all respects) as of the Execution Date and the Closing Date as though made as of such dates (unless specific dates are otherwise indicated in the text of such representations and warranties) and the Buyer shall have delivered to the Seller a certificate to that effect, dated as of such dates, and signed by the duly elected and authorized general director of the Buyer.

Section 9.2 Government Approvals

Any and all necessary approvals which the Buyer should obtain with respect of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of the PRC have been obtained by the Buyer and are in full force and effect. The Seller agrees to provide necessary cooperation and assistance to the Buyer in accordance with Section 7.2 of this Agreement for the fulfillment of this condition.

Section 9.3 No Legal Proceedings

No injunction shall be in effect prohibiting or restraining the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and no Action shall have been commenced or threatened by any Competent Authority to restrain or challenge the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or seeking to obtain material damages from the Seller or its Affiliates or the Company or its Affiliates if such transactions are consummated.

Section 9.4 Execution of Assignment and Assumption Agreement

The Assignment and Assumption Agreement shall have been executed by its parties as required under the terms of the Shareholder's Agreement in connection with the sale of the Sale Shares to the Buyer under this Agreement.

ARTICLE X

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 10.1 Effectiveness of the Agreement.

This Agreement enters into full force and effect on the Execution Date.

Section 10.2 Severability

It is expressly understood and agreed that any condition or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction shall not affect the enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions hereof nor shall it affect the validity or enforceability of the offending term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction. The Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify such severed term, section or provision or Article of this Agreement so as to give effect to the original intent of the Parties with a view to completing the transaction contemplated in this Agreement.

Section 10.3 Entire Agreement

This Agreement (including the Schedules and Exhibits attached hereto) and the Shareholder's Agreement constitute the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, whether oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof.

Section 10.4 Assignment

This Agreement may not be assigned, in whole or in part and including without limitation by operation of Law, without the prior written consent of the other Parties, which consent may be withheld for any reason or no reason.

Section 10.5 Survival.

The representations, warranties and covenants set forth in this Agreement are deemed repeated on the Execution Date and the Closing Date (unless specific dates are otherwise indicated in the text of such provisions and taking into account all of the facts and circumstances existing as of such dates) and, subject to the following paragraph, shall survive for eighteen (18) months following the Closing Date. If, during the eighteen (18) months following the Closing Date, a Party discovers a breach of any representation, warranty and/or covenant set forth in this Agreement, that Party may commence an arbitration under Section 10.12 in respect of such breach at any time up to twenty four (24) months following the Closing Date.

Notwithstanding the above, the Parties hereby agree that:

- (i) any Party may at any time following the Closing Date bring an arbitration under Section 10.12 in respect of fraud in relation to the making or giving of any representation, warranty or covenant set forth in this Agreement;
- (ii) the representations and warranties set forth in Sections 5.5 or 5.6 shall survive the Closing Date and Buyer may at any time following the Closing Date bring an arbitration under Section 10.12 in respect of a breach or breaches by the Seller of Sections 5.5 and / or 5.6;

- (iii) Section 7.3 of this Agreement shall survive the Closing Date in accordance with the terms of Section 7.3(d); and
- (iv) Sections 10.2, 10.3, 10.5, 10.8, 10.10 through 10.15 shall survive indefinitely following the Closing Date.

Section 10.6 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement is executed in Chinese and in English, with 1 (one) copy in each language for each Party hereto. In the event of any discrepancies between the English and any other version, the English shall prevail.

Section 10.7 Headings

The headings in this Agreement are included for convenience of reference only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 10.8 Waiver; Requirement of Writing

This Agreement cannot be changed or any performance, term or condition waived in whole or in part except by a writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change or waiver is sought. Any term or condition of this Agreement may be waived at any time by the Party hereto entitled to the benefit thereof. No delay or failure on the part of any Party in exercising any rights hereunder, and no partial or single exercise thereof, will constitute a waiver of such rights or of any other rights hereunder.

Section 10.9 Finder's Fees; Brokers

The Parties represent and warrant that there are no claims (or any basis for any claims) for brokerage commissions, finder's fees or like payments in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby resulting from any action taken by it or on its behalf. The Seller shall indemnify and hold the Buyer harmless and the Buyer shall indemnify and hold the Seller harmless with respect to its respective representations and warranties set forth in this Section 10.9.

Section 10.10 Notices

Any notice, request, consent, waiver or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be effective only if it is in writing and personally delivered or sent by facsimile or sent, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by recognized overnight courier service, postage or other charges prepaid, and shall be deemed given when so delivered by hand or facsimiled, or when received if sent by mail or by courier, as follows:

Section 10.11 Applicable Law

This Agreement will be construed and interpreted in accordance with and governed by the laws of the People's Republic of China.

Section 10.12 Arbitration

(a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, including in relation to the interpretation, breach, termination or validity of any term of this Agreement shall be resolved through friendly consultation. Such consultation shall begin immediately after one Party has delivered to the other Party a written request for such consultation.

(b) If within thirty (30) Business Days following the date on which such notice is delivered the dispute cannot be resolved, the dispute shall be submitted to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission ("CIETAC") for arbitration in accordance with its arbitration rules.

(c) The arbitration tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators. Each Party may nominate one arbitrator in accordance with CIETAC arbitration rules and shall agree on a third arbitrator who shall be the presiding arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on the third arbitrator, the relevant provisions of CIETAC arbitration rules shall apply.

(d) The languages of arbitration shall be Chinese. The arbitration place shall be in Beijing.

(e) The arbitral award is final and binding upon the Parties.

(f) During the course of consultation or arbitration, this Agreement shall continue to be performed except for the matters which the Parties are disputing and which are undergoing consultation or arbitration.

Section 10.13 Waiver of Sovereign Immunity

Each Party hereby represents and acknowledges that it is acting solely in its commercial capacity in executing and delivering this Agreement and in performing its obligations hereunder, and each such Party hereby irrevocably waives with respect to all disputes, claims, controversies and all other matters of any nature whatsoever that may arise under or in connection with this Agreement and any other document or instrument contemplated hereby, all immunity it may otherwise have as a sovereign, quasi-sovereign or state-owned entity (or similar entity) from any and all proceedings (whether legal, equitable, arbitral, administrative or otherwise), attachment of assets used in a commercial capacity, and enforceability of judicial or arbitral awards.

Section 10.14 Public Announcements

(a) None of the Parties shall make any press release or public announcement with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby without (a) in the case of the Buyer, obtaining the prior written approval of the Seller and (b) in the case of the Seller, obtaining the prior written approval of the Buyer, and (c) ensuring compliance with the provisions of Clause 12.2 of the Shareholder's Agreement, except in each case as may be required by applicable Laws or the applicable regulations of any securities exchanges. In relation to announcements after the Closing Date, approvals under this Section 10.14 shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(b) If a Party is required to make a public announcement in a manner permitted by Section 10.14(a), that Party shall to the extent practicable and permitted by applicable Laws or the applicable regulations of any securities exchanges notify the other Party and provide the other Party with a copy of the announcement as soon as reasonably practical after the announcement is made.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the obligations in this Section 10.14 shall continue to apply after the Closing Date or any termination of this Agreement, without limit in time.

Section 10.15 No Third-Party Beneficiaries

Nothing in this Agreement will be construed as giving any Person, other than the Parties hereto, their successors and permitted assigns, any right, remedy or claim under or in respect of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

2. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

- 2.1 The Acceding Party ParentCo confirms that each of the representations and warranties as set out in Clause 8.2 of the Shareholder's Agreement is true as of the date hereof.
- 2.2 The Acceding Party confirms that each of the representations and warranties set out in Clause 8.1 of the Shareholder's Agreement is true as of the date hereof.

3. ACCESSION AND ASSUMPTION

- 3.1. By operation of this Agreement, the Acceding Party and the Acceding Party ParentCo shall accede to the Shareholder's Agreement. The Acceding Party and the Acceding Party ParentCo acknowledge respectively that on and from the date hereof it shall be bound by the Shareholder's Agreement and undertake that it shall observe, perform, discharge and be bound by all obligations expressed to be undertaken by it respectively under the Shareholder's Agreement in all respects as if it had been an original party thereto.
- 3.2. By operation of this Agreement, on and from the date hereof the Transferring Party and the Transferring Party ParentCo hereby assign and the Acceding Party and the Acceding Party ParentCo hereby assume, respectively, all of the rights, interests, liabilities and obligations of the Transferring Party and the Transferring Party ParentCo respectively under the Shareholder's Agreement, whether actual, accrued, contingent or otherwise and whether arising before, on or after the date hereof as if the Acceding Party and the Acceding Party ParentCo had at all times been an original party to the Shareholder's Agreement.

- 3.3. Each of the parties to the Shareholder's Agreement hereby releases and discharges the Transferring Party and the Transferring Party ParentCo from its liabilities and obligations in and under the Shareholder's Agreement as assumed by the Acceding Party and the Acceding Party ParentCo respectively pursuant to Clause 3.2 and hereby accepts the performance by the Acceding Party and the Acceding Party ParentCo respectively of those liabilities and obligations in the place of the Transferring Party and the Transferring Party ParentCo with respect to the Shareholder's Agreement.

4. EXECUTION IN COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original hereof.

5. GOVERNING LAW

- 5.1. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States of America.
- 5.2. The provisions of Clause 14.2 of the Shareholder's Agreement shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement as if they had been set out in full herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed by their respective proper officers as of the day and year first above written.
